

EDITORIALS:
Cooperation
Hello!
Homecoming

The Daily Tar Heel

THE ONLY COLLEGE DAILY IN THE SOUTHEAST

WEATHER:
Clear and continued
cool

VOLUME XLVIII

Business: 9886; Circulation: 9881

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1939

Editorial: 4356; News: 4351; Night: 6906

NUMBER 44

Tar Heels Clash With Wolfpack Today

Carolina Celebrates Greater University Day And Homecoming

Football Game Will Be Feature Of Day's Program For Grads

Other Plans Include Parade, Open House And Informal Dance

The gigantic Homecoming and second annual Greater University Day celebrations, which promise to be the most colorful and successful in the history of the University, will be held here today when the alumni of all three units of the consolidated University are invited to attend the Carolina-State game and an informal Grail dance tonight.

Included in the day's program are the judging of the many homecoming decorations, a parade composed of the bands of UNC and State college, an open house with dance music

Following is a statement from Dr. Frank P. Graham, president of the Greater University, on Homecoming and Greater University Day:

"The students of the University at Chapel Hill and large representative groups of students from the North Carolina State college and the Woman's college of the University of North Carolina join in a common fellowship of homecoming and welcome to Chapel Hill today. The proclamation of President Davis of the student body and Mayor Foushee of the town is seconded by the acclamation of us all.

"The All-University Day was inaugurated last year by the students at State college and will be made more vivid this year by the larger group from the Woman's college. May the salutations of the day be not the superficial gestures of the hour but rather may the natural friendliness of the time and place emphasized on homecoming day carry on every day toward the end that no person anywhere be friendless any day."

at Graham Memorial, the Carolina-State game, Sophomore tea dance following the game, and the informal Grail dance tonight.

COMMITTEES

Committees selected by the University club, will judge all decorations on the campus and in Chapel Hill between 10 and 11 o'clock this morning. There will be three separate and distinct contests on the campus. They will be between social fraternities, men's dormitories, and women's dormitories and sororities. In addition to these a contest between the merchants of Chapel Hill will be held. The themes of the exhibits will center around Homecoming and University Day.

The parade will form at the Old Well at 11 o'clock and will proceed from there to Franklin street and then to Graham Memorial. Units participating in the procession include the State college band, the 50-piece

(Continued on page 6, column 4)

Alley Operator Builds Device To Disinfect Bowling Balls

John McCauley Combines Odds And Ends To Produce Bacteria-Killing Purifier

By BILL WEAVER

"How many millions of germs are on that ball?" John McCauley, 47-year-old village bowling alley operator, wondered as he watched the sphere roll from the ten-pin pit from the hands of a Negro attendant.

He saw millions, even billions, of small crawling, swimming, floating, flying bacteria all over the surface of the balls. The little animals bothered his peace of mind night and day. He saw them on every ball that rolled down the groove. He visioned infected bowlers and shuttered.

Getting so tired of thinking about the little microbes, John set himself to finding what he could do to put himself out of misery. Then he had an

(Continued on page 6, column 5)

ALUMNI OFFICIALS TO MEET AT INN TO HEAR REPORTS

Monogram Men To Hold Reunion This Morning

The officers and directors of the Alumni association will meet this morning at 10:30 in the Carolina Inn for the first meeting of the new school year. There will also be a reunion of the monogram alumni, under the direction of Dave Morrison, acting president of the Monogram club.

The meeting of the officers and directors will be held in order that reports of the year 1938-39 can be presented and plans made for the school year 1939-40. Twenty-six men will be present at the meeting and luncheon to follow. The regular business meeting of the alumni will not take place until sometime in the winter, when new officers will be elected.

CROWD

Morrison reported that over 300 monogram alumni will be present today for their reunion. From 9 o'clock until 1:30 the monogram men will register at Carolina Inn and receive tickets for the Carolina-State game, as they will be guests of the University. All monogram men on the campus are requested to wear their sweaters today so that they may act as guides to the visiting letter men, Morrison said.

The 26 officers and directors of the Alumni association who will attend the meeting today are: Charles W. Tillet, Charlotte; Fred I. Sutton, Kingston; William A. Blount, New York city; George Watts Hill, Durham; J. C. B. Ehringhaus, Raleigh; J. M. Saunders, Chapel Hill; Dr. Hubert B. Haywood, Raleigh; R. C. deRosset, Raleigh; L. F. Abernathy, Asheville; D. Edward Hudgins, Greensboro; John W. Umstead, Chapel Hill; E. Earle Rives, Greensboro; Charles R. Jones, Lincoln; Ben Sloan, Sylvia; L. T. Hartsell, Jr., Concord; Gordon Gray, Winston-Salem; Thomas Turner, Jr., High Point; T. A. DeVane, Fayetteville; Ben K. Lassiter, Oxford; T. J. Pearsall, Rocky Mount; Dr. J. C. Taylor, Washington; J. T. Gresham, Warsaw; W. B. Ellis, Greenville, S. C.; Bowman Gray, Jr., Winston-Salem; and Dr. Foy Roberson, Durham.

Thomas To Speak

The Sophomore YMCA cabinet is to read the third chapter instead of the second for Monday's meeting. Dr. Thomas will lead a discussion on "Philosophical Man."

ASU To Entertain Frosh With Skit On War Situation

"Good Evening Everybody!", the first in a series of ASU Workshop skits, went into rehearsal yesterday under the direction of Miss Vera Rony. The skits, which are to be presented in freshmen chapel in the near future, represent a new dramatic form known as the living radio. It is based upon the living newspaper technique introduced in New York by the Federal theater.

There is a general treatment of the war situation done in a mood of light satire and burlesque accompanied by music.

Members of the cast are: Miss Elizabeth Orten, Douglas Watson, Howard Richardson, Bill Gould, Harry Lasker,

(Continued on page 6, column 6)

Ready, Aim, Heave!

All set for one of those long and accurate passes is L'il George Stirnweiss, quarterback, and one of the Carolina mainstays, who will see action and plenty of it in today's game with State college.

Program Notes And Notices

9:00-1:30—Registration of all monogram alumni at Carolina Inn.

10:30—Meeting of all officers and directors of the Alumni Association in Carolina Inn.

10:00—Judging of all homecoming decorations.

11:00—Parade of the Carolina band, the State college band, and the crack drill unit of the State ROTC.

11:30—Open house and dance music in the lounge of Graham Memorial.

2:00—Carolina-State football game at Kenan stadium.

5:00—Sophomore tea dance at Woollen gym.

9:00—Informal Grail dance at Woollen gym.

PERSON GALLERY OPENS NEW EXHIBIT

Smith Will Give Lecture Tomorrow

An invitation exhibition of watercolors by contemporary American artists and a collection of oils by Maurice Braun of Point Loma, Calif., will open tomorrow in Person Hall Art gallery.

Professor Russell Smith, head of the art department, will give a gallery talk at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The exhibit will be shown through November 27. Gallery hours are 10 to 1 o'clock and 2 to 5 o'clock on weekdays and from 2 to 5 o'clock on Sundays.

The watercolor show contains some of the best works of outstanding American painters, many of whom have exhibited at the gallery previously.

College Network

PROVIDENCE, R. I.—(ACP)—New England college students will soon be the first in the country to have their own intercollegiate radio broadcasting system, if plans backed by the Brown Network at Brown university develop according to schedule.

The project calls for linking Brown, Dartmouth, M.I.T., and Wesleyan together over a leased wire system so that each college can broadcast to the other. It will not only provide entertainment for listeners and experience for radio-minded students handling the technical details, but it will promote "friendly contacts" between the institutions taking part, the sponsors believe.

Music Society To Hold Annual Fall Meeting In Hill Hall Tonight

The annual fall meeting of the Washington-Baltimore chapter of the American Musicological Society will be held in Hill music hall tonight.

Those appearing on the program include Dr. Otto Stuhlman, of the University Physics Department, who will speak on "The Asymmetrical Response of the Human Ear in Relation to the Problem of Subjective Combination Tones;" Dr. Fletcher, Jr., head of the

(Continued on page 6, column 6)

Dean Hudson Will Play For Grail Dance Tonight Closing Weekend Celebrations

All Together Now, One, Two, Three . . .

Dean Hudson and all the lads, who will play for the sophomore tea dance this afternoon, and tonight's informal Grail dance in Woollen gym. The boys, just up from Florida, may be wintering in the North, but their rhythm reflects the heat of warmer climes.

UNC Heavily Favored To Win; Injured Kline Out Of Action

PEP RALLY STIRS PRE-GAME SPIRIT FOR STATE TILT

Full Squad Appears On Stage After Torchlight Parade

Carolina students last night roared their defiance to the N. C. State Wolfpack in what was termed one of the most successful pep rallies held so far this season.

Assembling at the Old Well, the vociferous gathering marched by the lower and upper quadrangles and the new woman's dormitories, gathering momentum as it proceeded. Led by torch-bearers, the University band, and seven cheerleaders, the parade ended at Memorial hall, where the rally proper was staged.

MUSIC

Charlie Wood and his campus orchestra played for the rally, and the entire football squad was on the stage. Head Cheerleader Vance Hobbs acted as master of ceremonies.

Speakers on the program included Dean R. B. House, representing the University faculty; Secretary of State Thad Eure, who was introduced by Jack Garland, member of the University club; Coach Johnny Vaught; football stars George Radman, Harry Dunkle, Dick White, Chuch Slagle, Mike Bobbitt, and George Stirnweiss; and Dr. Archibald Henderson, who reviewed the history of Homecoming day at the University.

WELCH ADDRESSES ECONOMICS CLUB

Students Consider Employment Chances

S. W. J. Welch, of the student placement bureau, discussed the chances for employment of college graduates and explained the functions of his bureau to 35 members of economics and commerce club at their meeting Thursday night.

"Three-fourths of the graduates of the University don't lift a finger to get themselves a job," he said. He added that personnel men in business firms don't think much of the ability of men who do not take advantage of every possibility of getting a job, and who do not follow every lead until he is sure that there are no possibilities in it.

OBJECTIVES

Objectives of the placement bureau, as Welch outlined them, are: to assist students in choosing proper vo-

(Continued on page 6, column 5)

Ray Wolf Expects State To Put Up Stiff Opposition

By SHELLEY ROLFE

A Carolina team which is unbeaten even if tied, and which has been mentioned prominently among the bowl candidates, returns to its own league this afternoon to take on a four-times beaten but nevertheless dangerous State team at Kenan stadium at 2 o'clock. It will be homecoming day and 25,000 fans are expected to be on hand.

The Tar Heels, through three weeks of intersectional play with wins over Penn and NYU and a tie with Tulane, will be heavily favored in the game. However, Ray Wolf, cautious against any foe and especially a Big Five and Southern conference opponent, looks for everything from bombs bursting in air to Frank Merriwell in person from State.

"The Wolfpack has had two weeks in which to get ready for us. They have a good ball club in spite of their poor record. We'll have to be on our toes to beat those fellows," Wolf gloomily announced.

KLINE NOT TO PLAY

Saying this, he mopped his brow and decided that the only injured man not able to play would be Chuck Kline. "Jim Mallory will be at right end and Bob Smith will probably be ready to start at center. Roy Connor won't get into action unless we need him. Bill Faircloth should be able to get in some guard duties," he decided.

The game will climax the celebration of both Homecoming and Greater University day. It will be a battle State will be out to win as it has not all season. Doc Newton, the Wolfpack bossman, is about to get the hot-foot at Raleigh, and he realizes nothing would spare the axe more than a win over the Tar Heels. He has already said the Wolfpack would rather beat Carolina than any club it plays.

The chances are that State will be loaded for the contest. Idle since their 19-6 defeat at the hands of Detroit two weeks ago, the Wolfpack and Newton have been hard at work behind the locked doors of Riddick field on plays calculated to trip the high-riding Tar Heels.

PASSING AND RUNNING

State has a respectable aerial game and a fine running attack. Artie Rooney, the sometimes hot, sometimes cold flaming Irishman from Pittsburgh, can either be one of the

(Continued on page 5, column 6)

Last Day

Today is absolutely the last day that Juniors and Seniors may have their pictures made for the Junior-Senior section of the Yackety Yack.

(Continued on page 5, column 6)

Florida Clubmen Will Also Play At Soph Tea Dance; Both Affairs In Woollen

Concluding Homecoming and Greater University day activities, the Order of the Grail will give an informal dance following the 5 o'clock sophomore tea dance in Woollen gymnasium tonight. Dean Hudson and his Florida Clubmen will play for both affairs.

The Hudson organization has received much favorable comment from newspaper columnists in the south, east, midwest, and in the colleges.

REVIEW

The Clemson "Tiger" printed the following review: "We just can't seem to get this Dean Hudson off our minds—We got more actual enjoyment out of Hudson's music than any band we've heard in years—and we've heard them all. We predicted you'd soon be

(Continued on page 2, column 6)