Close Tilt Climaxes Annual Homecoming

Winners Named In Town, Dorm, Frat Displays

By FRED BROWN

Carolina's 1938 homecoming celebration was climaxed yesterday afternoon with a brilliantly, hard fought, football game, witnessed by approximately 22,000 alumni, visitors and students.

Between the halves the winners of the keenly contested decorations contests were announced by Jimmy Davis, homecoming day chairman. The merchants contests consisted of two divisions; interior decorations and window displays. Ledbetter-Pickard was the winner of three game tickets, which was first prize in the interior division. In the window display, Thames clothing shop was the winner of first place, also three game tickets. Judges picked the winners in this contest Friday night.

Fraternities

Sigma Nu and Phi Gamma Delta carried away first and second honors respectively in the division for fraternities. First prize in this contest was a beautiful cup presented by the interfraternity council.

Old West and Everett took first and second prizes in the contest for dormitories. Though not yet confirmed, the first prize in this contest is expected to be a free movie.

Winners in the women's division were Chi Omega, first and Pi Phi second. A loving cup will also be presented to the first place winner in this group.

Bronco Brunner Leads Powerful Tulane Attack

By SHELLEY ROLFE

Unleashing a powerful touchdown drive with seven minutes to go in the ball game, the Green Wave of Tulane rolled over North Carolina 17-14 at Kenan stadium yesterday afternoon before 22,000 Homecoming day spectators. Led by Bronco Brunner, 180-pounds of churning, pile driving, dynamite from New Orleans, the Louisianans scored a touchdown in the first quarter, a field goal in the second, and came from behind in the fourth to push over a final game-winning marker.

Nyhan Kicks

Stan Nyhan's fine kicking led directly to the first Tulane six-pointer. The Green Wave quarterback booted a 50-yard punt out on the one yard line mid-way in the opening period. Lalanne fired right back with a kick to the Carolina 40, Brunner carrying it back to the 34.

Brunner powdered through center before being stopped by Lalanne. At this point, George Stirnweiss replaced Lalanne for his first appearance of the 1938 season. Gloden picked up four more yards. Then Brunner took a lateral, from Nyhan, stepped aside of every Carolina tackler and ended up over the goal line. Banker converted to send the Tulaners ahead 7-0.

'Miss Sally' Gives Staff Apples; First Return To Campus

Popular Former Secretary Fulfills Promise and Plans To Remain Three Weeks

It was apple day in the office of the DAILY TAR HEEL yesterday as Mrs. Sally Taylor Ray, who recently resigned as Dean A. W. Hobbes' secretary, returned for homecoming and brought the promised basket of apples to the Tar Heel staff.

"Miss Sally," for the last eight years one of Chapel Hill's most popular citizens, passed out autographed apples to all members of the staff.

Miss Sally will remain in Chapel Hill for three weeks, at least, until the Duke game on October 29.

"I'm certainly glad to be back," she said, for there's no place like Chapel Hill.

Duo-Pianists to Appear at 8:30 In Memorial Hall

By JESSE REESE

Pierre Luboshutz and Genia Nemenoff, who are among the newest of the first rank duo-pianists yet "in a class second to none," will open the quarter's student entertainment series tomorrow evening at 8:30 in Memorial hall.

The program will include Overture to "The Magic Flute" by Mozart-Busoni, the Allegro and Tempo di Menuette from J. C. Bach's Sonata in G Major, Scherzo by Mendelssohn, "The Flight of the Bumble Bee" by Rimsky-Korsakoff, and Ritual Fire Dance by Manuel de Falla.

Traveling Pianists

Both pianists have been ensemble players since their childhood. At the age of four, Pierre began to study violin with his father. His sister, Lea, now well known as a concert artist, played the violin; and another sister, Ana, played the cello. They needed a pianist to accompany them; so Pierre took piano lessons when he was 12 he was sent to the Conservatory in Moscow, (Continued on last page)
