

Ticket Sales Soar For Budge-Vines Match Here Tonight

EDITORIALS:
• Out-of-State Tuition

The Daily Tar Heel

WEATHER:
Cold and crisp; partly cloudy.

THE ONLY COLLEGE DAILY IN THE SOUTHEAST

VOLUME XLVII

EDITORIAL PHONE 4351

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 25, 1939

BUSINESS PHONE 4256

NUMBER 91

Dorothy Thompson To Open Institute

Vibraphonist

Jere King, whose 11-piece orchestra will play for the President's Birthday ball in Carolina inn next Monday King will also render a few vibraphone numbers.

Human Relations Program Moved To March 30

Dorothy Thompson, often referred to as this country's most noted woman lecturer, commentator and newspaper columnist, will open the Human Relations institute program with an address Thursday night, March 30, made possible by the Weil lecture series.

In making this announcement yesterday, Chairman John Kendrick said that the institute had been moved up three days in order that Miss Thompson might begin the week of lectures concerning the South, government and international relations, human relations in business and industry, and education in connection with human relations. The dates previously arranged were April 2-8. The institute will now end either Thursday, April 6, or the next day.

THREE DAYS

The Weil foundation, established on this campus for many years, has merged with the institute for the past four years and brought a prominent speaker to Chapel Hill for three addresses.

Miss Thompson, after presenting her first lecture, will remain here for the following two days, speaking Friday and Saturday nights. She is the wife of the novelist, Sinclair Lewis and has long been connected with public affairs in this country. After a short career in social work in New York state, she became associated with newspaper work and became noted for activity as a foreign correspondent for the New York Herald Tribune. At present she is a columnist for the same newspaper.

Other speakers secured to date by the institute are Mark Etheridge, Louisville publisher, Arthur Raper, prominent sociologist and University graduate, and John Rice, president of Black Mountain college.

The institute has asked the Nation (Continued on page two)

FROSH ELECT NEW DEBATE LEADER

Gover Will Replace Taylor At Post

At the first meeting of the newly formed freshman debate squad which met last night, it was decided that the meetings would be held every Wednesday night at 7:30. Ferbee Taylor, who was appointed chairman of the squad last week by Bill Shore, was forced to refuse the appointment because of lack of time and other pressing obligations.

Hundley Gover was elected to fulfill the place vacated by Taylor and he and Shore will begin correspondence this week with Duke, Wake Forest and Davidson. It is hoped that at a later date a challenge can be offered to the varsity squad.

At the next meeting a council will be elected from the members then present and plans will be presented for immediate action. All freshmen interested in joining the group are urged to attend the next meeting which will be held Wednesday night in room 212 of Graham memorial at 7:30.

YMCA Will Sponsor British Authority

Robert Wilberforce, an Englishman and authority on British affairs, will speak here Thursday evening, February 2, under auspices of the University YMCA, it was announced yesterday by H. F. Comer, executive secretary.

He will speak on "Present Social and Economic Conditions in Great Britain." The address will be held in Memorial hall, and during the day the Englishman will be available for classroom forums.

Wilberforce was until recently director of the British Library of Information in New York. In the past he has served the British government in delegations dealing with disarmament.

Former Playmaker Returns For Concert

Foster Fitz-Simons, who will appear in the Playmaker theater along with his partner, Miss Miriam Winslow, next Tuesday. Fitz-Simons was widely-known for his work with the Playmakers here.

Foster Fitz-Simons Once Won Playmaker Award Here

Alumnus Will Give Concert Tuesday With Miss Winslow

Foster Fitz-Simons, former student and Playmaker at the University, will appear in a concert in the Playmaker theater with his partner Miss Miriam Winslow next Tuesday.

While a student here at the University, Fitz-Simons received high recognition for his work with the Playmakers, winning the annual Playmaker award for his play, "Four on a Heath." In addition to work with the Playmakers he studied dancing with Miss Phoebe Barr. After graduating he joined Ted Shawn's dance group for several seasons.

The program to be given by the team will consist largely of dances portraying American life art. The romantic elements will be strongly represented among the new dances, notably in the pastoral and caribbees.

SOLO DANCES
One of the solo dances by Fitz-Simons will be "On the Bayou," an adaptation from scenes of his own native background. It is a study of the child of nature, who investigates the deep swamp, experiences the terrors there and struts in his primitive sense of conquest and possession of the wilderness.

"Man's Dance" is another of the solos by Fitz-Simons. It was composed (Continued on page two)

Jackson To Conduct Classical Concert

Gibson "Stonewall" Jackson will conduct the weekly Graham Memorial classical recording concert in the lounge this afternoon at 5 o'clock.

He will include in the program Symphony No. 3, in F by Brahms; Credo by Palestrina; and Symphony No. 40, in G minor by Mozart.

Back From Foreign Wars—

James Thinks James Is Luckiest Of Reporters

Foreign Correspondent Comments Freely In Interview At Inn Here

By BILL RHODES WEAVER

"I'm probably the luckiest reporter in the world," Weldon James, 27-year old United Press foreign correspondent, commented at the Carolina inn recently.

James explained he was in China on an around-the-world tour when the war began to become serious and that he contacted the United Press with his stories. His article on the bombing of the Panay, the United States' gunboat, brought him world recognition.

Just recently the young newsman (Continued on page two)

Graham Asks For Increased Funds

President Fights Tuition Increase Before Committee

By MORRIS W. ROSENBERG

Pointing out that although the value of the Greater University of North Carolina had increased $8,798,000 over a period of ten years, since 1928-29, the state appropriations to the University had decreased $380,641 during the same period, President Frank Graham appeared yesterday before a joint meeting of the appropriation committees of the house and senate to plead the case of the University in asking for increased appropriations for the years 1939-40 and 1940-41.

"Dr. Graham told the committee, meeting in the Revenue building in Raleigh, that "even if you give us all the money we have asked for, we will still be operating on only a 77.6 per cent basis."

Arguing against any raise in tuition fees for either state or out-of-state students, Graham told the legislators that the University ranked high in the nation as compared with the fees charged students at other state universities. The President declared that the Constitution of the state of North Carolina declares that the University should provide free tuition for students as far as possible, and that, since at present all students are charged tuition fees, any movement to increase these fees would be totally out of line with the constitutional principles of the state.

By the use of statistical charts, Gra-

(Continued on page two)

NEW AFFILIATION SOUGHT BY YWCA

National Standards Discussed by Group

Requirements for affiliation with the national YWCA and reports from the cabinet committees were discussed in a meeting of the YWCA cabinet last night.

The cabinet plans to meet the requirements of the national organization and become a part of it as soon as possible. This improvement, the association hopes, will make a full time YWCA secretary possible.

Olive Cruikshank, chairman of the finance committee, reported arrangements for a project to be held during spring quarter to raise funds to send representatives to Blue Ridge this summer. The committee favored some form of entertainment like the cabaret sponsored by the YWCA last year.

Kathryn Fleming, chairman, reported that the social service committee is organizing a basketball team at the Negro high school and asking the fraternities to contribute money to the milk fund for consumptive families in the community. Mary Lewis, a member of the committee, is leader of two girl scout troops in Chapel Hill.

Phi Votes Against Competition Bill Now In Assembly

After a long and heated discussion, the Phi assembly, in its regular meeting last night, voted 15-10 against the bill Resolved: that the Phi assembly go on record as opposing the North Carolina general assembly bill prohibiting competition between the University and local merchants.

When Representative Sloan had finished with the introduction of the bill, Representative Burkheimer talked briefly stating that he believed the present bill before the general assembly was an outgrowth of agitation which was started several years ago.

Taking an opposite viewpoint Representative Nance stated that he had first hand information that local merchants knew nothing about the bill now before the general assembly.

The second bill dealing with President Roosevelt's rearmament program was introduced by Representative Long. The Phi voted 15-8 in favor of a bill approving President Roosevelt's rearmament program.

Leads Vines

Donald Budge, flaming Pasadena net star, who is leading the World's Professional King, Ellsworth Vines, Jr., by a five game margin in their current nation-wide pro tour. The touring tennis aces play at Woollen gym tonight at 8:15.

STUDENTS URGED TO PREPARE FOR CPU OPEN FORUM

Time Of McNinch Speech Tomorrow Changed To 8:30

Yesterday Chairman Voit Gilmore of the Carolina Political union urged students and townspeople who plan to attend the address of Frank R. McNinch tomorrow night and take part in the open forum following the speech to prepare in advance questions for the speaker in order that the question-answer session might be fast-moving and of a good calibre.

Late last night, after posters announcing the program had been distributed, the address by Frank R. McNinch was postponed from 8 until 8:30 tomorrow night in order to fit the hour best suited for the NBC-WJZ Blue network coast-to-coast broadcast. CPU Chairman Gilmore requested that everyone enter Memorial hall and be settled by 8:20 so there will be no broadcast interference.

The Federal Communications com-

(Continued on page two)

Frosh Will Hear Swing By "Jeeps"

Mr. and Mrs. "Jeep" Bennett, his clarinet and his orchestra will perform at a special call swing session at freshman assembly this morning, Bill Shores, president of the class, announced yesterday.

Featured on the program will be a solo vocal, "I Won't Tell A Soul," by Mrs. "Jeep," accompanied by "Mr. Jeep" at the guitar. Those who have heard the combination place it among the best numbers.

A winner of the amateur contest at Hill Music hall Sunday night, Bennett is asking for suggestions for the title of the unnamed composition given on the contest program. Some titles suggested were "Tar Heel Blues," "I Wanna Go Home," and "Where Is the Girl I Loved?"

Radman Gets Merit Card From Board

The All-American Football board last week awarded to George Radman a card of merit for outstanding work done as a half-back during the past season. Award of this honorable mention is especially noticeable due to the fact that Radman was given no recognition in the state for outstanding work. He made neither the all-opponents, North-South or any other state team.

KING WILL PLAY AT BIRTHDAY BALL MONDAY EVENING

Round And Square Dancing Scheduled For Charity Event

Jere King and his 11-piece orchestra have been engaged to play for the round dance of the President's Birthday ball at the Carolina inn Monday night, E. Carrington Smith, general chairman of the affair, announced yesterday.

King will give a number of performances on the vibraphone. The orchestra will present Wilford Gragg as vocalist.

"The Revelers," a five-piece string band composed of local boys, will furnish the music for the square dances. Two dances will be in progress at the same time, in the lobby and the north parlor.

PROCEEDS DIVIDED

One of the members of the local string quintet has been a victim of infantile paralysis. The proceeds from the affairs, which this year are being held on the actual birth date of President Roosevelt, will be divided between the Warm Springs foundation and local agencies treating the disease. Fifty per cent will remain here, and 50 per cent will be sent the national committee.

Tickets are now on sale at the bank and Eubanks' drug store. Representatives handling tickets are: Dr. J. P. Jones, Judge L. J. Phipps, P. A. Reavis and "The Revelers."

Tuition Proposal Defeated By Di

The bill, Resolved: That the tuition of each out-of-state student in the University should be raised an amount equal to that now paid for each foreign student by the state, was defeated by the Di senate last night by a vote of 11 to 7.

Senators Sam Hobbs, Robinson Woodward, and Arthur Link opposed the bill and were the outstanding speakers against it.

Senator John Bonner led the fight for the bill. He pointed out that the state pays $197 for each student and that means that the taxpayers of North Carolina spend $97 every year for each out-of-state student enrolled in the University.

Senator Harry Gattton offered a plan by which an out-of-state student would pay the same amount that it would cost a North Carolina student to go to an out-of-state university.

All members were requested to be present for the session next Tuesday night as the Yackety-Yack picture will be taken at that time.

The senate voted the power to continue arrangements with the Phi assembly for the Di-Phi dance to Senator John Bonner.