

EDITORIALS: horseshoes good hitting can opener

The Daily Tar Heel

WEATHER: No let up in heat.

VOLUME XLVII EDITORIAL PHONE 4151 CHAPEL HILL, N. C., THURSDAY, APRIL 27, 1939 BUSINESS PHONE 4156 NUMBER 157

Pi Phis And Dogwood

Peeking from between full-blossoming dogwood branches, left to right, are: Miss Melville Corbett, president of Pi Beta Phi, and three of her sorority sisters, Miss Barbara Liscomb, Miss Elsa Winters, and Miss Roberta Winton.

Dormitory, Pharmacy Dances Are To Begin Tomorrow Night

Banquet At 7:30 Will Open Annual Weekend Dance Set
Getting under way tomorrow night at 7:30 with a banquet in Graham Memorial, the Interdormitory council will inaugurate its annual weekend of festivities which includes a series of three dances to be held tomorrow night, Saturday afternoon and evening.
Leaving the Tin Can to Pharmacy school promtrotters, Interdorm dancers will swing to the music of Dutch McMillan and the Duke Ambassadors in Woolen gymnasium.
The dance tomorrow night, scheduled from 9:30 till 1 o'clock, will feature the president's figure during the evening. Saturday's program will include a tea dance from 4:30 till 6:30 in the afternoon and an evening dance from 9 till 12 o'clock at which time the dance committee's figure will be presented.
Dormitory residents can obtain their Interdormitory dance bids from floor councilmen in each dormitory for 50 cents stag, nothing if the resident takes a date.
In an attempt to cut down the inevitable overflow of stags, the council has decided to charge an admission fee of 50 cents for every person without a date. There will be no admission charge for couples.

Tar Heel Gives Students Chance To Grade Faculty

Professorial-Grading Survey To Begin Today On Campus—Here's Your Opportunity!
By BOB deGUZMAN
Within the next week the students on the campus will have a chance to express their unbiased opinions of the professors whom they have had ever since they have taken courses in the University. The DAILY TAR HEEL, in response to student demand for a professorial classification, will conduct a survey of the student body on this subject.
Students will be asked to fill out a mimeographed sheet on which will be provided spaces to grade the professors from A to F according to his ability as a teacher and, regardless of teaching, general personality. The student's name will not appear on the sheet, but there will be a space reserved for the class of the grader. Grades will be tabulated according to Uni-
(Continued on page 4, column 4)

"HEDY" HUNTER CAPTURES FIRST PRIZE AT BALL

Varied Costumes Make Huge Hit At Celebration
Hedy Lamarr made her long awaited appearance on the campus at the Variety costume ball which climaxed the festivities of Student-Faculty day Tuesday evening. Miss Jane Hunter, queen of last year's celebration, attired as the movie star, won first place in the contest for movie impersonations.
Clad in a sleeky black and white satin gown with her red hair died to a dusky black and eyelashes three times their normal length, Miss Hunter won a victory and several theatre passes over Chuck Kline who as Groucho Marx was her closest rival. Ed Seaver "Kong Zig," as he was labeled, or King Zog, whom the judges decided he represented, won three cans of apple sauce and some pocket change for having the best costume in the political characters division.
VERY GILTY
In the miscellaneous, unlimited class Vincent Paul Rousseau won an overwhelming victory as a gilded, extra-armed, extra-headed Inca Indian. His prize was a box of candy.
Richard King, robed and made-up as Queen Victoria even to the cotton pads in his cheeks, won a book as the prize in the contest for the best costume impersonating a literary subject.
Professors Russell Smith, for the unlimited group, Walter Spearman for the literary; YMCA secretary Harry Comer for the movie group, and Alumni secretary J. Maryon Saunders for the political contestants collected the majority of public opinion as to the most outstanding costumes in the class they represented. Then each group of semi-finalists was called to the platform where the intensity of applause from the audience decided the final choice.
Jim Joyner, president of the student body, and J. Maryon Saunders were the student and faculty members in charge of the dance.

DELTA SIGMA PI TO PRESENT KEY

Commerce Group Boosts Scholarship
At a recent meeting of the local chapter of Delta Sigma Pi, professional commerce fraternity, it was decided that the chapter should honor and encourage scholarship.
The fraternity will present a gold key annually to the male senior who upon graduation ranks highest in scholarship for the entire course in commerce and business administration. The name of the winner is not to be revealed until the award is made. The key will be presented along with the various other awards.
At the meeting, Tom Crockett, headmaster of the Alpha Lambda chapter here, was elected to attend the Grand Chapter congress which is to be held in Philadelphia, September 5-8. Bill Bryant and Ben Heath were elected first and second alternates, respectively.
The chapter will also be represented at a regional meeting this weekend in Atlanta.

Roy Armstrong To Give Program

In conjunction with the "So You Want to Go to College?" week now being sponsored, Roy Armstrong, pre-college adviser, will present a program over radio station WRAL in Raleigh this afternoon at 2:05 o'clock.
Lasting 25 minutes and advertising the University to high school students, the program will consist of a series of questions and answers concerning the University and the village. In addition to the dialogue there will be several selections presented by the University trio consisting of Carey Sparks, Brooks Patten and Frank Turner.

Mid-Term Reports

All general college students are requested to see their advisers immediately and secure their mid-term reports.

John T. Graves, II, Dr. W. Stuart Head Commencement Program This June For Class Of 1939

KRENEK TO GIVE RECITAL IN HILL HALL TOMORROW

Lecturer-Pianist-Composer To Play And Speak At 8:30
Hill Music hall will be the scene of the lecture-recital to be presented by Ernst Krenek, world-renowned musician, tomorrow evening at 8:30. The program is being sponsored by the University music department and the Graham Memorial Student union.
Krenek, 38 year old composer, has also gained fame as a pianist, conductor, writer, and lecturer. He has composed several operas, among which are "Johnny spielt auf," "Swingburg," and his latest, "Karl V." His works have been played by Bruno Walter, Erich Kleiber, Otto Klemperer, Pierre Monteux, Serge Koussevitzky, Sir Adrian Boult, Sir Henry Wood, and Herman Scherchen. His compositions have been sung by Elizabeth Schumann, Maria Ivoguen, Heinrich Rehkemper, and many other artists.
CAREER
A graduate of the Imperial Academy of Music in Vienna, the guest lecturer-pianist has also led an extensive career as a writer, having received his degree in philosophy from the University of Vienna in 1923. He has published some 400 articles on music and various other artistic, cultural and sociological problems in many of the leading European publications, among which was the Daily Telegraph.
For several years, Krenek has traveled in Austria, Czechoslovakia, Switzerland, France, Belgium, Holland, Spain, and Italy, lecturing on varied topics. He delivered reports at the International congress in Florence in 1933, the International Congress for Musical education in Paris in 1936 and in Prague in 1937.

Geneticist

The principal geneticist of the bureau of plant industry of the U. S. department of agriculture, Dr. L. J. Stadler, will speak to the North Carolina chapter of Sigma Xi, noted organization for the promotion of research, tonight at 8 o'clock in Phillips hall.

STADLER TO TALK TO SIGMA XI AT 8

USDA Official Here To Discuss Heredity
Dr. L. J. Stadler, principal geneticist of the bureau of plant industry of the United States Department of Agriculture and member of the faculty of the University of Missouri, will address the North Carolina chapter of the society of the Sigma Xi, noted organization for the promotion of research, in Phillips hall tonight at 8 o'clock.
Dr. Stadler, who is an authority in the fields of plant breeding and mutation, will speak on "The Experimental Alteration of Heredity." He was recently elected to membership in the National Academy of Sciences.

Delta Phi Alpha To Initiate New Members Tonight

Delta Phi Alpha, honorary German fraternity, will initiate new members and elect officers for the coming year tonight at 8:30 in the banquet room of Graham Memorial. Plans for future social functions will also be discussed.
All members of the fraternity are urged to be present.

Hey, Copy Boys!

Copy for all sections except sports of the Freshman Handbook should be turned in to Editor Don Bishop today or tomorrow.

Poll Among Seniors, Frosh Reveals New Deal Sentiment

Majority Think Next Presidential Race Should Be Between Hull, Dewey
Endorsing the New Deal and preferring a 1940 presidential race between Thomas Dewey and Cordell Hull, 100 seniors in the school of commerce and 50 freshman in social science classes expressed their sentiments on 15 national and world problems in a poll recently conducted by J. G. Evans, University professor of economics.
The upper-classmen and the first year men disagreed mainly on economic and internationally problems, agreeing on political beliefs. Preferring Dewey over the more-conservative Robert A. Taft of Ohio, both groups voted exactly alike, 78 percent favoring Dewey to the remaining 22 percent for Taft.
In the race for the Democratic nomination, with all the leading candidates on the ballots, except President Roosevelt, the seniors gave Secretary of the
(Continued on page 4, column 5)

Journalist To Give Address; Professor To Handle Sermon

John Temple Graves, II, lecturer, author, and member of the editorial staff of the Birmingham, Ala., Age-Herald, will deliver the commencement address, and Dr. Wyatt Aiken Stuart, professor of Biblical Theology at Emory university, will give the Baccalaureate sermon at the commencement exercises this year, it was announced yesterday. The commencement address will be given June 6 and the sermon will be delivered June 4.

Graves, a graduate of Horace Mann school in New York, received his Bachelor of Literature degree at Princeton university in 1915, and his LLB at the University of Washington in 1920. He was given a DCL degree at the University of the South in 1935.
SERVED IN WAR
He was a member of the editorial staff of the New York Journal for two years, beginning in 1912, and then served his country in the capacity of second lieutenant in the 49th Heavy Artillery in France during the year 1918-1919. After the Armistice he was appointed assistant to Edward N. Hurley on the American Peace commission in Paris. He served as an economist on the Federal Trade commission in Washington from 1919 until 1925, when he became editor of the Palm Beach Times.

Graves was editor of the Jacksonville, Fla., Journal in 1927 and then joined the editorial staff of the Birmingham Age-Herald, which position he holds now. He is the author of a syndicated column which appears in several Southern newspapers and has written and published several books, among them being "Two Bubbles," "The Shaft in the Sky," and the "Book of Alabama and the South." In addition to this, he is the author of many magazine articles, short stories, and poems.
DR. SMART
Dr. Wyatt Aiken Smart, the Baccalaureate preacher, received his A.B. at Vanderbilt university and then attended the Union Theology Seminary in New York, where he received a B.D. degree. Continuing his education at Southern Methodist university, the University of Chicago, and Wesleyan university, he was ordained Deacon in 1909. A Phi Beta Kappa man, he joined the faculty of Emory university, where he has been employed as professor of Biblical Theology.
According to present plans, both the commencement address and the Baccalaureate sermon will be delivered in Kenan stadium.

Regalia Orders Must Be Placed Tonight

The deadline for orders of senior regalia is tonight at 10 o'clock. All those expecting to get the $1.25 linen blazer must be measured at Jack Lipman's clothing store. Orders are COD, no down payment required.

Britt Calls Party Together Tonight For Last Meeting

Chairman Mitchell Britt announced yesterday that the final meeting of the year of the Student Party will take place this evening at 7:30 in the Phi Assembly hall. Plans will be made for next year's organization. In commenting on the past campus elections, Britt said, "I appreciate the faith the student body has bestowed in the SP."

Welch Offers Jobs To Qualified Men

Any students between the ages of 25 and 40 who have at least two years of college credit, own a car, and have had experience teaching primary grades, are invited to see S. W. J. Welch in South building about details of an offer for employment.
The visual Education department of the Creative Education society in Mankato, Minn., is looking for several persons having the above qualifications and they are invited to write direct or see Welch immediately.

Seidman Will Speak To Classes Today

Dr. Joel Seidman, lecturer for the League of Industrial democracy, will address three classes this morning. At 9:30 he will talk at 103 Bingham on "The Aims of Modern Socialism"; at 11 o'clock he will speak at 210 Saunders on "Recession and Recover," at 12 o'clock he will conclude his series in 113 Bingham with a lecture on "Industrial Unionism."

Commencement Bids

All seniors expecting to order commencement invitations must place orders by tomorrow afternoon at 5 o'clock. Orders are being taken in the YMCA lobby today from 9 to 12 o'clock and from 2 to 5 o'clock.