

Charlie Moore Pitches 6-3 Victory Over VPI

Netmen Blank State Team, 9-0 For First Shutout of Year

Elon Netters to Invade Local Courts For Meet This Afternoon at 3 O'clock

By Mark Garner

With reserves filling two singles and two doubles positions, the varsity netters yesterday earned their first shutout victory of the year in turning back State's racket wielders, 9-0. The win gave the Tar Heels an unbroken string of victories for the last 56 matches.

This afternoon at 3 o'clock Elon's courtmen invade the Hill for a meet with the Kenfieldmen. The Tar Heels should have little trouble with the Christians for Kalamazoo thumped the visitors earlier in the season and Carolina later dropped Kalamazoo 8-1.

Berk and Hendrix Win

Hal Berk and Moyer Hendrix each made their entrance to varsity competition yesterday against the State squad in the fifth and sixth positions and both turned in easy victories. Berk lost two games in defeating George Barbee, 6-1, 6-1, while Hendrix battled Austin Pruitt into submission by the same score. Hendrix, though not a flashy player, is steady and covers the court well and should develop into a top-flight performer soon. Both men will probably see action again today against Elon.

Jack Markham had the toughest match of the day but managed to recover after losing the first set to hand Emmett Shoffner a defeat in three sets. Shoffner played smooth tennis the first set passing Markham frequently with well-placed drives and earned a 6-4 win but the Carolinian came back in the second set knotting the score at one-all with a 6-2 win. Gathering a feeling of confidence as he went and playing highly improved ball, Markham took the deciding set and the match by a 6-3 count.

Everett Beats Owens

Harris Everett blasted his way to a 6-3, 6-3 decision over Captain Frank Owens of State. Everett had trouble with Owen's powerful forehand drives but managed to down the State captain on his very effective short drop shot just over the net.

Ham Anthony lost four games to Arnold Katterman in the No. 2 match winning 6-1, 6-3 and Harold Maass won handily from Elliott Winston 6-0, 6-1.

Hunt Hobbs and Maass annexed Carolina's seventh point winning from Owens and Pruitt, 6-1, 6-3. Dan Marks and Cliff Tuttle, playing together for the first time, managed to deal out a 6-2, 6-3 defeat to Jack Pinner and John Joyce, and another new duo, Bill Lowenstein and Joe Greenberg, rounded out the day's play with a 6-1, 7-5 victory over Barbee and Tony Masich.

Tennis Summary

Carolina 9, State 0.

Everett (C) defeated Owens, 6-3, 6-3. Anthony (C) defeated Katterman, 6-1, 6-3. Maass (C) defeated Winston, 6-0, 6-1. Markham (C) defeated Shoffner, 4-6, 6-2, 6-3. Berk (C) defeated Barbee, 6-1, 6-1. Hendrix (C) defeated Pruitt, 6-1, 6-1.

Hobbs-Maass (C) defeated Owens-Pruitt, 6-1, 6-3. Marks-Tuttle (C) defeated Pinner-Joyce, 6-2, 6-3. Lowenstein-Greenberg (C) defeated Barbee-Masich, 6-1, 7-5.

Faculty Members Present Concert

A concert of chamber music will be presented by several faculty members tonight at 9 o'clock in Hill Music hall under the auspices of the University music department.

The program will include: "Sonata in E Flat" by Bach, featuring Earl Slocum on the flute, and Hubert Livingston on the piano; "Sonata in F Minor, Opus 120, Number 1," by Brahms, featuring Glenn Haden on the clarinet and William Gant on the piano; and "Opus 70, Number 1, for Violin, Violoncello, and Piano," by Beethoven, featuring Hubert Livingston on the piano, Benjamin Swalin on the violin, and Ester Pierce on the violoncello.

Cindermen Face Virginia Here Saturday

Virginia-Carolina rivalry, hallowed by the memory of countless Tar Heel and Cavalier athletic units who once made this competition the best in Dixie, will blossom forth in full bloom on Fetzler field this Saturday afternoon will bring a full contingent of Virginia at 2 o'clock.

At that time Coach Archie Hahn track and field men to the Hill in an attempt to notch a victory over the home club. Hahn, a veteran in southern competition, has been trying to dump Carolina in dual meet competition for years with no apparent success. Last season at Charlottesville his team came within an ace of pulling one of the spring's greatest upsets when they extended a crew of visiting Tar Heels, only to lose, 65-61. With the balance of his 1941 squad on hand, Hahn has a fair chance of achieving the victory that he so narrowly missed on the 11th meeting of the two teams.

The Cavaliers, it must be remembered, pressed Navy for the non-conference diadem in the indoor meet in February and cannot be regarded too lightly. Ken Rathbun, pole vault and discus winner against VMI last week, and Tommy Todd, who took a pair of first places in the hurdle events against the Keydets, will be on hand to lead the visitors.

Both Todd and Rathbun will be remembered for their performances against Carolina last year. The former took Mike Mangum and Warren Mengel last year in the hurdle events and the competition should be close on Fetzler field this week-end. Mengel, in taking the Carolina relays 120-yard high hurdle affair, appeared to be in mid-season form and was clocked in :15, while Todd, probably taking it easy, romped home against VMI in :15.2.

Rathbun has supplied the Virginia publicity corps with reams of good copy for the past three years. Chemistry major, Phi Beta Kapa and all-around athlete, Rathbun is a striking figure in all forms of athletic competition. Rumor has it that a weighty scholastic load keeps him from practicing three or four afternoons a week, but regardless of the handicap he is acclaimed as the South's best 175-pound boxer and one of its outstanding trackmen. Last year, he broad jumped against Carolina when the final outcome of the meet seemed in doubt and came in with a second place, in addition to his work in the pole vault and discus.

Tucker of the Virginians was a last lap victor over Wimpy Lewis in the two mile at Charlottesville in 1941 and will be back to run in two of the longer distances. Against VMI he took a pair of seconds in the mile and the half-mile events. Hall turned in a ten second hundred for the Cavaliers last Saturday and will be out to cop first place in the dash events this week. Boyd in the broad jump will contest the issue with Percy Ashby and Warren Mengel; the former having done over 22 feet to win his event against VMI.

Dub Johnson, Gersten, Morris Top Hitting

By Harry Hollingsworth

Another big question mark about Carolina's 1942 baseball team was answered yesterday afternoon when Charlie Moore, tall, lean righthander, hurled the Tar Heels to a 6-3 victory over Virginia Tech for Carolina's third Southern conference victory of the season.

Pitching well-nigh perfect ball throughout the game, Moore was touched for five hits by the Gobblers, and three of the hits came in the ninth inning when the Techmen pushed across their three scores.

Much of the success of this season's team depends upon the ability of Moore to take a regular turn on the mound with Red Benton and Monk Whiteheart. And if his pitching yesterday is any criteria of his ability he'll be in the box as much as Benton or Whiteheart.

No Hit Game Until 6th Inning

Until one man was down in the sixth inning Moore had a no-hit game to his credit, but Vassar, VPI pitcher, singled over second base after two strikes had been called against him. Johnny Hearn, Tar Heel shortstop, made a desperate attempt to get the ball but he didn't quite get it.

Vassar was the second Virginia Tech player to get on base. A little shaky at the beginning, Moore walked Ruben, the first man to face him in the game, but then set the next 16 men down in order before Vassar singled.

Moore Fans 3 Straight

Two excellent catches by Dub Johnson, who made 14 putouts to run his total to 49 in the past three games, in the fifth inning helped Moore along. In retiring the 16 men in order Moore fanned five of the six men he whiffed. In the third inning he struck out Ryan, Vassar and Ruben in order while throwing only four called balls.

After Vassar had singled and gone to third when Bo Reynolds erred the ground ball in center field, Moore retired the next two men, walked the first man to face him in the seventh and then got by the next four before Ryan topped an infield roller down the third base line which went for a hit.

Gobblers Score in 9th

In the ninth inning, however, Virginia Tech got next to Moore for a walk and three singles to score three times. Chubby Myers' error accounted for one tally.

Henderson singled through second base with one man down and took second when Joe Moody drew a base on balls. Lawson dropped a sharp single in right field and Henderson scampered home with the first run. Moody pulled up at third and Lawson at second when the ball was played to the home plate by Jack Hussey, right fielder.

With Kopelski at bat Myers attempted to catch Moody off third base but the ball bounced off Moody's back and he scored when Honan chased the ball into left field. Lawson went to third on the play. Kopelski then unloaded a single to left field which scored Lawson. P. Johnson lifted a fly to Dub Johnson at first base and Ryan fouled high behind third base which Nonan took, retiring the side.

Tar Heels Score 3 in First

The Tar Heels waited until two before scoring. Dub Johnson, who men were down in the first inning had two singles for four trips, hit between first and second for a one-base blow and stole second. Bo Reynolds worked the count to 3-2 before drawing a walk.

Jack Hussey strode to the plate and rifled the first pitched ball to him for a ground-rule two-base hit. The ball traveled far over Joe Moody's head in left field, and hit the ground at a point about 400 feet from home plate. It bounced over the left field hedge about 425 feet from home. The blow was Hussey's first hit of the season, and it made up in distance what he has lacked in base hits so far.

Honan then walked and Mac Morris, who also had two for four, singled between third and short to score Reynolds and Hussey.

After that three-run spree, the Tar Heels were held scoreless until the fifth inning when Johnson tallied on Catcher Kopelski's error. The Tar Heel first baseman had gained first on a fielder's choice after Gersten had singled. With Reynolds at bat he broke for second, went into the bag standing up and continued on to third when Kopelski threw his peg

Tar Baby Nine Undergoes Long Drill in Fielding

Frosh to Play State in Raleigh Tomorrow

Jim Tatum put the frosh nine through an intense fielding practice session yesterday in an effort to bolster one of the weaknesses of the Tar Baby squad in preparation for the opening game of the season with the State frosh in Raleigh tomorrow afternoon.

The first game for the Tar Babies is made doubly difficult by the fact that the locals are going to open away from home. The team has come a long way in the past few weeks however, and should turn in a good game against the Teehelets.

Green to Start on Mound

Coach Tatum stated yesterday that he will issue 24 uniforms tomorrow to the men making the trip to the state capital. Joe Green is still the logical choice to start on the mound as a result of the Weldon lad's fine showing on the hill this week. Bill Lee, Fuquay Springs high school and Darlington Prep star, is scheduled to receive the slants of the starting hurler. Lee has been backstopping for the first string nine since the practice sessions started and bids fair to stay there the rest of the year.

Two infields alternated on the frosh practice diamond yesterday, Gresham, Colones, Myers and Hackney made up one of the quartets while Shaw, Clark, Warren and Hayworth lined up "around the horn" for the second team. The first mentioned quartet is the one that will undoubtedly get the call tomorrow, with first base the only doubtful spot.

Infield Improves

Both infield combinations gave a fine display of fielding throughout the afternoon yesterday, and before the session was over, the infield play had picked up considerably under the eye to center field. And then Johnson

Pi Phi Topples Chi Omega, 5-3 In Coed Softball

In the fastest competition of the coed intramural softball season, the Pi Phi's pounded out a 5-3 victory over the Chi O's yesterday afternoon.

Packed with action from beginning to end, the game was led by the Chi O's in the first inning when Marie Watters, catcher, and first man to bat, scored on teammate Hahn and Howe's singles.

O'Hair, for Pi Phi, in the second, hit a beautiful two bagger, and rounded home on errors committed by her opponents. Grigsby replaced Hood in the pitcher's box for the Pi Phi's and struck out Brittingham in the second half of the inning for her third strike out of the season.

In the third inning, Hamblen and Grigsby both made two base hits, and later scored, putting the Pi Phi's in the lead, 3 to 1.

Again in the final, fifth, inning the winners made two more tallies, but Brawley and Howe, first batters up for the Chi O's by batting long hits advanced to second, and with clever base stealing scored. The tide seemed turned until Dixon was called out on second, and Umpstead flied out to the pitcher.

Annual Mural Horseshoe Tourney to Begin Monday

All Team Entries Must Be Turned In By Tomorrow Noon

Play will begin on Monday, April 13 in the intramural team horseshoe tournament, and entries should be made at the intramural office by this Friday at noon. A single elimination tournament will be run off with play consisting of three doubles matches, six different men making up each team.

Last year Town edged out Steele for the dormitory title and Beta Theta Pi won the frat division. Aycock took dormitory third place, while the Phi Gams and the Kappa Sigs tied for third in the fraternity league. A total of eight dorm teams and 21 fraternity squads competed in the 1941 meet.

Almost three out of five coeds use cigarettes and packs last from one day to three weeks.
