

Rapp Unable To Play For Opening Dance Thursday; Club Obtains Al Kavelin

Band Leader Is Recovering From Appendicitis Attack

At a midnight meeting last night German club officials tentatively chose Al Kavelin and his orchestra to play for their opening dance in the finals series on Thursday replacing the originally scheduled Barney Rapp and his band.

Rapp's manager informed the club yesterday that the orchestra would be unable to fulfill its contract because of an attack of appendicitis suffered by the band leader several days ago.

In the meantime final plans are proceeding for the Friday and Saturday dances at which time Paul Whiteman and Hal Kemp and their orchestras will provide music.

Broadcasts

Whiteman will originate both his nationwide radio broadcasts from the bandshell of the new gymnasium on Friday evening and for that reason the tea dance will occur from 7 till 8:30 o'clock, the evening dance from 10 till 2 o'clock. German club officials urge all dancers to be inside the gymnasium at least by 7:15 and 10:15 since a large crowd is desired for both broadcasts and no one will be admitted during the presentation of the coast-to-coast program.

Bids for the entire dance series can still be secured from the following students on the campus: John Umpstead, Billy Worth, Jimmy Coan, David Thorp, Fred Parrish, Frank Rogers, Luncford Crew, Fletcher Gregory, Page Hancock, Morris Fitts, and Haughton Ehringhaus.

Last night on his nation-wide broadcast Paul Whiteman announced to the country that he would be in Chapel Hill next week-end to play for the University of North Carolina "prom."

Student Art On Display Now In Person Gallery

Work Of Frank Bowne Outstanding In Photographic Division Of Exhibit

The student art exhibit which is now on view in the Person hall art gallery includes many interesting pictures of campus life and scenes in Chapel Hill.

Outstanding among the photographs is Frank Bowne's picture of "Charlie" who is lighting a cigarette. The light from the match can be seen through his fingers, and it lights up his face so much that the small curl on his forehead can be plainly seen. Other photographs taken

Upper Dorm Rooms Have Been Filled

All dormitory rooms have been filled in all the upper dormitories, T. H. Evans, General Cashier, announced yesterday.

Besides Aycock which is reserved for freshmen next year, Graham and Everett are still largely vacant. This is a larger number of spring reservations than ever before. 7

GILMORE, OTHER OFFICERS TAKE OVER CPU POSTS

Alex Heard Given Token For Service Rendered Union

The old order changed in the Carolina Political union yesterday, and the new one came up to take its place.

This year's chairman Alex Heard, vice-chairman Miss Nancy Nesbit, and secretary Miss Margaret Henderson, made way for 1939 chairman Voit Gilmore, vice-chairman Sam Hobbs, and secretary Harry Gattton. The union's treasurer Townsend Moore, who was recently re-elected, began serving his second term in that capacity.

Heard's farewell speech was short. He only said, "I guess it's time to turn things over to Voit." Gilmore's acceptance was short too. He only said, "Is there any old business," and left the rest up to the group he had become head of.

Comb and Brush

As a token of gratitude to Heard for his "excellent service to the union" the group presented him with an engraved comb and brush set.

Keys were distributed to union members who had served well for at least two quarters. Since this was the first time that union members had been

Graduation Regalia Available Monday

"Caps and gowns may be secured at the Book Exchange from Monday, May 30, to commencement day," Joe Patterson, president of the graduating class, announced yesterday. "The first time they will be needed is for the baccalaureate sermon on Sunday morning."

The price schedule for the regalia is: Bachelor's, $1.60; Master's, $2.00; and Ph.D.'s, $4.50.

Caps and gowns must be turned in at the Book Exchange either Tuesday night after commencement, or sometime Wednesday. 13

He's Heard Enough

Alex Heard, chairman of the C.P.U. for the past year, who yesterday gave the political reins to Voit Gilmore, newly-elected chairman.

Another Alumnus To Return

His name is Hal Kemp, he is an alumnus of the University, and leader of one of the top-ranking dance bands. Next Saturday he will bring his company, including Judy Star, his newest vocalist, to the campus and attempt to be heard over the noise of the many tapping toes at the final Germans.

Young Man, Who Entered University In 1922, To Help Play For Finals

By BILL SNIDER

In 1913 an eight-year-old boy was playing the mechanical piano in a cinema palace down in Marion, Alabama. Last Tuesday night almost 100 powerful radio stations from the Atlantic to the Pacific stood by while that same boy, now 33, raised his baton in New York and let music flood the nation.

His name is Hal Kemp, and after 25 years his purpose, to entertain, has remained the same; his method of doing it has changed radically.

It all began when Hal entered the University of North Carolina in 1922. Here he met Skinny Ennis, Saxie Dowell and Ben Williams who helped him organize his first band. It went over with a bang. The boys won

Pete Ivey Receives Mysterious Letter

The address on the letter received yesterday by the "Little Corporal" was simply "Pete," Chapel Hill, N. C. The stationery was "WCUNC" stationery and the letter was delivered to our own Pete Ivey in Graham Memorial.

There is no clue to the identity of the writer; she signed herself (?) "just curious." The letter has no purpose except to find out whether it would be delivered. So the DAILY TAR HEEL hopes that the writer will see this and know that her brainchild has flowered.

Presents Masks

Prof. F. H. Koch, of the Department of Dramatic Art, who will present Playmaker Masks to 32 outstanding students this afternoon at the annual Caper.
