

Schofield Announces CICA Meets Tonight

Lib Schofield, publicity chairman of the CICA, announced yesterday that there will be an important CICA meeting Wednesday night at 7 o'clock in Roland Parker Lounge in Graham Memorial. On the agenda for the meeting are a discussion of the coming WGA elections and a proposed CICA dance. Miss Schofield stressed the importance of the meeting and urged all members to attend.

Class Is Dismissed Because Of Airplane

Dr. Raymond Adams might well set the example for other instructors. An army trainer buzzed one of his English classes recently. After several runs, Dr. Adams said, "If he comes over once more, I will dismiss the class. We can't compete against modern inventions, you know."

Service for Hillel Foundation

An evening service for members of the Hillel Foundation will be held Friday night, Feb. 22, at 7:30 in the Roland Parker Lounge of Graham Memorial. Joe Gassenheimer will speak on "Fraternalism and Sororities."

The service will be sponsored by Zeta Beta Tau.

COED

(Continued from first page) ens College in Columbia, Missouri, during her first two years of college. She was on the freshman advisory committee, intramural teams, Red Cross projects, and the House Council for her dormitory. She was chairman of the war bond drive, chairman of the Coordinating Board, secretary of the Independent Association and on the executive council of the Independent Association. She served as a campaign manager, and on the social service committee for Bural Dormitory. She was one of the Ten Ideals and belonged to the Order of the Purple Cow, an honorary fraternity. She was a senior sister, and worked for the Hypatia Hexagon, and she maintained a "B" average.

Since she came here she has served as secretary for the Pi Beta Phi pledge class. She is on the social committee in Alderman, a YWCA committee and on the photography staff of the Yackety Yack. She is the University Club representative for Alderman.

Don't forget the tryouts for Sound and Fury. Today and tomorrow are the final dates. There are still some meaty parts left. Come between 3 and 5:30 to Memorial Hall.

CAMPUS

(Continued from first page) stated, "the Daily Tar Heel is the only college daily in the country carrying full wire service and it is to be congratulated for their wide coverage of the news, local, statewide, national and foreign."

The teletype machine, which will run 24 hours a day, has been installed in the managing editor's office in the student union and is a brand new machine of the latest variety. After electricians had cut through a connection from the attic of Graham Memorial, and the line had been cleared through to Raleigh and the nationwide United Press hookup, the first trial words came across the press, "The quick brown fox jumped over the lazy brown dog," and the Daily Tar Heel teletype service was underway.

SPORTS BRIEFS

(Continued from page three) players. DiMaggio—playing on the varsity with Gordon—banged out a home run in the last inning to spark a five run rally and turn back the second team 7-3. Gordon was equally brilliant on defense and had the fans gasping with admiration of his six classy assists.

The New York Giants announce that Ernie Lombardi—who is slated to be the number one catcher until Walker Cooper is released from the Navy, has entrained at Chicago for the Miami camp. So far, Lombardi is still a hold-out. But Manager Mel Ott reveals the "Schnoz" shows a willingness to come to terms.

The Pittsburgh Pirate management says that infielder Frankie Gustine still is holding out for more money, even though the second detachment of Bucis is on the way to the team's training camp in San Bernardino, California. Gustine returned to his home after conferring with General Manager Ray Kennedy.

(Continued from page three) own candidate elected, I quite frankly think politics smell!" Schofield believes that a Carolina coed has three phases of life offered to her—studying, dating, and participating in extra-curriculars. The smiling speaker of the Coed Senate has proven that one can choose all three phases and be equally successful in each.

JUSTICE

Billy's biggest year at Asheville came after Justice's departure. He was the entire noise in the 1943 Shrine high school Bowl game, in which Charlie had starred the year before. Britt took the opening kickoff and waded through the South Carolina All Stars 90 yards for a touchdown. He had his hands in two more tallies before the game ended, 20-7, North Carolina.

As for all the foregoing quarterbacking, it is a couple of months previous at best. Too, it does not take into consideration that returning is a good portion of the backfield that made a creditable showing for last year's Blue and White. Bob Warren, Jim Camp, Bob Kennedy, Chuck Simmons and others are sure to have a large part in the plans, not to mention Walt Pupa, who cavorted for the Tar Heels in 1942. Add Justice and Britt to that and you have a potent combine.

There is talk, too, of hefty recruits for the front legions, but they'll have to be good to muscle into the returning first seven. In plain English, don't expect the Tar Heels to be anybody's doormats this time.

The pot is boiling and it may be "T."

NEWS BRIEFS

(Continued from first page) Secretary of State Byrnes says no American is involved in the Canadian spy plot. And he adds that the foreign agents could not have stolen the secrets of atomic bomb production since the "know-how" still remains exclusive US property. Canada and Britain have not been told the production facts.

When questioned, Byrnes said too that he would stand by his recommendations that all members of the UNO security council and atom bomb commissions—including the Russians—be invited to attend our Navy atom bomb tests.
