Frosh Nine Wallops Duke, 10-8; Blue Imps Win Track Meet

Superior Duke Team Crushes Frosh Trackmen, 80 1/2-50 1/2

John Tandy Tops Tar Baby Scoring With 10 Points

Sweeping 15 places out of a possible 27 in the track events, the Duke freshman track and field forces defeated the Tar Babies, 80 1/2-50 1/2 here yesterday afternoon on Fetzer field.

Clearly holding a superiority in the running events, the Duke frosh marked up 63 of their 80 1/2 points while the Carolina forces demonstrated a marked advantage in the field events, scoring 36 1/2 of their total.

The frosh swept all three places in the discus and javelin throw to get 18 points. John Tandy, who won both events was the high scorer for the Tar Babies with 10 points. He also ran in the low hurdles. He got off a throw of 166 feet in the javelin and a toss of 117 feet 6 inches in the discus.

George Lewis, freshman two-miler, offered the best bit of "guts" running seen on Fetzer in several meets. A half-lap behind the field at the beginning of the final turn, he sprinted to pass one Duke man and Marvin Fairchild to finish a good second in a race dominated by Duke's Solfisburg who won in 10:26.1. Solfisburg also won the mile in 4:44.8.

Coed Tennis Matches

The Blue league, composed of sorority and Kenan dormitory tennis players, has extended the dead line for playing off the first round of competition until this afternoon. If a match has not been played by the new deadline, it will be considered a forfeit, Jimmette Hood, manager, announced.

Tar Heels Battle State Today in Crucial Tilt

Resting securely on top of the Big Five by virtue of Wake Forest's 6-2 victory over Duke yesterday, Carolina moves into Raleigh this afternoon for a game with State in an attempt to preserve its lead.

Charlie Moore, who was the winning pitcher in Tuesday's victory over Wake Forest here, is scheduled to hurl for the Tar Heels today. Moore has hurled 3 2-3 innings this season in winning five ball games against no losses. He had defeated Virginia twice, South Carolina, Virginia Tech, and Wake Forest and has given up 24 hits and seven runs.

Carolina defeated State here 5-4 in a ten-inning battle three weeks ago. Dub Johnson's infield fly which fell between two State fielders scored the winning rally for the Tar Heels. State has won only one Big Five contest this season—that from Davidson—while losing five.

Although the Red Terrors have one of the hardest hitting teams in the state, they have been unable to win games because of poor fielding.

Ray Hardee, State's fireball right-hander who was defeated by Duke last Thursday 3-2 on the strength of Tom Davis' home run, will oppose Moore in today's battle.

Hardee was the losing pitcher in the last tilt between the clubs and has carried the brunt of State's pitching force this year.

Chi Psi 12; Sigma Nu No. 2, 2. Sigma Chi 14; Pi Lambda Phi 7.

Tom Dill pitched this season's second no-hit intramural softball tilt yesterday to gain an 8-2 win for DKE No. 2 over SAE. The Deke hurler struck out seven batsmen. DKE scored four runs in the first, one in the second, and three in the third to build up an early lead. SAE scored once in the first and again in the fourth. Cam Rodman led the hitting with three singles in three times at bat.

Phi Gamma Delta No. 1 took a tight 2-0 win from a previously unbeaten ATO squad, virtually clinching the lead in its division of the frat softball race. Allen Headlee scattered seven blows well for a shutout win. ATO batters died on third in the second, third, and fifth innings.

George Harper pitched Lambda Chi Alpha to the second shutout win of the day, a 5-0 victory over Kappa Psi, with a four-hit performance. L. H. Short had two for two to lead the Lambda Chi batting.

ZBT edged out Phi Delta Theta 9-7

in a close contest, both sides getting only six hits. ZBT took an early 4-0 lead, both squads scored five in the fourth inning, and a two-run Phi Delta rally fell short in the fifth.

Kappa Sigma No. 1 had little trouble defending its undefeated record with an 18-3 triumph over St. Anthony Hall. Bill Sigler had a field day at bat for the Kappa Sigs with a home run, a double, and three singles in five trips to bat.

Frosh Hit Hard to Top Rivals; Finish in Tie for State Title

Bill Lee, Gresham, Hackney Collect Three Hits Each

By Bill Woestendiek

Coming from behind twice in the early innings and staving off a last minute rally by the Duke yearling nine, the Tar Babies slugged out a 10-8 win over the Blue Imps on Emerson field yesterday to wind up in a tie with the State frosh for the state freshman title.

Bill Lee, Grits Gresham and Ernie Hackney were the big guns for the victorious Tar Babies yesterday, each getting three hits. Lee came through with three singles to center field, driving home a run each time. Hackney and Gresham each slugged a double and two singles, Hackney batting in two runs.

Third-baseman Laver's single in the first inning scored two runs to put the visiting club ahead. The Tar Babies didn't get a hit off starting pitcher Frank Rumbaugh until the third, but when they did, they tied the score immediately. Grits Gresham opened the inning with a long two-base blast over the left-fielder's head and came home a minute later when Rivers Johnson singled between first and second. Hackney then drilled a long ball to right center for a double, scoring Johnson.

Green gave up two costly walks in the fourth and the Imps went out in front again 4-2 on Rumbaugh's single. Carolina came back with three tallies to take the lead. Singles by Walt Pupa, Lee, Gus Holeman and Gresham and an error by first-baseman Little accounted for the three Tar Baby scores.

Green's arm was bothering him, however, and the lead changed hands once more in the top of the fifth as the Imps continued to score in pairs. Parry's line single was the only base-hit of the inning, but a hit batsman, a walk and an error gave the Imps two runs. See FROSH BASEBALL, page 4.

Everett Ends UNC Career Without Loss

WASHINGTON, May 6—Bouncing back after suffering its first defeat in four years at Princeton yesterday, the University of North Carolina's varsity tennis team today blanked George Washington, 9-0, on the Columbia Country club courts.

Carolina's great Co-captain, Harris Everett, today won an easy 6-0, 6-2 victory over the Colonials' Madden to close his college career without a defeat in dual meet competition. Today's match was a belated climax for Everett who yesterday was extended to three sets before downing Princeton's Dick Bender in the closest match the Tar Heel ace has had all year.

Co-captain Ham Anthony also wound up his collegiate net career today by taking a match from Morrell of George Washington, 6-0, 6-2. Harold Maass tripped Lineberger without the loss of a game, 6-0, 6-0. Moyer Hendrix, at the fourth spot, defeated Smith, 6-2, 6-0. Hunt Hobbs turned back Quintrell, 6-2, 6-3, and Cliff Tuttle completed the singles with a complete victory over Eyster, 6-0, 6-0.

Everett teamed with Tom Wadden in the doubles and dealt George Washington's top duo of Madden and Morrell a 6-0, 6-2 licking. Hobbs and Jack Markham paired to trounce Smith and Quintrell, 6-0, 6-3 and Hendrix and Tuttle added the final Tar Heel point by winning from Eyster and Lineberger, 6-1, 6-0.

Tomorrow the travel-weary Tar Heels go to Durham where they will participate in the Southern conference tournament on the Duke University courts. Today's victory is No. 1 in a new string and the 14th win against yesterday's lone defeat for the season.

Golf Team Plays VMI Tomorrow

Carolina's golf team closes its season this weekend when it meets VMI in a dual meet tomorrow in Winston-Salem and participates in the annual Southern conference tourney in the Twin City on Saturday.

Coach Chuck Erickson's linksmen have enjoyed best season of a Carolina golf team since 1937. The Tar Heels have won five matches, losing only to Duke twice. Carolina finished third behind LSU and Duke in the annual Southern Intercollegiate golf tournament in Athens, Ga. in April.

The Tar Heels are expected to take VMI without much trouble tomorrow and enter the conference tourney as the only team ceded a chance to upset the powerful Duke team. Duke has dominated the conference meet since 1937 and has another undefeated team this spring. Although the Blue Devils defeated Carolina twice, both meets were close and several matches were See GOLF, page 4.
