

On Bended Knee

By Ben McKinnon

Paul V. McNutt, substituting for President Roosevelt who was down Mexico way, tossed out the ball for the opening of the Major League baseball season Tuesday and on Wednesday every team in the National and American league had a game scheduled.

Major League baseball this year is not the same, but neither is anything else. However, the fact that the baseball moguls are trying to continue the "great American pastime" this year should deserve a large hand for them. Many players are going to be drafted before the season is over and many a coach is going to be disappointed. On the other side the majority of big league ball players have dependents and will be allowed to continue this occupation. Let's hope so anyhow.

Prominent on major league ball clubs this year, as always, are many ball players who hail from the Tar Heel state.

The World's champion St. Louis Cardinals naturally head the list and, brother, there are plenty of North Carolinians on that roster. Jimmy Brown of Jamesville is captain of the team and the sparkplug. Also on hand are: Max Lanier, pitcher from Denton; Sam Narron, catcher from Middlesex; Coaker Triplett, outfielder from Boone. One of last year's stars was Enos Slaughter, the slugger from Roxboro.

Continuing with the National League we have:

Brooklyn Dodgers: Rube Melton, pitcher from Gastonia.
Cincinnati Reds: No players from North Carolina listed.
Chicago Cubs: No Carolina players are not on this club either.
The Philadelphia Phillies do not have any players on the roster from North Carolina. From South Carolina, Tom Liveingston, catcher.

New York Giants: William Voisell, pitcher from Ninety-Six, James Maynard, outfielder from Henderson and Howard Moss, outfielder from Gastonia. Van Mungo, pitcher is from Pageland, South Carolina.

Pittsburg Pirates: Hank Gornicki, pitcher from Argura, John Lanning, pitcher from Asheville; William Baker, catcher from Woodleaf.

Boston Braves: Leading the alphabetical list is Nate Andrews, pitcher, from Rowland; Clyde Kluttz, a catcher, is from Salisbury.

Transferring to the American League we also find the Tar Heel state well represented.

Leading the list on the roster of the American League champions, the New York Yankees, is George Stirnweiss, infielder, who is not from North Carolina but who cares. He stayed in the state long enough to give us a crackerjack football and baseball team.

The Detroit Tigers are without the services of a native North Carolinian at present.

With the Cleveland Indians we find Alfred Dean, a pitcher, who hails from Mt. Airy.

The Chicago White Sox are well represented with Lee Ross, a pitcher from Norwood; Jacob Wade, another pitcher, from Morehead City, Richard Culler, infielder, from High Point and Ralph Hodgins, an outfielder, who is from Guilford College.

The St. Louis Browns have only one from this state. He is Rick Ferrell, the catcher, and is well known to sports fans. Rick is from Wilmington.

The Boston Red Sox have a number of Carolina players. Mace Brown, the pitcher who won 9 and lost 3 last year, is from Greensboro. Heber Newsome, another pitcher, is from Ahsokie. John Peacock hails from Fremont and is a catcher.

With the Washington Senators, we find Rae Scarborough from Mount Olive, who is a pitcher and Earl Wynn, also a pitcher, from Morganton. Heading the list of catchers is Jake Early of Kings Mountain and Donald Barbary from Simpsonville. Patrolling the garden in Washington will be found speedy Stan Spence from Kinston.

For the first time in many years there are no North Carolina players on the Philadelphia Athletics roster.

If anybody is industrious enough, pick an all star team of North Carolina players and I will print it with your name in the next column, and whatever you do, make Jimmy Brown captain.

Many thanks to Paul Nolan for helping me gather and assimilate the above material.

Spotless Record at Stake

Coach John Kenfield's spotless record against Duke tennis teams will be at stake when the Blue Devils and the Tar Heels meet in a Big Five and Southern conference clash here this afternoon.

Since Coach John took over the coaching reins in 1928, Carolina's netmen have scored double triumphs over their traditional foe each season. The Blue Devils, while still no ball of fire, form a well-rounded outfit capable of giving the favorites a true test of their assumed superiority.

The doubles teams will pair

Men of Mullis Win 2-1 In Ten Innings

Fly By James Drives Home Winning Run

By Lloyd S. Koppel

Walter James' sizzling fly to centerfield drove in the winning run in yesterday's Men of Mullis-Sigma Nu exhibition, and broke up a tight softball contest that went ten innings before the Physical Education youths emerged victorious, 2-1.

The ball game featured stellar hurling by Conger and Mullis, which kept the game hitless and scoreless for the first seven frames.

Eighth Inning

Sigma Nu broke the ice in the top half of the eighth, when two runs, a fielder's choice and an error drove in the loser's lone tally. Mathes and James pushed across a tying run in the last half of the eighth, however, and the ball game ran into the tenth stanza before James again came through to drive in the winning run.

The Sigma Nu's bunched their three hits off Mullis into the eventful eighth to score only one run, but throughout the game proved themselves to be the most formidable opposition met by the Mullis outfit in two years. "Last Chances"

Scoring two runs in the third, and holding BVP down to one run and one hit, the NROTC "Last Chances" broke the spotless dormitory team's record, 2-1. Henderson and Strayhorn copped the game's batting honors, while Webb is credited with the loser's only base knock.

The Phi Deltis ran all over Phi Gam No. 2, 22-6, in a heavy hitting contest called at the end of the sixth inning in accord with intramural rules. Anthony and Rouse were the winner's top hitters with Bisette leading the losers.

ATO Bouncing back from their crushing defeat at the hands of Kappa Sig, the ATOs scored seven runs in the first two innings to top Pi Kappa Alpha, 7-6.

The Pikas had bases full in the last half of the seventh. They were one run behind, and had one man out, when Hartley made the last two men pop up harmlessly. Bishop led the ATOs in hitting, while Capel shone for the losers.

Phi Delta Chi Phi Delta Chi once more slugged away, this time to de-

Reds Nose Out Cards, 1-0, As Baseball Campaign Opens

Three Other Whitewashings Recorded; Pirates, Indians, Browns Also Win

NEW YORK, April 22—(UP)—The World's Champion St. Louis Cardinals tiptoed into the 1943 season today by bowing to the Cincinnati Reds 1-0 in an eleven inning game which took top billing over three other major league shutouts, the only games played.

The Pittsburgh Pirates whitewashed the Chicago Cubs 6-0 in the other National League game. In the American league, the Cleveland Indians blanked the Detroit Tigers, 1-0, and St. Louis shutout the Chicago White Sox, 3-0.

Four games were postponed because of weather conditions—New York-Washington and Bos-

MACK MORRIS, stellar second baseman for the Tar Heels, who turned in another star performance in yesterday's Davidson tilt.

Rejuvenated 'B' Squad Faces Wake Forest All-Star Team

The Carolina "B" team will seek revenge when it plays a return game with Wake Forest at Emerson Stadium this afternoon at 5 p. m.

Coach "Chubby" Myers led his lads through a peppy practice which included batting and infield drill. At the bat the boys swung from their heels and powdered the pellet all over the diamond. Both Andrews and Galinkin hit the horsehide frequently and distantly. Some of Andrews drives dropped on to distant Fetzner Field.

Afield the boys worked feat a fighting Kappa Psi outfit, 13-3. Canaday again came through in fine slugging form for the winners, aided by Beddingfield and Clark.

Palmer struck out ten men as Sigma Chi beat TEP, 5-3, and District No. 3 played good defensive ball behind Levin's hurling, to win over NROTC No. 1, 3-1.

Family Scrap

In a family game between NROTC No. 2 and the "Bums," the No. 2 team capitalized on Schlesinger's fine pitching and slashing homer in order to beat their fellow sea-goers, 17-6. Schlesinger was the game's star, driving in six runs, while Rankin paced the "Bums."

Kappa Alpha forfeited to the Betas, and Phi Chi failed to appear, presenting the "Misfits" with an unearned victory.

smoothly and efficiently. Cranford, Stevenson, and Dean shone in the infield while Kirkland covered a lot of ground in the center pasture.

Lineberger, the starting hurler for Carolina, seemed to be in fine shape and the game this afternoon should be a real battle.

The probable starting line-up is:

Dean or Stevenson	ss
Kirkland	cf
Andrews	3b
Galinkin	1b
Cranford	2b

Eight Runs Scored During Fourth Frame

By Bob Goldwater

Two big innings proved more than enough for the home forces yesterday as the Tar Heels slugged their way to a 15-4 triumph over Davidson in a contest featured by five Carolina extra-base knocks, including a round-tripper by hurler Bob Shuford.

The Tar Heels sent nine men to the plate in a third-inning uprising and came back in the fourth to double their previous output, with 12 players coming to bat. In both frames, all the scoring came with two outs.

Going into the third, down one run, Whitey Black walked with one gone and reached third on successive steals. Lew Hayworth fanned, but the four straight knocks that followed meant a like number of markers. Dub Johnson started the procession with a triple to left center. Jack Hussey scored Dub with a single and came around himself on another long triple, down the left-field line by Frank Wideman. A Texas leaguer by Rivers Johnson brought in Wideman with the fourth tally.

Eight Runs Across

Carolina's most terrific outburst of runs in a single stanza this season came in the fourth. With two outs and Black again on base by virtue of a free pass and steal, Dub Johnson clouted another triple, this time, just to be different, over the right-fielder's head. Hussey hit his second single to drive in Dub and went around to third on Wideman's two-bagger. Rivers Johnson sent Hussey home and Mack Morris did likewise with Wideman. Rivers scored the fifth run of the frame on an error and Bill Lee drove in Morris to make the count 10-1. Shuford walked and Black smacked a single into center that was good for three bases and two runs in.

In the meantime, the Wildcats were not faring too well. They counted one in the third on Tommy Peters' single to give them a very short-lived lead. In the fifth, they pushed over two runs on no hits, one coming in as a result of a walk with the sacks packed and the other during a rundown. To score, they added another in the eighth on Hayworth's error.

First Homer

Run number 13 crossed the plate in the fifth on a walk, passed ball, and two-base misplay. Another came in the sixth when Shuford tagged up from third on a fly by Hayworth. In the
