

Woman's Association Releases Slate Of Coeds Chosen Tuesday To Participate In May Court

By VIVIAN GILLESPIE

The Woman's association yesterday released the complete slate of girls chosen for the May Court in a general coed election held Tuesday, at which time Louise Hudson was elected May Queen.

Bobbie Winton will serve as Maid of Honor, as a result of double ties in the elections. Bobbie Burroughs and Melville Corbett tied for May Court attendants, and it was decided at an informal meeting of Alpha Kappa Gamma, honorary woman's sorority sponsoring the festival, that both girls would serve.

Barbara Liscomb, Helen Ann Jacobs, Ruth Curtis Robeson, Susie Fountain, Janice Cobb, and Jeanne Herrman were chosen to be the senior members of the court. Miss Cobb and Miss Herrmann had an equal number of votes, and it was decided to put both of them in the Court, adding one girl to the total number participating.

Junior and Graduate Selection
Marjorie Johnston, Alice Murdock, Frances Bucklew, Elinore Mayer, Rose Winther, and Jane Putnam were selected to form the junior and graduate student section of the court.

In voting for the Queen, coeds marked in order their preference for the four candidates, Bobbie Burroughs, Melville Corbett, Louise Hudson and Bobbie Winton. Twenty-one other girls were nominated for the May court. Of these, six seniors and six juniors and graduates were chosen to make the total of 12 members of the court. Sixteen girls will take part in the ceremony: the Queen, her Maid of Honor, her two attendants, and her court of 12 girls.

Other girls nominated for the court were Peggy Leonard, Betty Kennison, B. J. Johnson, Pat Dickinson, Elinore Mayer, Eleanor Jenkins, Jane Gassaway, Susan Robertson and Rose Winther.

GEORGIA COACH SPEAKS TONIGHT TO LETTER CLUB

New Officers To Be Elected; Plan Conference

Coach Bill Alexander, head grid mentor at Georgia Tech, will speak at a Monogram club banquet tonight at 7 o'clock in the banquet room of the new dining hall.

New officers for the club will be elected, and winter awards presented. Music will be furnished by Skipper Bowles and his band.

Dave Morrison and Noel Woodhouse are co-chairmen of the committee making plans for the event.

Banquet Precedes Club Conference

The banquet will precede the third annual state Monogram club conference opening tomorrow morning with registration in Woolen gymnasium. In the afternoon the conference members will hear short talks by Director of Athletics "Coach Bob" Fetzer, and Richard Worley, student athlete. The conference is sponsored by the Monogram club, of which Dave Morrison is president.

Head Football Coach Ray Wolf will make a short talk to the assembled delegates, after which he will lead a short discussion and show moving pictures of various Carolina athletic events.

Officers Will Be Selected

At a Saturday morning business session, the members of the conference will select officers to serve for the coming year. Present officers are Bill Simmons of High Point, president; Ed Short, also of High Point, vice-president; Wells Tillery, treasurer; and Morrison, secretary.

The delegates will be guests of the Carolina Athletic association at the AAU track meet Friday and Saturday, and the frosh baseball game with Belmont Abbey on Friday.

George Ralston is chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements for the event.

Playmakers Cast Experimentals This Afternoon

Tryouts will be held in the Carolina Playmakers theater this afternoon at 4 o'clock for three new one-act plays to be presented on an experimental bill May 4.

Plays to be cast are "The Scarlet Petticoat," a Negro comedy from the Deep South by Kate Porter Lewis of Tuscaloosa, Ala.; "Ray o' Sunshine," a play of old age and relief by William I. Long of Seaboard; and "Taffy the Tiger," a play for children by Mary Louise Boylston of Blackville, S. C. Also to be presented but already in rehearsal is "The Woman from Merry River," a folk fantasy by Chase Webb of Tularosa, New Mexico.

The plays to be given were written in Professor Frederick H. Koch's course in playwriting and were selected from a group of a dozen or more submitted for consideration.

"The Scarlet Petticoat," Mrs. Lewis' Negro play, presents the humorous situation of a widow, who, while planning the tombstone for her husband's grave, encourages the attentions of a former suitor.

Long's play "Ray o' Sunshine," is his second to be presented by the Playmakers this season. It tells the story of an aged couple in Northampton county, North Carolina, who have too much pride to accept government relief even though their little farm doesn't give them even the necessities of life.

"Taffy the Tiger" is the third children's play by Miss Boylston to appear on the Playmakers stage this season.

IRC Membership Drive Ends on Campus Today

Today marks the last day of the membership drive which has been held by the International Relations club for the past two weeks. All applicants who wish to be voted on for membership this quarter must leave their blanks by noon tomorrow at the YMCA or with a student on the membership committee composed of Manfred Levey, Lyman Collins, June Epstein, Mary Lewis, Wimpy Lewis and Vivian Gillespie.

Morrison, Dees Make Final Bid For Student Body Presidency As Campus Votes Again Today

Tar Heel to Post Election Returns

The DAILY TAR HEEL will not be able to conduct an election party tonight because of a previously scheduled program in Graham Memorial. However, returns will be posted at 9:30.

DAVE MORRISON

Here we have Morrison and Dees, one of whom will be next year's president of the student body, depending on the outcome of today's run-off.

Lobred And Morris Enter Close Race For Publications Union Board Head

By PHILIP CARDEN

Dave Morrison and Bill Dees, who have established top ranking records in curricular and extra curricular activities during their three years at Carolina, engage today in the last round of a prolonged battle to decide which shall cap his laurels with the presidency of the student body. Results in the first skirmish were Morrison, 1138 and Dees, 1020.

Next to the Morrison-Dees race, interest in today's encore election centers around the contest for president of the Publications Union board. Both candidates, Leonard Lobred and Richard Morris, have been members of the DAILY TAR HEEL sports staff for the past three years and were separated by only one vote last week. Morris polled 792 votes as compared with Lobred's 791.

With 12 pairs of nominees entering, today's ballot will be the longest in the history of run-off elections at the University. In spite of long weeks of campaigning for last week's preliminary, candidates found the necessary energy yesterday and far into last night to put in hours of last minute vote-seeking.

As in last week's election students will vote according to residence at one of four precincts, either in the lobby of H dormitory, the lobby of the YMCA, the small lounge of Graham Memorial or the lobby of Dorm No. 1. Polls will be open from 9 this morning until 6 o'clock this afternoon.

Jim Mallory, the only Carolina party candidate to gain a place on the run-off ballot, will tangle with Hal Jennings in a warm race for vice-president of the Athletic association. Mallory led last week, 1044 to 848.

Senior class officers to be decided today are vice-president and Student council representative. For the first office Don Baker, with 252 votes, led Frosty Snow with 244, and for the second Louis Gaylord, with 252, led Joe Welborn, with 236.

Interdormitory Council Names Five Presidential Candidates

Burton, Farris, Heath, Nisbet, Shuford in Race

The interdormitory council last night nominated five men, Ott Burton, Bob Farris, Ben Heath, Preston Nisbet, and Bill Shuford, for next year's president. Election of the president from one of these and nomination and election of vice-president, secretary and treasurer will be held next Tuesday night.

Individual dormitories will elect presidents and vice-presidents between now and Tuesday night and all officers will take office at that time.

Present leaders of the Interdormitory council will conduct a dormitory officers training course for the newly elected men next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Farris is now president of H dormitory; Burton, president of K; Heath, vice-president of Steele; Shuford, vice-president of Grimes; and Nisbet, athletic manager of Mangum.

Sound and Fury Cast

All coeds and boys who have been asked to appear in the Sound and Fury show, "One More Spring," will come to an important rehearsal tonight at 9 o'clock in Memorial hall. It is essential that everyone be present, Director Carroll McGaughey said.

PHARMACY DANCES BEGIN TOMORROW

Freddie Johnson Slated for Music

The annual dance set of the Pharmacy school will be held this weekend in the Tin Can, the music to be furnished by Freddie Johnson and his orchestra.

Before the dances get under way, a banquet for the pharmacists is scheduled in the Carolina Inn at 7 o'clock tomorrow night. The dinner is under the sponsorship of the Rho Chi society, an honorary scholastic fraternity of the pharmacy school.

The first dance of the set will be a formal tomorrow night from 9:30 until 1 o'clock. On Saturday afternoon from 4:30 until 6:30 a tea dance and the final affair of the set will be another formal dance at 9 o'clock Saturday night. All dances are to be held in the Tin Can.

International Club Will Be Organized On Campus At 7:30

Ben F. Crowson, president of the Pan-American Student Chain, is now on the campus to organize a chapter of this international student organization. Students interested in joining the campus chapter will meet at 7:30 tonight in the Woman's association room in Graham Memorial.

The Chain has the following activities: the formation of yearly caravans to Latin-America; the promotion of Spanish and Portuguese in the United States and English in Latin-America; the sending of speakers to schools; the issuance of identification cards to all members enabling them to be recognized while traveling; the publication of a quarterly magazine in four languages; and the publication of a semi-monthly News Record of Latin-American news.

T. Dorsey Arrives Tomorrow For Weekend

Concert Features Stafford, Sinatra

When Tommy Dorsey and his orchestra arrive tomorrow afternoon to open the May Frolics weekend with a public concert in Memorial hall, he will have put his 21-room farmhouse and his thousand biddies out of his mind.

Tommy, down to earth from his ethereal orchestrations, loves his farm, located at Bernardsville, N. J., in the middle of 22 acres. It is complete with silo, barns, horses, milch cows and chickens.

The home also has a 65-foot tile swimming pool, heating system, duplex bathhouses, cement tennis court, lighted for night playing, barbeque pit and other intricate features. It has a playground, bar, bunk room, nautical decorations for the band to (Continued on page 2, column 5)
