

The Daily Tar Beel THE ONLY COLLEGE DAILY IN THE SOUTHEAST

VOLUME XLVIII

Business: 9886; Circulation: 9881

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1939

Editorial: 4356; News: 4351; Night: 6906

NUMBER 43

Pep Rally Tonight Ushers In Homecoming

Septet Of Sponsors For Sophomore Dance

Kay Barnes

Patty McNeely

Mary Ann Pascal

Rosemary Marshall

Betty Sexton

Evelyn Willis

Anne Mauldin

These seven young ladies will trip lightly to the music of Dan Gregory tonight at the annual sophomore class hop, and participate with their dates in the figure. The dance in Woollen gymnasium will be the opening feature of several activities planned in celebration of Homecoming and Greater University day.

Top row, left to right: Miss Barnes of Manister, Michigan, who will be escorted by Bill McKinnon, secretary of the sophomore class; Miss McNeely, of Mooresville, with Bill Alexander, president of the class; Miss Pascal, of Winston-Salem, with Charlie Reece, chairman of the finance committee.

Bottom row: Miss Marshall, of Birmingham, Ala., with Truman Hobbs, treasurer of the class; Miss Sexton, of Ra-Sunday Afternoon leigh, with W. T. Martin, representative to the student council; Miss Willis, of Norfolk, Va., with Lloyd Hollingsworth, chairman of the dance committee; and Miss Mauldin, of Charlotte, with Pinky Elliot, vice-president of the class.

Sophomores Present Annual Dance Tonight; Sunday afternoon in the main lounge of Graham Memorial at 5 o'clock. The Dan Gregory's Orchestra To Provide Music program will include several flute solos by Slocum, who is also director game.

HELLO' WEEKEND IS PROCLAIMED

Foushee And Davis Issue Statements

Chapel Hill joined yesterday in issu- palms, ferns and black and gold. ing proclamations of "Hello" weekend

The proclamations follow:

DAVIS-Whereas, there exists on this campus a definite need for a better and a more friendly relationship between the students of this University, and

Whereas, such a better relationship and an enlarged number of friends and acquaintances for every student works not only for the benefit of each individual student but also for the good of the entire student body and the University in general, and

GREETINGS

Whereas, such an improved condition can be brought about simply by the act of exchanging greetings on all occasions and at every opportunity, and Whereas, this exchange of greetings is in accord with all ideas of true southern hospitality and this proclamation does not infringe in any way upon our traditional beliefs in Light and Liberty. Student Body of the University of son of Haworth, N. J.; George Spransy, by proclaim that the period of time Albert Johnston, with LaRue Griffin from Friday, November 3, through of Rocky Mount; Henry May, with Fay Sunday, November 5, shall be known Linberg of Burlington; Ridley Whit- this morning will be sponsored by the as "HELLO" Weekend on this cam-(Continued on page 2, column 3)

Dancing Rendezvous Closed For Weekend

The Graham Memorial rendezvous white roses. for dancers will not be open this weekend because of the heavy dance sched- Dr. and Mrs. Frank Graham, Dr. and ule on the campus, Bob Magill an- Mrs. Guy Phillips, Dr. E. L. Mackie, nounced yesterday. All entries to the Mrs. Victor Humphreys, and Mrs. contest for naming the dance hall will Irene Lee. be accepted until Saturday noon. A prize of $3 is offered.

Leaders Announced For Formal Hop In Woollen Gym

The sophomore class will present its annual hop tonight after a pep rally and street parade preceding the Carolina-State football game tomorrow. Dan Gregory and his orchestra will President Jim Davis of the student play for the dance in Woollen gymnabody and Mayor John M. Foushee of sium, which will be decorated with

Before intermission the following for both the University and the town. class officers and committeemen will participate with their dates in a grand march: Bill Alexander, with Patty McNeely of Mooresville; Pinky Elliott, with Ann Maudlin of Charlotte; Bill McKinnon, with Kay Barnes of Manis-

> Sophomore dance bids will be distributed for the last time this morning between 10:30 and 11 o'clock in the small lounge of Graham Memo-

> Participants in the figure were requested last night to meet in Woollen gymnasium this afternoon at 5 o'clock.

ter, Mich.; Truman Hobbs, with Mary Gannon of Montgomery, Ala.; W. T. Martin, with Betty Sexton of Raleigh; Lloyd Hollingsworth, with Evelyn Willis of Norfolk, Va.; Doug Bachellor, with Catherine Lambeth of Sa-Ann Paschal of Winston Salem.

ASSISTANT LEADERS

Assistant leaders and their dates I, James E. Davis, President of the are Jack Holland, with Charlotte Hud-North Carolina, do therefore and here- with Laura Maie Shaver of Albemarle; aker, with Catherine Paris of Greens- Freshman Friendship council. Greenwood, with Eileen Stephens of Bonner, president, will speak. Charlotte; and Sam Gregory, with Phyllis Gatling of Winsor. Sponsors Schedule Announced will carry arm bonquets of red and Chaperones for the event will be:

Gregory features the comic cut-ups (Continued on page 4, column 1)

COUNCIL CHANGES BUDGET SET-UP

Secret Ballots To Be Required

student council at its last meeting, summer sessions. set up new rules governing procedure for acceptance of class budgets by professionally almost every other in-

was held by each class and the budget the union. presented to members. After the bud- TEACHERS get, drawn up by the class treasurer, had been presented, the members voted for it by standing.

attended these class meetings and voted for the acceptance of budgets just as a joke.

This year it will be handled in an ist in the Berlin Symphony. entirely different manner. A mass the proposed budget will be presented. the floor will be opened for discus-

At the conclusion of the meeting, the Broadcasting company. voting for or against the budget will be handled by secret ballot. Each member must sign his ballot and sigvannah, Ga.; Charlie Reece with Mary nify that he is a member of the class. A quorum of the class must be pres- Robbers Loot Store ent and a majority of this quorum must vote for the acceptance of the proposed budget before it is considered

Freshman Chapel

Today's freshman chapel at 10:30 boro; Charles Pyle, with Barbara Bur- McKee, secretary of the YMCA, will roughs of Hoboken, N. J.; Jimmy preside over the meeting, and John

The College of Arts and Sciences of the University yesterday announced the schedule of comprehensive exams for seniors for the year 1939-40.

Fall quarter exam will be held Saturday, November 25; winter quarter, Saturday, February 24; spring quarter, Saturday, April 27. by local thieves.

DR. BAGBY WEDS IN GREENSBORO

Professor's Wife Is Former Pupil Of Psychologist

Bagby, University psychology professor, in an impressive ceremony held in Greensboro yesteday afternoon.

school of religion at Wake Forest ing and Greater University Day cele- after which the huge parade will form college and former pastor of the First brations. Baptist church here, performed the ceremony. Dr. Bagby, who has been professor of psychology in the University since he came here in 1925, is a member of the American Psychological association. A graduate of Princeton university, he received his doctorate at John Hopkins university in Baltimore. | PARADE AT 11 He has one daughter who is an undergraduate student at Duke university.

St. Lawrence university in up-state Memorial.

(Continued on page 4, column 1)

Local Musicians Will Give Concert

A trio of University musicians Earl Slocum, William Klenz, and Herbert Livingston, will present a concert on the flute, cello, and piano Sunday afternoon in the main lounge club orchestra will also play. Hudson of the University band.

An associate professor in the University music department, Slocum has led an active career as director of time tomorrow for the homecoming school bands and a musician. Before coming here, he supervised bands in the Greensboro public schools, winning numerous contests in state-wide competition. For the past two years he has been selected as a judge in the south-wide regional band contests. Jim Davis, president of the student During the last five summers, he has body, announced yesterday that the taught at the University of Michigan

Besides the flute, Slocum has played strument. These engagements have In the past that a mass meeting carried him over half of the states in

of Michigan, after completing his un-It was found that many outsiders Listed among his teachers after he left school are John Wummer, now first flutist in the NBC Symphony orchestra, and Herzer, former first flut- Bowman Gray stadium for the Wildcat meeting will be held by each class and the University music department, ing of the game with the Carolina and studied at Syracuse University. He Davidson bands providing the music. Following its presentation to the class has appeared as a soloist with the Sy- DANCE racuse symphony orchestra and has given two concerts over the National dance is planned at the Forest Hills

> Klenz, a graduate of Curtis insti-(Continued on page 4, column 1)

Of $100 In Cash

Early yesterday morning yeggmen Riding Club Plans entered Albert Tufts Motor company on West Franklin street, broke open Trip In Duke Forest a safe with company tools and made This Afternoon away with about $100 in cash, Chief W. T. Sloan said last night.

bery and called in Detective L. A. this afternoon for horseback riding in the campus. Kelley of Durham, fingerprint ex- the Duke forest. All equestrians inpert, who found no prints about the terested are invited to join them. premises, leading them to believe that The newly-formed riding group is housing conditions at the next meetthe job was done by professional safe- the first equestrian club on the cam- ing. crackers.

men was being conducted by local of- has promised the better horsemen.

Fireworks To Begin At 6:45; Giant Band Parade Tomorrow

Various Exhibits Will Be Judged Tomorrow Morning

President Reddy Grubbs of the Uniboro became the bride of Dr. English dormitories, fraternities and mer-coaches, were announced last night by music would be among the attractions sity club's pep rally committee. planned tomorrow morning for the Dr. Olin T. Binkley, dean of the many visitors expected for Homecom- works in Emerson stadium at 6:45, than ever before and all decorations rally proper will be staged, by way of are expected to be outstanding, Grubbs the lower and upper quadrangles, the said.

The parade composed of bands of the three units of the consolidated Mrs. Bagby, who also is a psycho- University will form at the Old Well logist, took graduate work at WCUNC at 11 o'clock and proceed from there in Greensboro. She is a graduate of to Franklin street and then to Graham

New York and of Columbia university Units participating in the procesin New York City. While at Colum- sion include the 70-piece band of the bia university, Mrs. Bagby took grad- Woman's college, the State college uate work under Dr. Bagby who was band, the 50-piece drum and bugle mittee was planning to have talks psychology professor there before corps of State, the 90-piece band of by Secretary of State Thad Eure and coming to Chapel Hill. Mrs. Bagby Carolina, and a 200-man crack drill Mayor W. T. Carr, of Durham, both unit from the State college ROTC. The of whom are prominent alumni of the in Graham Memorial. DANCE MUSIC > have dance music on the lawn in front view the history of Carolina-State grid of Graham Memorial, beginning at battles, and Alonzo Squires will present 11:30 and lasting until 12:30 or 1 some of his well-known imitations. o'clock. A campus band will play for Part of the expense money for the the visitors and it is hoped that Dean fireworks was donated by E. Carring-Hudson and his well-known Florida ton, prominent Chapel Hill citizen, will play for the Grail dance Saturday

> Notice was received yesterday that lord, Tom Hackney, and Sam Teague. three special buses of WCUNC students will arrive in Chapel Hill some-

CATS TO HONOR JNC PASSBOOKS

Carolina To Get Special Section

Carolina students who attend th Carolina-Davidson game in Winston-Salem November 11 will be admitted with their passbooks and one dollar, according to a letter received by the He studied music at the University DAILY TAR HEEL yesterday. The letter was written by Pete Ivey, former dergraduate course at Ann Arbor. director of Graham Memorial student

Choice seats will be set aside for students in the Carolina stands at clash, the letter also stated. In addi-Livingston, a graduate assistant in tion, there will be a parade the morn-

Following the game, a gridiron Smoke House, just outside Winston-Salem. Charlie Wood and his orchestra will play.

ston-Salem into a real college town for the gridiron contest, and students are assured of a hospitable welcome.

pus since 1925. Although to date the open the four-foot safe, leaving the ers engaged in anticipation of a fox rection of Miss Vera Roney. door demolished. Search for the yegg- hunt which June Fisher, riding master

Fisher said.

Swing Music, Talks, Torchlights, Parade Planned For Rally

Plans for tonight's pre-State game versity club announced last night that pep rally, which will include firea gigantic parade of five separate works, a shirt-tail parade, and speeches Mrs. Mona Ames Marsh of Greens- units, homecoming decorations by by alumni, football players and chants, and an open house with dance Jick Garland, chairman of the Univer-

The celebration begins with the fireat 7:15 at the Old Well. The parade Homecoming exhibits will be judged | will be led by the University band, the at 10 o'clock by several committees ap- cheerleaders, and six Beta and Chi pointed by the University club. Chapel Psi pledges carrying torches. It will Hill merchants are cooperating better proceed to Memorial hall, where the new wonmen's dormitories, Spencer hall and fraternity row. Charlie Wood and his campus orchestra will play at the rally along with the band. The entire football squad will be on the stage, and speeches will be made by George Radman, Harry Dunkle, Dick White, and Coaches Johnny Vaught and Bill Lange.

PROMINENT ALUMNI

Garland said last night that the comparade is expected to be over at 11:15 University. There is also a possibility after which an open house will be held that one of the faculty members will

Archibald Henderson, one of the old-The University club has planned to er residents of Chapel Hill, will re-

Garland said.

Members of the University club cimprogram will include several flute night, following the State-Carolina mittee are Garland, chairman, Archie McIntosh, Frosty Snow, Lewis Gay-

Mrs. Ora Mae Davis Returns To Campus To Design Costumes

In preparation for the anniversary in Fayetteville November 20-25, Mrs. Ora Mae Davis returned to the campus yesterday to design and construct costumes for the celebration. Mrs. Davis, who is on a year's leave of absence from her position as director of costumes and dance of the Carolina Playmakers, is studying dancing and costuming in New York City this win-

Her dancing instruction in New York is by Hanya Holm, modern concert dancer and director of a concert dancing group.

For the past few weeks Mrs. Davis has been spending her time on research on the different plaids worn by individual Scotch clans. In New York she contacted the Association of Scotch Societies in America where she received authentication for plaids to be used in the Fayetteville pageant, commemorating the founding of the University. Many of the plaids had to be ordered from New York.

ASU Report Charges Plans are being made to turn Win- Inadequate Housing

According to the results of a survey presented by Leo Karpeles last night before the ASU, town housing conditions are in many cases far below the standards set by state law. He charged that both the Klutz and Stroud buildings violate the state fire and sanitary laws, and that rentals are unreason-The Carolina riding club will leave ably high. He concluded by emphasiz-Chief Sloan investigated the rob- from Graham Memorial at 2 o'clock ing the need for more dormitories on

It was voted to have a state health department inspector speak on town

The ASU workshop skit, to be pre-Entering the garage through an open club has done nothing but trail rid- sented in freshman chapel, will go rear window, the marauders broke ing, today will see the advanced rid- into production today under the di-

Bill Borders discussed the Far Eastern situation and the possibility ficers late last night. Chief Sloan A polo team will be organized if of ASU cooperation with the local said he doubted the robbery was done enough interest and talent is shown, chapter of the China Aid council, of which Dr. Frank Graham is president.