Golfers Bow By 3 Points; Moore, Barksdale Lead Frosh

Linksmen Rally On Last Nine To Surprise Duke, Close Gap

By JACK SAUNDERS

Exhibiting their finest form of the season, Carolina's tough hand of golfers tried valiantly to spring the biggest upset of the spring before succumbing to Duke's champion Blue Devils at Hillandale yesterday by only three small points. The final count was 10 1/2-7 1/2 against the Tar Heels, giving them their first loss to date.

Mural Schedule

Slated to fall before the onslaught of the highly-touted Durham outfit from anywhere to a shut-out to ten points, Chuck Erickson's performers threw a real scare in the Dukes with a great bid for victory on the home stretch, getting 6 1/2 points on the in-nine. Neal Herring wrested a score from Russell going out to save the Tar Heels from a blanking at the turn.

Chuck Alexander, shooting in the No. 3 spot for the Durhamites, grabbed medal honors with a par - 71 to blank Frosty Snow by 3-0. At that, Snow was tops for Carolina. He showed a 73.

Summary, Carolina men first: No. 1. C. Diffendal, 1/2, (78), S. Alexander, 2 1/2, (76). 2. Boyd, 1 1/2, Perry, 1 1/2, (75). Best-ball: Carolina 1, Duke, 2. 3. Snow, 0, (73), C. Alexander, 3, (71). 4. Herring, 3, (74), Russell, 0, (80). Best-ball: Carolina 1 1/2, Duke 1 1/2. Carolina 7 1/2, Duke 10 1/2.

Carolina's Indians will tangle with Duke's strong Blue Devil lacrosse men on coed field this afternoon at 4 o'clock. Both the Indians and the Blue Devils have been making extensive preparations for this, their second meeting of the current season, and plenty of thrills and spills will be in store for those who go out to witness the Indians' first home game. Duke is ready to go the limit to even the series up at one all, the Indians having taken the first by a score of 5-4.

When the Indians defeated the Dukes two weeks ago on Duke field, the play was exceedingly rough. In fact it was about the roughest, although the penalties were few and far between, that Coach Al Cornsweet's stickmen have participated in since lacrosse was introduced here in 1938. Co-captain Colie Finkel and Defenseman Bud Beers were injured (Continued on page 4, column 1)

A.A.U. TRACK IS AMONG BEST

With the best trackmen in the state entered, the fifth annual Carolinas AAU meet Saturday may turn into the finest home meet of the year for local fans. Carolina's old grads and varsity teams from Duke, Carolina, State, and possibly Wake Forest are to compete.

The freshmen will give a preliminary look-in on the Senior AAU affair.

Squad pictures of the Carolina varsity will be taken today at 4:30, and of the freshmen at 3:30. Individual varsity pictures will be shot at 3:30.

fair when they run tomorrow in the Junior AAU meet, for college first year men, prep and high schools. Carolina, Duke and Belmont Abbey are the leading contenders, Belmont Abbey being paced by a lad named Marshall, who has thrown the javelin 199 feet.

Close Races
Close races appear in several events, and the pole vault and high jump may be so close that field records will be broken by the winners. Ed Singsen, who has done 13' 6", Ike Hanft of State, having cleared 13 feet, Montfort of Duke, Norman McLeod of Carolina and Jim Lloyd and Jim Bennett of the Tar Babies will be after the field mark of 13 feet set in 1938 by Patterson of Princeton.

Yearlings Best Durham, 15-10 In Contest Of 28 Base Knocks

By HARRY HOLLINGSWORTH

Tall, elongated Charlie Moore, pitching seven-hit relief ball and aided greatly by the booming bat of powerful Dave Barksdale, who batted in six runs with a triple and home run, defeated the Durham high school baseball team 15-10 yesterday afternoon as the freshman club of Ham Strayhorn and Jim Tatum's found its batting eye and clubbed out 14 hits.

Scholastic Netmen Open Here Today

The fourth annual UNC Interscholastic tennis tournament opens a three-day stand here this morning at 10 o'clock.

Coach John Kenfield announced yesterday that the field of contestants had been expanded to 25 and that eight team entries had been received, these being Walnut Hill high school of Cincinnati, Ohio; Maury high school of Norfolk, Va.; Boys high school of Atlanta, Ga.; Clinton high school of Clinton, S. C.; Charlotte high school of Charlotte; Southern Pines high school and Chapel Hill high school.

Moore, who reported for the team to play first base, switched over to the mound yesterday and his performance was the first creditable one. He has been used for a batting practice pitcher, and had pitched in one earlier game—the Raleigh affair which the frosh are trying to forget.

Barksdale, with his hitting and excellent play behind the bat, all but clinched the catching berth, which has been the worry of the coaches since the first day of practice. His first time at bat he cracked out a long triple that would have been a home run on a dry field (Continued on page 4, column 1)

Tar Heels Hoping For Best Against Cavalier Nine Today

Benton, Cheshire, Ralston To See Duty on Mound During Three-Day Trip

By Bill Beerman

Carolina's baseball team arrived at Charlottesville last night in time for supper and this afternoon plays Virginia in an attempt to continue the winning streak which has won four straight games and the renewed interest of local fans.

Tomorrow the squad moves on to College Park for a return engagement with Maryland, and Saturday is routed through Annapolis for a game with Navy. That will conclude the excursion and Bunn Hearn returns with his charges Sunday night—after treating them to the American league extravaganza between Washington and New York that afternoon in Washington.

Coach Bunn, nattily and conspicuously attired in a new green spring suit, counted heads as the ball players got in a bus at Emerson stadium yesterday. It will not do to quote the Coach directly, for it is impossible to record in print the voice characteristics which endear him to the hearts of all. But it can be related indirectly that Mr. Hearn was in fine form, and that he was not at all pessimistic about the approaching encounters.
