US Moves Forces Into Dutch Guiana

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—(UP)—The United States today extended its armed protection to Dutch Guiana, adjacent to the strategic French Guiana in South America, coincident with the revelation that President Roosevelt had authorized lend-lease aid to the Free French Forces.

Simultaneously, the Office of Export Control announced that all general and individual export licenses authorizing any exportation whatsoever to Algeria, French Morocco, and French Tunisia had been revoked in addition to all licenses for exportation of petroleum products to Spain and its possessions, and Tangiers.

The Export Control Office did not explain the order but it was seen as a part of a general policy to keep American products from falling into the hands of the German army which is threatening to gain control of the North Africa through intensified Franco-German collaboration.

BERLIN, Nov. 24.—(UP)—German panzer units have smashed to within 31 miles of Moscow, capturing the town of Solnechnogorsk in "heavy fighting" and are closer to the Soviet capital than at any time since the war started, the high command said today.

The panzer forces are pressing the Soviet defenders "slowly onto the capital" after having skirted Kalinin, 95 miles northwest of Moscow, a spokesman said.

KUIBYSHEV, Nov. 24.—(UP)—The battle of Moscow roared to a mighty crescendo with German panzer forces and an army of 600,000 men admittedly chewing holes in the defense lines and the Russians counter-attacking savagely in other sectors in attempts to draw off some of the German strength.

CAIRO, Nov. 24.—(UP)—British Imperials have captured Gambut in fierce hand-to-hand fighting with submachine guns and bayonets after a 600-mile sweep along the Libyan coastal road, while a great battle of survival past exhaustion and both Axis and Imperial armies spread across the western desert, front dispatches said today.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—(UP)—Secretary of State Cordell Hull conferred for two hours today with envoys of Great Britain, Australia, China, and the Netherlands as "peace or war" talks between the United States and Japan entered a phase of uncertainty.

OTTOWA, Nov. 24.—(UP)—Two Canadian corvettes recently sank a German submarine in the North Atlantic and took prisoner 47 members of its crew, the British Admiralty informed Canadian Navy Minister Angus M. MacDonald tonight.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—(UP)—The tournament, a large debating convention represented by all schools in the south, will be held at Rock Hill, December 3 to 6. Any student on the campus is eligible for tonight's tryouts, each limited to a five minute dissertation. Students may defend either negative or affirmative side to the question: Resolved; That the federal government should regulate by law all labor unions.

Gretter emphasized that Yackety Yack photos of Debate squad and council will be taken tonight and members must be prepared. The Dixie tournament is the first that the Debate organization has engaged in for several years. Winners of tonight's tryouts will have all traveling expenses paid by the Debate council.

Gambill announced that the junior class executive committee will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock to pass the 1941-42 budget and also to elect a new vice-president to replace Dan Wolfe who failed to return to school this year, Sam Gambill, junior class president, announced yesterday.

The entire junior class will convene in Memorial hall Thursday at 10:30 to approve the new budget.

Gambill also announced that all those interested in playing in the annual junior-senior tag football game should get in touch immediately with Coach Butch Neaves in 113 Ruffin.

Elsie Houston

Piano Team, Singer Slated To Appear

Latin American artist Elsie Houston singing her internationally famous "jungle songs", and the Arthur Whittemore-Jack Lowe piano team will be presented by the Student Entertainment committee at 8:30 Thursday evening, December 4, in Memorial hall.

Whittemore and Lowe, youngest known professional piano team on the concert stage today, began their duet-work several years ago while vacationing together in Puerto Rico.

Working in radio has played a prominent part in their success. Not only have they been featured artists on the Blue Network of the National Broadcasting Company, but they have also presented a series of guest programs from KDKA in Pittsburgh.

Selecting music in the period from Bach to the moderns, they have won acclaim for their originality and musicianship in attaining their ideal of amplifying the expression of piano music by the use of two instruments. As composers they have also won recognition through their solo, ensemble and orchestral works as well as through their transcriptions for their own programs.

Madame Elsie Houston has studied in Europe with Lilli Lehmann, and in Buenos Aires with Ninon Vallon, the French soprano. Her early training and enormous talent have fused to make her the rare combination of successful concert artist and to-flight night-club entertainer. In Europe she has appeared at the Bouef Surele Toit, the Scherezade and the Casanove, famous Parisian night-clubs. She recently concluded a seven-week engagement at New York's Rainbow Room.

Program Designed to Combat Propaganda; Student-Inspired Plan Expected to Follow

Carolina officially "dug-in" yesterday as civilian morale—two word synonym for "information"—prepared to make a trial flight over Chapel Hill's trusted campus, and faculty and administrative backers rushed final arrangements to unleash the whirlwind program throughout the state.

High School Students To Hear Hu Shih Speech

Something new in Carolina receptions will feature the appearance Thursday night of His Excellency Dr. Hu Shih, Chinese Ambassador to the United States, on Carolina's campus. Dr. Guy B. Phillips, department of Education professor, disclosed yesterday that principals of 100 North Carolina high schools were receiving invitations to all high school students to attend the Ambassador's speech.

Several hundred students, especially high school seniors, are expected to respond to IRC's mass invitation, sent to high schools as far north as Virginia, east to Goldsboro, south to Carthage and west to Winston-Salem.

President Roger Mann of the IRC said that such an invitation had never been extended by Carolina to high schools, except on occasions of football games. Groups of students will congregate Thursday at Chapel Hill under high school faculty guidance, and will be met by a club-welcoming committee. The students also have been invited to Dr. Hu's reception in Graham Memorial following the address.

Mann announced that a banquet will be held for His Excellency in Carolina Inn at 6 o'clock Thursday. Spectators will assemble at 8:15 in Memorial hall for the speech, which is scheduled to begin at 8:30.

University students will be challenged by an unprecedented privilege of discussing current events with Dr. Hu in a post-address open forum. Mann has not yet revealed who will introduce the Ambassador and whether the address will be broadcast.

Hu Shih can tell Carolina students a lot about democracy. He is univer-

'Uncle George' Urges Freshmen to Attend 'Chocolate Bowl' Classic

Carolina's much famed football spirit was given a post-season awakening yesterday when "Uncle George Washington," dean of University Janitors, urged all freshmen in chapel yesterday to set an example for the student body by attending the Annual Negro Football Game to be held at Fetzer field, Friday at 3 o'clock.

"Uncle George" spoke of the Benefit Game as the one means of support towards improving the health and efficiency of our Negro population, and said that the Janitor's Association appreciated the assistance and support that the student body gave this event every year.

Eloquent Warming up to the occasion, "Uncle George" spoke to the freshmen on "their opportunities at the University to make their lives multiply in usefulness." With a broad sweep of his hand he pointed to the memorial tablets on the walls and reminded the freshmen that those names were there only because they took advantage of the University's opportunities during their stay here as students—"you young men and ladies can write your names high here as students too if you work and apply yourselves while the chance is yours, and don't forget that it is yours only once, so make the best of it."

Phi to Discuss Hemisphere Union

The Phi Assembly will convene at 7:30 tonight in the Phi hall in New East to discuss the query: Resolved, That the nations of the Western Hemisphere unite to form a permanent union.

Yackety-Yack pictures will also be taken, but only members in good standing as regards to dues and attendance will be in the pictures, it was stated.

"Restoring Order" is the topic of this year's series and Professor M. S. Heath will deliver the first lecture tonight at 8 o'clock in Gerrard hall. Heath will speak on "The Genesis of the Present Crisis" which deals with the economic, ethical, and political failures leading to the present crisis. This initial lecture will give a broad introduction to the series.

Evans to Speak The main topic has been divided in such a way that a different aspect of the problem will be taken up each quarter, explained Professor Emery. This quarter's series will deal with the economic phase of the question and is entitled "Rebuilding Material Foundations."

Professor J. G. Evans will speak on "The Capitalistic Enterprise and Social Progress" tomorrow night.

Other lectures scheduled for this quarter are "The Parade of the 'isms'" to be delivered by Dean D. D. Carroll; "Professor R. S. Harry Comer, YMCA Secretary, will take charge of this week's talks, added Emery.

All meetings throughout the year will take place in Gerrard Hall at 8 o'clock. Discussions by the audience are stressed, and anyone may participate.

LIFE magazine has apparently earned itself four thousand enemies in four days. The enemies are Carolina students who are still looking painfully at LIFE's spread on Carolina's Sadie Hawkins Day. The issue under attack is the current one, which hit the stands Friday.

A Tar Heel reporter could find no student who showed any indication of approving LIFE's treatment of the event, and boys and girls almost unanimously lambasted the picture story specifically and LIFE magazine in general.

ous practices originated in Al Capp's "Li'l Abner" cartoon panel. All pictures were posed.

Fish Worley, in charge of Sadie Hawkins Day ceremonies, stated that he was extremely disappointed in LIFE's pictures. "I thought LIFE was coming down here to get pictures of the dances and student activities."

Mr. R. W. Madry of the News Bureau sent a letter to the magazine after the event requesting that the play on sex be toned down. It was learned that the administration in general was indignant.

"It made Carolina look like a country club," was the most popular among campus comments. "Terrible," "dis-
