George Glamack Named New Basketball Coach

Corner

New York - Chuck Erickson has been appointed second vicepresident of Madison Square Garden, Ned Irish announced yesterday. Erickson, who has been out of the Navy just two months will relinquish his present post as assistant athletic director to take over the new position at an estimated salary of $35,000° a year.

O. K. Cornwell has acceped a position with the Metro-Golden-Neyor film corporation as head instructor of a course that deals with more perfect female bodies. Cornwell who has had considerable physical education experience at Carolina will leave for Hollywood tonight, it was learned.

A new sport will be inaugurated as soon as the plantarian is complete. Coach Bob Fetzer, athletic director, announced that the new program will be under the heading "A Star Finding Club," which will consist of couples only and tryouts will be held in the arboretum until the building is completed.

The sports teams around Carolina were complete on the announcement that a ping pong team will be formed and Coach Don Anderson has already mapped a schedule that includes Florida, Ohio State, Yale, Tulane, Tennessee and possibly California. Anderson stated that workouts would get underway on Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in Woollen gym. Players asked to furnish their own balls and paddles, since the University does not consider ping pong a major sport. Miss Martha Rice will also instruct a group of beginners at Graham Memorial each afternoon. All those interested should contact Miss Rice at her home.

Bill Buffaloe, sports promoter, has been named head scout for Coach Bunn Hearn's Tar Heel baseball team, it was made know today. Buffaloe is given credit for signing such players as Coleman, Warren, Cleetwood, Gregory and Beeson and has several other top-notch baseballers who are ready to sign on the dotted line. Bill has often been seen around the major league training camps with his fat wallet and contracts, and Coach Bunn hopes that he is successful on his present tour of See CORNER Page 4

Two Coeds Made First-Stringers On Tennis Squad

For the first time in the history of this and probably any other university, two girls have shown enough talent to gain positions on the Tar Heel tennis team.

The precedent-breaking coeds are Marion Gurney, from Gastonia, and "Twigg" Branch, of Asheville. Both girls are seniors, much to the disappointment of Coach John Kenfield, who would have looked forward to their return next year.

Both girls have been dubbed by the net mentor as potential Alice Marbles, showing good form on offense and defense. Miss Gurney's main strength lies in her smashing forehand while Miss Branch has a lightning serve that baffles all oppon-

Coach Kenfield is as yet undecided as to what position on the team the girls will occupy, but in all probability one will play number six in singles and of student players. "We must the other may team with Vic keep up with the Joneses," de-Seixas for the second doubles clared Snavely. assignment.

Florida. Talks have already been arranged with Mickey Owen, Marty Marion, Dizzy Trout, Hank Greenberg and Mort Cooper, all who are planning to jump pro ball.

John Dillon and Bones Mc-Kinney have been offered $35,000 apiece to play professional basketball for the Chapel Hill villagers, which is being sponsored by Mayor R. W. Madry. Both cagers are holding out for more money and are slated to have a conference with Mayor Madry in his mansion on Hollar Ridge today. Other professional clubs are after the two "Whiz Kids" but the local concern is expected to outbid all other offers.

Pete Mullis, the popular assistant basketball coach, will follow Carnevale to NYU since the contract called for both Carolina coaches.

Coach Bob Fetzer failed to comment on Glamack's salary, but it is understood that the new coach will get somewhere around $10,000.

The local basketball followers were of the opinion that the athletic department made a fine selection in choosing Glamack and Kurland as cage mentors.
