Betty Hutton, Lopez Singer, Plans To Adopt Two Babies

Blonde Vocalist Is Proud Of Title As "Nation's Number One Jitterbug"

By SANFORD STEIN

"I'm never getting married. Marriage is too stiff. But I'm going to adopt two babies when I get enough money. As for my choice in men, I like the real clean type who look as if they've just come out of the bathtub."

And in these few sentences, Betty Hutton—vividly blonde, interestingly shaped, stridently voiced, thoroughly whacky vocalist in Vincent Lopez's orchestra—summed up her opinions on love, matrimony and sex.

CAB CALLOWAY

Betty, a female Cab Calloway as anyone who saw her acrobatics at either the concert or in the Tin Can will testify, is only 18 and very proud of her title as the "nation's number one jitterbug." "I was interested in vocalizing as soon as I could yell 'wah-wah,'" she revealed, "and I used to sing at school plays and socials."

Vincent Lopez discovered Betty two years ago when she was working in Detroit at the Continental Night club—her first professional engagement. She's been singing with him ever since and though she doesn't think touring is so hot, she's crazy about her job.

Betty, of course, likes swing music best. "It's my chief stock in trade," she said modestly. "I've tried doing ballads but I don't sound so good at them. My favorite number is 'Jump Session.' I really don't know what my style is, but I do know that it's all my own." When asked if she isn't exhausted at the end of each piece she sings, she answered, "No, just when I get to bed at night." And she very emphatically declared, accompanied by a wrinkle of her nose, that she is not related to Ina Ray Hutton.

CHEZ PAREE

After the tour is completed, Betty and the orchestra will play at the Chez Paree in Chicago. Their last engagement was at Billy Rose's Casa Manana in New York. Next year, Betty will appear in a musical comedy on Broadway. "I don't know what it's going to be or who's putting it on. I was

FLEECE TO HOLD ANNUAL TAPPING OF NEW MEMBERS

Health Bureau Suffers $2,000 Loss In Flames

Fire of undetermined origin swept through the third story of the district health department about 4:15 yesterday morning, damaging the structure and equipment, causing an estimated loss of about $2,000.

The upper story was badly damaged by flames and water, and most of the roof support was consumed. Water damaged the entire structure, resulting in the removal of wall papering and the need of repainting. Clothes, mimeographing equipment, and office furniture were affected by the blaze.

ROBBERS SUSPECTED

Firemen quickly had the conflagration under control. Dr. W. P. Richardson, district health officer for Orange-Person-Chatham counties, said he suspected negligence by robbers who removed four large, boxed electric fans from the room where the fire was discovered.

Lopez, Hutton, Band, Make Hit With Audiences

Off to what was generally termed to be an excellent start yesterday, Junior-Senior dances will be concluded tonight after a tea dance this afternoon and the Senior ball in the Tin Can this evening. Vincent Lopez, Miss Betty Hutton, and company made a hit yesterday with local audiences and dancers and will be swinging at today's events.

This afternoon's tea dance is set for 4 to 6 o'clock and the final dance tonight begins at 9 o'clock and ends at 12 o'clock.

The orchestra played before a large house in a public concert yesterday in Memorial hall and kept the jitterbugs hopping at a tea dance from 4 to 6 o'clock and the Junior prom last night.

President Felix Markham of the senior class and Miss Mary Hunter Isaacs of Durham, will lead the figure tonight. Others in the figure will be Paul Thompson with Miss Tony Richardson of Troy, Bud Hudson with Miss Mary Ellen Harrison of Asheville, Sam Davis with Miss Ruth Montgomery of Baskerville, Va., John Moore with Miss Mary Wood Winslow of Rocky Mount, Horace Palmer with Miss Alice Rose of Henderson, Bill Hendrix with Miss Marion Galloway of Greensboro, Puddin' Wales with Miss Eloise Brown of Andalusia, Ala., Chuck Kline with Miss Sarah Starr of Mooresville, George Nethercutt with

UNIQUE
The court dance, a unique addition to the customary May Day program, will give the queen's attendants an opportunity to prove their claims to grace as well as pulchritude. Miss Melville Corbett, junior chairman of the May Day committee, said in announcing the plans, "Our aim has been to present something absolutely new in the way of a May Day program. We promise that the rest of the celebration will be as novel as the introduction of a court dance."

Another innovation will be a "Pickaninny Dance" by a group of Negro
