

EDITORIALS:

- Practicing Participation.
- Hats for Carolina

The Daily Tar Heel

THE ONLY COLLEGE DAILY IN THE SOUTHEAST

WEATHER:

Partly cloudy and cooler Today; Continued Windy

VOLUME XLVII

EDITORIAL PHONE 4351

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1938

BUSINESS PHONE 4356

NUMBER 19

Pep Rally Ushers In Homecoming Tonight

Jonas Attacks New Deal Administration In CPU Speech

REPUBLICAN OPENS CAMPAIGN FOR SENATORSHIP

Asks Support Of North Carolina Conservatives

By JIM McADEN

Pleading with supporters of his party, conservative Democrats, and those believing in the Jeffersonian democracy principle to support him, Charles A. Jonas last night in Hill Music hall made his initial bid for election to the United States Senate while speaking under the sponsorship of the Carolina Political union.

"Political realignment in America is in process," said Jonas. "A new political issue has arisen and it cuts squarely across party lines. A philosophy of government new in America but as old in tyranny challenges our representative democracy." He attested that the present administration would "discard the Jeffersonian democratic philosophy of individual initiative, free enterprise, and individual freedom and liberty regulated within our written Constitution."

In introducing his subject, the would-be senator declared that he was running for office on a minority ticket because he

REPUBLICAN CLUB GIVES DINNER IN HONOR OF JONAS

Outstanding State GOP Leaders Speak At Banquet

Prior to his speech in Hill Music hall, Charles A. Jonas, candidate for the United States senate on the Republican ticket, was the guest of honor at a dinner given by the Young Republican club at the Carolina inn.

Several leading figures in the state GOP were present at the dinner to outline the policies of the party for the coming year. Among the speakers were Jonas, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Seawell, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Worth Henderson, L. L. O'Barry, and Collin Spencer. Seawell advised the

Executive Dorm Council Sets Up Budgets For Dormitories

New Audit Board Rule Requires Financial Record

Dormitory presidents met Wednesday night and budgets were established for each of the eight dormitories in the upper and lower quadrangles. Charles "Puddin'" Wales, president of the Interdormitory council, presided.

The following budget was created for each of the eight dormitories: footballs, $5.50; banquet, $50.00; homecoming, $5.00; dance, $35.00; Yackety-Yack, $4.85; Student-Faculty day, $7.50; prize for winner in Homecoming decorations, $2.50;

JONAS LOSING TO REYNOLDS IN CPU CAMPUS POLL

Voters Condemn British Action On Sudeten Problem

Persons who took part in the CPU current interest poll yesterday tended to be anti-New Deal, expressed their disinclination to replace Democrat Senator Bob Reynolds with his Republican opponent, Charles A. Jonas, and disapproved of the outcome of the recent European crisis.

Sudeten Problem

The first question asked was "Should Britain and France have allowed Germany to take the Sudeten area?", which was answered: yes, 166; no, 342. Only 27 persons replied positively to the question, "If gen-

(Continued on last page)

FROSH TO HOLD CARD PRACTICE

New Display To Be Inaugurated

A practice in order to catch any defects in the new display cards to be used for the first time tomorrow at the Homecoming game, will be held this afternoon at 3:30 in Kenan stadium. The plan has been put before freshmen assembly as this is the largest organized group of students on the campus and they have expressed themselves as being 100 percent behind the move. All other members of the student body are urged to cooperate with Pat Patterson and the other cheer leaders in putting the plan across.

The following directions for the use of the cards was released by Tom Meyers who has been working for several weeks on plans for making these cards a success:

Directions

"Please do NOT destroy the cards or throw them away during the game. Let the appointed men take them up in an orderly manner so as not to necessitate such a vast amount of work again. We would like to use the cards again for the Carolina-

(Continued on last page)

Scouts, Scouts, Scouts, Scouts, Scouts

Pictured above are two scenes from the first Carolina Boy Scout Jubilee held in Chapel Hill in the spring of 1934. The top photograph shows the Scouts lined up in preparation for mealtime at Swain hall. The lower picture shows a portion of the camp on the woman's athletic field.

Scouts On Hand For Big Jubilee

Today's Scout Jubilee Program

- 6:00 a. m.—Reveille
- 6:00 a. m.—Colors
- 6:30 to 7:15 a. m.—Breakfast, Swain hall
- 8:00 a. m.—Inspection of quarters
- 8:30 to 11:00 a. m.—Scout-O-Rama rehearsal, Herbert Stuckey directing, Fetzer stadium.
- 11:00 to 11:45 a. m.—Lunch, Swain hall
- 1:30 p. m.—Scout-O-Rama rehearsal continued, Fetzer stadium
- 4:00 p. m.—Scout parade
- 6:15 p. m.—Retreat, health call, Emerson stadium
- 8:00 p. m.—COLOSSAL Scout-O-Rama staged at Fetzer stadium
- 10:00 p. m.—TAPS!

The trading post will be open from 11:30 a. m. to 1:00 p. m. and from 6:30 p. m. to 7:30 p. m.

Kay'll Be Rooting Although—

He Won't Be Here Tomorrow

Wally Dunham, who Tuesday issued an invitation to Kay Kyser to lead the cheers at tomorrow's Homecoming Day game on behalf of the Monogram, Grail and University clubs, received the following reply by wire last night:

"Certainly appreciate your wanting me for the Carolina-Tulane game and there is nothing I would like better than to be a part of the Homecoming. However, it is absolutely impossible for me to leave New York as I must be on the bandstand at 6:30 Saturday. Will certainly be thinking of you and rooting for the whole team. And thanks again for the invitation. Sincerely, Kay."

Freshman On The Spot, Behind 8-Ball

An unnamed freshman caused quite a commotion in M. A. Hill's math class yesterday morning. Homework was called for by Professor Hill and the freshman maintained that he was unable to perform the assigned task because of the poor quality of the text book. In fact he said, "it's the lousiest math book that I have ever come across, and if I knew the author I'd sure tell him."

"That's easy," said Mr. Hill, "here he stands." The freshman had no statement to make for the press.

Patterson Is Not Selling UNC Hats

It is being rumored that Pat Patterson, head cheer leader, is trying to sell white crew hats with the letters UNC on the front to students making up the cheering section tomorrow. Patterson wishes to explain that this is not a commercial undertaking but that he merely thought it would add color to the game if as many as possible would wear these hats.

West to Talk Today

Dr. James E. West, chief Scout executive, will speak at freshmen assembly today.

Scout-O-Rama To Be Held Tonight On Fetzer Field

The Scouts are here! Fourteen hundred and eighty-six Scouts attending the Second Carolina Boy Scout Jubilee of region six had registered last night at camp headquarters at Emerson stadium. The registration number is expected to be

Pat Patterson, head cheer leader, will meet all the Boy Scouts this afternoon at 4:30 in Kenan stadium to practice yells to be used in tomorrow's game.

even higher when several other councils arrive today.

Dr. James E. West, chief executive of the Boy Scouts of America, will address the student body for a 20-minute period.

(Continued on page two)

GALA FESTIVITIES BEGIN AT 9:30 ON FETZER FIELD

Bonfire, Pajama Parade to Feature Celebration

Tonight promptly at 9:30 a giant pep rally will get underway at Fetzer field to usher in what apparently will be Carolina's greatest homecoming celebration and to get campus spirit at a peak for tomorrow's game with Tulane's Green Wave.

Pat Patterson, head cheerleader, urges that all students be on hand at Fetzer field immediately following the Scout-o-Rama which ends at 9:15. Due to a change in plans Patterson wants everyone to come directly to the field and be seated in the stands when the rally starts.

The rally will not end at the field. Immediately following the brief program of speeches and yells, a torchlight parade led by the University band will begin and continue on up through the campus, around by the fraternity houses on Columbia street, down Franklin street, and break up at Spencer hall. Patterson requests that pajama tops be worn

(Continued on page two)

MARK ETHRIDGE WILL SPEAK ON UNIVERSITY DAY

Half-Holiday Will Be Held Next Wednesday

The University will celebrate its 145th anniversary of the laying of the cornerstone of Old East, the first building on the campus and the oldest state university building in the United States, Wednesday, October 12.

Mark Ethridge, prominent radio and newspaper man, will be the principal speaker at the annual convocation in Memorial hall at 11 o'clock. Ethridge is vice president and general man-

(Continued on page two)

Frat Rushees Pledge Today; Coed Period Of Silence Is On

On Fraternities

This afternoon at 2 o'clock freshmen desiring to join a fraternity are requested to go to Memorial hall to be pledged.

After paying a pledging fee of $1.00, he will list the three fraternities he would like to join in the order of their preference. Then, from lists turned in by fraternities yesterday, he will be pledged to the chapter of his highest preference bidding him.

This choice will be final. He will then go to the house and receive the pledge button. However, freshmen are reminded that they are required by the Rushing Rules of the Interfraternity council not to speak to anyone of their choice until pledge buttons have been pinned on them.

On Sororities

At 11 o'clock tonight when the last group of rushees are delivered at their doors following the last party of sorority rush week, a period of absolute silence between sorority and non-sorority girls will begin, which is to last until Monday afternoon.

This silence period permits no communication of any kind between the parties, and includes all old and new sorority girls, whether they are being rushed or not.

Large Group

During the past week each of the local chapters of the national sororities, Chi Omega and Pi Beta Phi, has given four parties, and each time has narrowed its list of prospective sorority members. Since there is such a large

(Continued on last page)