

McNutt Scheduled On Tentative CPU Bill

YOUNG DEMOCRATS CONVENE TO PASS ON CONSTITUTION

Club May Obtain Farley To Speak At Banquet Here

The constitution of the Young Democrats' club, recently drawn up, will be presented to the group for their approval tonight at a meeting in Gerard hall tonight at 7:30, announced president Joe Dawson last night.

The club, in a bid for prominence, will discuss the possibilities of obtaining James Farley to speak on the campus during his tour of North and South Carolina. He will speak at Clemson college on January 22 and at Winston-Salem on January 24. Dawson has corresponded with Farley in hopes of having him at a banquet here January 25. Farley has already stated his desire to appear.

OTHER SPEAKERS

Brick Wall, a member of the speakers' committee, will make a report tonight on his negotiations securing Benton Gray and Judge Walter D. Siler to speak here in the near future. Gray is a prominent figure in the social security administration at Raleigh, and Judge Siler is a former assistant attorney-general.

The treasurer of the club, Buddy Nordan, will make a report on the organization's finances.

Secretary Ernest King said last night that he hoped all men and women on the campus who have received notices that they are official members of the club will be present tonight. Any additional students who are interested in the YDC are cordially invited to attend this meeting and file applications for joining the organization, King said.

Herbert Livingston Presents Recital At Hill Tonight

A recital featuring the wide variety of artistic expression in the sonata will be presented by pianist Herbert Livingston tonight at 8:30 in Hill Music hall.

The program will include the "Sonata in D Major" by Josef Haydn; "Sonatina, In Diem Nativitatis Christi MCMXVII" by Fenuccio Busoni; "Sonata" by Willem Pijper; and "Sonata, Opus 111" by Ludwig von Beethoven.

The Haydn work is a typical example of the treatment accorded the sonata form by the classicists of the late 18th century. Busoni's selection is reflective of the celebration of Christmas in Berlin in 1917, as viewed by a foreigner. It tells a story in the manner of the 20th century impressionists.

PIJPER SONATA

"Sonata" by Pijper is a short number representing the synthesis of the methods of the sonatists, who do not recognize the existence of keys, and the polytonalists, who use two keys together. Pijper is a young Dutch composer, pianist, and critic, now teaching at the Amsterdam conservatory, who writes in the very modern style. The Beethoven work is the last of thirty-two sonatas he composed for the piano. Livingston says that it is "probably one of the greatest piano sonatas ever written."

Livingston came to the University as a graduate assistant in music in January, 1939, after studying at Syracuse university. He has appeared twice as soloist with the Syracuse symphony orchestra, and has appeared over NBC. He has done radio work here and at Syracuse.

Kreisler Tickets

Tickets for the concert to be given by Fritz Kreisler, world-famous violinist, in Memorial hall on January 16 may be secured from members of the local chapter of Phi Mu Alpha, national honorary music fraternity. This group is sponsoring the concert appearance of Kreisler in Chapel Hill.

Actress Cyrilla Dorne To Co-Star In Play With Jackie Coogan

Cyrilla Dorne, who will appear with Jackie Coogan in the stage show "What A Life" this Friday night, is an attractive young actress who has played leads in New York for two years; appeared in the three-character play, "The Bow Breaks"; was in the touring company of "Squaring The Circle"; and played the role of Tina in the stage production of "The Old Maid."

She went to Vienna as a member of the Josefsteadler Ensemble, and in the Austrian capital played in "All's Well That Ends Well," "Dr. Pretorius" and the lead in the revival of "X Y Z."

MAJOR PRODUCTIONS

In Hollywood Miss Dorne has been cast in major productions by Educational Pictures, Warner Brothers, and Paramount. Fully a dozen radio programs featured this versatile actress, among them the "March of Time," "Columbia Workshop," "Great Play Series of National Broadcasting Co.," and "Cavalcade of America."

As the endearing little Barbara Pearson, student sweetheart of Henry Aldrich, the misunderstood boy who is always off on the wrong foot, played by Jackie Coogan, Cyrilla Dorne brings the sympathetic note to the George Abbott comedy.

The cast for "What A Life" includes in addition to Miss Dorne, Jackie Coogan in the lead, Frank McGlynn as principal and Josephine Dunn as the secretary to the high school principal.

The appearance of Coogan here is being sponsored by the Playmakers and tickets are now on sale at 314 South building and at Ledbetter-Pickard's.

This Collegiate World

(By Associated Collegiate Press)

In the future Dr. Richard J. Werner, president of Salina Junior college, isn't going to be as ready with his criticism of student conduct, and here's why:

When three students called on him to recover a lost article, he reached into the lost-and-found drawer of his desk, and began: "Just look at these car keys left here. It's a sure thing no one can do without them. And yet they are left here for days." Then began his stammering: "Why, these can't be my car keys, can they? By golly, they are!"

The students were dismissed without another word!

NEW SLANG DEPARTMENT: These are the latest slang definitions developed by Ohio State university students:

Campus glamor boy—male with $6; campus glamor girl—coed with a late model car; dive—any place with a neon sign, an orchestra and a college boy; swing—organized disorganization; friend—anybody who will loan you money; acquaintance—anyone who has loaned you money; civilization—a collection of modern inconveniences.

CONTEST DEPARTMENT: In a bull-session argument, Lafayette college's Jack Hamilton bet he could walk 60 miles in 24 hours. He did—and collected nine bucks.

ELLIS DELIVERS ADDRESS TO PHI AT INAUGURATION

New President Offers Defense Of Free Speech

The Philanthropic assembly at its first meeting of the new year last night heard Speaker Phil Ellis uphold the rights of free speech at the University in his inaugural address, initiated seven new members, and defeated a bill advocating the establishment of a committee to investigate un-American activities on the campus.

In his address Ellis also outlined the Phi's program for the coming quarter. Announcing the Phi intention of introducing bills advocating better lighting in the library and social rooms for the dormitories, made known their hopes to secure Libby Ward, speaker of the North Carolina House of Representatives, as a guest speaker, and requested the cooperation of every member of the assembly in their winter quarter membership campaign.

COMMITTEES ANNOUNCED

He also announced the following committees: dance committee, Joe Dawson, chairman, Ott Burton, Bob Sloan, Pete Burkheimer, Marian Igoe, and Frances Gibson; committee for cataloging the Phi's collection of portraits, Bob Wright, chairman, Mickey Warren, and Tom Bell; Di-Phi debate committee, Bob Sloan, chairman, Elton Edwards, Horace Ives, and Herbert McNary; publicity, Bob Farriss, chairman, Faison Barnes and Charlie Barker.

The new members initiated last night include B. O. Burns, Ann Thornburg, Susan Klaber, Elaine Marsh, Joe Greenberg, James Heyward, and Vernon Harward.

IRC Will Discuss Conference Tonight

Tonight at 7:45 in the small lounge of Graham Memorial the International Relations club will hold its first meeting of the winter quarter at which several matters will be discussed.

Plans will be made for the International Relations conference to be held here this spring, which will be sponsored by the Carnegie institute.

The propaganda clinics which will take place this quarter will be discussed and definite plans and speakers arranged. The club's picture for the Yackety-Yack will be taken.

Mail Subscribers

Renewal blanks are enclosed in this issue for Fall Quarter mail subscriptions which have expired. Please return these immediately if further subscription is desired.

Professor, Wife Are Caught In Germany While On Tour

Story Told Of Two Americans Who Went To Europe As Tourists Last Year

By SANFORD STEIN

This is the Odyssey of two Americans who went to Europe as tourists last year, but got caught in Germany when peace gave up the ghost.

August 21, 1939. Professor and Mrs. J. P. Harland arrived in Berlin to attend the International Congress for Archaeology. They had been in Europe since March, having visited Greece, Turkey, Yugoslavia, Hungary, Austria and Scandinavia. Being primarily interested in archaeological research—

Dr. Harland had been granted a year's leave of absence by the University—they had not paid much attention to the newspapers, were unaware that another crisis was approaching. The only unusual thing Dr. Harland noticed was the scarcity of Englishmen and Americans at the conference. Mrs. Harland spent her time enjoying the "marvelous" Berlin zoo.

CONFIDENT OF PEACE

August 25. Leaving the conference and on their way to Greece, the Harlands stopped at Nurnberg where they saw preparations being made for the great annual Nazi congress. Every-

ASU Convention Splits On Issue Of Finnish War

At the fifth annual convention of the American Student union, the Russo-Finnish question brought out a sharp division into factions when two chief officers, Secretary Josph Lash and National Chairman Mollie Yard, were ousted in the annual elections after their plea to brand Russia as an aggressor in the conflict.

Lee Manning Wiggins, a senior here at the University and president of the local ASU, was chosen as national chairman for the coming year.

CONDEMNNS LOAN TO FINLAND

The Union also voted to condemn the U. S. loan to Finland, the moral embargo Russia, sale of navy planes to Finland, military control of the Civil Aeronautics authority's student pilot-training programs, and the increase of the defense budget at the expense of social legislation.

The organization also urged a boycott of the movies, "Gone With The Wind" and "Birth of a Nation."

Specific wording of the resolution was: "While the American Student union has no sympathy for the Russian attacks on Finland and specifically condemns it as a clear act of aggression, nevertheless it does not want to see our neutrality prejudiced by those acts we consider to be unneutral."

PEACE RESOLUTION

The peace resolution finally adopted by the convention urged full support of China in the Sino-Japanese war, and branded the Allied war with Germany as an "imperialist" conflict being fought for "markets and colonies" rather than in the interests of democracy or small nations.

The Dies committee accused the American Student union of being one of the "communist front" organizations, at the same time white-washing the American youth congress of any un-American accusations.

Student Car Owners Must Get Licenses By Friday Afternoon

Jack Vincent, chairman of the safety council, yesterday reemphasized the necessity for all students keeping cars on the campus to get their licenses by Friday, January 12.

Licenses may be obtained in the small lounge of Graham Memorial every afternoon between 3 o'clock and 5:30. Of durable type, the plates are made for attachment to the state tags on the autos and will cost 25 cents.

Any student driving a car after Friday without a license will be subject to action by the council. Continuous violators may be turned over to the student council for infraction of the honor system.

BUSBY OUTLINES PURPOSES OF DI BEFORE MEMBERS

Prexy Presents Winter Program Full Of Action

The Di senate is beginning the new year with the evident determination to become again one of the leading campus organizations as the attitude of the new president, John Busby, indicated in his inceptive address at the regular meeting of the senate last night.

Busby, in his speech, outlined the purposes of the senate, tracing the activities of the body since its inauguration in the University. The main functions of the organization are, he said, first, to serve as a "training ground for parliamentary procedure, public speaking, and the Democratic processes of government." Second, "to promote dialecticism—the training of minds in constructive, logical reasoning," and third, "to carry on miscellaneous activities for the purpose of benefiting the University as a whole."

WINTER PROGRAM

A general program for the coming quarter was given by Busby. In brief, it was to make the Di a restricted, honorary organization, to realize exactly "where we stand, how we got there and where we are going," and finally to cut out the red tape and quibbling which take up so much useful time at the meetings.

The president closed his speech with the emphatic statement that, "We're through talking, we're going to do something this quarter."

During the meeting it was announced that the Yackety Yack picture of the senate would be taken today in front of South building at 10:30.

Calendars Available For Town Students

All town students who wish a copy of the Graham Memorial Calendar of campus events for the winter quarter call by the office in Graham Memorial or the YMCA to get one.

Little Fellows Organize Fraternity At Yeshiva College For All Half-Pints

NEW YORK CITY.—(ACP)—"The Little Man Who Wasn't There" is here, and here to stay—at least if Shikey Bard has anything to say about it. While busily engaged in research for a term paper in History at Yeshiva college, Bard noticed in the text which he was using that Napoleon had nothing on him—as far as height is concerned. Going back to the original sources, Shikey found in a text that not only he and Napoleon but neither John Paul Jones, Chopin, Beethoven, Keats, Milton nor Michelangelo were around when the extra inches were handed out.

Having justified the existence of his microscopic brethren, Bard has assumed the task of organizing these concentrated dynamos into one organization. The main purpose of this society is to insure the little fellows protection from being trampled underfoot.

GATTON CONFERS WITH CANDIDATES WHILE IN RALEIGH

Life Photographers Snap CPU Officers For Publication

Federal Security Administrator Paul V. McNutt has tentatively accepted the CPU's invitation to appear here on April 2, Chairman Harry Gatton announced yesterday. The former Indiana governor and prominent candidate in the race for the Democratic nomination told Chairman Gatton and three other union members, in an interview shortly before his Jackson Day address in Raleigh, that he would like to speak here if pressing duties in the nation's capital permitted.

During the past few weeks the nation's political spotlight has been focused on the silver-haired Indianan, whom it has been rumored from time to time is President Roosevelt's choice for the party nomination next June, should the Chief Executive choose not to run. Current political trends, however, have found the former governor to the Philippines the target of severe attacks from both the conservative and liberal wings of the Democratic machine.

SNAPPED FOR LIFE

While in Raleigh conferring with McNutt, Gatton and his CPU associates, Bill Joslin and Ferebee Taylor, were snapped by a Life magazine photographer. Although the definite date of release is not known, it is expected that the shots will appear in the national picture publication some time in the near future. The reporter told union members that he was familiar with CPU activities, recalling the nation-wide attention received when the President spoke here.

Coed Dorm To Give Leap Year Dance Friday Evening

Something new in dances will take place Friday night from 9 until 1 o'clock when coeds residing in New Woman's dormitory No. 1 give the first Leap Year dance to be held on the campus this quarter.

The dance will be "Leap Year" in the true sense of the word with the girls "doing the honors" beforehand and the boys taking over their customary status after the dance has begun. "We're going to call for our dates and buy them beer and anything else they want beforehand," said Nancy Taylor, social chairman of the dormitory. Miss Taylor is being assisted in making preparations by Mary Jackson.

Charlie Wood and his orchestra will furnish the music for the occasion. Chaperones for the evening will be Mrs. J. S. Cobb, Dr. and Mrs. Frank P. Graham, Dean and Mrs. R. B. House, Mrs. M. K. Stacy, Mrs. Irene F. Lee, Mrs. Elle G. Hardeman, and Mrs. Victor Humphries.

Committee Formed At Syracuse University To Correlate Student Suggestions

SYRACUSE, N. Y.—(ACP)—Designed to give students a voice in the conduct of their courses and the method of presentation of subject matter, a five-man student committee has been appointed by the men's student government of Syracuse university to hear and correlate all suggestions, inquiries, and complaints and present them to the proper administrative authorities.

Suggestions for improvement of subject matter or classroom presentation and complaints against texts or instructors will be handled by the committee, to be known as the suggestion and inquiry committee. Petty or insincere complaints will be disregarded. Students must submit their suggestions or complaints in writing to the committee. All communications must be signed, but the signatures will not be made known to any but the committee. Material will go to the deans of the respective colleges, or to administrative officers, unsigned, according to the plan.
