Senior Officers, Superlatives Are Picked

He Will Speak ...

But not for the Carolina Political Union's second anniversary celebration. According to a telegram received yesterday by his secretary, President Roosevelt will not be able to speak in Chapel Hill this spring because of other numerous duties.

ROOSEVELT WILL NOT BE ABLE TO MAKE TALK HERE

Heard Gets Wire Declaring Duties Are Too Pressing

Carolina Political Union Chairman Alex Heard yesterday received a telegram from the White House in Washington, stating that numerous other duties will prevent the President from speaking at the union's second anniversary celebration, which was to have been held this month.

The complete telegram, which was signed by M. H. McIntyre, Secretary to the President, read as follows:

"The President's commitments this month are such that

GYM COMMITTEE SUBMITS DANCE RULES TO HOUSE

Smoking, Alcohol Banned; Concessions Must Be Outside

The committee on the use of the new gymnasium for dances submitted its report to Dean R. B. House yesterday. The committee reported as follows:

1. Rules of the University Dance committee as previously published will continue to be effective.

2. Smoking in any part of the building except the cloak rooms and on the promenade around the roof of the pool will be prohibited.

3. The bringing of any alcoholic beverages into any University building is absolutely prohibited.

4. No food or soft drink con-

CORSAGE POLLS OPEN TODAY

Students To Express Views

University students will go to the polls today to give their approval or disapproval of sending corsages to girls attending dances on the campus.

Voting will be at a table in the lobby of the YMCA. Hours will be 9 to 3:30.

Boys will vote "Yes" or "No" on the following question:

"Do you favor the custom of sending corsages to your date at University dances?"

Coeds, who will cast their ballots in a separate box, will vote "Yes" or "No" on this question:

"Do you favor the custom of your date sending you corsages to wear at University dances?"

Juniors and seniors have been asked to vote in a separate poll on the following question:

"Do you plan to attend the junior-senior lawn party in Kenan stadium Friday evening?"

By DAVID STICK

(Special)—With J. Bush and J. Bush holding down the respective jobs of pitcher and catcher for them, the senior sadists from East Carrboro should make the faculty Red Sox of West Durham see double this afternoon when the two teams meet on Emerson field at 4 o'clock, in a baseball classic.

On the mound for the Sox (they misspelled it on the programs so it'll have to remain that way) will be Connie "Mac" Burwell, only female on the faculty team. Her slow balls, her drops, her fast balls, and her curves are said to spell misfortune for enemy batters.

Cheerleaders

Sox Cheerleaders Archibald Henderson, and George Coffin Taylor are both making their first appearance in big league competition, but Waterboy John Clark, is said to be a veteran of many innings.

Sadist manager "Bull" James said yesterday that with May Frolics just past, and junior-seniors looming up in the future, there is a slight possibility that his team's endurance might not be so good. If this turns out to be the case, "Bull's" only

Six New Members Initiated Into Sociology Group

Alpha Kappa Delta Inducts New Men At Big Affair Monday Night

Six new members were initiated into Alpha Kappa Delta, honorary sociology fraternity, Monday night at a lengthy banquet in the Carolina inn.

Dr. Ernest R. Groves of the department of sociology, as master of ceremonies, introduced the principal speaker, Dr. Frank W. Hoffer, professor of sociology at the University of Virginia and alumnus of Carolina. Dr. Hoffer's subject was "Roanoke, Va., a study of social structure and change."

Rabb Skit

According to Gordon Browder, secretary and treasurer of the fraternity, Stuart Rabb's skit imitating President F. D. Roosevelt was the highlight of the entertainment for the evening. A radio skit, "Big Broadcast of 1960," was also favorably received.

A burlesque of the report of the progress of the fraternity and the sociology department was given by Dr. Guy Johnson, faculty adviser of Alpha Kappa Delta. Dr. Rupert B. Vance later during the program re-

Bradshaw Speaks Before Interracial Conference

Conference Speaker

Dean Francis F. Bradshaw who spoke before yesterday's session of the interracial conference, contrasting Germany's racial attitude with that in America.

Nancy Schallert Named 'Miss Class Of '38'

By MARTIN HARMON

Yesterday afternoon the senior class selected Miss Nancy Schallert as "Miss Class of '38" and elected Joe Patterson permanent president of the class at a banquet last night.

Other permanent officers chosen were Andrew Bershak, vice-president; and Foy Grubb, secretary and treasurer.

Yesterday afternoon, to the music of Jere King and his orchestra, this year's graduates swam, dived and even danced at the class swimming party, and the senior week committeemen chose Miss Nancy Schallert of Winston-Salem "Miss Class of '38," the first bathing beauty title given at the University.

Banquet

The banquet, a steak dinner in Swain hall, opened with an official welcome by President Joe Patterson, who announced a softball game with the Duke seniors here next Tuesday afternoon.

Historian Stuart Rabb commented briefly on the class activities, and prophesied success for its members.

After the dinner, Joe Patterson presented a gift of appreciation to Swain Hall Manager C. H. Cooley for his service to the senior class and the University.

Superlatives

According to the poll last night, seniors believe Bob Magill to be the best executive; Andy Bershak, best all-round boy; Miss Olivia Root, most popular girl; John Bowles, laziest boy; the Bush Twins, best all-round girls; Tom Myers, hand-somest boy; Joe Murnick, biggest politician; Bob Magill, most dignified; Elizabeth Keeler, prettiest coed; Andy Bershak, best athlete; Pete Ivey, most popular boy; Margarita Samyoa, biggest party girl; and Ralph Sprin-

Meeting Closed Yesterday After Two-Day Session

Speaking before yesterday's session of the interracial conference, held at the University and Duke, Dean Francis F. Bradshaw contrasted Germany's policy of weeding out people according to the stock they come from and stated that "we in America believe that all races can absorb culture and beauty" and that the growing spirit of cooperation between the Negro and white races can go a long way toward "saving the world."

The conference, under the direction of Dr. N. C. Newbold of the State Department of Public Instruction and sponsored by the Division of Cooperation in Education and Race Relations collaborating with Duke and Carolina, came to a close yesterday following two days of meetings on the two campuses.

Racial Cooperation

Symphony Concert Will Be Given Tonight In Hill Hall

Dr. B. F. Swalin Will Conduct Orchestra

Harold Cone, University graduate student, will be the featured soloist of the University symphony orchestra concert tonight at 8:30 in Hill Music hall. The symphony will be conducted by Dr. Benjamin F. Swalin.

An outstanding feature of the program is the inclusion of the celebrated "Bolero" by Ravel. The composition has received more performances in the last 10 years than any other piece of modern music. The basis for the work is a Spanish dance rhythm. It will be recalled that the composer was a Basque on his mother's side and was tremendously interested in all forms of Spanish music.

"Pavane"

Another number of the program is "Pavane" a stately old dance style that was associated with events of public nature.
