The Daily Tar Beel

THE OLDEST COLLEGE DAILY IN THE SOUTH-

Headlines

• Martin Rakes Administration

• Tar Heels Seek Comeback • Knox Predicts Jap War

VOLUME L

Business: 9887; Circulation: 9886

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1941

Editorial: 4356; News: 4351; Night: 696

OCT 2.5 1943

NUMBER 28

Tar Heels Try Comeback Today Against Deacons

Martin Rakes Administration For Squelching of Minorities

Old Guard Leader Freshman Politicoes Thumps New Deal Demand Formation

By Paul Komisaruk

Raking the Administration with violent charges of squelching minority protests, "inexcusable lagging in national preparedness," and juggling figures, Minority leader Joseph W. Mar-tin, Jr., last night attacked the nation's lack of unity and confidence, squarely placing the blame on Administrative shoulders

Emphatically declaring that Administrative leaders "insist we must | dispense with the time-tried, safe method of proposal, disagreement, discussion and compromise," the Republican national chairman insisted that the government has pursued its politics "without anything like adequate debate or consideration. Even the protests of majority members are met with laughter or abuse-or are simply ignored," he said.

Asked by a Daily Tar Heel reporter why he voted against arming United States merchant ships when the measure came before the House last week, Martin replied: "I have absolutely nothing to say about it."

Ignores Critics

Martin told a crowded Memorial hall audience that the "whole tendency of an overwhelmingly dominant administration is to become so sure of its hold on the country, so possessed of extraordinary powers of patronage and persuasion, as to ignore its critics."

He declared that the "whole tendency" of such a government is to be impatient with the majority: to overide it, to disregard its criticims and its advice and its warnings."

Headed for Disaster

Martin asserted that the nation's "traditional political balance" must be restored or we shall "go on to dis-See MARTIN, page 4

Famous Stage Couple Will Appear Tuesday For Show in Durham

Alfred Lunt and Lynn Fontanne Theatre in Durham on Tuesday evening in "There Shall Be No Night," have made many trips to Finland, which is the scene of this play.

made a tour of the country.

Lunt Directs Directed by Lunt, Robert E. Sherwood's play is being presented by the Playwrights' Company, composed of Maxwell Anderson, S. N. Behrman, Elmer Rice, Sherwood and the Theatre Guild. The story, which derives its title from a line in the Book of Revelation, has to do with Dr. Kaarle Valkonen, a distinguished Finnish scientist, his American-born wife, their son and the son's fiancee, and what happened to them during Russia's invasion of Finland in the closing weeks of 1939. Tops in New York

First produced at Providence, R. I. on March 29, 1940 and immediately afterwards at the Alvin Theatre in New York, "There Shall Be No Night" overnight became a standing-room-only attraction. Other members of the cast are those who have been with the play since its first performance.

Campus Sororities Pledge Four More

Pi Beta Phi announces the pledging of Imogene Ring, Corinth, Miss., and Jane McDonogh, Ft. Benning, Ga., making a total of 30 pledges.

Chi Omega has pledged Sara Anderson, Schofield Barracks, Hawaii, and Marion Brittingham, Ft. Bragg, giving it a total of 18 pledges.

For Defense Lag Of Anti-Coed Bloc

The Carolina coed-long champion of the rights of womanhood-was set back 20 years yesterday as freshman politicians, getting into the swing of hand shaking, cigar pushing and "the common touch," circulated unique campaign literature.

Posted in the YMCA lobby:

"Men of Carolina-Be ye men or be ye mice? Now look guys, women are all right in their places-I'd be the first to admit that-but is their place at the head of the potentially great class of 1945? Give them, the darlin's, any one of the three other offices, but not the presidency. Hell, they'll be running your lives soon enough as it is; so why deprive yourselves of the altogether-tooshort four years of freedom by giving them control of your class at the very start?"

(Signed) "Not-a-woman-hater-by-any-means"

Coed Training Begins Monday

Caldwell to Lead First Discussion

First session of the new junior training school for coeds will be held Mon- Student Sport day evening at 8 o'clock in Gerrard Hall, Jean Hahn, speaker of the Coed Groups to Hold Senate, announced last night.

Attendance at these meetings is compulsory for all junior coeds who wish to be nominated for any office in the Woman's Government association.

Caldwell Leads Discussion

The work of the coed honor council will be discussed at the first meeting. Led by Mary Caldwell, WGA president, the members of the honor council will don their robes and try a case before the new coeds.

Object of the training school, set up in the new WGA constitution adopted (Mrs. Lunt), who come to the Carolina last May, is to acquaint future officers with duties and problems of office. First Meeting

The meeting Monday evening is the first in a series of three meetings to be Lunt, who started going to Finland held before the December elections for inter-departmental relations is the urged all students who expect to leave as a boy with his step-father, Dr. Karl junior representatives to the honor Sederholme, a native Finn, knows that council and senate. Only those coeds country almost as well as he knows who have attended all three meetings for the Mondgram Club and the coach- ing, or in Graham Memorial's Horace Wisconsin, where he was born, and once | will be eligible for nomination in De- |ing staffs. Each member will be given | Williams Lounge this afternoon. cember, Miss Hahn stated.

Dance Group's Perfect Post Still Vacant

Bill Alexander Seeks Assistant To Aid in Work

Wanted: a junior or senior to be admitted to all campus dances free, who doesn't mind talking with big-name orchestras or their agents, and doesn't object to having a big title on the

It's strange, but stranger things have happened at this University—the newly - formed Dance Organization Committee is seeking such a man. It will play host to all applicants Monday night at 8 o'clock in the committee offices, 101-A Graham Memorial. Said applicants won't have to sign their soul away for seven years, be conscripted, nor sit in Freshman Chapel for a year; but one will be selected to serve as vice-president of the Committee.

To Assist Chairman

The selected chairman will, to all practical purposes act as apprentice to the present chairman in preparation for his automatic appointment of chairman at the conclusion of the term of the existing chairman.

Bill Alexander, chairman of the new group, stated that they were "particularly interested in drawing from the See DANCE GROUP, page 4

Game Night Soon

A game night, jointly sponsored by the Monogram Club and the Women's Athletic Association, is planned for

All forms of lighter sports, including ping pong, badminton, shuffle board will be featured in the Tin Can

"The game night will be held for the purpose of entertainment and bettering relations between the two athletic groups. All members of the Monogram Club and the Woman's Athletic of immediate need, the Tin Can might slapping" career. Prior to "Public En-Association will be welcomed," Ger- be used to house the uniformed guests. emy" film heroes did not throw things sten said.

performance of "The Male Animal" two tickets to the play.

KING AND QUEEN OF THE STAGE, Alfred Lunt and Lynn Fontanne, are shown here with Elizabeth Fraser in a scene from "There Shall Be No Night," the epic production which comes to Durham at the Carolina Theatre Tuesday night.

DAVE BARKSDALE, above, is Harry Dunkle's substitute and that's why you haven't been hearing much about him this year, but he has been playing some fine ball as a sub, and is ready to step in any time Carolina's ace blocking back and punter needs rest.

Draftees to Pack Campus For Week-End Festivities

Administrative and Student Leaders Rush Plans to Accommodate Overflow

Administration attaches and student leaders rushed plans late last night to accommodate an overflow of soldiers this week-end, after being notified by army officialdom in the maneuver area that a storm of khaki-clad men will descend on Chapel Hill today.

Fraternity houses, dormitory rooms and homes offered space to relieve the Movie Club Group situation, complying with requests made by Harry F. Comer, chairman To Study Picture of arrangements for the local USO. next Wednesday, Bobby Gersten, Mon- Meanwhile Richard "Fish" Worley, enogram Club president, announced yes- tertainment chairman and director of Graham Memorial, rounded-out schedule of soldier-student programs for the two-day holiday.

Work in Progress

Already steps have been taken to convert dormitory basements into sleeping quarters for the armed ser-

Although much slack in the room In keeping with the plan for better problem has been taken up, Comer reservation of the first Playmaker for the week-end to register their vacant rooms at the YMCA this morn-

Week-End Program

Slate of events: Bingo, with prizes to the winners, will be played from 9 until 12 o'clock. Dancing in the main lounge, with recorded music, will also go on at the same time. During this program, a continuous showing of "Peck's Bad Boy," with Jackie Coogan, an old silent movie, will be presented. The Wake Forest-Carolina and Duke-Pittsburgh games will be heard from different rooms in the building.

Coed dormitories plan receptions to entertain soldiers from 9 until 12 o'clock tonight, with Smith and Alderman taking the lead. Chi Omega will give a party during the same convene today in Chapel Hill for the hours for visiting officers.

Town Students Plan Homecoming Dance

The Town Boys and Girls dance will be held Friday in Lenoir Dining festival, tournaments and awards. Hall, at 10 o'clock, after the pep rally for the State game, Ditzi Buice and Mel Jordan, chairmen, announced. Tiny Hutton and his Carolinians will play for the dance.

Of Gangster Era

"Public Enemy," starring James Cagney, Jean Harlow, and Mae Clark, will be presented to the Film Club in the Playmaker Theater at 2:30 to-

This film, one of the toughest of the ganster films in the early talkie era, Screamlined Preview includes the famous "grapefruit scene" vices, and rumors persist that, in case that started Cagney on his "woman at the heroines, slap them or push them around without alienating audiences. Joan Blondell and Jean Harlow both used this film as a stepping stone in their rise to stardom.

'In addition to "Public Enemy" three more Sunday afternoon progams will be presented this quarter. On Novem-"The Barber Shop," with W. C. Fields, Soup" on November 9. The final program will be either "Anna Cristie" public was inaugurated into the myswith Greta Garbo, or "I am a Fugitive teries of an intercollegiate mike-fight from a Chain Gang" starring Paul at last night's newest apex of Univer-

Meets Here Today

High school, college, community and little theatre group representatives will annual business session of the Carolina Dramatic Association. The meeting students merely uttered another shriek will opened with breakfast in the Car- or two and dashed home afterward to olina Inn at 8:30.

Carolina will discuss plans for chang- group. ing the general policies of the drama session will be a program in the Play- last yell. Prophets with a mystic bent maker Theater. Professor Earl Wynn and Josephina Niggli will present "A signifying plenty." Radio Demonstration" at 10:30; Dr. The dance bids will be distributed Frederick Koch will deliver a message French Club to Meet free to the town students (students at 10:55; Paul Green will address the who do not live in dorms or in frater- group on "Drama and Army Morale", nity houses) in the lobby of the "Y," at 11:15; and discussion groups will at 7:15, in Danziger's. The public is convene at 11:30.

Wake Forest Now Favored To Win Tilt

Baptists Boast Mighty Offense Ready for Game

By Harry Hollingsworth

Labeled by state sports editors as a team which has gone so far this season on spirit alone and nothing else, the Carolina football team plays an in-and-out Wake Forest team this afternoon in Wake Forest in its sixth game of the season and its third conference battle. Kickoff is at 2 o'clock.

Today is the day for Carolina's crucial comeback effort after the disastrous 52-6 licking by Tulane last week-end, and for that comeback effort the Deacons have a team which has displayed a mighty offensive power all season-something which the Tar Heels at times have lacked.

Deacons Favored

For the first time since the early 20's. Carolina is not the favored team in the Deac-Tar Heel battle. Wake Forest, on the basis of its power displayed, rates with the bookies from two to six points better than the Tar Heels. Few people are expecting Carolina to rally enough from last week's defeat to hand the Deacs their second setback of the season. Duke licked Wake Forest in the Devils' first game of the season, but even in defeat the Baptists were able to score two touchdowns and kick both extra points for 14 markers.

Impressive Record

Against South Carolina, victors over the Tar Heels 13-7, Wake Forest hit an off day and was limited to a 6-6 tie. In all their games, however, the Deacons have been impressive, and word from their camp all week has been that they were ready to "shoot the works" against Ray Wolf's Tar Heels.

Wake Forest comes into the game with all of its players in top-notch shape. Carolina, though, will be without Joe Austin and Jack Hussey. Austin was a starter when an injured shoulder forced him out. Hussey was a 200-pound substitute end who was slated to see much action. Carolina Determined

Even though the Deacs are favored today, they have realized all week that See JOHNNY PERRY, page 3

Of UNC-Deac Contest Broadcast over WPTF

By Hayden Carruth

The Thirteenth Man came into his own last night as 2000 students packed Memorial hall for a statewide air zave preview of the Tar Heel-Deac grid battle this afternoon.

ber 2 "120 Minutes of Mack Sennett | The sport man's idea of the Pep Comedies" will be shown, followed by Rally Hop was illustrated by Chuck Quinlan, the Tar Heel version of the and The Marx Brothers in "Duck four beat locomotive was introduced by Curry Jones, and the ether-minded sity spirit.

Hodges, Nowell Speak

Howard Hodges and Gwynn Nowell Drama Association spoke the sentiments of the unbowed eleven, and were received by the student body with a volley of vocal chaos.

Informed by Jones, before the efforts had been expended that the Carolina broadcast portion would not be aired, but merely recorded for later radio broadcast over Raleigh's WPTF, the the next guy's radio to listen to their The dramatic directors of North own voices downing those of the Deacs

With the Wake Forest pep program filling the first half of the half-hour Following the breakfast-business show, the Carolina students got in the might call this "full of sound and fury

The French club will meet Tuesday, invited to attend.