

EDITORIALS: Leaders - Figureheads Wolfe Commemoration Murphey Handicap

The Daily Tar Heel

WEATHER: Nice weather for ducks Today - It looks like rain.

VOLUME XLVII EDITORIAL PHONE 4351 CHAPEL HILL, N. C., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1938 BUSINESS PHONE 4356 NUMBER 31

Ward, Shore To Hold Run-Off Election Waltzing Contest To Be Held During Germans

EVENT TO BE SPONSORED BY MOVIE STUDIO

Preliminaries Will Be Held At Friday Dance

By LOUISE H. JORDAN For the first time in the history of the oldest university in the country, the campus German club will sponsor a waltzing contest during Fall Germans next week-end.

The occasion is in connection with the National Great Waltz competition now being held by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer upon the release of the picture "The Great Waltz," and the idea is to bring back the waltz in no uncertain terms at the expense of such muscular maneuvering as the "Little Apple" and "jitterbugging."

Preliminary tryouts will be held at the Friday night dance. Consequently, the dance will be open to all at three dollars per bid. Saturday night at the final contest only those underclassmen who may win the preliminaries will be admitted.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer will present the winners of this local contest an engraved cup and they are eligible to enter the state eliminations in Raleigh. Winners there will receive another cup and a trip to Washington to compete in the district finals as the guests of the Shoreham hotel, November 7. This particular zone comprises North Carolina, South Carolina, Virginia, Maryland, Delaware and the District of Columbia.

As a final competition, the winning team from this zone will be taken to New York city on December 14 to enter the grand finals to be held in Madison Square Garden, in competition with couples from the twelve zones in the country. The winning couple in New York will receive a three-month contract with Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer with the guarantee of appearing in at least one picture.

The requirements are simple: Contestants must be 16 years of age. Professional dancers are barred. The local competition is open to all students and residents of Chapel Hill and vicinity, and to dancers from any town in the state which does not run a local contest.

Judges for the contest will be announced soon. The new Pick theater will hold its opening with the showing of the Metro film, "The Great Waltz" on November 7 and 8.

After Long Planning And Hoping—

Graham Memorial Directors Favor Plans For Night Club

Union Would Place New Amusement In Upstairs Ballroom

Graham Memorial may sponsor a night club, Bob Magill, director of Graham Memorial, announced last night. The board of directors at a meeting this week responded favorably to the project.

If the club plans are approved by the board, the entertainment will be located in the upstairs ballroom of the student union building. Renovations will include indirect lighting tables and chairs and a suitable dance floor. Committee To Investigate

Jim Joyner, president of the student body, was chosen to appoint a committee to investigate the equipment needed, the amount of expenditures necessary and to determine how often the night club should be operated. The committee is expected to make a report on its findings at the board meeting next week.

The night club idea has been tried successfully by several mid-western colleges. Magill studied reports of the college clubs and sent a digest of the research to the members of the board of directors.

The total estimated income of $11,914 was presented by the budget com-

Endocrinologist

Dr. Emil Novak, eminent endocrinologist from John Hopkins university who delivered a lecture on "Endocrinology" yesterday at Greenville when a University-sponsored post-graduate course in medicine opened there. A similar course opens in Wilmington today when Dr. Novak addresses North Carolina doctors in that section this evening at 7 o'clock.

GREEK MEN SIGN CONTRACT WITH ADVISOR STACEY

11 Houses Make Agreements For Visiting Coeds

Eleven campus fraternities gave their solemn oath last night to maintain an atmosphere in their houses similar to that of any well-regulated home, thereby meeting with the approval of the administrative board of the division of student welfare to entertain women students from one in the afternoon till warning bell at night.

Other specifications were that only the social rooms, halls, porches, and dining room, on the first floor, will be open to the women students; there will be no visiting in the other parts of the house, and there will be no drinking or serving of intoxicating drinks, which is a fraternity rule already.

Those fraternities already in the good graces of the advisor to women and the administrative board are: Alpha Tau Omega, Zeta Beta Tau, Kap. (Continued on page two)

SEND-OFF PEP RALLY TO BE HELD TONIGHT

Students To Meet At Carolina Inn Not Later Than 5:15

As Carolina's fighting Tar Heels leave in busses from Carolina inn this afternoon at 5:30 for the annual pilgrimage to tame Davidson Wildcats, a short pep rally send-off, sponsored by the University club, will be held at the inn.

Pat Patterson, head cheerleader, urges students to be on hand at the inn not later than 5:15. Several yells and music by the University band will form the combination to give the players and coaches a rousing send-off. It is planned for the students to form two huge human chains for the busses as they pull out.

All members of the University band are requested to be at the Carolina inn this afternoon at 5 o'clock to play for the pep rally send-off for the team.

The rally this afternoon is one of a series sponsored by the University club, student spirit stimulators, who are planning the biggest rally of the year next Friday night preceding the Duke game. Between 7 and 7:30 the rally will be aired over station WPTF, Raleigh, and will feature special guest speakers, who will make comments and predictions, in addition to yells and band music.

Buccaneer Deadline

Is it Sunday? No, No, No, No. Is it Monday? No, No, No, No. Is it Tuesday? No, No, No, No. That copy's due today.

How To Win A Pass The Hard Way

Swiss Navy, Ethiopian Army, Russian Democrats Stand By For New Ad Contest

Plans were made for the call of state militia tomorrow in the event that the crowd entering the new DAILY TAR HEEL contest should get out of hand in answering the questions prepared by the business staff.

Members of the local police department armed themselves with tear gas bombs, false faces, and new uniforms in order to cope with the crowd expected at the TAR HEEL office when the masses come clamoring for their passes to the Carolina theater.

Army bombers have been getting in practice at Fort Bragg this past week in case they were needed. Business Manager Glen Humphrey held the key to the situation in his hand and refused to comment. His right hand man, Ned Hamilton, asked that no bouquets be tossed at Humphreys as they feared bombs and thorn scratches.

Love's Young Dream

It all started when Humphrey got out of bed one night wondering if anyone was reading the ads he was laboring to write each day. He had always believed that every Carolina student couldn't wait to get out of bed each morning to dash out and grab his TAR HEEL and literally devour the ads. Since Paul Gallup was not around to conduct a national survey, Humphrey was hit with a brainstorm and decided to throw a gigantic contest and offer free passes to the Carolina theater to anyone who could answer the questions he would ask them.

All contestants enter the contest at their own risk and the DAILY TAR HEEL, PU board, University administration, Communist party, PWA, and New Deal assume no responsibility. (Continued on page two)

Henderson Presents Portrait To Society

Portrait of Dr. Archibald Henderson, University mathematician, historian, and litterateur, which was presented by him recently to the patriotic Society of the Transylvanians of Henderson, Kentucky. Dr. Henderson was the first president of the group and one of its founders.

Production Of 'Room Service' Opens Playmaker Fall Season Tonight In Memorial Hall

"Room Service," the story by Allen Boretz and John Murray of the impecunious producer, his hayseed juvenile author, and unscrupulous, insane cohorts arrayed against a persistent hotel staff bent on collecting a tremendous bill, will be presented tonight and tomorrow night at Memorial hall by the Playmakers.

GRAIL RECEIVES BRONZE PLAQUE

Order Donates $200 To Organizations

A large bronze and mahogany plaque, bearing lists of Order of the Grail members, headed by the faculty advisory committee, was presented by Billy Campbell, president of the order, at a meeting this week. Grail memberships for the last 19 years are engraved on separate bronze plates on the shield. Faculty advisory members listed on a plate heading the memberships are W. S. Bernard, Frank P. Graham, Francis F. Bradshaw and Horace H. Williams. Glee Club Program

The Glee club will give a program through the sponsorship of the Grail at an informal dance planned for Saturday night, November 5, after the VPI-Carolina game. The concert will be held at intermission.

The Grail donated 200 dollars to student organizations at a meeting this week, Bud Hudson, secretary of the Order of the Grail, announced yesterday.

Food For Bookworms Obtainable At Shop

Book lovers will be interested in the following books now available at the Bull's Head book shop:

- "The Back Door" by Julian Meade. "Old Haven" by David Cornel DeJong, a former professor at Duke university. "Romantic Czechoslovakia" by Robert Medill McBride. "Listen! The Wind" by Anne Morrow Lindbergh. Colonel Lindbergh himself designed the jacket and the end papers and wrote the introduction. "The Citadel" by A. J. Cronin. "The Fox of Peapack," a volume of good, light verse by E. B. White, who formerly wrote for the New Yorker.

COCKE, EDWARDS, DIFFENDAL ARE ELECTED TO POSTS

Bowman Withdraws From Treasurer Run-off To Aid Shore

By JIMMY DUMBELL

Tabulation of votes in yesterday's freshman elections resulted in a run-off between Bill Shore and Bill Ward for the presidency, and the election of Dudley Cocke as vice president, John Diffendale as secretary and Ned Edwards as treasurer.

Jim Joyner, president of the student body, announced that the Student council decided at its meeting last night that the run-off between Shore and Ward would be held Monday, and that the polls would be open from 10 to 3 o'clock at the YMCA. Bowman Withdraws

The votes were cast as follows: for president—Bill Ward, 197; Shore, 151; Dunn, 84. For the office of vice president, Dudley Cocke received 224 and Bill Schwartz 196. 242 votes were cast for John Diffendale while Fletcher Mann received 181. In the race for treasurer, Ned Edwards received 213; Ralph Bowman 114, and Mackerman 104. This close margin gave Bowman an opportunity to demand a run-off for the office but he declined with this statement: "I am withdrawing from the run-off in order to devote all of my time and energy to aiding Bill Shore in his campaign for president."

It was rumored that "Muck" Dunn, who was defeated for president, was going to throw his votes for Shore, but as Dunn could not be reached late last night this has not been verified.

Both candidates for presidency were hard at work last night forming new campaign ideas, holding party meetings and "politicking" for votes.

"No Stuff"—Yeates

All junior and senior Yackety-Yack pictures must be taken by Monday. Cards will be edited Tuesday and the section closed.

All sophomores and fraternity members please start having pictures made this week.

"Duke" Has Low Rating On Campus

There are only eight more days until the Duke-Carolina game, and already the appellation "DUKE" rates one pretty low.

Dr. Harland, in his Greek sculpture class the other day, was explaining the difference between the Greek goddess Aphrodite and the Roman one Venus.

"If anyone calls Aphrodite Venus, then I'll call them—eh—'Duke' students."

Cellist Given Good Reception As—

Large Crowd Hears William Klenz Give Cello Recital

Harold Cone of Greensboro Accompanied Well-Known American Musician

By RUSH HAMRICK

William Klenz, well-known American cellist, presented a cello recital in Hill Music hall last Wednesday evening which was heard by one of the largest audiences to attend a solo recital here in several years. Harold Cone of Greensboro and Chapel Hill accompanied him on the piano.

This was the first in a series of entertainments to be given by the department of music. From the applause given by the approximately 300 present the performance was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

The dexterity of the performer was noticed as the swift and accurate fingering by the nimble fingers of Klenz' left hand on the finger board of the cello left the audience amazed.

The protraction and quality of tone like that of a maestro was dominant in all the selections.

When the first measure of the open selection, Adagio by Bach, was played, the audience were aware of the fact that they were to hear a program by a genius and his cello. Other pieces played on the program were Siciliano and Arioso by Bach; Sonata in A Major by Boccherini; Seven Variations on a theme from "The Magic Flute" by Beethoven; Three Fantasy Pieces by Schumann; and Symphonis Variations composed by Boellmann. For an encore, Klenz played the soothing melody, Little German Dance by Dittersdorf.

William Klenz is a graduate of the Curtis institute of music in Philadelphia and has studied under Ernst Bloch, Felix Salmond and Fritz Reinert. He is a special instructor in the Music department at the present time.