

Gubernatorial Candidates Speak Tonight

Frosh Choose Slate, Nominate 34 Men

Group Is Largest To Participate In Freshman Elections

With 34 nominees for the four freshman class offices, the first year men yesterday morning in Memorial hall selected the largest group of candidates ever to appear in a frosh election.

In chapel period Thursday morning the candidates will be introduced to the class and the presidential nominees will make brief talks. Polls will open in the YMCA immediately after the program at 11 o'clock and will remain open until 5:30 in the afternoon.

Two freshman candidates late last night announced their withdrawal from the political race. Jim Groome, nominated for the class presidency, said that he is withdrawing in favor of Tom Crudup, and Bob Bourne announced that he is withdrawing in favor of George Adams as treasurer. Neither of the candidates gave any reasons for his action.

Nominated for president were 10 members of the class of '43 only two of whom were from out of state. The candidates were: Henry Fitts, Roanoke Rapids; Tom Crudup, Henderson; Hobart McKeever, Greensboro; Yates Potat, Spindale; Bob Wright, Weaverville; Bill Sigler, Milwaukee, Wis.; Charlie Hancock, Oxford; Bill Lackey, Statesville; Moyer Hendrix, Winston.

(Continued on page 4, column 4)

DI REJECTS PHI'S CHALLENGE TO FOOTBALL GAME

Committee Advises Investigation Of Campus Problems

The Dialectic Senate, at the meeting in New West last night, "refusing to lower the collective dignity of the senate and recognizing the superiority of the Phi Assembly in regard to brawn," rejected the challenge of the Phi Assembly to a touch football game with a keg of beer as the stake.

Edward Kantrowitz, chairman of the Ways and Means committee, presented a report from that group in which is recommended the appointment of committees to investigate the set-up, work, function and future of the student legislature, the dormitory stores, and the German club.

The following new members were accepted into the Di Senate: Buck Osborne and Nolan Ryan.

Student Party To Hold First Meeting At 10 O'Clock Tonight

Mitchell Britt's Resignation As Chairman Rumored

Student party convention delegates will meet for the first time of the current school year at 10 o'clock in the Phi assembly hall tonight for possible selection of a new party chairman, Mitchell Britt, who has piloted the party through two spring campaigns, announced yesterday afternoon.

Britt did not state for what purpose the convention is being called but it has been rumored that he will resign. Britt is now enrolled in the law school and it is known the law school faculty frowns on extra-curricular activities.

LATE HOURS

The late hour was selected, Britt vention, where all party candidates Interdormitory council and with the CPU's "prospective gubernatorial candidate" debate.

Delegates to the Student party considered, to prevent a conflict with the for office are chosen, represent each

(Continued on page 2, column 6)

Instructor Gets Call To Fight With French Army

Jacques Hardré, French instructor at the University, will sail this week for France to fight with his country's army in the second World War, it was announced yesterday by the French department.

Hardré received a special delivery letter last Sunday morning from the French consul in Philadelphia ordering him to report there as soon as possible. He left Chapel Hill the next day.

Hardré attended high school in France but received special permission from the French authorities to postpone serving his compulsory two-year military service so that he might obtain his M.A. in the United States. He taught for a year at Guilford college and joined the University faculty this fall.

The night before he left Chapel Hill he had dinner with a German-born friend. "My only regret," he confessed, "is that I'll miss the Carolina-Duke game."

Vincent To Take Office As Dorm Council President

Jack Vincent will be installed as president of the Interdormitory council at a meeting of the group tonight in Graham Memorial at 7:30. Vincent automatically takes the office in place of the president elected last spring, John Singletary, who did not return to school this fall.

Vincent, a senior from Roanoke Rapids, is on the council this year for the third consecutive time. He has been president of Grimes dormitory for two years and was elected vice president of the Interdormitory council in last spring's election.

At tonight's meeting the new vice-president will be selected, and 10 representatives will be elected to serve on the Student legislature as delegates from the council. The council's member on the University Dance committee will also be elected.

Other officers of the council are Herbert Langsam and Stencil Strowd, secretary and treasurer respectively.

Riding Club Meets

There will be a meeting of the horse-back riding group in room 213 of Graham Memorial, tonight at 7:30. All members are requested to attend in order that arrangements may be made to begin riding this week. Newcomers are invited.

New Orleans To Be Scene Of Alumni Banquet Saturday

University of North Carolina alumni in Louisiana, Mississippi, and Texas will get together at a dinner at the St. Charles hotel at 6:30 following the Carolina-Tulane football game in New Orleans Saturday.

Dean R. B. House and Alumni Secretary J. M. Saunders, who are going down for the game and meeting will also attend alumni gatherings en route at Atlanta, Thursday night, and Birmingham, Friday noon.

J. M. Porter is president of the New Orleans Alumni association, and is in charge of arrangements for the dinner meeting there.

Special invitations have been extended to President Rufus C. Harris and other Tulane officials; to the Carolina coaches, and to the several alumni on the Tulane faculty.

These include Dr. C. F. Hard, Dean of Newcomb college, and Professors Stuart G. Noble, N. C. Curtis, E. Scott Barr, and Guy V. Cardwell, Jr.

CITIZENS PLAN NEGRO CENTER FOR CHAPEL HILL

Project To Provide Social, Athletic, Dramatic Facilities

A Community center, which will include a day nursery for small children, is being planned by local citizens for the Negro residents of Chapel Hill.

Planned to be situated at "the old Craig place" on West Rosemary lane, in the center of the Negro section, the project will be similar to those carried out at Greensboro, Rocky Mount and Raleigh.

The center will embrace five acres and will provide facilities for recreation for the Negroes. Such places have proven valuable aids toward increasing self-respect.

TRUSTEES

The plot of land was obtained by Chapel Hill men interested in improving the status of Negroes. They signed a note of $1,500 to the Bank of Chapel Hill in getting the plot: Those signing were: W. C. Coker, R. J. M. Hobbs, R. B. House, M. S. Breckenridge, D. D. Carroll, Louis Graves, A. W. Hobbs, Paul Wager, R. M. Grumman and Lee M. Brooks. They are acting as trustees for the purchase until a permanent organization is formed.

Mayor J. M. Foushee and 15 other Chapel Hillians recently inspected Rocky Mount's Negro community center, which was constructed through $10,000 in municipal funds and a WPA grant. The center includes a large auditorium for social, dramatic and athletic events on the main floor and a game room in the basement.

APPROVAL

Chief W. T. Sloan has expressed hearty approval of the plan and says he believes the project will aid in reduction of law violations. "Let's give them a chance to get off the streets. It's better to give them encouragement to be decent, law-abiding, than it is to have to chase them down, haul them into court, and punish them with fines and road sentences."

JUNIOR CLASS GROUPS TO MEET

Dance, Executive Committees Called

The Junior class executive and dance committees will hold their first meeting tonight at 9 o'clock in room 212 of Graham Memorial.

The five coeds who have been appointed to the executive committee are Stacey Crockett, Francis Dyckman, Frances Gibson, Betty Brown, Marjorie Johnston. Other members of the executive committee are: Louis Gaylord, chairman; Allen Grimes, Sid Sadoff, Jim Gray, Bobby Sloan, Harry Jones, Reddy Grubbs, Lester Branson, Billy Hand, Joe Joyner, Bill Dees, Bill Shufford, Paul Severin, Leslie Tomlinson, Frank Reynolds, David Sessoms, Walter Sheffield, Kenan Williams, Coleman Finkel, Jim Mallory, Rufus Brown, Walter Hargroves, Charlie Idol, Walsh Turner, Skipper Bowles, George Frisby, Chris Siewers, Ike Grainger.

Members of the dance committee are: Ott Burton, chairman; Carroll McGaughey, Charlie Barker, Bob Farris, Jim Bryan, Herb Hardy, and Don Baker.

Boggs To Represent Southern States At Conference

Dr. Ralph S. Boggs, professor of Spanish and a noted folklorist, has received a letter from Secretary of State Cordell Hull, asking him to represent this section of the country at a conference on Inter-American relations in the field of music. The conference will be held in Washington, D. C., today and tomorrow.

This is one of several conferences to be sponsored by the division of Cultural Relations of the State department for the purpose of promoting cultural interest between the United States and the Latin American countries.

Political Hopefuls, Speakers

The four men pictured above will tonight take part in the CPU's panel discussion of the state political situation at 8 o'clock in Memorial hall. All are probable candidates for the governorship of North Carolina although they have not officially announced their candidacy. Top row, left to right: J. M. Broughton, and A. J. Maxwell. Bottom: Willis Smith, and Tom Cooper.

CPU WILL SPONSOR APPEARANCE OF FOUR ASPIRANTS

Panel Discussion To Be Held At 8 In Memorial Hall

Four of the six gubernatorial candidates will hold a panel discussion on the state political situation this evening at 8 o'clock in Memorial hall, under the sponsorship of the Carolina Political Union. After the four speakers, J. M. Broughton, A. J. Maxwell, Tom Cooper, and Willis Smith, have concluded their addresses, the floor will be opened to questions from the audience.

Directly following the program in Memorial hall, a reception will be held in the main lounge of Graham Memorial, at which time students and faculty will be able to meet and talk with the candidates informally.

Tonight's panel discussion will mark the first time in the history of the state that four men in the gubernatorial race will appear on the same platform. The other candidates are Lieutenant-Governor W. P. Horton, who appeared as a CPU speaker three weeks ago, and Lee Gravely, Rocky Mount business man, who announced

(Continued on page 2, column 6)

PHI PLANS DANCE; ISSUES ANOTHER CHALLENGE TO DI

Motion To Replace German Club Defeated, 21-7

The Phi assembly will give a formal dance November 10, it was decided last night at the meeting.

A motion was passed 19 to 10 that the Phi challenge the Di to a debate, a keg of beer going to the winner.

The motion: "Resolved: That the Phi assembly favor the establishment of an organization composed of members from the Interfraternity council and the Interdormitory council in equal proportions which will assume the duties of the German club," was defeated by a vote of 21 to 7.

Eleven new members were initiated at the meeting.

The dance committee composed of Representatives Burton, chairman; Edwards, Pittman, Farris, and Ellison, will offer tentative arrangements for the dance at the next meeting.

There was much discussion on the German club bill. Representative Sloan pointed out that the club lost $900 on one dance last year. Representative Broadfoot said that the entire club should not be blamed for one failure and that a new organization probably could not do any better. He also suggested that it might be difficult for a new organization to secure the proper authority to give dances since the German club already has the authority.

New IRC Members Meet With Group Tonight At 8

The 30 students who have been accepted into the membership of the International Relations club will meet with regular members tonight in the small lounge of Graham Memorial at 8 o'clock.

The new members are Elton Edwards, Charles Uire, Jean Breckenridge, June Rose Epstein, Pauline Smith, Bettie Harward, Warren Blake Harrelson, Martha Clappitt, Alire Bard Wells, Moten Hubert Gobky, Melville Jordan, Jr., George Ham, Jr., Frances Walton, Thomas Hallett, Bernard Richter, Manfred Levey, Robert Fisher, Sanford Goldberg, Emanuel Rickin, Roy Asch, Edward Stelling, Jr., Howard Kalin, Noland Ryan, Goro Deeb, Warren Bernstein, Frances Dyckman, Victor Hallowell, Polly Polluda, and Terrill Everett.

Embargo Poll

A poll on "Cash-and-Carry vs. Embargo" will be held today at the YMCA by the American Student Union.

Playmakers Open Fall Season Tonight With 'No More Peace'

Sam Selden Directs Production; Play Is Satire On War

With the production of Ernest Toller's anti-war comedy "No More Peace," which opens a four-performance run tonight at 8:30 in the Playmakers theater, the Carolina Playmakers launch their fall dramatic season.

The production will be repeated tomorrow, Friday and Saturday nights.

Under the direction of Sam Selden, the play is said to have developed into a lively musical comedy satirizing war, and is expected to be one of the most finished productions ever presented by the dramatic group. Dr. J. P. Schinhan of the University Music department is musical director for the play.

NOVEL EFFECT

A novel effect is provided in the staging of the play by the use of two playing levels. Elmer Hall is in charge of the staging.

Action of the plot revolves around an argument between Napoleon and St. Francis of Assisi in Olympus. From Olympus the action does a hop, skip and jump to Dunklestein, an imaginary country on the Spanish-French border where a war breaks out during a peace celebration.

TIMELY

Timely because of the conditions today, the play is expected to have a wide appeal on the campus.

Reserved seats will be one dollar and are on sale at Ledbetter-Pickard and at 316 South building. Tickets will also be on sale at the box office.

Dates Of Summer Sessions Announced

G. B. Phillips, secretary of the summer session, announced yesterday that the first session of summer school for the year 1940 will begin June 13, and end July 20. The second session will begin July 22, and end August 28.

While no appreciable increase in enrollment is anticipated, most departments are expecting to expand the courses they offered during the past summer and several new courses may be opened.

Pan-American Club Will Hear Leavitt Tonight

Dr. S. E. Leavitt of the Spanish department, will be the speaker in the first of a series of public lectures sponsored by the Pan-American club tonight at 7:30 in 214 Graham Memorial when the club holds its first meeting since its organization two weeks ago.

The club will also elect a president, vice-president and secretary tonight, but no treasurer will be chosen as the club will charge no dues.

"What is Pan-Americanism?" will be the subject of Dr. Leavitt's address, in which he will explain his interpretation of the meaning of the term. Mary Beard, acting secretary of the club, in announcing the lecture series, explained that its purpose is to "give the general public an opportunity to learn something of Pan-Americanism."

Requirements for membership in the organization, as announced by the executive committee, are that the applicant show an active interest in latin-America, its problems, and relationship among individual latin-American countries and between them and the United States.

Frosh Meet Advisers

All freshmen are asked to meet their advisers this morning at chapel period instead of Memorial hall. The meeting is compulsory. Advisers will meet their advisees in the following places: Armstrong, 203 New East; Edmisler, 305 Venable; Elder, 208 Peabody; Emory, 112 New East; Hill, 206 Phillips; Johnson, 314 Saunders; McKie, 111 Murphy; Perry, Gerrard hall; Phillips, 204 Peabody; Saunders 103 Bingham; Dean Spruill, 208 Bingham; Wells, 101 New West; Dean Beard (pharmacy frosh), Howell auditorium.

Notice

The Circulation department in Graham Memorial will pay 5 cents a copy for a limited number of the Sept. 22, 23, 24, 27 issues.