

Registration Rises To Total Of 3,324

Coed Enrollment Expected To Total Approximately 500

Registrations at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon for the 146th session of the University totaled 3,324, according to I. C. Griffin, central records office head. One thousand four hundred and fifty-eight freshmen, transfers and a limited number of upperclassmen, registered Wednesday, the first day of registration.

Final tabulations last fall reached 3,480, a new high in the history of the University.

Registration headquarters today move from Woollen gymnasium to Memorial hall. There will be no check-out line until 2 o'clock in the afternoon because of the morning University convocation exercises in the auditorium. The check-out line will be located in the upper lobby of the assembly hall.

Well over 300 coeds had registered at 4 o'clock with prospects of another 100 registering before closing time, an assistant to Mrs. M. H. Stacy, adviser to women, said. Approximately 500 women are expected to be in the University this fall in comparison to a total of some 300 registers.

(Continued on page 2, column 2)

ROSS WILL PLAY FOR COED DANCE TONIGHT AT 10

Attention Called To Change In Site To Main Lounge

The annual dance for new undergraduate coeds will be held tonight in the main lounge of Graham Memorial from 10 to 1 o'clock, with music furnished by Ted Ross and his orchestra.

Attention was called yesterday to the change in place from Woollen Gymnasium, as was announced on bids, to Graham Memorial.

Altajane Holden, head of the orientation committee, announced that 200 boys had been selected by the committee to attend the ball, and that all dates would be "blind."

Regulations require that no girl leave the building during the festivities, unless to return to the dormitory. Each girl must be in her room by 2 a.m.

The dance is formal.

Lieutenant-Governor Horton To Open CPU Fall Program

National Leaders To Make Speeches Later In Quarter

Chairman Harry Gattton of the Carolina Political Union yesterday said Lieutenant-Governor W. P. Horton, one of the state's five unannounced candidates for governor, would be the first of several prominent presidential and gubernatorial aspirants the Union plans to present this year.

Horton is expected to make a formal announcement either at a Horton-for-governor rally to be held in Pittsboro tomorrow or in his address at the Thursday, September 28.

Gattton said the Union has

(Continued on page 2, column 2)

FROSH WILL GET FIRST TASTE OF CHAPEL TODAY

Regulations Given For Attendance At Daily Sessions

University freshmen will attend their first meeting of chapel this morning at 10 o'clock in Memorial hall where the session will be formally opened by President Frank Graham.

Beginning Monday morning, chapel will be held at its regular hour of 10:30 each morning, Monday through Friday, with attendance of the freshmen being required until a later date in the school year, according to Dean F. F. Bradshaw, chairman of the faculty committee in charge of chapel.

Freshmen will be allowed five cuts per quarter. Freshman advisors again this year will deal with those students who exceed the allowed number of cuts. A strict attendance record will be taken daily.

Dean House will speak Monday morning.

PURPOSE
The purpose of the scheduled programs is to provide the new students with a continuation of the orientation program and to acquaint freshmen with certain personalities and department heads they should know. At chapel freshmen have the opportunity.

Yearbook Staff Gives Requests On Appearance

The Yackety Yack staff yesterday requested that all boys wear white shirts, solid black ties and dark coats when pictures are made.

Girls should wear sweaters with no collars showing or handkerchiefs around neck. Necklaces may be worn.

The staff urged all students to keep appointments. Those who do not have appointments may go when convenient.

All juniors and seniors and junior-senior transfer students who registered Wednesday should come by the Yackety Yack office Monday from 2 to 5 o'clock to arrange appointments.

Hobart McIver Is Elected Freshman Council President

Hobart McIver of Greensboro was elected president of this year's Freshman Friendship council at its organization meeting in the Presbyterian church Sunday night. The meeting culminated the three-day pre-college retreat schedule.

Mike Mangum of Winston-Salem and Dick Berry of Spartanburg, S. C., were elected vice-president and secretary, respectively. Sam Williams of Raleigh was selected treasurer.

Charles Putzel, Doug Martin and Bill McKee participated in the devotionals.

Nice, Sweet, Cute, Etc.

Here are the eight girls who have organized the new sorority, Alpha Delta Pi, on the campus. Looking from left to right: Mary Carroll Engleman, Marie McLelland, Mary Bason, Mary Rice Brogan, Margaret Henderson, Ludie Bothwell, Helen Copenhaver, and Sarah Frances Crosby, president.

Three Sororities To Open Rushing Season October 1

Alpha Delta Pi To Be Founded Here This Year

For the first time in the history of the University three sororities will begin rushing when the season is officially opened October 1.

Alpha Delta Pi, international social sorority, will be established here this fall, the chapter being founded by eight girls. Official opening of the local group is set for November when the national officers come to Chapel Hill.

Newly elected officers are: Miss Sarah Frances Crosby, president; Miss Margaret Henderson, vice-president; Miss Mary Rice Brogan, secretary; Miss Mary Bason, treasurer; Miss Helen Copenhaver, rush captain; Miss Marie McLelland, assistant rush captain; Miss Ludie Bothwell, chaplain; and Miss Mary Carroll Engleman, general handyman.

These eight girls, assisted by four local alumnae: Mrs. T. S. Graves, Mrs. Gwynne Daggett, Mrs. Oliver Brewer, and Mrs. T. M. Andrews, will begin rushing October 1.

Alpha Delta Pi, the oldest secret social sorority, was founded at Wesleyan in 1851. The local group will be the fifty-eighth chapter in the national organization. There are two other chapters in North Carolina: Duke and Queens-Chicora.

Miss Crosby, the newly-elected president of the local chapter, is from Chester, S. C., and formerly attended Brenau college. While at Brenau Miss Crosby was president of the Brenau chapter for two years, president of the YWCA, May Queen, a member of the senior honor society, the dance group, and the glee club.

Glee Club Meeting Scheduled Today

The first general meeting of the Glee club will be held at 5 o'clock today at Hill Music hall. Dates of tryouts will be announced then.

Students Must Call To Get Telegrams

Students expecting telegrams should call for them at Western Union, as the company does not yet have new addresses, it was announced yesterday.

SEVERAL ALUMNI, STUDENTS TIE BRIDAL KNOTS

Some Hold Troths In Local Churches During Past Summer

Carolina students and alumni tied several bridal knots this summer, and several chose to plight troth in village churches. Among the latest weddings was that of Earl Wynn, instructor in dramatic arts and assistant director of the Carolina Playmakers, and Miss Irene Schwartzlinger of Savanna, Ill.

The vows were spoken before Dr. Joseph Durlingston at the Presbyterian manse in Danville, Va., Friday, September 8, with John Parker acting as best man and Mrs. Parker as matron of honor. The couple will make their home here after today.

Dr. Creighton Clinton Jones, who received his Ph. D. degree in physics here in spring 1938, was married to Miss Louise Isabel Bolton at the Presbyterian church September 5. Rev. R. L.

(Continued on page 2, column 2)

Lectures Given To 150 Freshmen At YMCA Retreat

Opening last Friday night, the pre-college retreat, drawing about 150 first year men, upperclassmen, faculty members and village ministers, was the first official event on the University fall calendar.

Using the "Y" triangle of "Body, Mind, Spirit," the program was conducted with Charles Putzel, vice-president of the Y.M.C.A., presiding. Prior to the talks of the main speakers, Coach Raymond B. Wolfe, Dean R. B. House and Dean Francis F. Bradshaw, John Bonner, president of the "Y," gave a

(Continued on page 2, column 4)

Pool Will Reopen At 4 O'clock Today

Bowman Gray Memorial pool opens this afternoon at 4 o'clock. Upperclassmen will take their physical examinations at the University infirmary.

Giant $2,500,000 Building Program Nears Completion

PRESIDENT OPENS 146TH SESSION WITH TALK TODAY

Convocation Program Begins At 10 O'clock In Memorial Hall

Officially opening the 146th session of the University, President Frank Graham this morning will address students and faculty at 10 o'clock in Memorial hall as the speaker of an hour-long convocation program.

Invocation will be pronounced by the Rev. Alfred S. Lawrence of the Chapel of the Cross.

Dean of administration R. B. House yesterday explained that the time necessary for the program will be "clipped" from the classes meeting at 9:30. South building's bell will ring at 9:53 as a signal for the gathering. The program will end promptly at 11 o'clock. With the exception of the 9:30 classes, all others will meet as scheduled.

Dr. Graham said yesterday that he was not yet ready to announce the subject of his talk, "because I might change my mind at any minute, and if I announce it, I'd have to stick to it."

Aviation Course Will Be Offered To Students

Students in the University, whether they are resident at State college in Raleigh or in the University at Chapel Hill, who desire to take advantage of the government service in training aviators, will be handled through the aviation unit at State college, it has been announced by President Frank P. Graham, after consultation with Dean John W. Harrelson of State college and Dean R. B. House.

If the demand for training should become more pressing in the future, the present action would be no bar to other arrangements as the situation might warrant, President Graham said.

The situation at State college is already cared for because the

(Continued on page 3, column 5)

Students Moving In Two New Dorms As Session Opens

As the University opened its 146th session today, hundreds of laborers worked in shifts to rush the completion of the most extensive building program in Chapel Hill's history.

Already completed stand two new women's dormitories, three men's dormitories, a half-million-dollar gymnasium and swimming pool, and a new medical school and health center.

Students yesterday began moving into dormitories "K" and "L" which lacked a few finishing touches, but were, for the most part, livable.

OTHER BUILDINGS

When the last rivet has been driven home, and the last brush mark smoothed out, the University will have, beside the above mentioned structures, a new zoology building, an apartment for graduate students, a new power plant, another dining hall and an addition to the Carolina inn to take care of those who come here for short courses

(Continued on page 2, column 2)

TRUSTEES' BOARD WILL NAME NEW UNC CONTROLLER

Announcement Of Selection Will Be Made In January

Selection of the new Controller of the University, an office vacant since the death of Charles T. Woollen last September, will be made at the next meeting of the University Board of Trustees early this January, President Frank Graham has announced.

Meanwhile, a special committee of three, who will consider candidates for the office and confer with Dr. Graham before making a choice, has been appointed. Members of the committee are Charles Whedley of Hertford, Victor Bryant of Durham, and Thomas Chatham of Winston-Salem. Recommendations of the committee will be submitted to the full board of trustees at the January meeting when the selection will be formally announced.

Freshmen End Orientation; Coeds Will Finish Monday

Inspiration Service In Episcopal School Will Finish Program

Sponsored by the University YWCA, the orientation retreat for new girls which began last Monday afternoon will continue the rest of this week and be wound up on next Monday night with an inspiration service in the Episcopal chapel.

At 5 o'clock Monday afternoon, the "big sisters" met their "little sisters" at Spencer hall and took them to dinner immediately after which there was a step-sing led by Miss Mary Jean Bronson and sponsored by the Women's Glee club at Spencer

(Continued on page 2, column 4)

First-Year Men Began Program Four Days Ago

With the beginning of fall quarter classes this morning, several hundred freshmen who began arriving on the campus last Saturday will have completed a four-day orientation program which began with a general assembly last Monday morning.

Planned and executed by Cecil Sanford, Jim Davis and an orientation committee of about 70 the program included meetings with advisers and counselors, placement tests, and physical examinations inter-spaced by social events. On Monday evening, the new students attended

(Continued on page 3, column 5)

246814