

EDITORIALS:
• Frivolity of Youth
• What Do You Eat
• Breach of Etiquette

The Daily Tar Heel

WEATHER:
Continued Fair and Warmer Today and Tomorrow

Z 525

THE ONLY COLLEGE DAILY IN THE SOUTHEAST

VOLUME XLVII

EDITORIAL PHONE 4351

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1938

BUSINESS PHONE 4356

NUMBER 10

'Greater University Day' Set For Saturday

Party Men Take Committee Posts

Bill Cole, left, former Student party chairman, who yesterday resigned the vice-presidency of the Young Republican club and became chairman of the student advisory board. Studie Ficklen, right, head of the University party, who was appointed to head the student audit board.

Stodie Ficklen, right, head of the University party, who was appointed to head the student audit board.

Bill Cole Is Named Chairman Of Student Advisory Board

Joyner Releases Make-up Of Four Other Committees

Bill Cole, former chairman of the Student Party, was appointed chairman of the student advisory board, it was announced by student body President Jim Joyner last night.

The student advisory committee represents students' interests to the business administration and acts in an advisory capacity to the assistant controller, L. B. Rogerson. To this committee can be given credit for the path behind Bingham hall, efficient dormitory lighting systems, and various campus-wide improvements. Others on the board are Ned Hamilton and Vaughn Winborne.

Joyner also released the names of members of the other student

(Continued on last page)

HART ELECTED TO GOP POST

Succeeds Cole As Vice-President

At a meeting of the Young Republican club last night, Edward B. Hart, junior, from St. Augustine, Fla., was elected vice-president to succeed Bill Cole, who asked to be relieved of his executive duties.

The club is going to be co-sponsor with the CPU of Charles A. Jonas, Republican national committeeman, opposing Senator Robert R. Reynolds in the coming senatorial election, when he opens his campaign here Thursday week.

President Billy Gilliam announced plans for organization of other Young Republican clubs at Duke, State, and Wake Forest. Tentative plans for a membership drive and possible debates with Democrats were also discussed.

"Be There, Please"

All members of the Inter-dormitory council are requested to come to a meeting of the council at 7:30 tonight in Graham Memorial, "Puddin" Wales, president, announced yesterday.

Miss Virginia Bower Tapped By AKG; Chosen Woman's Association Vice-President

300 Coeds Attend First Quarterly Session Yesterday

Climaxing the first quarterly meeting of the Women's association late yesterday afternoon, Virginia Bower of Lexington was chosen vice-president of the organization to replace Anne Perry who was chosen last spring and who did not return to the campus this year.

Miss Bower, a Pi Phi, was also recently tapped into Alpha Kappa Gamma, served last year as co-chairman of the May Day committee, and has been prominent in YWCA and women's athletic activities.

Tentative Budget

Approximately 300 women students attended the meeting, at which the tentative budget for the coming year was presented and approved unanimously. Exact figures for this year's budget are not yet available because it is not known what the student fees will be.

The total income from fees for the Women's association is estimated to be over eleven hundred dollars. The appropriation for gifts and donations will be the largest set aside, reaching at least four hundred dollars. A flat sum of one hundred dollars was agreed on as the donation to the YWCA for the year, and the Women's Athletic association will receive $175.

An innovation in the women's

(Continued on last page)

MEDICAL SOCIETY TO HEAR JOHNSON

Physician To Speak Tonight At 7 O'Clock

Dr. Wingate M. Johnson, prominent physician and journalist of Winston-Salem, will be the guest speaker of the Whitehead Medical society tonight at 7 o'clock at its opening banquet of the year at the Carolina inn, according to Toastmaster Tom Thurston, president of the society. Other guests of the society will include faculty members of the Medical school.

Dr. Johnson will speak on the subject, "Recent Trends in Medical Practice" in which he intends to elaborate especially on the various arguments for and against socialized medicine.

Wake Forest Trustee

Since completing his medical training at the Wake Forest and Jefferson medical schools, Dr. Johnson has become increasingly important in North Carolina medical circles in the last few years, having served as the president of the North Carolina Medical Society in 1937. His writings have appeared in Harper's Magazine and the Atlantic Monthly as well as various medical journals. At present he is chairman of the board of trustees of Wake Forest college.

Officers of the Whitehead Medical society, composed of all medical students in the University, include Tom Thurston, president; J. B. Caldwell, vice-president; and Houston Buchanan, secretary-treasurer.

Honorary Group Holds Sunrise Service Sunday

At a sunrise service Sunday morning, Miss Virginia Bower of Lexington was tapped into the local chapter of Alpha Kappa Gamma, women's national honorary fraternity.

A minimum of seven University women leaders are tapped each year into the organization, which is planned along the lines of Mortar Board. Members are chosen for outstanding qualities of leadership, scholarship and personal merit.

Convention Host

During the year Alpha Kappa Gamma promotes women's activities on the campus and sponsors the May Day festival in the spring. This year the local chapter of the fraternity will be host to the other five chapters in their annual convention.

Present members of Alpha Kappa Gamma are Virginia Bower, Elizabeth Malone, Margaret Evans, Claire Whitmore, Rachel McLain, Katherine Fleming, and Nell Booker.

Any Takers?

Yesterday the following item came to the DAILY TAR HEEL business manager and though it was not accompanied by the accustomed fee for insertion, someone on this campus may be interested in the request:

"WANTED—Two boys to take to the Senior prom at the Woman's college on Saturday, October 15, preferably 5 feet 9 inches—good dancers—pleasing personalities and no complexes or mustaches. Send replies to Alice, Box 134, W. C. U. N. C., Greensboro."

Swinging Pennant - Plastered Bag

Day-Dreaming Dynamo Hits Campus En Route To Mexico

Playmakers To Hold Meeting Tonight

Anyone Interested In Playmaking Invited To Attend

The Carolina Playmakers will hold an informal "get-together" tonight for anyone interested in any phase of playmaking and other members of the group in Bynum gym from 7:30-9:30.

All staff members of the department of dramatic art will be present and each will give his special field and invite any student interested to help.

"Room Service" by John Murray and Allan Bouetz has been selected as the first production of the quarter. Tryouts will be held tomorrow at 4:00 and 7:30 in Bynum gym.

Anyone wishing to know something about the play can secure a copy in the reserve reading room, and all who wish to try out are urged to read the play so as to pick their parts.

CPU Chairman

Voit Gilmore, who yesterday announced initial plans for the Carolina Political Union's fall quarter activities, which include the opening address of Charles A. Jonas' campaign for the senate.

GOP CANDIDATE FOR SENATE TO OPEN CPU YEAR

Gilmore Announces Union Will Try Out New Voting Machine

Charles A. Jonas, Republican candidate for the United States senate opposing Robert R. Reynolds in the coming election, will officially open his campaign here Thursday week when he appears under the joint sponsorship of the Carolina Political Union and the Young Republican club.

Jonas, a prominent lawyer in Lincolnton and a Republican national committeeman, is to be the first speaker of the year for the CPU. He has been outstanding in Republican circles for some years, and GOP members from many cities in the state are expected to hear his keynoting speech.

CPU chairman Voit Gilmore

(Continued on last page)

FOOTBALL, GALA PROGRAM TO MARK FIRST FESTIVAL

Student Heads Of Three Units Compose Steering Committee

Meeting of the State and Carolina teams Saturday at Raleigh will be the occasion for the first annual "Greater University Day" when all three branches of

"I want to encourage every student at our branch who can to go over for the game and to remain for the festivities after, including the ball Saturday night," said Jim Joyner, president of the student body here yesterday.

the University unite for a gala celebration.

The game between the two brothers of the University, traditional rivals since their first clash in 1894, will be the outstanding event of the day which will include dances, parades, and judging of dormitory and fraternity decoration.

Along with the student bodies of State college and Carolina, a special train will bring many of the girls from the Woman's college at Greensboro. This will make complete the "three unit homecoming" as termed by Dick MacKenzie, State college senior, who originated the plan of a "Greater University Day."

Student Presidents MacKenzie is chairman of a steering committee including besides himself, the presidents of

(Continued on last page)

FRATERNITY BIDS STILL IN UNION

New Men Urged To Get Invitations

Rushing invitations for approximately 75 freshmen are still in the office of Bob Magill, director of Graham Memorial, due to change of address or other reasons, according to John Moore, president of the Interfraternity council. New men are urged to get them at once by going to Magill's office and signing for them.

The following men have bids awaiting them: R. S. Lambert, Grant Rogers, John R. Newsome, Cowdett K. Merrill, Sam B. Curran, Earnest C. Ford, Allison May, Dennis Vaughn, Lenox Rawlings, Vernon High, Charles M. Upchurch, Charles O. Rhyne, Jefferson Lee Umstead, Wadell Rigsbee, Gordon DeLoach, Herbert Smith, James C. Crone, Roger Neil, George E. Bullock, Irwin N. Katz, Henry L. Allen, W. Horace Hoskins, Roger N. Early, David B. Ricks, Henry Branch, Joseph Daniels Page, Earl C. Hardin, Frank Whitaker, Junius R. Summerson, Francis V. West, Claude A. White,

(Continued on last page)

Interested?

All persons interested in trying out for the Business Staff of the DAILY TAR HEEL are requested to meet in Room 214 in Graham Memorial at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

(Continued on page two)