

Benton Hurls Tar Heels To 4-1 Win Over Deacs

Netmen Whitewash State for No. 60

Anthony Stars In Carolina's 9-0 Triumph

For the 60th consecutive match in a row, Carolina's powerful net team walked off the courts with a victory tucked neatly away. Yesterday the opponent was State's Red Terrors, the scene was in Raleigh and the score was 9-0. It was the second time this season the Tar Heels had blanked the State netters.

Co-captain Ham Anthony started the fireworks for the Tar Heels with a 6-4, 6-4 victory over State's Captain Frank Owens in the No. 1 singles match. Anthony turned in a much-improved performance as compared to his previous showings and despite Owens' hard-hit drives to the baseline, the Carolina netter earned the victory in straight sets.

Harold Maass dropped three games in handing Arnold Katterman a 6-0, 6-3 defeat in the second singles match. Katterman was outclassed from the first as Maass' place shots kept the State man running over the entire court.

Jack Markham spotted Elliott Winston a 4-2 lead in the first set but pulled out with a 7-5 win over the No. 3 State netman. Markham won the second set and the match by a 6-3 count.

Hendrix Uses Chop Shot

Moyer Hendrix used his chop shot to advantage in defeating Emmett Shoffner, 6-4, 6-2, Tom Wadden bested George Barbee of State, 6-3, 6-1, and Hunt Hobbs beat State's Pinner, 6-4, 6-1.

In doubles competition Maass and Hobbs won handily over Winston and Shoffner, 6-1, 6-2. Markham and Wadden laced Joyce and Pinner, 6-2, 6-0, and Anthony and Cliff Tuttle turned back Owens and Barbee, 6-2, 6-0.

Lewis, Holeman, Sparger, Gresham Pace Tar Babies

By Bill Woestendiek
The Carolina freshman nine opened up on Greensboro high school with its big guns here yesterday afternoon, and by the time the firing was completed, the Tar Babies were sitting on top of a 10-2 score.

A trio of pitchers—Bart Lewis, George Sparger and George Webb—and a trio of hitters—Grits Gresham, Jim Hayworth and Gus Holeman—were the big noises for the Tar Babies as the Carolina club rang up its second win in two starts this spring. The frosh were a vastly-improved ball club over the one that opened the season against State's yearlings last Saturday, and demonstrated yesterday that Coach Jim Tatum has developed another good freshman diamond outfit. Lewis, Sparger, Webb Hurl

Lewis, Sparger and Webb worked three innings apiece, holding the Gate City lads scoreless until late in the game when Greensboro touched Webb for two runs.

George Ralls was Greensboro's starting twirler, and the tiny crooked-armed southpaw subdued the locals for two innings. The Tar Babies went to work on him in the third, however, and batted him from the mound in the fourth.

Gus Holeman was the third-inning hero for the Tar Babies. After Ralls had walked Billy Myers and hit Johnny Colones with a pitched ball, Holeman slapped a long drive into right center for two bases, scoring both men. He went to third on an error by the center-fielder on the same hit and scored a minute later when the high school second-sacker, Newell, dropped Pupa's pop fly back on the edge of the outfield grass.

Fourth Inning Rally
The frosh really started swinging in the fourth and four straight hits finished Ralls for the afternoon. Hayworth doubled to left, Lee doubled to right, sending Hayworth to third and Grits Gresham—a man who is rapidly building a reputation for himself as the No. 1 clutch-hitter on the frosh club—socked a beautiful line-drive triple over third and into the left-field corner. Pitcher Sparger immediately blasted a single to left, sending Gresham home and Ralls to the showers. Second-baseman Newell took over the high school hurling chores and turned in a wild but fairly effective performance for the rest of the game. The frosh tallied twice more in the sixth on a single by Colones, an error, a couple

Duke-Carolina Track Meet Will Be Close

With Dixie's greatest dual meet competition slated to take place at Duke stadium Saturday afternoon, Carolina's track and field forces have been hitting the ball hard all week in preparing for their third, and rubber, match with the Methodists.

It will be remembered that Coach Bob Fetzer's team won a surprising victory over the Devils in the conference indoor track meet during the winter season, and then fell before the Devils in the Carolina relays.

Ancient Rivalry Renewed
On Saturday the ancient rivalry will be renewed with the Tar Heels rated slightly below the Blue Devils. Last season, Duke won its first dual meet victory over the home crew in six years by beating Carolina, 72-54, on Fetzer field. Coach Bob Chamber's squad went on to win the conference championship by six points in a thrilling meet at Williamsburg, Va., and so it is that Saturday's meeting may be indicative of "things to come."

Careful scrutiny of the meet card reveals that the outcome of the competition largely rests on eight events. Duke will come close to sweeping the 100-yard dash and the javelin throw, while Carolina should pile up impressive margins in the broad jump, the pole vault, the high hurdles and the half-mile run. However, lest this four-to-two ratio prove deceptive, it must be remembered that Duke figures to clean house in their two, while Carolina will face stiff competition in the quartet of events mentioned.

Final Outcome Close
Thus we find the final outcome resting on the results of the mile and two mile runs, the 220 and the 440-yard dashes, the discus throw and the shot put, the 220-yard low hurdles and the high jump. It appears at first glance that the distance events will depend on the comparative ability of five men.

It will be Tar Heels Rich Van Wagener, Mike Wise and Wimpy Lewis against Henry Profenius and Wendy Lockwood and the combination establishing supremacy in these events may take the meet.

Spencer Wallops Pi Phi's 17-5 For Second Win

The Spencer dormitory softball team defeated the Pi Phi's yesterday 17-5 for its second win of the coed intramural season.

Hamblen, Pi Phi catcher, scored the first run of the game in the first inning, but Spencer more than made up for it in its half of the inning. BEEKS, McCormic, Warren, Stephenson, Hicks, Jeffries, Tart, Hood and Nottingham tallied ten runs on only four hits, all singles.

Spencer pushed over five more runs in the next inning to really put the game on ice. Hicks, Jeffries, Tart, Hood and BEEKS all scored for the victors in this frame.

Kayser Homers
The losers made a valiant but feeble comeback in the final inning when Kayser hit a home run off pitcher McCormic. The hit was the only four-base blow of the contest. Spencer tallied twice more in its half of the final inning.

Town defeated the Alderman-Kenan team 16-6 on Tuesday afternoon.

The AD Pi and Smith teams clash on the coed field today at 5 o'clock.

Lew Hayworth Clouts Fourth Inning Homer

By Harry Hollingsworth

GORE FIELD, WAKE FOREST, April 15.—With the aid of Lew Hayworth's two-run homer in the fourth inning, Red Benton hurled the Tar Heels to a 4-1 victory over Wake Forest here today for Carolina's sixth conference win and second Big Five triumph.

In trouble only one time during the game Benton notched his third victory of the season with comparative ease while Carolina was shelling Jackie Pearce from the mound in the first four innings. Jim Ripple, who only yesterday worked off a condition on math to make him eligible for the game, held the Tar Heels to two safeties for the last five frames, but the damage was done in the early innings.

Besides pitching a wonderful sixth-hit game, Benton contributed one hit to Carolina's cause and drove in Mac Morris with the Tar Heels' initial run in the third inning. It was Benton's first hit of the season. He had gone hitless in 10 trips.

Benton pulled his best tricks in the sixth inning when he fanned Pete Horschak and John Conley with the sacks full on six pitches. Horschak took three called strikes while Conley took two called strikes and then swung at the third. Benton also fanned Red Cochran, who gave the Tar Heels a lesson in football last fall, for the first out of the inning after Clyde Whitener and Bob Reid had singled to open the frame. Two of the three strikes on Cochran also were called.

Carolina opened its scoring in the third with a singleton, added two in the fourth and finished in the eighth with a singleton. Carolina's two-run fourth sent Pearce to the showers and Ripple handcuffed the Tar Heels for the remainder of the game except for a slight lapse in the eighth.

Poor base coaching probably cost the Tar Heels a second run in the third. Chubby Myers, who had doubled to left field behind Mac Morris, who had walked, attempted to score from second base when Red Benton lined his single to center field. Myers was thrown out by nearly five feet.

Following Benton's single, Johnny Hearn and Leon McCaskill walked, but Dub Johnson forced Benton at the plate for the second out and Bo Reynolds grounded out Primm to Reid to retire the Tar Heels. So two hits and three walks gave Carolina only one run.

Jack Hussey and Lew Hayworth, who shared fielding honors for the day, scored Carolina's two runs in the fourth. Hussey walked and Hayworth sent him home with his circuit drive over the left field bank.

Johnny Hearn opened the eighth by singling to left field. Bobby Gersten, who replaced McCaskill in the seventh, sacrificed him to second and Bo Reynolds brought him home with his second single.

Hussey and Hayworth's fielding were tops. Hussey caught six fly balls in right field and Hayworth accepted four difficult chances. In the fourth Hayworth raced over behind the mound, picked up a slow bouncing ball and on the dead-run threw out Primm.

Benefit Tennis Tickets on Sale

Tickets are now on sale for the benefit tennis matches to be played here Saturday afternoon. Miss Mary Hardwick and Mrs. Dorothy Round Little will meet in the feature net exhibition. Al Schacht, top zany of the diamond, will transfer his talents to the courts and stage a typical Schacht comedy, and an all sports fashion show will round out the bill. Admission is $5.00 and the ducats may be purchased at the Carolina Sports Shop, the Daily Tar Heel, the News Bureau, and the ticket office in Woolen gym.
