Unique Registration Plan Instituted by Griffin

Winter Quarter Enrollment Begins Tomorrow; 'Permit to Register' Requirement Eliminated

The quarterly wrangle over registration methods may be eliminated this year as I. C. Griffin, Central records chieftain, institutes a unique departure from the usual system, killing the "permit to register" order for Thursday's enrollment.

Sophomores and freshmen meet their advisers at designated offices tomorrow to sign up for appointments, and juniors and seniors

Junior Class Passes Budget On Second Try

Gambill Announces Entertainment Plans for Winter

Sam Gambill's final "drastic" effort to hypo enough juniors into passing the class budget worked yesterday. More than 350 votes of approval had been cast in Gerrard hall by 2 o'clock after junior president Gambill had flourished lollipops as attracting bait.

Fifteen hundred dollars was granted for the junior-senior dance, $50 was appropriated to promote Honor Week and $200 was set aside for class entertainment when the 1941-42 budget was approved. In a first attempt to approve the budget Thursday 150 classmen, less 1 1 than half of the number needed, turned Debaters Hold out. Gambill announced that plans for numerous entertainment programs for the winter quarter have already been Griffin's plan-instituted to do away with the line-waiting program-marks the first time that such organization has been attempted by the office. He stressed, however, the importance of students clearing with library, business office, and other University agencies before attempting to register. Those who have not paid all bills, or made arrangements to pay, will be stopped at the office of adviser or dean.

Registration for the Graduate school will take place on December 15 through 19 with the Law school, using the semester system, enrolling on February 2. As yet the Medical school presidents have not decided on a date.

Students in the Pharmacy school do not need appointment cards, may register at convenience after Thursday morning.
