of the year, paced the team at bat with two for three. Bill McCahan, playing in left field, hit safely on three of four chances to pace the Blue Devils.

Duke hopped on Benton in the initial stanza for a run, added three in the second and finished the scoring with two tallies in the sixth.

Carl Pierce opened the first for Duke with a single into right field. It was his first of three hits for the afternoon. Irvin Kohler hit weakly to Benton who threw to second to catch Pierce on a force out, but Johnny Hearn, who covered the bag, dropped the throw and both men were safe. George Byam sacrificed them around and Eddie Shokes sent Pierce home with a long fly ball to right field.

Bill McCahan and Glenn Price, the first two men to face Benton in the second, singled and Pierce brought them both home with a single. Pierce stole second, went to third on a single by Kohler and scored when Ben Browning errored the ball on the play for Kohler at first.

Duke's two runs in the sixth inning were scored in a simple manner. Bill McCahan gained first on Johnny Hearn's error and scored when Joe Morris hit a home run into right field.

Carolina opened the game as if to get rid of Bill Mock in a hurry. With

Pika Machine Hits Phi Delts For 10-1 Win

Pi Kappa Alpha 10, Phi Delta Theta 1; Lewis No. 1 9, BVP 2; Phi Gamma Delta 7, Phi Kappa Sigma 1; Kappa Alpha 6, Kappa Sigma No. 2 4; Alpha Chi Sigma 4, ZBT 3; BVP 7, K 5; Graham 5, K 4.

Pi Kappa Alpha remained in the thick of the fraternity championship race by defeating Phi Delta Theta 10-1 behind the two-hit pitching of Willis Kimrey to keep its record unblemished in intramural softball.

The slugging Pikas belted the offerings of Hawkins for 14 hits including seven extra-base blows. Gordon Deloach was the top hitter getting three doubles and a single while Conley garnered two doubles and a single.

Lewis Sinks BVP

Lewis No. 1 had its hitting clothes on yesterday and belted a 9-1 victory over BVP. The winners collected 11 hits off Bornet, BVP pitcher.

A four-run outburst in the opening inning was enough to win for Lewis. A walk and hits by Rubin, Morrow, Hodges, and Whedbee were put together for the four tallies. Rubin, Hodges, Clark, and Whedbee led the hitting with two blows apiece. Flower was best for BVP with two hits.

Phi Gams Take Kappa Sigs

Walter Parsely pitched four-hit ball to pace the Phi Gamma Delta team to a 7-1 victory over Phi Kappa Sigma.

The Phi Gams got off to a flying start with three runs in the first frame. They added three more in the third and capped off their scoring with a singleton in the fourth on Parsely's home run. Severin, C. Idol, and Darden topped the winner's batting attack with two singles each. For Phi Kappa Sigma, Dedece was the top man with three hits.

K Loses Twice

K dorm dropped two games yesterday, losing the first to Graham, 5-4, and the second to BVP, 7-5. A run in the seventh proved to be the winning tally for Graham which led the whole game. K tallied one time in the last of the seventh but the rally fell short.

Fisch pitched for Graham and gave up only four hits. The winners collected only six safeties off McIver but wildness and errors led to his downfall.

BVP broke a 5-5 tie with two runs in the seventh to defeat K in the second game. Two errors in the final frame let in the winning runs. The win gave the BVP team an even break for the day's activities.

CO-CAPTAINS DAVE MORRISON, right, and Billy Groves, left, will be running their last times for Carolina tomorrow and Saturday in the Southern conference track meet at Williamsburg, Va. Groves is a consistent performer in the sprints and quarter, and Morrison will be the favorite in the half-mile run.

Ten Seniors Do Final Lap This Weekend

A Tar Heel track squad of 36 men, all with thoughts directed toward the winning of the Southern conference track meet at Williamsburg, Va., tomorrow and Saturday will leave Woolen gym this afternoon at one o'clock.

For seniors Dave Morrison, Bill Groves, Don Baker, Phil Haigh, Johnny French, Tom Hardwick, Holt Allen, Jim Toy, Ed Winstead and Wimpy Lewis it will be the end of a long and successful Carolina track career. There probably has never been a better chance for the class of '41 to distinguish itself on cinders. With Duke rated as a slight pre-meet favorite, the Carolina seniors could very well account for a great victory.

Prelims Tomorrow

Tomorrow will see the opening trials in all events except the pole vault, the high jump, the mile and the two-mile runs. There will be six men qualifying for the Saturday finals in all divisions except the half and the quarter-mile races where eight runners will face the final gun.

Fast Field Expected

The field is even more star-studded than usual and this year, unlike a number of others, the small Virginia schools will be definitely heard from. For example there is McMullin of VPI in the sprints and the high hurdles, Callahan and Crawford of William and Mary in the hurdles and the pole vault, Mueller of Washington and Lee in the distance events, Rockwood of VMI in the half-mile, McVay and Fortunato of Richmond in the weights and a number of others whose welcome for visiting conference members from the two Carolinas and Maryland should be warm indeed.

The results of the Virginia state meet, held last week at Washington and Lee, and won by non-conference

Cherokees Plan Massacre In Lacrosse Match Here

Cherokee Indians are on the warpath! The biggest Indian battle since the French and Indian war will be fought on coed field here Saturday afternoon at 2:00 when the full-blooded Indians meet the Carolina team, Indians in name only, in the most colorful lacrosse game of the year.

The Cherokee team, fresh off the reservation, will arrive in Chapel Hill Friday. The tireless Indians have promised to put on a great show for the Junior-Senior week-end crowd, starting with their colorful pre-game ceremony, and continuing throughout the contest.

Redman's Game

The Redskins have stated their intention of playing the game in a manner similar to their own Indian baseball. Indian baseball is similar to lacrosse in many respects, but the greatest difference is that in the baseball game, the ball is carried in the mouth. The Indians are accustomed to playing their games barefooted, and with no shirts.

Their tremendous amount of endurance gives them an advantage over the Tar Heels, for the Cherokees are quite capable of running their white brothers into the ground.

Carolina's team has been putting on only a fair exhibition of play in its practice scrimmages thus far, but the men are confident of rounding into shape in time to show the Cherokees a few tricks.

Aquacade Natator To Instruct Here

Janet Watson, University coed and former member of the World Fair Aquacade, will give coed instruction in ballet-water work at Woolen gym from 5 to 6 o'clock on Tuesday's and Thursdays, starting today.

Miss Watson, from Punta Gorda, Fla., was in Billy Rose's Aquacade at New York fair two summers ago.
