LONDON, April 15—British armed forces landed on Norwegian soil have captured the iron ore port of Narvik and surrounding countryside from the Germans, and Allied aid is "assuming gigantic proportions," a British radio message to the Norwegian people stated tonight.

French forces aided in the captures, the broadcast indicated.

The Daily Herald, in a front page splash, said "ships of all kinds crammed with men, munitions and stores are steaming across the North Sea en route to strengthen the British expeditionary force in Norway."

"For hours Monday, trains loaded with essential supplies rumbled into British ports. For two days past boats arriving at British ports have been pressed into service. Some were hurriedly repainted, but all are ready to weigh anchor."

"The outstanding feature of the operations was the organization which enabled troops to move almost unnoted from all parts of Britain to ports of embarkation. Military camps disappeared overnight as men embarked to travel to new battlefields."

STOCKHOLM—German forces are being driven into a trap in the rugged hills around Narvik, frontier reports claimed, under pressure of British troops landed in iron ore ports, and murderous fire from Norwegian lines being drawn around the town.

WASHINGTON—President Roosevelt re-acclaims solidarity of the Americas in world where "old dreams of universal empires are again rampant" and warns that force will be used successfully to keep aggression and absurd doctrines from these shores.

BERLIN—The use of Norway as a base for offensive action against Great Britain threatened in authorized German quarters, which also dropped a broad hint possibly presaging German abandonment of Narvik, important iron ore port.

PARIS—French military quarters say an Allied expeditionary force has landed in the Lofoten islands off the Norwegian port of Narvik, and it is reported unofficially that Polish troops have been sent to fight alongside the Norwegians.

ROME—Premier Mussolini may make an important declaration on Italy's attitude toward the spreading of the European war on Saturday.

STOCKHOLM—The Norwegian government charges, in a statement designed to constitute an historical record, that fighting was already in "thorough swing" when the German

PRAISED HIGHLY

In commenting on young Ricci, after he first made his advent onto the concert stage, Leonard Lieblich in the "American" magazine carried, "He has won a truly sensational success. What he achieved was outstandingly fine, often fabulous, and to be compared only to the phenomenal performance of those erstwhile marvelous children of the violin, Elman, Heifetz, and Menuhin. However, their gifts were no grander than are those of Ricci."

Recently, after a Carnegie hall appearance, the New York Herald Tribune commented, "It is always gratifying to note the development of a budding talent to one of fulfillment, and that is applicable to the performance of Ruggiero Ricci, violinist, in Carnegie hall yesterday afternoon."

The young western artist's pro-

Today is the only chance for nominations to be made.

Elections that follow on Thursday will, for the first time in the history of the University, be held according to precincts. The campus has been divided in such a way that each student has a definite place at which to vote, and will be ineligible to vote anywhere else.

Precincts have been divided as follows: residents of H, K, Graham, Everett, Lewis, Aycock, Manly, Mangum, Ruffin and Grimes will vote at polls in H dormitory; residents of Spencer and numbers one, two and three of the women's dormitories will vote in number one; those living in Steele, Old East, Old West, Battle-Vance-
