

Proposes Bill

A bill to install graduate schools for Negroes in colored institutions over the state, introduced and sponsored by Walter "Pete" Murphy, for over 40 years a University trustee, is now before the Senate after being unanimously passed by the House Tuesday. The proposal, if passed by the General Assembly, will relieve much of the pressure of the Negro question on the University.

COMPREHENSIVES WILL KEEP MANY BUSY TOMORROW

Dreaded Day Has At Last Arrived For Many Seniors

Well over half of the approximately 525 members of the University's class of 1939 are this morning looking to the compulsory comprehensive examinations scheduled to consume the greater part of the day tomorrow.

Every senior in the school of arts and sciences and the Commerce school is required to pass a comprehensive examination given by the department or school in which he is majoring. The examination is given on one Saturday of each quarter during the school year and each student expecting to graduate the following June has three chances at passing. Graduation is determined by the work accomplished on the comprehensive.

VARY MUCH

Comprehensives vary in style and time according to the department in which the examination is given. Some regulations require the work to be

Senior Committees

There will be a brief but important meeting of the senior class executive and dance committee this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Grail room.

Attention, Jitterbugs—

Charlie Wood's Carolinians To Swing For Grail Dance

Debut of Newest Campus Band Will Be Held Saturday Night At Final Grail Dance

By BILL RHODES WEAVER
Tomorrow night Charlie Wood and his Carolinians will appear for their first professional performance at the last Order of the Grail dance of the winter quarter.

The Carolinians have developed a "southern shuffle" style, based on the fundamental rhythm of the combination of piano and bass fiddle. The drummer comes in for his part in forming the odd style.

Some of the most remarkable imitations of high ranking bands will be given. Particularly well performed is the Artie Shaw manner of "Nightmare" and the Glenn Miller dulcet melody rendition of "London-derry Air." The former was presented on the Grail-sponsored Carolinian concert at assembly yesterday morning.

ARCHER HOUSE MAY BECOME FACULTY CLUB

Recluse Idea To Be Reconsidered At Inn Smoker

The idea of a clubhouse for the University faculty—which has been considered from time to time during the past 10 years—will be reopened at a faculty smoker tomorrow night at 9 o'clock in the Carolina inn.

At the meeting, proposed by the administration, faculty members will consider possibilities of using the Archer house for the proposed club. The House, owned by the University, is at present a women's lodging place.

Dean of Administration R. B. House, who was in bed with a slight illness yesterday, said no complete plans have been made for the house, but that plans probably would be discussed tomorrow night.

COMMITTEE

A faculty committee has been considering the proposal for some time. Members of the committee could not be reached late last night.

Dr. W. A. Olsen, who will preside at tomorrow night's smoker, said he believed there was a feeling that something should be done about some sort of recreation center for the faculty.

Dr. Olsen said that over 10 years ago there was some sort of building reserved for the faculty, but he did not believe it had been satisfactory.

He thought there was a definite possibility that the faculty would accept the proposal tomorrow night, and set up a committee to arrange the transfer.

It was pointed out that girls now rooming in the Archer house would not suffer from a lack of lodging quarters, due to the two new women's dormitories now being constructed.

STUDENTS PLAN CHINESE PARTY

New Year's Day To Be Celebrated

Celebrating the twenty-fourth anniversary of the Chinese republic, a Chinese New Year's party will be given by the students of Carolina and of Duke university tomorrow night at the Oriental restaurant in Durham. Many members of the student body and the faculty will attend.

The party will be presented in a strictly Chinese manner with chopsticks, an entire menu of Chinese food and Chinese rice wine. Several impromptu speeches will be heard and the party will be entirely informal. In charge of preparations are Lincoln Kan, Miss Ann Martin and Miss Elizabeth Wang.

INVITATIONS

Invitations have been issued to the following: Professor and Mrs. F. H.

Amateurs Will Perform Tuesday

The Graham Memorial Amateur night which is usually held on Sunday night has been postponed until Tuesday night and will be held in the main lounge of Graham Memorial.

Among the several outstanding amateurs who will perform are: Boston Lackey, an ace flute player from Lenoir; Paul Griffith, drummer in Jeep Bennett's orchestra who has been acclaimed over the state for his unusual interpretations; Tom Avery, said to be one of the best jazz drummers in school; and a trumpet trio from Charlie Wood's orchestra. The other performers will be announced at a later date.

"King" E. J. Woodhouse will be master of ceremonies and Bob McManus, accompanied by Miss Nancy Smith at the piano, will lead the community sing which will be held in conjunction with the amateur program.

The usual prizes of three dollars first prize and two dollars second prize will be awarded. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Puts Frosh In Race

The winner of the Junior-Sophomore basketball game which is to be battled out in the near future has been challenged by Bill Shore, freshman class president and politician-extraordinary, for the freshman class. This will be the third of an intra-class set of games.

MISS MARY LEWIS IS ELECTED NEW IRC SECRETARY

Plans Made For William And Mary Relations Meet

Miss Mary Lewis was unanimously elected secretary of the International Relations club at its monthly executive session Wednesday night. Plans were also made for the next quarter, and for the attendance of about twenty members at the William and Mary International Relations conference on April 6 to 8.

Keys for the club were discussed and President Henry Nigrelli appointed the following committee to investigate the prices and designs of keys: Joe Dawson, Peter Gernsheimer, and Ernest Morris.

President Nigrelli announced that the Carnegie Foundation was prepared to send a new shipment of books to the club on international subjects.

ADDITIONS

The following additions were made to the club boards by the president: Publicity, Louis Harris; Durham

NEGRO APPLICANT SENDS NEW LETTER

Miss Murray Asks For Non-Prejudice

In the midst of discussions on liberalism and higher Negro education which have attracted attention on the campus for the past week, comes a letter to the DAILY TAR HEEL from Miss Pauli Murray, Negro applicant to the University graduate school.

Protesting "Southern prejudice," Miss Murray in her rhetorical composition supplementary to the list of questions she submitted recently, begins by explaining that she has "never been able to understand your definition of social equality."

She goes on to enumerate the intimacies which most Southerners have, especially, with their Negro nurses.

PREJUDICES

"Yet," she objects, "if that same colored nurse decides that she too is a human being and desires to study under the same group of professors and with the same equipment as you, you go into tantrums organize 'lynching' parties, and raise the old cry of the Klu Klux Klan."

"The songs, the contributions to the

Any Arts And Science Seniors Graduating?

All seniors in the College of Arts and Sciences whose last names begin with A through Z who expect to be eligible for graduation in June and who have not as yet written an application for a degree must report by the office in South building today and tomorrow for an imperative conference.

JUNIOR-SENIOR DANCES PLANNED FOR MAY 12, 13

Many Big Name Bands Contacted By Committees

It was decided at a joint meeting of the junior and senior class dance committees last night that the date of the annual Junior-Senior dances this year will be May 12 and 13. It was announced by Paul Thompson, chairman of the dance committee, that several outstanding orchestras have been contacted and that correspondence with their agents have been carried on for the past several weeks.

Felix Markham, president of the senior class, called a meeting of the executive and dance committees of the senior class to be held this afternoon at 8 o'clock in the Grail room on the second floor of Graham Memorial. The purpose of this meeting will be to nominate fifteen members of the class who will be voted on sometime next week. Six of these fifteen nominees will be chosen by the class to lead the senior figure at the dance along with the members of the dance committee and the officers of the senior class.

SENIOR DANCE COMMITTEE

Members of the senior dance committee are: Paul Thompson, chairman, Bud Hudson, Sam Davis, and John Moore. Officers of the senior class, who with the dance committee members and the six elected members of the senior class will lead the senior figure, are: president, Felix Markham; vice-president, "Sandy" Graham; secretary, "Chuck" Kline; and treasurer, Frank Wakely.

The dance committees considered the week-end of May 12-13 to be especially desirable from their standpoint as both the baseball team and the track squad will be in town then.

FEE INVESTIGATION CONTINUED TODAY

Journalists To Meet With Group

Investigation of publication fees and their proportionate allotment by the Student Legislature committee will be continued this morning in the mezzanine of the YMCA at 10:30.

All editors, managing editors, business managers, and other campus publication members are asked to appear before the committee and offer suggestions or criticisms.

TO CONFER

Following the conferences with student journalists, the committee will confer with the Publications Union board and the Student Audit board.

After complete information has been gathered, the committee will report to the legislature, recommending any change in fees or their allotment which it deems desirable.

YMCA Team Off To Fayetteville

A YMCA deputation team went to Fayetteville yesterday for its first of a series of week-end trips to North Carolina high schools.

In the group were Brooks Patten, president of the YMCA, Charles Putzel, deputation chairman, Carey Sparks, John Anderson, Jack Fairley, Ray Martin, and Charles Robinson. Gene Brickleymer, senior here last year and now coach of athletics at Fayetteville, will assist the group in its programs.

The group will appear at six schools in the city, at a meeting of the Kiwanis club, at a Hi-Y banquet, and in various churches Sunday. The Fayetteville high school basketball team will play a team selected from the deputation squad night.

Miss Phyllis Campbell Appendicitis Victim

Miss Phyllis Campbell, blonde junior from Chapel Hill, has been sent to Duke hospital for an appendectomy, it was learned yesterday.

She is doing "nothing nicely" according to a telephone message from Mrs. Marjorie Campbell to the DAILY TAR HEEL.

Starts Dance Plans

President Felix Markham, most high potentate of the senior class, has called a meeting of the senior executive and dance committees for this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Grail room in Graham Memorial, where plans for the Junior-Seniors are materializing.

BAND PREPARING PROGRAM FOR NEXT WEDNESDAY

Concert Will Come On Birthday Of George Washington

Since the football season, the University concert band has been preparing music for the concert season and will play a program next Wednesday that promises to please all music lovers. These 80 musicians, the largest unit organization on the campus, will be presented by their director, Earl A. Stocum.

To be played on George Washington's birthday, the concert will be the only public appearance the band will make until the time rolls around for the outdoor lawn concerts in May. Plans are under way at the present time for the annual Eastern and Western tours to be taken by the organization during the early part of the spring quarter.

The program of the evening will begin with a typical Mexican march, and then the band will play the short "Prelude and Fugue in D Minor" by Bach. This will be followed by the spirited Overture, "The Marriage of Figaro" by Mozart, one of the most famous classical composers.

FEATURE

A feature of the performance will be the playing of "Piano Concerto in A Minor" arranged by Grieg, with Dale Sandifur as soloist, accompanied by the band. Tchaikowsky, will be represented by the playing of "Pathétique" Symphony, which is generally regarded as his best composition in this medium.

Two recently published modern compositions, variations of the theme "Pop! Goes the Weasel" by Cailliet and "Rhapsody in Rhumba" by Ben-

Slave Driver Sunny Issues Call For Brain Trusters

Our Friend The Business Manager Wishes To Distribute Free Movie Passes

Our dearly beloved cohorts, the money-grabbing business office moguls of the DAILY TAR HEEL, sallied forth yesterday with the contest to end all contests, the acme of perfection in brain teasers.

If you find yourself with nothing else to do at that 8:30 ennui this morning, cast your eyes a few paragraphs south of this point and set the gray matter of your brain in motion. LOOKIT!

Here is the proposition:
1: Herr Sonny Humphrey, fuehrer of the money end of the newspaper business, wants to give away four ducats to the Pick or Carolina theaters.
2: Desperate as he is, he will resort to any trickery to make our dear public read his advertisements.
3: Therefore (the major premise, or something), he offers four passes to the three people who give the best answers to five questions, concerning

STUDENT OPINION ON BOXING BEING SOUGHT IN POLL

Ronman Sponsors Circulation of Questionnaires

By WILLIAM L. BEERMAN
Over 1,000 questionnaires, asking student opinion on intercollegiate boxing, have been distributed over the campus by coaches Mike Ronman and Wally Dunham in an effort to establish a statistical report for the enlightenment of the student legislature when it next convenes. Physical education boxers and other friends of the sport have volunteered their services and are conducting personal research with the printed forms.

A bill to abolish boxing was tabled last week for "investigation," and a committee, headed by Basketballer Fish Worley, appointed for a perusal of the situation.

A study, it is alleged, is now being made by the infirmary in order to present a report on the injuries sustained in intercollegiate boxing, particularly at the University.

"IN ALL FAIRNESS"

Yesterday, an authority who asked to have his name withheld, stated: "In all fairness, it seems to me that if a report is going to be made about injuries in athletics, it should single out boxing alone, but should include the extent and types of injuries sustained in all other sports. Boxing has been proven by available records to be less harmful than many other forms of activities."

Knowing that general student opinion is in favor of the continuance of boxing as an intercollegiate sport at the University, Boxing Coach Mike Ronman and his assistant Wally Dunham drew up mimeographed questionnaires, asking "Do you believe boxing should continue as an intercollegiate sport? Yes or No?"

"Sportsmanship, Please" -- Joyner

A number of expressions of disapproval of the sportsmanship displayed by our students at the past few basketball games have come to me. Certainly this booing and failure to get quiet when opponents are making foul shots is not representative of the student body generally and is rather embarrassing to our team members who are playing hard, clean sportsmanlike ball. We are not helping win the ball game by such ill-mannered actions. Please, in the interests of fair play and for the sake of our reputation as Carolina hosts let's direct our enthusiasm otherwise in the State game tonight and in the games to come. I'm sure the matter needs only to be called to our attention.

Jim M. Joyner

CAN YOU WRITE?

Write your answers and leave them, accompanied by your name and address, in the den of iniquity at 204 Graham Memorial (the business department). Two cinema deadhead tickets will go to the winner; the next two best answers get a pass apiece.

Without further bush-beating, log-rolling, filibustering, and axe-grinding, the questions are listed below, in toto, just as they were handed us:

1. What is Ed's item?
  2. Tap-tap, Who is knocking?
  3. Kiss who?
  4. Who is that charming diminutive (tut, tut, such lousy spelling) lady?
  5. What is the synonym for "set right by cutting?"
- Seriously speaking, the contest is on the level. Anyone may enter except those connected with the DAILY TAR HEEL.
