GRAD WOMEN PLAN TO TAKE BIG PART IN CAMPUS LIFE

Club President Says Days Of No Social Recognition Over

Graduate Woman's club yesterday took its place among the organizations asserting that they mean to make themselves known on the campus this year.

The club announced its intention to become prominent in campus activities. "Heretofore graduate women have had practically no social recognition on the campus. They've just been here, and that's all," said Helen Andrus, president of the club and of the New Woman's dormitory.

Tomorrow, at a special meeting of the Woman's association, a vote will be taken on additional council members from the graduate group. This year the graduate women decided to consolidate, at least temporarily, the offices of president of the Graduate Woman's club and president of the New Woman's dormitory for the purpose of gaining more recognition on the campus and in women's affairs. Automatically the president of the Graduate Woman's club was put on the Woman's council.

The 159 graduate women here now form about 40 percent of the total number of women students, and their average age is much younger than it has been in the past.

Stirnweiss Throws Winning Pass; Umpire Dies

By SHELLEY ROLFE

(Special to the Daily Tar Heel)

YANKEE STADIUM, New York, Oct. 15.—George Stirnweiss, who learned his football at New York's Fordham Prep, came back to the big town this afternoon to lead the University of North Carolina to a 7-0 upset win over a heavily favored NYU team before 15,000 Yankee stadium fans.

It was a twenty-yard pass from Stirnweiss to George Radman over the goal line that brought the touchdown that won the game, and it was Stirnweiss' punting and quick kicking that set the Violets back time after time when their passing attack threatened the Carolina goal line.

Ed Boell led the Violets, his passing spear-heading three NYU scoring threats and his running helping to keep the New Yorkers dangerous. Ed Williams, brown bomber of the NYU backfield forces, dented the Tar Heel line the first half, but he was held out in the later parts of the game.

Harris Moriarity, umpire from Birmingham, dropped dead in the fourth quarter. Moriarity fell flat on his back running up the field and died of a heart attack.

Carolina played defensive ball most of the game. The NYU lads made 17 first downs to the Tar Heels' five, but four times during the game the Wolfmen stiffened in the shadows of their goal line to hold their slim lead.

After a scoreless first half, Carolina struck early in the third quarter to start a 39-yard drive that ended in a touchdown. Taking the ball on the NYU 41, after Horace Palmer had partially blocked Boell's punt, the Wolfmen moved the ball to the

REQUIREMENTS OF LOCAL PHI BETES WINS ACCEPTANCE

Standards Changed To Make Juniors More Select Group

The national executive committee of Phi Beta Kappa has accepted the regulations concerning eligibility and election passed by the local chapter at its meeting last May 2, and to be effective January 1, 1939.

The new rules do not apply to students who have become eligible since the spring quarter of last year. The local chapter will hold its elections for these eligibles late this fall quarter.

Contrary to student opinion grade requirements have not been raised but remain unchanged. The object of the change in requirements is to make the junior group more select.

May Make "F's"

In the future a grade of "F" does not disqualify eligibility if the student has an average of 92.5 or above. In determining the average grade "A" shall be reckoned as 97.5, "B" as 92.5.
