Finkel Scores All Five Goals For Tar Heels

By Ben Snyder

Two undefeated dual meet records and a Carolina-Duke tradition will hang in the balance this afternoon on Fetzer field at 2:55 when a seasoned Devil combine and an inexperienced, but potentially great, Tar Heel club come to grips for their third and rubber match of the current season. Splitting decisions in the Conference indoor games and in last month's Florida relays, the teams go to the post today with a marked Duke superiority in the field events expected to throw the decision to Duke.

It was that superiority that almost brought about Carolina's downfall on the boards last February and it was that advantage that proved to be the deciding factor in the Devil victory at Gainesville.

All week long, in Durham and on the Hill, the rival coaching staffs have been drilling their teams heavily in varied attempts to switch men in the hope that the slightest force one way or another may turn the tide.

Brown May Run Half Mile

Werner Brown, Devil quarter mile ace, may be called upon by Coaches Bob Chambers and Red Lewis to double up in the half mile, an event generally conceded to the home club, while anything might be expected from the local staff in the way of the unexpected. Although Wimpy Lewis that could conceivably change the the gun in the 100 yard dash or Dick White entered in the quarter mile, it is entirely likely that the Tar Heel brain trust may come through with a number of last minute shake-ups that could conceivably change the complexion of the entire meet.

Tentatively in the feature events of the afternoon, the mile and the two mile, it will be Dave Morrison, Rich Van Wagoner and Jim Vawter against Duke's Wendell Lockwood and Henry Profenius. And the race counts heavily for the competing Tar Heels, for in the event that the Dukes make sizeable inroads into expected Carolina superiority in the middle distances, Coach Bob Fetzer's crew might just as well put away their spikes until a later and more promising season.

From a statistical standpoint, Duke makes a great "strong on paper" club. The Duke team that lost a 75-73 verdict in 1940, excluding the mile relay event which has been dropped from the program this year, contains six men who won individual events last spring and who took 45 1/2 points of the entire team total. This is particularly impressive, and distressing to Tar Heel fans. Records show a small nucleus of returning Carolinians. Only 18 points of last year's 73 were scored by men still in school and of those the balance was taken on cinder.

The local cause is not hopeless though, when it is considered that weight men Carl Suntheimer, Stu Richardson and Dick White have a fighting chance to cut into the rich

Central High Wins State Net Crown

After sweeping through semi-final matches in straight sets, the Southern scholastic tennis champions from Central high of Charlotte won state titles here yesterday in both singles and doubles.

Bob Spurrier, top-seeded tournament entry, defeated Bob Haltiwanger of R. J. Reynolds high of Winston-Salem, 6-1, 6-2, to annex the singles crown. Don Hatch and Ted McLaughlin then teamed to win in doubles, 6-0, 4-6, 6-4, over Johnson and Robinson of Wilmington.

In morning singles matches Spurrier had beaten Switzer of Wilson, 6-1, 6-0, and Haltiwanger had topped Taylor of Wilmington, 6-3, 6-2. Hatch-McLaughlin beat the Green brothers from Greensboro, 6-1, 6-4, and Johnson-Robinson won, 6-1, 6-2, from Bright and Gantt of Durham.

CHARLIE RICH, co-captain of the Carolina baseball team and regular third-sacker, ranks among the top defensive infielders in the conference. He leads the Tar Heels against Davidson today at Davidson.

Feimster Goes To Hill Today For Carolina

Big Hank Feimster goes to the mound today against Davidson, as Carolina plays away from home and seeks its second win over the Wildcats, its sixth Southern conference victory, and its third triumph in the Big Five.

Big Henry will attempt the difficult task of duplicating the earlier performance of Lefty Cheshire, who held the Wildcats scoreless here at Emerson stadium about 10 days ago while his mates pounded out 10 runs. Ed Lucas, Davidson's only dependable pitcher, will doubtless oppose Feimster on the mound.

Feimster Beat VMI

Feimster's last start was against VMI, and the six-foot four-incher gained credit as the winning pitcher after the Tar Heels had slugged out a 12-8 victory in a free-hitting game. In the opening game against Springfield he was particularly brilliant, matching the work of Cheshire in his three-inning stay on the rubber.

Commenting informally yesterday on his chances against the Wildcats, Feimster pointed out that with the Tar Heel defense behind him, few runs will be scored on him. Figures for the defense show Co-captain Charlie Rich, third sacker, among the leading infielders statistically, and actual game performances have shown him capable of covering much territory.

Rich Among Best in Conference

It is probably his ability to play all around the base that has established Rich in his three years at that position as one of the finest fielders in the conference. His total number of chances is high, and number of errors low. In nine games he has made 10 putouts at third base, and 13 assists. Rich took over third base when only a sophomore, and although he shared his post last spring with Jimmy Howard, he ranked as the number one man at the hot corner. He was a regular on his freshman team, and when both George Radman and Jim Mallory failed to return this fall, Rich and first-sacker Ben Browning were

BALTIMORE, April 18—(Special)—Behind from the start, the Carolina Indians lost today, 11-5, to a strong Loyola university lacrosse club that substituted freely throughout and kept the visitors constantly on the run.

Coleman Finkel, co-captain of the Carolina team, appearing before a home-town crowd, performed brilliantly, scoring all five of the Tar Heels' goals and contributing accurate passing to the performance of the entire team. Loyola's scoring was

Reserves Count Heavily

Loyola displayed a clear superiority in stick-handling ability, and the advantage of having almost innumerable reserves counted heavily. Carolina was forced to play the same men almost throughout the game, while Loyola regulars rested on the sidelines.

Finkel, Center June Gugert, Tony Remy and Dick Sternberg were Carolina's stars. Remy and Gugert again played complete games.

Although the Tar Heels' defeat was only their second of the present campaign, it was not an upset. Loyola annually ranks with the top-fight teams produced in this section. Only Springfield (Mass.) college, after losing its first game, has defeated Carolina this year.

Loyola Wins

Scoring: Carolina — Finkel 5; Loyola—Keller 4, Walker 3, Conlon 3, Burns 1.

Substitutions: Carolina — Budden, Clark, Graham, Cohn; Loyola—Cook, O'Connor, Fitzpatrick, Gentry, Murphy, Turnbull, McCaffry, Bryant, Harman, Swinski.

Lewis, Chi Phi, Aycock Gain Mural Victories

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS

Softball
Chi Phi 8, TEP 0; K 5, Pharmacy 4; Law School No. 1—6, Graham 2; Manly 10, Steele 5; BVP 7, ROTC 2; Sigma Nu 5, Pi Lambda Phi 3; Lewis No. 1—13, H No. 1—1; Kappa Sigma No. 2—8, Kappa Phi 6; Aycock 4, Ruffin 1; SAE No. 2—3; Phi Kappa Sigma 0; Old East 5, Grimes No. 1—4.

The hard hitting Lewis No. 1 club, top heavy favorites to successfully defend their crown, opened its season in fine fashion by walloping H No. 1, 13 to 1.

The winners had little trouble in disposing of their opponents and started right off with the scoring by tallying five runs in the first half of the opening inning. In the fourth frame they pushed across five more tallies to account for ten of their runs. Luther Hodges, the Lewis pitcher, held the H team to three hits and kept them away from the plate until the last inning when they managed to push across their lone tally.

Leading the hitting for Lewis were Wheedbee Morrow, and Denning. Thel Holt with two hits was best for H.

K Beat Pharmacy
K dorm did all of its scoring in the early innings and managed to defeat the Pharmacy School team 5 to 4. The winners opened the scoring with a singleton in the first on singles by Burton, Crawford, and Sanders. In the second they added two more runs and came back in the third for two more to round out their scoring for the day. In the third they put together hits by Crawford, Thompson, and Garrison, and a walk for the runs.

Pharmacy tallied two runs in the first and two more in the sixth. Stan Garrison was on the mound for K and kept the loser's eight hits well scattered. The winners reached Royal for 12 hits. Top hitter for K was Ott Burton who had three singles, and Crawford and Garrison with two each. Pethal and Sheffield with two safeties were the leaders for Pharmacy. Aycock opened its season in an impressive manner by defeating Ruffin 4 to 1. Jack Ginsberg was on the mound for Aycock and turned in a good job holding the Ruffin club to five hits.

The winners broke a 1 all tie in the fourth with a lone run to go ahead for the rest of the game. In the fifth they added two runs to complete the scoring on a double by Edwards, and singles by Lambert, Barrier, and Coppedge. Ed Barrier with two singles was the top batter for Aycock. Cotton topped the Ruffin team with a pair of safeties.

Charlotte Takes State Track Championship by 22 Points

14 Teams Compete, Scholastic Stars Break Two Records

In the 29th annual renewal of the North Carolina scholastic track and field championships on Fetzer field yesterday afternoon, Charlotte high walked off with the state championship by scoring 39 points to 17 for the runner-up Durham Bulldogs, defending champions.

Run off by Coach Johnny Vaught, the meet log showed 14 teams competing with the scholastic stars breaking two North Carolina records and marking up exceptional times in a number of other events. The pair of record-breakers were Griffen of Sedge Garden who cleared the bar in the high jump at 5'11" and McKenzie of Salisbury who ran the mile in an astonishing 4:31.8.

High School Junior
The latter performance was particularly outstanding when it is considered that McKenzie is only a junior in high school with little competitive experience behind him. And there was little competitive experience to be gained from yesterday's race as Coach Fred Hardy's boy stepped out at the very start to win by a comfortable margin. There was a considerable raising of eyebrows on the part of the various track officials present when the time was announced, for such an outstanding prospect hasn't come from prep ranks since Jimmy Davis came up to the Hill in 1936.

Last Event Provides Thrill
The meet's greatest thrill in a competitive sense didn't come until the last event, but it was worth waiting

Frosh Team Seeks Fifth Victory Of Season

By Earle Hellen
The Carolina frosh baseball team will go after its second victory of the week and its fifth of the season this afternoon when it meets the undefeated nine of Central high of Charlotte at 3 o'clock on Emerson field.

The Wildcats boast one of the finest high school nines in the state this year and have mopped up all opposition so far. Coach Jim Boyleston has a pair of fine pitchers in Lefty Livingston and Stu Childs, a right hander, to go along with a hard hitting club. Coach Boyleston has not announced his starting moundman for today's game but it will probably be Childs.

Raged Exhibition

After a ragged exhibition against Greensboro high on Wednesday, the Tar Babies will be out to redeem themselves and show their followers that they can play the brand of ball they are capable of. Rated at the beginning of the year as one of the best frosh teams ever to be assembled on the local field, the Tar Babies are out to prove that they are properly rated.

Coach Jim Tatum has not decided on his starting pitcher for this afternoon's contest, but said the starter would come from among Red Cantrell, Monk Whiteheart, Bill Roseman, and Lefty Fitzgerald. All except Fitzgerald have seen considerable service in previous games. Cantrell and Roseman have received credit for all Tar Baby victories, each holding a pair of wins.

Four Men Battle for Right Field

The only question mark in the remainder of the lineup is the right field position. Four men are battling for the position—Hussey, LeBlanc, Johnson, and Harris. Big Jack Hussey injured his ankle in the Raleigh game and has not seen action since, but he may get the call if his ankle is all right today. . . . A newcomer to the outer garden is Dub Johnson. Johnson reported to practice at the beginning of the year as a first baseman, but a throat infection put him out of action before the first game. He reported again this week and may see action in today's tilt because of his hitting power.

The frosh coaches have been pleased with the work of Mack Morris at first base and have sent Johnson to the outfield where they can use some added power at the plate.

The remainder of the infield will be the same as in Wednesday's game. Lew Hayworth will be at third as usual, Bryant Waters at short, and Carl Wray at second with Morris on first to round out the infield.

Probable Carolina lineup: Wray, 2b; Hayworth, 3b; Morris, 1b; McCaskill, cf; Hussey, Johnson, LeBlanc, or Harris, rf; Waters, ss; Croom, c; Cheek, lf; Cantrell, Roseman Whiteheart, or Fitzgerald, p.
