

Nation's Spotlight On Big Five Tilts

Season Breezes On As Duke and State Invade Foreign Soil

By WILLIAM L. BEERMAN

Breezing along at a dizzy pace with mid-season contests looming in the near distance, the Southern conference football race pounds around another lap today with three major inter-sectional battles, involving Big Five teams, holding nation-wide interest.

Carolina tops the card with a virtually unpredictable game with the Green Wave of Tulane. The Greenies, beaten by Clemson and tied by Auburn, are due for a strong start on the come-back trail and will attempt to begin the trek against Ray Wolf. But the Tar Heels have a word to say about that, and take it from the team—Tulane will have to postpone its winning debut until a later date.

Duke-Colgate

In Buffalo today the Blue Devils of Duke university will strut before a capacity crowd while playing Colgate's Red Raiders. Wallace Wade, having spent two weeks in warm-up preparations with VPI and Davidson as victims, at last has a capable opponent with which to test the power of his '38 grid-ders. Colgate has dropped a game to the mastermen of Cornell, but even so is considered an outfit with power. Listen to the men who know, however, and a bet on Duke will be money wisely spent.

Courageous in the face of odds insurmountable, North Carolina State packed its duffle bag yesterday and headed for Tuscaloosa—and the Crimson Tide of Alabama. Doc Newton's boys face annihilation once more but next week have an even chance in a game with Wake Forest at Raleigh. 'Bama coach Frank Thomas would like mighty well to have another crack at the Rose Bowl title, which Cali-

NEW YORK ALUMNI HAVE BUSY FALL SEASON PLANNED

Organization Meets Tonight To Pick Leaders

New York alumni of the University have outlined a busy fall program.

The organization will hold its annual business meeting tonight at the Town Hall club and elect officers for the coming year. George Carmichael is the present president and other officers include Spier Whitaker and Nathan Mobley, vice-president; Albert M. Whisnant, treasurer; W. Howard Redding, secretary, and John W. G. Powell, assistant secretary.

Reserved Sections

The officers have announced plans for special reserved sections at Yankee Stadium and the Polo Grounds on October 15 and November 12 when the University football eleven plays New York university and Fordham, respectively. Other plans include a dinner-dance at the Hotel Ambassador following the Fordham game and alumni headquarters maintained at the Ambassador at both games.

A special play-by-play account of the Carolina-Duke game on October 29 will round out the fall program.

fornia won New Year's. Art Rooney and Kenneth Sands and Pat Fehley will pep things up for the Tide, but Herky Mosely, George Zivich, and Bill Slemmons will do more than offset the Wolfpack attack.

Clemson-VMI

Within the state, Clemson has an engagement with the Flying Squadron of VMI that has only one possible outcome—which is, of course, with Clemson on top. The Tigers, after bouncing Tulane around, lost out last Saturday to Bob Neyland's tremendous Tennessee squad. Tied 7-7 at the half, Clemson just didn't have enough extra man-power to stay on the same field with the Vols. Against VMI however, the South Carolinians will likely regain that swift stride that has made them the dark horse of the conference this year.

At Davidson, the Wildcats have prepared a de-luxe welcome for Erskine, and the aerial tactics will figure prominently in any points coming the way of Coach Gene McEver. A couple

Braswell Scholarship Winners

These four freshmen were awarded the Mark R. Braswell scholarships for being chosen best all-round boys in their respective schools. They are (left to right) Harry Snyder of High Point, Allen Keen of Raleigh, Franklin Williams of Landis, and Jack Connally of Morganton.

In Memorial of Dr. M. R. Braswell—

University Gets $20,400 For Scholarship Fund

DANCE BIDS $9 TO GRADS, SENIORS

No Bids Sold To Non-Members

Billy Worth, secretary of the German club, announced today that graduates and seniors may obtain bids to the fall dances, to be held on October 28 and 29, for $9.00, including the initiation fee. The admission and initiation fees for undergraduates will be the regular $13.00. No bids will be sold to those who are not members of the club.

Blue Barron and his Hotel Edison orchestra will play for the dances, featuring their well known "music of yesterday and today played in the Blue Barron way." The orchestra is known for its swing recordings.

Bids may be obtained from Harold Sager, Beta; Louis Jordan, Sigma Chi; Charles Lynch, Sigma Nu; Billy Worth, S. A. E.; Johnny Moore, D. K. E.; Johnston Harris, Phi Gam; Junius Tillery, Kappa Alpha; Louis Sutton, Zeta Psi; Bill Davis, Kappa Sigma; and Billy Campbell, Phi Delta Theta.

of excellent passers and twice that number of good receivers are the only bright spot in the dismal Davidson future for the season. The other Big Five team, Wake Forest, is in Columbia right now waiting for the whistle that sends them against the potent South Carolina eleven. The Deacons, conceded to have their strongest squad in the past decade, are once again on the spot; South Carolina, after a losing to Georgia last week by one point, is in no mood to bandy words—or footballs.

Round-up

Maryland hasn't made out so well as yet this season, and will ditto its record to date in the game with Syracuse today, at Syracuse. Richmond and Hampden-Sydney will run rings around each other and you can take your pick—which should be Richmond. VPI can get by on its face value in the tilt with William and Mary; it's at Richmond. And not so far away, at Lexington, to be exact, Washington and Lee meets its nemesis in West Virginia, the team that some said would blast the Pitt Panthers. The Hill Billy crew can run matters as they see fit.

Yesterday the Citadel played Presbyterian at Charleston and Furman met the University of Georgia at Athens.

20,000 people die each year from snake bites in India.

Thanks to Norma Shearer—

Students Can See Former Carolina Star On Screen

Don't Look for Bill Moore in the Cast Yet; He's Being Groomed to Play Tarzan

By WILLIAM L. BEERMAN

Flashing across the green grass of Kenan stadium today will be the 1938 Carolina football team, trying hard to turn Homecoming Day into a victory celebration. At the same time, flashing across the silver of the cinema screen, will be William Julius Moore, Carolina alumnus of 1936 who is trying to establish himself in the ranks of the Johnny Weissmuller's and the Buster Crabbe's.

Moore appears in the cast of "Touchdown Army," which is showing at the Carolina theater today. He is ably supported by Mary Carlisle, or vice versa.

A Long Story

Thanks to the University of North Carolina, a football, the Los Angeles Bulldogs, and Norma Shearer, Moore is a man who

Carolina's Own

Although he isn't gracing the covers of the Hollywood movie magazines yet, Bill Moore, former Carolina gridiron player, can be seen (if you know him) on the Carolina screen today.

EAT EARLY
THE CAFETERIA
—at the—
CAROLINA INN

Will Observe the Following
Meal Hours Today

Lunch From 11:30
Dinner From 5:30

Enna Jetticks Are Sold in Durham at Efird's

READY-SET-GO

IN Enna Jetticks

—AS SEEN IN HARPER'S BAZAAR

You saw them pictured in the current Harper's Bazaar. We'd like you to try these fine spectators and sports. With their light, easy lines and spirited styles, they're ready to GO—GO—GO—youthfully, comfortably.

OTHER STYLES
$5 TO $6
SIZES 1 TO 12
WIDTHS AAAAA TO EEE

Black, Brown, Wine or Blue Buccaneer.
Sizes 3 to 10; widths AAAA to EEE.

America's Smartest Walking Shoes Go Places Comfortably

Efird's

For Sniffles and Prevention of Colds

USE

Sutton's Ephedrine Nose Drops

Sutton's Drug Store

The Students' Drug Store

Milk drinkers seldom feel tired

DURHAM DAIRY PRODUCTS, INC.

DRINK

Coca-Cola

IN BOTTLES

Every Bottle Thoroughly Sterilized

DURHAM COCA-COLA & BOTTLING CO.