

The Daily Tar Heel

The official newspaper of the Carolina Publications Union of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, where it is printed daily except Mondays, and the Thanksgiving, Christmas and Spring Holidays. Entered as second class matter at the post office at Chapel Hill, N. C., under act of March 3, 1879. Subscription price, $3.00 for the college year.

1939 Member 1940
Associated Collegiate Press

REPRESENTED FOR NATIONAL ADVERTISING BY National Advertising Service, Inc.
College Publishers Representative
420 MADISON AVE. NEW YORK, N. Y.
CHICAGO - BOSTON - LOS ANGELES - SAN FRANCISCO

Martin Harmon Editor
Morris W. Rosenberg Managing Editor
William Ogburn Business Manager
Larry Ferling Circulation Manager

EDITORIAL WRITERS: Ed Rankin, Don Bishop, Bill Snider, Frank Holeman.
REPORTERS: Bill Rhodes Weaver, Louis Harris, Doris Goerch, Dorothy Coble, Zoe Young, Grady Reagan, Bucky Harward, Dick Young, Campbell Irving, Gene Williams, Sanford Stein, Philip Carden, Vivian Gillespie.
COLUMNISTS: Adrian Spies, Johnny Anderson, Mack Hobson, Ben Roebuck.

Technical Staff
NEWS EDITORS: Carroll McGaughey, Charles Barrett, Rush Hamrick.
NIGHT SPORTS EDITORS: Leonard Lobred, Fred Cazal, Orville Campbell.
DESKMEN: Edward Prizer, Bob Thomas, Sylvan Meyer.

Sports Staff
EDITOR: Shelley Rolfe.
REPORTERS: William L. Beerman, Richard Morris, Harry Hollingsworth, Jerry Stoff, Jack Saunders, Josh Goldberg, Frank Goldsmith.

Circulation
ASSISTANT MANAGER: Jack Holland.
OFFICE: Bradford McCuen, Larry Dale, D. T. Hall.

Business Staff
LOCAL ADVERTISING MANAGERS: Jimmy Schleifer, Bill Bruner, Andrew Gennett.

LOCAL ADVERTISING ASSISTANTS: Sinclair Jacobs, Rufus Shelkoff, Tom Nash, Jack Dube, Buck Osborne, Steve Reiss, Leigh Wilson, Bill Stanback, Bob McNaughton, Landon Roberts.

DURHAM ADVERTISING MANAGERS: Bill Schwartz, Alvin Patterson.
COLLECTIONS MANAGER: Morty Ulman.

COLLECTIONS STAFF: Morty Golby, Parke Staley, Mary Susan Robertson, Mary Ann Koonce, Elinor Elliot, Millicent McKendry.

OFFICE MANAGER: Phil Haigh.

OFFICE STAFF: Grace Rutledge, Sarah Nathan, Oren Oliver, Bill Vail, Mickey Grindlinger.

For This Issue: News: CARROLL B. MCGAUGHEY Sports: FRED CAZEL

GERMANS

Glen Gray And Company

Presenting Glen Gray and his Casa Loma orchestra, starring Pee Wee Hunt and Kenny Sargeant, Joe Hall at the piano, and 13 more top-flight musicians:

Sometime ago, when the German club was floundering in the dreary, dreary depths of financial despair, with the old wolf at the door and the executive committee members tearing their hair in desperation, we criticized the German club for its faulty management of finances, and for its $900-debt to Graham Memorial, the club's financial angel.

We listed the German club's $900-debt as a donation by Graham Memorial to the furtherance of the dance.

Political frame-up was charged.

While the charges may have been somewhat over-emphasized, the German club, under the capable direction of Louis Sutton, secretary-treasurer and main gun of the organization, has now come out of the great morass of financial difficulty and has provided for its members and other participants the best music in its history.

Larry Clinton was satisfactory for Fall Germans—to put it mildly.

Ditto Glen Gray.

YOUR FAITH

Student Sunday

The University Inter-Faith council, YMCA, and the Chapel Hill Ministerial association will observe Student Sunday tomorrow by presenting two students—from the University and five other North Carolina colleges—in each of the pulpits of Chapel Hill churches. Theme for the day will be "Brotherhood in Action."

Religion is a part of life often neglected on this campus. In all the whirl of athletic events, week-end dances, classes and occasional studying, the spiritual aspect of living a complete life is easily overlooked. The YMCA theoretically serves the function of administering spiritual guidance to the student body, but its activities radiate to only a minority of the total enrollment.

The work of the Inter-Faith council and related groups is placing a much needed emphasis on religion. This emphasis can perhaps most effectively be made by looking to the students themselves to lead the way to a renewed interest in a Higher Being. Interchange of student speakers with other colleges makes the emphasis stronger.

Yackety Yack Sets All-Time High In Advertising

With ads still pouring in, all previous records for advertising in the Yackety Yack already have been shattered, Bert Halperin, business manager of the yearbook announced yesterday.

The former record of $1314.51 has been passed, and an increase of $350 over last year's total has been made. Halperin explained that the methods used in boosting the advertising of the annual have been in contacting firms who have had previous business with the University, and in concentrating on the national advertising. Among the new advertisers is Kay Kyser, University alumnus and band-leader, who has taken a full page.

BIRTHDAYS

(Students having birthdays may get free tickets to the movies by calling by the boxoffice of the Carolina theater.)

Barnes, Jack Watson
Bason, Mary Burnham
Godwin, Robert Dedrick
Gretter, W. Carrington, Jr.
Griffin, Arthur Gwynn
Heard, Thomas Vincent
Henson, Joseph Bascom, Jr.
Jacocks, Arthur Winston
Kirby, James Russell
Lindau, William
Matthews, Preston Few
Oliver, Richard L.
Plyler, Helen V.
Pope, Donald B.
Price, Almand Dwight
Pully, Morris Wiley
Rutter, Robert Carl
Turtelaub, Morton Lawrence

W. T. Couch Appointed

(Continued from first page)

L. Burch, E. C. Smith, A. C. Pickard, R. P. Bond, M. S. Breckenridge and Roy Armstrong. Publicity will be handled by Louis Graves, E. C. Smith and Henry Brandis; and finances by Mrs. P. C. Farrar, Mrs. F. W. Hanft and Mrs. R. P. Bond.

CAROLINA COMMENTARY

BY JOHN ANDERSON

ON TALKING TO GLEN GRAY . . .

'Boy, what a school! What's the enrollment—4,000? . . . This is the school Kyser and Kemp are from, isn't it? . . . Have many girls here? Where do we play when we finish here in Memorial hall?' Wait just a minute, Glen, let me ask the questions, and if you get mad, please remember you have at least a 150 pounds.

"Yet, this is our first visit to the University of North Carolina . . . No, we never have had a girl vocalist. But we have "Pee Wee" . . . Our spare time is spent in practice and pitching pennies . . . No, I'm no pitcher; I'd starve to death if I had to do that for a living. . . Say you heard us at the Paramount in New York. Yep, we've played there for the past five years during the Christmas season. The Merry Macs were with us; they're real musicians. . .

No, we're not staying in Chapel Hill—Raleigh. Then to Greensboro tomorrow night, and from there we go to Richmond. . . Yep, we once played at Vassar. And no, we don't particularly like girls' schools—they're too stiff. . . See our bus driver? He's pitcher Van Mungo's brother. Okay, eh? . . . Well, see you there tonight, kid." . . .

GONE WITH THE WIND . . .

Today the "Y" appears less-traditionally looking minus the ivy-bush on the left. It went with the wind last Tuesday, and at the same time took much skin from a coed's face. We regret the loss of both. In old Yackety Yacks we see the old vine over the "Y" door back as far as 1920.

NOT WANTED . . .

Yesterday many of the fraternities called the Buc office and asked that the Buccaneers not be delivered until Monday. A rather strange request since many of the censored pictures are in the new Buc with new captions. The reason: Imports this week-end will search for souvenirs, and Bucs are ideal, so the boys decided it best to wait until next week to see Bill Stauber's latest. . .

NO CUTTING . . .

The Playmakers have already started practice on "Kiss the Boys Good-bye," and much to our delight only one line of the script has been cut out. Why that line was cut out, we don't know; we thought it was good . . . naturally.

LUCKY SHYSTERS . . .

The law boys have had another very effective study hazard—a swell social room. And what a social room! Lacking only a bar with a chorus. It is a good example for all the other dorms on the campus to follow. . .

University Library Presented Statue Of Beatrice, Dante

Miss Annie M. Hegeman of Washington, D. C., and New York has recently presented to the University library a bust of Beatrice and Dante executed by an Italian sculptor of the past century and purchased in Rome several years ago by her step-father, the Honorable Henry Kirke Porter.

The Porter home has been given jointly to the Library of Congress and the Smithsonian institute, but Miss Hegeman is giving certain things contained in it to chosen institutions. The piece of sculptor and pedestal is being presented to a library because of its literary association.

Sophomores May Mail Marine Applications

Sophomore students who wish to enlist in the platoon leaders class of the United States Marine Corps Reserve and who failed to file their applications with Major McKenny during his recent visit on the campus may do so by writing to him for an application blank.

The platoon leaders class is a training camp where outstanding students of selected universities and colleges are trained for a commission as second lieutenant in the Marine Corps Reserve. The camp is held for six months during the summer at Quantico, Virginia and San Diego, California.

Major McKenny will return to Chapel Hill sometime during the Spring quarter with a medical staff and will give medical examinations at that time. Application blanks of all Sophomores who wish the training must be filed before this time. Application blanks may be obtained by writing to McKenny at 458 Indiana Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C.

Please report irregularities in delivery by calling 9886 from 2-5 p. m. weekdays.

PLUMED BIRD

ANSWER TO PREVIOUS PUZZLE

18 Advertisement.
19 Doctor.
21 It belongs to the genus,
22 To eject.
24 Nights before.
26 The devil.
27 Flexible.
29 Indian.
31 Uncooked.
33 Ruler of Tunis.
35 Stitched.
36 Its wings are —
38 Applauder.
41 Mouth part.
43 To wander.
45 Young cow.
46 Kind of nut.
47 Slave.
48 One.
49 Prong.
50 And.
53 Sorrow.
54 Musical note.
57 Palm lily.
59 Italian river.

1 Bird with valuable plumes.
7 It is the existing bird.
13 Feeble-minded person.
14 English coin.
16 Sacred interdiction.
17 Church title.
18 Sentence.
20 Sun.
21 Undermined.
23 To rescind.
25 Distinctive theory.
26 Salt.
28 Fabulous bird.
30 Deity of war.
32 Fish.
34 Note in Guido's scale.
35 Laws.
37 Ripped.
39 Diluted.
40 Bird that hoots.
42 Born.
44 Like an icon.
47 Ceremonial

greeting.
51 Grain.
52 Furnished with power.
55 Insect's egg.
56 To permit.
58 Opposite of winner.
59 Brooch.
60 It is found in —
61 It is a swift bird.

2 Ice cream drink.
3 Circle near the Equator.
4 Rough sports.
5 Within.
6 In what way.
7 Gibbon.
8 Right.
9 To pant.
10 Tree.
11 East Indian plant.
12 Toward.
15 Genus of frogs.

1 Mystic syllable.

To Tell The Truth---

By ADRIAN SPIES

I am only an English major with a partiality for the boys who "sing of social significance." And sometimes, like all of us whose work here is confined to one department, I have sincerely wished that curriculum requirements would let me take some particular course. The reputation of a few of them filter through the enthusiastic student ranks. Sometimes, and this must be a course, they even reach the ivory tower of an English major.

From popular hearsay, it seems to me that Mr. Harry Wolfe's classes in Labor must be of this group. And as I write this the case of a certain friend of mine comes to mind. It is from him, and late night bull sessions in the parlor, that I learned about this Labor course. (I am almost tempted to give the boy's name, so that friend Bill Stauber will not think that he is related to my mythical mill worker).

In the few years that I have known him, my friend has been looking around to find some career which offers him an opportunity to be of service. In the vague and innocuous sense of the word he is a "liberal." Which means he is an idealist who believes in a reformed democracy which would vindicate the original meaning of that really beautiful word. And being such a person, he was not greatly different from most of us.

When he entered this Labor course a very excellent thing happened to this friend of mine. He had always been interested in "people" and "humanity" and "progress" in a rather indeterminate way. But now he began to fit this indefinite notion into something as ordinary and naturally American as wages, and unions, and working-men.

He learned those lessons which all of us must if we are to do any good for this American democracy of ours. That there are approximately 25,000,000 paid workers in this land who average a salary of $1,250 (See Fortune, February, 1940). That this earning is below the actual maintenance level, and, as that magazine says, "the great bulk of America's working class cannot decently support a family." And that this, representing so great a portion of the buying public of the land, is the top-heavy problem of our economy today.

My friend, in tracing the tardy development of labor movements in this land, realized that this neglect cannot help but retard the whole nation. Like most of us, he is provoked with the silk hatted and "aristocratic" ineffectiveness of Mr. Green's AFL. He has learned of those many cases where the working-men have been sold out by stooges, bribed union officials, and other such human debris. He understood and, I think, applauded the actions of Mr. Lewis in organizing the unskilled and non-AFL laborers. And, at present, like all people sincerely interested in even such an extreme as the preservation of our peace, he deplores the present split between the CIO and the AFL.

It is obvious that he knows far more about this subject than the writer of this column does. He is being trained to a knowledge of one of the most persistent problems in our nation's history. But I think it interesting for us here to note the position that my friend has now taken. For he has decided that he will be of best service to the peaceful progress of his land by joining the admirable body of college-trained experts in the labor field.

Hating fascism, and knowing that dissatisfied and hopeless workingmen invited this form of government in the dictatorships of Europe, he is determined to avert this here. Believing in the dignity of man, and the right of our less comfortable neighbors to protect themselves against the tyranny of near-sighted employers, he intends to support the provisions of the Wagner Act and the National Labor Relations board. Loving democracy, he is going to try and prove the value of it to our "forgotten man."

Now this friend of mine started thinking and planning like a citizen when he took these courses of Mr. Wolfe's. It is unimportant to wonder how much of this came from natural development and how much was gotten from statistics, facts, and class texts. And though I am only an English major who isn't above sneaking away to muse an hour with the literary gents, I think that Mr. Wolfe must have a pretty decent course over there in Bingham hall.

Mittmen To Seek

(Continued from first page)

Unless Kirkman has a constitution and build of iron, he's likely due for a thrashing, for Sanders packs a mean wallop in his left hand, cold or no cold.

Bob Farris, at 155, is evenly matched with Duke's Ed Morel. Farris has classy footwork, a fair left jab, and a good right swing which can usually be depended on.

Since the removal of Mike Bobbitt from the boxing room to the football field, Coach Ronman has picked Zan Carver for 175-pound duties tonight. Carver has every thing but experience, and meets John Murphy.

Varsity fights will start at 8:15, approximately one hour after freshmen bouts begin.

Send the DAILY TAR HEEL home.

With The Churches

Chapel Hill, Feb. 17.—(Special)—"Student Sunday" will be observed at the Chapel Hill churches this week as follows: at the Baptist church, Kenneth Murchison of State college and George Raifson of the University will speak at the morning service. Fred Smith BYPU will meet at 7 o'clock. Union student forum will meet at Gerrard hall at 7:30.

At the Presbyterian church, two students will talk on "We declare Our Faith" at 11 o'clock. A service of like a nature will be held at the Methodist church at the same hour.

At the United Church, two students will make talks at 11 o'clock. At the Episcopal church, Rev. A. S. Lawrence will conduct services at 11 o'clock; prayers and organ recital at 8 o'clock.

At Gerrard hall, Father Francis Morrissey will conduct Mass at 10 o'clock.

At Graham Memorial, Passmore Elkinson, well-known friend of Philadelphia, and his wife, Anna Elkinson, will attend the Friends' meeting in the Grail room at 11 o'clock Sunday morning. All interested persons are invited to attend.

News Briefs

(Continued from first page)

ships if they go to British contraband control bases voluntarily or under compulsion.

WASHINGTON — Republican National committee votes to hold party nominating convention in Philadelphia June 24 after applauding challenge to Democrats to name President Roosevelt for third term.

WASHINGTON—Largest navy appropriation bill in peacetime history is passed by House and sent to Senate where "big navy" advocates expected as much as $111,700,000 to $965,778,878 measure.

RIO DE JANEIRO—Foreign Minister describes action of British warship in halting German freighter "Wakama" off Brazilian coast as "an act of war" and proposes joint protest by 21 American republics.

WASHINGTON — Vice-President Garner reveals he has approved entry of his name in the May presidential primary in California.

WASHINGTON—Federal loan administrator pledges that neutrality law and Johnson act will be observed scrupulously when Export-Import bank makes loans to foreign governments.

WASHINGTON—Senator Tom Connally, Democrat (Texas), taken to hospital after collapsing while attending a banquet; physicians say that his condition is not serious.

Chi Omegas Honor Ann Williams, Louise Smith

Miss Ann Williams of Clarksdale, Miss., and Miss Louise Smith of Charlotte, were presented outstanding pledge and scholarship awards, respectively, at the annual banquet of the Chi Omega sorority at the Carolina Inn last week.

Miss Josephine Martin of Henderson, president of the sorority, presided, and Miss Elouise Brown of Chapel Hill was toastmistress. Others taking part on the program were Miss Jeanne Herrman of Bridgewater, N. Y., Miss Zoe Young of Fort Smith, Ark., and Miss Mary Wood of Elizabethton, Tenn.

Mid-Winter Dances

(Continued from first page)

Salem, with Tom Wright; Miss D. J. Johnson, Aberdeen, with Dave Murchison; Miss Alexa McColl, Bennettsville, S. C., with Julian Coghil; Miss Mary Emma Robbins, Durham, with Warren Smith; and Miss Nancy Leonard, Salisbury, with Lynch Murphy.

Chaperones for the tea dance this afternoon are: Mesdames E. M. Hedgepeth, Hugh T. Lefler, R. D. Wichard, W. P. Richardson and George E. Shepard; and for tonight, Dr. and Mrs. S. W. J. Welch, Dr. and Mrs. John Carroll, Dr. and Mrs. William Perry, Dr. and Mrs. Fred Patterson and Dr. and Mrs. Frank P. Graham.

Gray To Address

(Continued from first page)

ham and Thad Eure. The price of 75 cents a plate for members was set at the Thursday night meeting and the club executive committee will take names for the banquet. Names or money may be turned over to any of the following: Joe Dawson, Ernest King, Bert Premo, Fred Edney, Martin Harmon, Winifred Norman, Buddy Nordan, Bob Berbert, Ed Rankin. The executive committee will meet in Graham Memorial Monday at 5 o'clock.