

The Daily Tar Heel

THE ONLY COLLEGE DAILY IN THE SOUTHEAST

EDITORIALS:

Reminder
Guests
Music

WEATHER:

Fair; continued warm

VOLUME XLVIII

Business: 9887; Circulation: 9886

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., THURSDAY, JANUARY 18, 1940

Editorial: 4356; News: 4351; Night: 6906

NUMBER 84

Reynolds To Speak Tonight At 8 O'Clock

News Briefs

By United Press

ROME, Jan. 17 — (UP) — Italy warns that Fascism may "at any moment" take up arms in European war; Allies' effort to win Italy's friendship is assailed.

WASHINGTON — Vice-President Garner is vigorously opposed to military loans to Finland and has lined up support sufficiently potent to defeat any such proposals, it was learned.

GIBBSTOWN, N. J.—Six thousand pounds of nitroglycerine explodes at DuPont plant killing two men, shattering windows within 50-mile area. 6-men have been ordered to investigate.

STOCKHOLM—Swedish Riksdag is urged to send Swedish troops to Finland's Aland Islands.

HELSINKI — Finnish troops drive Russian forces back on Salla front where wounded are freezing to death in temperature as low as 54 degrees below zero.

WASHINGTON—Economy drive in Congress survives first major test when House noisily shouts down Democratic attempt to write $22,000,000 "pork" item into the $1,100,000,000 Independent Offices Appropriation bill.

WESTERN FRONT — Intense cold immobilizes activity.

BRUSSELS—Rumors re-appear of impending German surprise; Belgian and Dutch maintain military precautions.

LONDON—House of Commons is told that Germany is suffering severely from Allied blockade.

(Students are urged to write in their opinions of the new United Press service now being offered by the DAILY TAR HEEL. Continuance of this special feature depends upon these opinions.)

50 "Men of Mangum" Add Their Cheers For U.P. Service

Fifty "men of Mangum" wrote in as a body yesterday congratulating the DAILY TAR HEEL on its new United Press news briefs and asking for its continuation.

Signed by its officers and 44 other residents of Mangum dormitory, the letter said:

"We, men of Mangum, want to go on record as being heartily in favor of the newly inaugurated United Press service which gives your paper a column of brief, to the point summaries of world news events of major importance and which gives us, as members of the student body, a time saving guide to the news of the day. Please keep it up."

Typical of the individual letters and postcards which flooded the TAR HEEL office were the following:

"Congratulations on a really grand idea! Your UP news briefs are as complete and succinct a summary of the daily news as I have seen, and they certainly add vigor to the front page. Should make the DTH more popular than ever"—Allen Green, editor, the Carolina Magazine.

"Bringing back the summary of world news is a step in the right direction. . . . I should like to see a column of discussion based on these briefs. . . ."—Charles Giduz.

"It's about time your paper showed

(Continued on page 4, column 4)

Sandmel To Teach New Bible Course

A new lecture course in Bible study, entitled "A Critical Approach to the Old Testament," has been announced by the Hillel foundation. The class is to be taught by Rabbi Samuel Sandmel, director of the foundation, and although no credit is given for the course by the University, it is open to all students and townspeople.

The class will be held in 111 Saunders on Tuesday and Thursday of each week at 4 o'clock. The first class will be conducted this afternoon and those interested are invited to come with a copy of the Old Testament.

Newspaper Institute Opens Here Tonight

Editors, Publishers To Meet; Attendance Expected To Hit 200

With editors and publishers and their co-workers expected from all sections of the State, and indications pointing to a new high attendance of 200 or more, everything was set today for the opening of the 16th annual Newspaper Institute here tonight at 8 o'clock. Registration will begin at 4 o'clock.

Mrs. Eleanor Patterson, publisher of the Washington Times-Herald, scheduled to speak at the first session, was unable to leave Washington on account of an attack of influenza, but she is sending her editor, Frank Waldrop, to pinch-hit for her and she vouches that Mr. Waldrop is an excellent speaker.

DR. FRANK

President Frank P. Graham will welcome the visitors for the University, and President W. E. Horner will respond for the State Press association.

The membership of the Association is up considerably from last year, and indications point to a record attendance.

Earl J. Johnson, general news manager of the United Press association, will be the chief speaker at the luncheon session here Friday, and DeWitt MacKenzie, foreign affairs expert for the Associated Press, will headline the program at Duke Friday night.

The sessions will continue through Saturday morning.

NATIVE OF VERMONT

A native of Vermont and a graduate of Syracuse University, Mr. MacKenzie tried his hand at various occupations from farming to music, but always the urge to write came back. With the AP since 1910, he has become famous as a war correspondent,

(Continued on page 4, column 4)

S. P. DELEGATES TO BE ELECTED TODAY, TOMORROW

Representatives To Meet Next Week In First Convention

By CHARLES BARRETT

Representatives to Student party conventions—two delegates from each floor of men's dormitories and three from each floor of women's dormitories—will be chosen today and tomorrow in elections to be supervised by dormitory presidents.

These newly elected representatives will gather next week in the first convention of the year, to elect a general campaign chairman, campaign chairman for each of the classes, a party treasurer and a publicity chairman.

DEMOCRACY AGAIN

This method of representation was inaugurated year before last in an effort to insure democratic nomination of the party's candidates. Each fraternity affiliate of the party is granted one delegate, which usually gives the fraternities a one-sixth representation in the conventions, in exact relation to their numerical proportion of the student body.

The election process will provide for a mass assembly of well over a hundred students at party conventions.

The party this year has adopted a new policy of giving women students three representatives from each dormitory floor. Chairman Preston Nisbet said this step was taken in recognition of the increased number of coeds, and the fact that more students live

(Continued on page 4, column 3)

Senator Robert Rice Reynolds

... to vindicate the Vindicators ...

SENATOR CHOOSES "AMERICANISM" AS HIS SUBJECT

State-Wide Network Will Carry Address Of Carolina Solon

By LOUIS HARRIS

Senator Robert Rice Reynolds will open the Carolina Political union's winter quarter slate this evening at 8 o'clock in Memorial hall when he speaks on "Americanism." Chairman Harry Gatton yesterday urged that all members of the audience be seated before "Our Bob" begins, since the program will be carried over a state-wide radio hook-up.

North Carolina's junior senator will motor into Chapel Hill at 6 o'clock tonight, and after being met by Gatton and E. J. Woodhouse, will proceed directly to the Beta Theta Pi house, of which he was a member during his undergraduate days at the University. The Betas will have dinner prepared for the Senator and his two guests, Private Secretary Wesley McDonald and Political Ally Pierce Rucker of Greensboro.

EN MASSE

The entourage will arrive at Memorial hall at 7:45, and the evening's festivities are scheduled to begin at 8 o'clock. Seated on the platform with Reynolds will be Chairman Gatton, Townie Moore, Jim Gray, Bill Joslin, Professor Woodhouse, and Dean R. B. House. Radio broadcasting will commence on the dot of 8 o'clock, necessitating complete silence in Memorial hall.

Senator Reynolds' address is expected to be about 45 minutes in length, leaving 15 minutes open forum

(Continued on page 4, column 3)

GEORGE HEARN, DEPUTY, DIES

Funeral Services This Afternoon

George A. Hearn, 59, who had served as deputy sheriff of Orange county for 20 years, died at his home in Chapel Hill yesterday morning at 7:30 following a short illness.

He had been active in his role as deputy sheriff until last December when he became ill. A complication of diseases was ascribed as the cause of death.

Funeral services will be held from the Chapel Hill Methodist church this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Eva Sparrow Hearn and the following brothers and sisters: Miss Clara Hearn of Roanoke Rapids, Mrs. Will Andrews of Durham, Mrs. Kemp Hackney of Pittsboro, Ruote 1, Mrs. Lulu Smith of Bynum, Mrs. Roy Riggsbee of Carboro, Mrs. Annie Ferguson, of Burlington and John Hearn of Lincoln, Ga.

Urban Holmes, Jr., Is Co-Author Of New French Text

"Source Book for the History of the French Language," a new textbook by Dr. Urban T. Holmes, Jr., of the University romance languages department, and Dr. A. H. Schutz of Ohio State, was put on sale in the Book Exchange Monday.

The book is being used here in French 126, History of the French Language, and in similar courses in schools throughout the country.

The text traces the development of the language from vulgar Latin to modern French. Specimens of the language during the various phases of its history are supplied.

Dean House To Speak To Cosmopolitan Club

Dean R. B. House will speak at an informal dinner to be given by the Cosmopolitan club of the University tomorrow night at 6 o'clock at Danziger's Candy shop.

Reservations must be made with Herman Boemanns, chairman, this morning. There will be a charge of 50 cents each.

Pray And You May Be Dated Come "Sadie Hawkins Day"

Chief Sloan, Student Collide; No One Hurt

Although one car containing the driver and a passenger was flipped over on its top and badly damaged last night when a police car driven by Chief W. T. Sloan collided with that driven by Norman Bolick, student at the University, no one was injured in the accident.

(Continued on page 2, column 3)

Woman's Athletic Association Takes Advantage Of Males By Keeping Date Secret

By JO JONES

"Sadie Hawkins' Day" will be sponsored by the Woman's Athletic association at a date to be kept secret, Miss Terrell Everett, president, announced yesterday at a meeting of the Woman's Athletic council.

Sadie Hawkins was a mountain girl, who, unable to get a man by any other means, chased them till she caught a husband. On "Sadie Hawkins' Day" a coed may keep the man she catches for the day. She takes care of all expenses and pays his way to a tea dance, which will be given in the afternoon. The idea has taken hold at many universities, where "Sadie Hawkins' Days" have been held.

OTHER PLANS

In addition to plans for "Sadie Hawkins' Day" the council discussed plans for basketball, badminton, bowling, and fencing tournaments to be held between dormitories, sororities, and town girls. From the teams competing in the tournament, all-college

(Continued on page 4, column 6)

Student-Faculty Day To Feature Quiz Program

The committee on Student-Faculty day, headed by Tom Stanback and Barbara Liscomb, yesterday announced plans for the "Information Please" program which will be the first of the day's attractions to be held on Tuesday, February 6.

The board of experts on the program are members of the University faculty and have been chosen for their versatility as well as for being authorities in their chosen fields. The seven experts will be: E. E. Ericson, Archibald Henderson, R. S. Winslow, B. F. Swalin, Dean R. B. House, Coach Ray Wolf and Howard W. Odum. Walter Kleeman and Lee Manning Wiggins are editors of the program.

QUESTIONS

Questions for the program which will be copied after the well known program sponsored on the National Broadcasting hook-up by Canada Dry will be submitted by the students on this campus. Each student may submit as many questions which are not of scientific nature as he wishes and may address his questions to any particular participant on the program he wishes. If his question stumps the experts, he will receive a free ticket to the Grail "Tramp Ball" to be given that night. Questions are to be submitted to Walter Kleeman at the

(Continued on page 4, column 1)

Slate Of Speakers For Newspaper Institute

Above are some of the principals who will participate in the program of the annual North Carolina Newspaper Institute which begins today and will continue through Saturday. Top row, left to right: Mrs. Eleanor Patterson, publisher of the Washington Times-Herald, who was to address the opening session Thursday night; DeWitt MacKenzie, special writer on foreign affairs for the Associated Press, who speaks at Duke Friday night; Earl J. Johnson, vice-president and general news manager of the United Press, who addresses a luncheon session at Carolina Friday; Dr. H. E. Spence of the Duke University School of Religion, who addresses the Duke dinner session Friday; W. E. Horner, of Sanford, president of the North Carolina Press association, who will preside over the session; Charles L. Allen, executive secretary, New Jersey Press association, who will address the Friday morning session; Dr. Julian Miller, of Charlotte, vice-president of the NCPA; Miss Beatrice Cobb, of Morganton, secretary-treasurer, NCPA; John W. Harden, of Salisbury, who will conduct a news-room clinic for weeklies and dailies Friday morning; W. K. Hoyt, Winston-Salem, president Associated Dailies of NCPA, who will preside over a meeting for dailies Friday afternoon; W. C. Manning, Jr., Williamston, who will preside over a group meeting for weeklies at the same time; and L. Parker Likely, director of Newspaper Appraisal corporation, New York, who will address the final session Saturday morning.