

The Men's Glee Club Which Will Present Its Final Concert Tonight.

GLEE CLUB TO PRESENT FINAL CONCERT TONIGHT

Program To Begin At 8:30 In Hill Music Hall

The University Men's Glee club and Women's Glee club will give their final concert of the year tonight at 8:30 in Hill Music hall under the direction of Professor John E. Toms.

The first group of numbers, which will be sung by the Men's Glee club, will include "Now Thank We All Our God," Cruger; "With Hearts Uplifted," Shvedov, and "Hallelujah, Amen," from "Judas Macca-baeus," Handel.

"In May," Schumann; "The Harp That Once Thro' Tara's Halls," Dunhill; "Old King Cole," Dunhill; "Orpheus and His Lute," German; and "My Bonnie Lass She Smileth," German, will be sung by the Women's Glee club.

Mixed Chorus

The selections by the mixed chorus will be "Come, Chloris," Lawes; "Just as the Tide Was Flowing," Vaughn-Williams; and "Mother and Daughter," Hungarian folk song, arranged by Treharne.

The Men's Glee club will sing the last group, consisting of "Listen to the Lambs," Dett; "I Hear a Harp," Brahms, and "Soldiers' Chorus" from "Faust," Gounod.

Accompanist

Accompanists for the program will be Norville Price, David Beaty and Miss Kathleen Donahue.

There will be no admission charge.

Bids For Finals Are Still For Sale

Bids for the German club finals to be held June 2, 3 and 4 in the new gymnasium can still be secured, Morris Fitts, treasurer of the club announced yesterday.

Art Now Pledges Faith To Science

After consultation by telephone with Mr. Denson, director of the weather bureau at Raleigh, Dr. Koch announced that the Playmakers' final production of The Merry Wives of Windsor was set for tonight when Mr. Denson guaranteed fair weather. Thus Art at last pledges faith with its ancient enemy, Science.

Due to Monday's severe storm which swept all the way from Texas to the St. Lawrence river, it was necessary to postpone the production. The terrific wind threatened to demolish the 55 foot proscenium arch which had been constructed for the production, but was outwitted by Professor Harry Davis, who managed after much stress and struggle, to anchor the arch to the ground. Yesterday the Playmakers set about repairing the damages and repainting the ravaged scenery.

Organ

Fortunately the Hammond electric organ recently acquired by the Playmakers was boxed in a waterproof case and suffered

CHEMISTRY GROUP ELECTS OFFICERS

Vilbrandt Heads Alpha Chi Sigma

Charles Vilbrandt was elected president of Alpha Chi Sigma, professional chemistry fraternity, at a recent meeting. Other officers for the coming year are vice-president, Hubert Privette; recorder, Warren Bartz; treasurer, Charles Starnes; master of ceremonies Robert Goodwin; reporter, Glendon Kyker; editor of the Rosette, Ray Dudley; and graduate member of the reserve fund, Hax Latimer.

Three new members, George Aid, Ray Dudley, and Bulow Dy-sart, were initiated into the chapter. The basis of membership is outstanding ability in chemistry, high character, and personality.

Your Address, Please

All students should leave forwarding addresses at the Post Office in order to keep their mail from going to the Dead Letter office, it was announced yesterday.

PLANS UNDERWAY FOR "GREATER UNIVERSITY DAY"

Holiday Would Be Built Around Football Game

Plans are underway to have a "Greater University Day" next fall built around the State-Carolina football game, according to student body President Jim Joyner.

Joyner attended a conference in Raleigh yesterday afternoon to discuss the proposed holiday with Governor Clyde R. Hoey and state officials.

According to present plans, activities will center around the football game, with a ceremony at the half, a parade, and an evening dance.

While it is impossible to declare the day a state holiday, Governor Hoey will issue an official proclamation, affecting the three schools in the greater University.

Sponsors for the fete are to be selected from "Manteo to Murphy" with the whole day full of entertainment and festivity, and special transportation facilities will be provided to insure a large delegation from WCUNC, as well as Chapel Hill.

Di Senate Installs Officials; Assembly Elects Fall Speaker

Rankin Is Chosen Head, Nance Picked Speaker Pro-Tem

Amidst constitutional technicalities and blown out fuses, the Phi assembly, meeting last night on first floor New East, elected John Rankin, rising senior from Winston-Salem, speaker for fall quarter by a vote of 23 to 11. Jack Fairley presided as speaker.

Rankin, long active in the Phi, served as secretary-treasurer last year. Also nominated for the office were Ben Dixon, and Elmer Nance who declined in favor of Rankin.

Discussion

Elmer Nance was chosen speaker pro-tem after heated discussion on his ineligibility caused by his status in school as an unregistered student. Speaker Fairley refused the responsibility of deciding Nance's

Numerous Prizes Assured By Ivey

"Every performer a prize winner" is the motto devised by master showman Pete Ivey for the host of talented troopers, scheduled to appear in the final Variety Amateur and Pro show sponsored by Graham Memorial tomorrow night at 8 o'clock in Hill Music hall.

Ivey has assembled a great many of the winners in his former amateur shows in addition to several out-of-town performers for the show, including Jack Payton, national xylophnolist champion; Claude Dunnagan, imitator and pianist; and a string band from the Durham CCC camp.

Going, Going, Gong

George Steele, law student who has been interrupted by the gong on many campus amateur performances in the past, will make his final attempt of the year tomorrow night. Skits of all types and descriptions, a community sing directed by Bob duFour, and music from the University band will round out a program promised to be the best seen in many years.

Depressed Director Ivey had the following statement to make to the press yesterday: "We may have a good show, but it looks very bad for us at this time. We haven't had enough drill."

COEDS TO RECEIVE LETTERS, NUMBERS AT CLUB PICNIC

Outing Tonight Is In Honor Of New Members

Seven girls will be awarded letters and six will receive numerals tonight at a picnic given by the girls' monogram club in honor of its new members.

Letters will go to Misses Maria Tucker, Virginia Bower, Kathryn Fleming, Blanche Bullock, Tud Mease, Frances Roughton and Adele Austin. The new type monogram, a 5 by 5½ inch letter, will be a large UNC of Columbian blue banked on white flannel.

Blue flannel '38's, smaller than the letter, will go to Misses Betty Norcross, Elizabeth Berry, Nancy Lyons, Elsa Winters, Olive Cruikshank and Virginia Douglas.

Winners

Winners of letters have been winners of various athletic tournaments during the year, or have been out for a least two sports. Those receiving numerals have been runners-up in tournaments.

Picnic Tonight

The women's monogram club was formed this year during the winter quarter, and has at present seven members, Misses Ruth Duffee, Evelyn Barker, Louise Payne, Jean Bush, June Bush, Phyllis Hawthorne and Frances Roughton. These members, as well as the other members of the Woman's Athletic council are asked to attend the picnic tonight, meeting at Spencer hall at 5:15.

Extra Invitations

Extra commencement invitations will go on sale today at the YMCA from 8:30 until 1 o'clock, Paul Wolf announced yesterday. Fifty extra cardboard and 140 Dutch folder invitations will be available. He also expects to have calling cards ready for sale.

Almost Everybody

All persons and organizations having bills against the present junior class are asked to give them in itemized form to Jack Davison, SPE house, by noon tomorrow.

NEW AKG OFFICERS ARE SELECTED FOR COMING YEAR

Miss Katherine Fleming Chosen New President

Miss Katherine Fleming of Wilson, has been elected president of the local chapter of Alpha Kappa Gamma, women's national honorary fraternity, for the coming year. Other new officers will be: Miss Elizabeth Malone, Clarksdale, Miss., vice-president; Miss Rachel McLain, Charlotte, secretary and historian; and Miss Claire Whitmore, New Rochelle, N. Y., treasurer.

The local chapter will be host to the national convention of the order, to be held here for two days next fall. Around 40 delegates are expected to attend the convention, representing Alpha Kappa Gamma chapters at the University of South Carolina, Queens-Chicora college in Charlotte, and State Teachers college at Farmville, Va.

"Counseling As It Relates to School Life" will be the general theme of the two-day meeting, announced Miss Nancy Schallert, past president of the chapter. Dr. English Bagby of the psychology department and Dr. Ernest Groves of the sociology department will be the principal speakers.

Miss Schallert has been editor of the "Torchbearer," official publication of the fraternity, for the past year. Miss Ruth Crowell, another University member, edited the publication during 1936-37.

SENIOR OFFICERS MEET WITH ALUMNI

Saunders Talks On Affiliation

Senior class officers and members of the executive committee were guests last night at the Carolina inn of the General Alumni association of the University. Meeting with the seniors was J. Maryon Saunders, executive alumni secretary, who discussed the affiliation of the Class of 1938 with the Alumni association.

"Membership in the association," said Mr. Saunders, "is an individual membership. While the program sponsored by the Alumni association includes in its scope every class that has living members and every local alumni club, yet membership is a matter for individual choice."

Actual Members

"Actually alumni who belong to the association and receive regularly 'The Alumni Review,' pay annual dues of $3 a year."

Seniors Must Leave Addresses With Lear

All seniors who leave their addresses or mail their addresses to J. M. Lear's office, Bingham hall, will have their Yackety Yacks sent directly to them in July. The Publications Union board cannot risk sending yearbooks to seniors who do not leave addresses because of the insufficient and possibly inaccurate mailing information listed in the directory.
