

Blue Dolphins Take Easy Win From Georgia Tech Swimmers

Tar Heels Get 55-20 Victory Over Jackets

Carolina Favored To Win AAU Event

ATLANTA, Feb. 8—The Blue Dolphins of the University of North Carolina proved too much for the swimmers of Georgia Tech here today, walking off with an easy 55-20 victory.

Carolina took eight first places out of the nine events on the program including a pair of triumphs by co-captain Snooky Proctor in the 220 and 440-yard freestyle.

The Dolphins are heavy favorites to take top honors in the Southern AAU championship to be held here tomorrow.

Preliminaries for the AAU meet will be held tomorrow afternoon with the finals scheduled for the evening. The Dolphins will have a full representation in the championship except for co-captain Ben Ward who didn't make the trip because of a bad cold.

The 50-yard freestyle event went to Warren Ficklen of the Tar Heels in the good time of 25.6 seconds, but he was closely trailed by teammate Leroy Little and Matthews of Tech.

Dick Twining, Carolina's brilliant young ace had things all his own way in the 100-yard freestyle, winning in the time of 55.1 seconds. Thomas of Georgia Tech was second and Ed Shumate of Carolina third.

Jack Zimmerman took top honors in the 220 yard breast stroke in the time of 2:43.5 followed by Scheuer of Tech and Ficklen of Carolina.

Both relay events were taken by the Tar Heels, the 300-yard medley composed of Jenkins, Twining, and Zimmerman winning in the time of 3:12 while the 400-yard freestyle combination of Twining, Harvey, Ficklen, and Morrow won in 3:46.1 time.

The win is the second of the season for the Dolphins over Georgia Tech, the Yellow Jackets being 60-15 victims of the Dolphins earlier in the season at Chapel Hill.

White Phantoms Whip Maryland By 33-31

COLLEGE PARK, MD., Feb. 8—North Carolina eked out a 33-31 triumph over Maryland here tonight. The White Phantoms lead at halftime, 17-12. Paxton led the Tar Heel scorers with 11 points, McKinney was next with 10, Jordan had 4, and Dillon 2.

Trackmen Prepare For Cinder Event

With a triumph over Duke under their belts the indoor track team has settled down to daily practice again in preparation for the Fourth Annual Invitation Meet being held here on February 23. Entries have already been received from several schools and many more are expected. A high brand of competition should be forthcoming in nearly every event.

Before the war this meet was open to only Southern Conference schools with special invitational events for non-conference teams. Now because of the limited number of Conference schools participating in track, the two divisions have been combined which should result in better performances.

Tar Heels Face Tough Foes In Tilts Today

Three big events are on the University of North Carolina sports schedule for tomorrow. The swimming team will compete in the Southeastern AAU swimming championships at Atlanta; the boxing team faces Army at West Point, and the basketball team will go up against undefeated Navy in the major basketball game of the day.

The Tar Heels' hopes for Southeastern swim titles tomorrow are headed by Dick Twining, who set five new records in the Carolinas AAU last week; Mike Morrow, new national 100-meter champ; Co-Captain Snooky Proctor, former runner-up in the National Junior mile; and Mac Erle, Carolinas diving champ.

The Tar Heel entries for the ring meet at Army are Paul Gordy, 120 pounds; Gene Roth, 127; Jim Lodge, 135; Jim Lenz, 145; Joe Mallard, 155; Johnny Richardson, 165; Jim Stancil, 175; and Ed McGee, heavyweight.

Snavely Expects Only Eight Old Girdders Back

Carl Snavely, who is busy putting his Carolina football squad through winter practice workouts, says that of the 31 players who won letters last fall only eight are expected back next season.

And only three of these, Snavely points out, were regulars. They are Ted Hazelwood, tackle; Ed Golding, guard; and Bobby Warren, tailback. The other five who were reserves last fall are Jim Camp, Bill Flamish, and Bob Kennedy, backs; and Dan Stiegman and Mike Rubish, linemen.

Snavely says he expects several former Carolina stars now in service to return to the campus, but just who will be back he doesn't know.

A number of promising 18-year-old players are being lost to the draft, he says—players who were being counted on for reserve and possible varsity service next season.

Boxers Tangle With Army Foe This Afternoon

Tar Heel Ringmen Are Underdogs

Facing one of the toughest bouts of the season, Coach Jule Medwin's ringmen will match gloves with Army's undefeated pugmen at West Point this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The local leather slingers will be gunning for an upset over the Cadet crew that has already brushed aside such strong teams as Maryland, Penn State and the Coast Guard Academy. The Tar Heel boxers lost only to Army last season.

The Carolina boxers dropped a close 5-3 decision to Virginia last week-end. In this bout the Blue and White ringers were without the services of a heavyweight. Today the Tar Heels are in top shape with the exception of the 175-pound class since the regular Bos Beckwith was unable to make the trip. Filling in his place will be Jim Stancil.

Coach Jule Medwin, whose team holds a .500 record, will send the following boxers into the ring against Army this afternoon: Paul Gordy, 120; Gene Roth, 127; Jim Lodge, 135; Jim Lenz, 145; Joe Mallard, 155; Johnny Richardson, 165; Jim Stancil, 175; and Ed McGee, heavyweight.
