

EDITORIALS:
on sharecroppers
the type

The Daily Tar Heel

WEATHER:
clear and warmer

VOLUME XLVII EDITORIAL PHONE 4351 CHAPEL HILL, N. C., THURSDAY, MAY 18, 1939 BUSINESS PHONE 4356 NUMBER 175

Postponed Senior-Faculty Softball Game Is On Today

4 O'clock Affair Will Have Many Strange Features

Losing to the Junior class to the tune of 5-2 last week, the Senior sadists will come out of their dug-out in Emerson stadium this afternoon at 4 o'clock cocked to meet the Faculty playground ball sluggers in a diamond battle royal.

On the mound for the faculty will be Paul Green, Chapel Hill playwright, and toeing the dirt for the sadists will be Felix Markham, proxy of the class, with George Nethercutt behind the plate.

If some unforeseen circumstances do not prohibit the playing of President Frank Porter Graham, this one-man-ball-club is expected to wallop the Seniors single-handed. The other eight faculty clouters who will be on hand this afternoon have not been announced as yet, but it is rumored by the traditional grape vine that they will all be killer-dillers.

STONE MAY BREAK

From the ranks of the senior class will come a galaxy of stars such as "Jarring Jim" Joyner, "Big Steve" Maronic, "Squat" Eutsler, "Jimmy the Jeep" Peacock, Horace "Horse-collar" Palmer, Fran "No-hit" Gordan and Ed "j-boy" Niven.

President Franklin Roosevelt wired the DAILY TAR HEEL just before press time last night to the effect that he would be unable to attend this great classic due to a political shake-up at the nation's capitol. He stated, however, that he would give the duty of tossing the first ball over the plate to his right hand man, Voit Gilmore.

The Chapel Hill high school band will be on hand to furnish music before the game and between the innings. A baton twirling exhibition will be staged at the beginning of the eighth inning. Miss Americas from the entire nation

(Continued on page 4, column 1)

SWALIN TO DIRECT CONCERT IN HILL

Orchestra To Finish Season Next Monday

Chimaging the year's activities, the University Symphony orchestra, under the direction of Dr. Benjamin Swalin, will present its last concert of the year Monday evening at 8 o'clock in Hill Music hall. This appearance will complete the yearly series of three concerts on the campus and a number of radio broadcasts and programs given at other colleges in the state.

The orchestra is composed of students, faculty members, graduate students, townspeople, and out-of-town players and has been praised widely during the past year for its exceptionally varied programs and a high degree of musicianship in a difficult medium. Lee Wiggins is president of the organization, and Alexander Mitchell, secretary.

Education Club Founds New Organization In Record Time

Purpose Of "Future Teachers Of America" Is To Interest Youth In Teaching

The spirit and ideals of a newly founded national organization, the "Future Teachers of America," have been quickly followed here by a group of education majors.

Following the Centennial celebration of the work of Horace Mann in 1937, the "Future Teachers" was organized under the sponsorship of the National Education association, and the local Education club recently backed the chartering of North Carolina's first chapter.

The local group worked out the details of its own organization in keeping with the purpose of the movement, with emphasis being placed on personal growth, leadership, and service to the school. Stated purpose of the association is "to interest the most promising young people in teaching as a career," and this is not to be limited to college fields alone.

STATE CONCLAVE

Other institutions in the state are now considering the "Future Teachers." A state-wide meeting of representatives from colleges and universities

(Continued on page 4, column 2)

COMMENCEMENT WEEK PROGRAM IS RELEASED

14 Classes Plan Reunions During Final Activities

The baccalaureate sermon, to be preached by Dr. Wyatt Smart of Emory university, will open the commencement activities for the class of 1939 beginning June 4. A band concert and the Chapel Hill Choral club will be the other features of the day.

Class Day and Parent's Day Monday, beginning with a final class meeting at 10 o'clock, will include a reception by the president and the deans, a luncheon for seniors and parents, presentation of folk plays by the Playmakers, and a band concert. At 7 o'clock the Alumni classes will hold their reunion suppers, followed by a reception and ball at 9:30.

ALUMNI DAY AND GRADUATION

Alumni Day and Graduation Exercises will round out the three days' activities. Breakfast reunions, informal class reunions, and a parade of alumni will occupy the morning. In the afternoon an organ recital, art exhibit, gallery talk, and band program will be featured.

Graduation exercises at 7 o'clock will be the crowning event of the commencement program. The ceremonies will take place in Kenan stadium where John T. Graves of Birmingham, Alabama, will offer the commencement address. After a farewell message by Dr. Graham, Governor Hoy will present the diplomas.

During the three days the following buildings on the campus will hold an open house for all visitors: the library, Person Hall Art gallery, Hill Music hall, Graham Memorial, Charles T. Woolen gymnasium, Bowman Gray Memorial pool, Kenan stadium, Morehead-Patterson Bell tower, Venable hall, and the new medical and public health building.

CLASS REUNIONS

Those alumni classes holding reunions here will include: "Old Students' club," 1897, 1898, 1899, and 1900; 1914; 1916, 1917, 1918, and 1919; 1935, 1936, 1937, and 1938.

Headquarters for Commencement registration will be in the main lobby of the Carolina inn. Here alumni may register, receive dormitory room assignments, and purchase reunion banquet tickets.

No Commerce 61 Cuts

Mr. Crissy requests that all students of commerce 61 be present at his 8:30 class today. Very important business will be taken up and no unexcused cuts will be accepted.

John Couch Granted Assistance In Work With Fungus Growth

The Carnegie Corporation of New York has granted assistance to John N. Couch of the department of botany to carry on further work on "The Genus Septobasidium," concerning which Professor Couch issued a book, published in 1938 by the University press.

This work has immense practical as well as scientific significance because it related to the health of trees, especially the oaks, which have been threatened by fungus growth due to the importance of Professor Couch's book in the field of these studies, the Boston Society of Natural history has awarded him its prize. In awarding this prize the Society stated that it was given "not only because of the great novelty and high excellence of his work, but also in consequence of its broad character."

Professor Couch has also reached a distinguished position in the association of botanical scholars by his recent election as secretary and treasurer of the Mycological Society of America.

New CPU Head

Harry Gatton, rising senior, who will take over the reins of the Carolina Political union next year. Gatton has been a member since his freshman year and has concentrated most of his activities to that organization.

MAY CEREMONIES ARE FINALLY GIVEN YESTERDAY

"Old South" Motif Is Used In Long Awaited Coed Day

Chapel Hill's spring flowers weather abated long enough for the crowning of Miss Olive Cruikshank as May queen yesterday afternoon. Miss Mollie Albritton was her maid-of-honor in the pageant sponsored by Alpha Kappa Gamma, which had the "Old South" as its theme.

The queen's attendants were: Misses Jane Hunter, Elizabeth Gammon, Ethel Laidlaw, Helen Jacobs, Roberta Winton, Bernice Brantley, Betty Redfern, Melville Corbett, Janet Lawrence and Miriam Durrett.

The scene of the pageant was the lawn before a colonial home on a plantation in the deep South. As the play opened a child, Little Miss Ruth Young, was discovered asleep on the steps of her home. A fairy, Miss Jeanne Basnight, danced in, was frightened and ran away leaving a garland which later became the May day crown. The child, awakened by her toy Jack-in-the-box, Miss Mary Ethel Ellington, discovered the garland and tried it on, thinking it was a gift for her. It does not fit and the child goes in search of the most

(Continued on page 4, column 4)

Playmakers' "Noah" To Have First Showing Tonight At 8:30

New Alumni Officers Will Discuss Plans At Meeting Today

Discussion and formulation of plans for their program during the ensuing year will be the business before newly elected officers and directors of the University Alumni association who meet here today at 11 o'clock at the Carolina Inn.

Charles W. Tillett, Charlotte attorney and recently elected President of the Alumni association, will preside over the sessions today.

Other officers serving with Mr. Tillett include Fred I. Sutton of Kinston and W. A. Blount of New York, vice presidents; J. C. B. Ehringhaus of Raleigh, past president; and George Watts Hill of Durham, treasurer; and Marjory Saunders of Chapel Hill, executive secretary.

Directors are Dr. Hubert B. Haywood and R. C. deRosset of Raleigh; Roy Abernethy and George Stephens, of Asheville; Leo H. Harvey, Kinston; D. E. Hudgins and E. Earle Rives of Greensboro; John W. Umstead, Chapel Hill; C. R. Jonas, Lenoir; Ben Sloan, Sylva; L. T. Hartsell, Jr., Concord; Gordon Gray, Winston-Salem; Thomas Turner, Jr., High Point; T. A. DeVane, Fayetteville; Ben K. Lassiter, Oxford; T. J. Pearsall, Rocky Mount; Dr. J. C. Taylor, Washington, N. C.; J. T. Greenham, Warsaw; W. B. Ellis, Greenville, S. G.; Lenoir Chambers, Norfolk, Va.; and W. D. Carmichael, Jr., New York.

CLUB ANNOUNCES CLOSE OF FINALS BID SALES TODAY

Bids Available To German Club Members For $9

Advance sale of invitations to the Finals series, for which Will Osborne and Jimmy Lunceford will play June 1 through June 3, will end today, Louis Sutton, acting secretary-treasurer of the German club, said yesterday.

Bids may be obtained at one dollar less the regular price of $10. Only German club members may obtain bids at the advance sale. However seniors may secure bids by paying a one-dollar initiation fee plus the set assessment. Undergraduates may join the club by paying a $5 initiation fee.

SCHEDULE

The Finals schedule is as follows: Thursday, afternoon concert, 5 o'clock to 6:30, evening dance, 9:30 to 1 o'clock; Friday, tea dance from 4:30 to 6:30, and evening formal from 10 to 2 o'clock; Saturday, tea dance, 4 to 6 o'clock, and final formal, 9 to 12 o'clock.

Members of the club executive committee who are in charge of the sale of set bids are as follows: Louis Sutton, Zeta Psi; Harold Sager, Beta Theta Pi; Louis Jordan, Sigma Chi; Billy Worth, Sigma Alpha Epsilon; John Moore, Delta Kappa Epsilon; Charles Lynch, Sigma Nu; Bill Davis, Kappa Sigma; Junius Tillery, Kappa

(Continued on page 4, column 4)

IRC WILL HOLD FINAL BANQUET

Registration Closes At 12 O'clock Today

As a final event of the year's program, members of the International Relations club will hold a banquet at 7:30 tomorrow night in Graham Memorial. At this session the club will install officers for the coming year and hear a summary of the year's work.

Those desiring to attend the get-together may turn in their names to either Miss Doris Goerch or Dorothy Coble by noon today. The one dollar assessment fee for the banquet will be expected at that time, or by tomorrow night at the latest.

Officers who are to be installed are: president, Walter Kleeman; vice-president, Joe Dawson; secretary, Miss Mary Lewis; and treasurer, Lincoln Kan

Wynn And Prince Will Play Leads In Outdoor Drama

Andre Obey's whimsical drama, "Noah," will be presented by the Playmakers for the first time tonight at 8:30 in the forest theater. The production will again be given on Friday and Saturday nights and is under the direction of Dr. Frederick H. Koch.

Earl Wynn, director of voice and diction in the department of dramatic art, will appear in the leading role Noah. Opposite Wynn Miss Lillian Prince will appear as Mama Noah, Misses Patsy McMullan, Rieta Bailey, and Elizabeth Malone will take the parts of the three girls in the play and the roles of Ham, Shem, and Haphet will be played by Bill Morgan, Don Muller, and Allan Andrews.

MANY ANIMALS

In addition to the biblical characters listed above there will be a large cast of animals including a lion, a lamb, an elephant, a skunk, and a tiger. Professor Harry Davis has been drafted to replace Jimmy Schleifer as the front end of the elephant, Schleifer being detained in the infirmary for chicken pox.

An elaborate set consisting of a 32-foot high ark with two decks and three stage levels has been designed and executed for the production by Elmer Hall of the dramatic art department. In case of a second flood the Playmakers assure the audience of a refuge from the tempest in their water-

(Continued on page 4, column 5)

Dr. Graham To Close Student Government Meet With Talk; Weaver Speaks On Fee Status

Coffin, Spearman Tell Daily Tar Heel Its Faults

The second day of the Campus Government conference came to an end last night with a dinner and general session in the banquet hall of Graham Memorial featuring Fred Weaver as principal speaker. Weaver spoke on "The History and Status of Student Fees" which in his words is a "voluntary tax system."

"In 1910 the cost of attending the University was only $85," said Weaver to the approximately 75 campus leaders present, "and then a large number of fees were voted upon by the campus which now causes the tremendous cost of getting an education at Chapel Hill." He suggested that student fees be reconsidered by a campus vote. His proposal was a blanket fee for student activities of $25 with which the audit board will apportion the amount given to the various campus organizations.

ORIENTATION

Other speakers on the program were John Kendrick, Sam Hobbs, John Creedy, John Bonner, Charles Putzel and Bob Magill, chairman of the conference. Immediately following the speeches a discussion from the floor brought up various points of interest such as "the inadequacy of the freshman orientation system."

At the publications sub-group in the afternoon O. J. Coffin and Walter Spearman were the principal speakers during the TAR HEEL session. Coffin gave his reason against the proposal by the campus newspaper's managing editor for a wire service for off-campus news. His chief objections were that "The DAILY TAR HEEL is for campus news only" and that "a wire service would be too expensive." Coffin also stated, "The campus daily can

(Continued on page 4, column 1)

ALUMNUS TO HEAD NEW YORK FIRM

Was Very Active In Administration

Daniel L. Grant, who was for a number of years connected with the University in various administrative capacities, serving at different times as Alumni secretary, Alumni Loyalty Fund director, secretary to the President, and assistant to the business manager, has been named head of the new firm of Grant and Atkins, Inc., of New York city, which will conduct a consulting service on bank investment policies and programs, according to an announcement just received here.

Mr. Grant is also president of the Lindsey Grant and Company, Inc., a member of the Investment Committee of Manhattan Foundation, Inc., and was formerly on the research staff of Mayflower Associates, Inc. He has been engaged in economic re-

(Continued on page 4, column 1)

Playmaker Elephant Split By Case Of Chicken Pox

To Take Lead

Dramatic art professor Earl Wynn will play the lead role of Noah in Andre Obey's whimsical drama of the same name.

Sessions Resume At 2:30 To Wind Up First SGC

"Student Government as an Educational Process" will be the topic of Dr. Frank Graham as he speaks at the final dinner and general session of the Campus Government conference this evening at 6:30 in Graham Memorial. Organization leadership, a special interest group of the conference which turned in successful reports yesterday, will resume its session at 2:30 this afternoon in the Grail room.

Following Dr. Graham's address at the concluding event of the three-day conference will be a discussion to bring

TODAY'S EVENTS

- In Graham Memorial
- 2:30—Special interest groups.
- 1. Organization leadership—Grail room.
- 2. Publications—room 212.
- 3:30—3. Parliamentary procedure—room 213.
- 6:30—Final dinner and general session—Banquet hall.

up and discuss any points or questions concerning Dr. Graham's speech or relating to any other field of the conference that has not been answered sufficiently.

The session on leadership will feature a talk by Dean Francis F. Bradshaw on the "Ten Commandments of Leadership" in which he will review the qualities necessary to campus leaders. An open discussion will follow Dean Bradshaw's speech.

WOODHOUSE

Another parliamentary procedure group will be led today by E. J. Woodhouse at 3:30 in room 213.

The two publications sub-groups will meet as a unit today in room 212 to resume their discussion on the PU board and to talk about any other matters those present might bring up. This conference, the first of its kind on Carolina's campus, is sponsored by

(Continued on page 4, column 1)

Freshmen Reject Single Pictures In Yackety Yack

Despite a unanimous vote of the 300 students present, the rising sophomore class yesterday defeated the measure for individual photos in the Yackety-Yack through lack of attendance. An affirmative vote from fifty per cent of the class was necessary to replace the present group pictures by individual shots.

With Charley Wood furnishing music for the occasion, Memorial hall slowly filled with both rising sophomores and students from other classes, but the 360-odd freshmen needed to pass the issue never did come. Alonzo

(Continued on page 4, column 2)

Harry Davis To Substitute So That Forest Theater Production May Go On

By DORIS GOERCH

"Even though the front end of the elephant has chicken pox, we are sure that the Forest theater production, "Noah," will be a great success," Earl Wynn, who has the leading role in the drama, said yesterday. He explained that Harry Davis will replace Jimmy Schleifer, who has been playing opposite Miss Terrell Everett, the back end of the elephant.

"Noah" is a whimsical, modern interpretation of what might have happened in days of Noah from the beginning of the flood to the end," Wynn said. "Its charm lies in its whimsy and lightness though at times it ventures into the field of seriousness. Because of its action, music, and variety of moods, the story adapts itself to outdoor production."

WYNN, VOICE DIRECTOR

Wynn, who will play the role of Noah in Andre Obey's drama, is director of voice and diction in the department of dramatic art. He came

(Continued on page 4, column 2)