Local Drive For Jewish Refugees To Begin Today

Appealing primarily to members of its own faith, the local drive for the United Jewish Appeal gets underway today.

The campaign will raise funds to aid the thousands of Jewish refugees, "deep-rooted nationals turned wanderers by the terrorisms of Hitler."

In 1942 money raised by this appeal, cited by President Roosevelt as "giving concrete evidence that persecution, homelessness and racial discrimination shall be banished," helped extend aid to over 700,000 persons in all NEW DELHI, Feb. 10 .- (UP) parts of the world, aided thouers, helped in the mobilization of the 548,000 in Palestine for "crucial Mediterranean conflict."

The campaign, approved by the Carolina War Chest committee, will not end until full canvassing has been finished.

Plans Made

Winter Event Is First in History

Plans for the first winter gra duation in Carolina history are rapidly being formed, according to Harry Comer, head of the graduation committee.

Comer, who is heading the group which will evolve the program for the graduation of from 100 to 150 students at the end of International Relations. this quarter, called a meeting of these men and women earlier in the week and yesterday released details decided upon by them.

The commencement exercises will take place the day after examinations. This will be either the 13 or 14 of March, depending on when examinations end.

"The bill," Terrell Webster, chairman of the ways and means committee, said, "was prepared because it was deemed necessary by numbers of students to have systematic means of replacing vacancies in student body and class offices."

The legislature extended the floor to Hayden Carruth, who was a visitor last night, to comment on the replacement bill as a result of his opinions expressed in the editorial columns of the DAILY TAR HEEL yesterday morning.

Carruth stated personal disapproval of subjecting the appointment of editors of campus publications by the PU board to the student legislature for approval in that the legislature was not qualified to over-rule the PU decision on such an important appointment.
