Briefs From UP

Nationals-Reds Fight Fiercely In Manchuria

'Thousands of Lives Lost on Both Sides'

VOLUME LIV

Chungking, April 15 - Out in the Far East, Chinese government and Communist troops are engaged in a great battle for the Manchurian capital of Changchun. The crack Americanequipped Chinese First Army has crashed through Communist defenses some 60 miles south of Changchun in a battle which is reported to have cost "thousands of lives on both sides." The First Army is rushing to the relief of a small nationalist garrison in Changchun, which is being besieged on three sides from 30,-000 to 40,000 Chinese Communist troops.

House Votes Holiday For Selective Service

Washington, April 15 - The House approved a five-month draft holiday starting May 15. And then it promptly passed a bill giving military personnel pay raises ranging from 10 to 50 per cent to encourage voluntary enlistments. By the draft House approved extending selective service until February 15, 1947, and at the same time, sidestepped a record vote on a straight draft extension.

Case Introduces Bill For Overseas 'Legion'

Capitol Hill, April 15-Representative Case of South Dakota has introduced a bill to create a 500,000-man American Foreign Legion to take care of the nation's overseas police job. Case says he got his idea from the French Foreign Legion. His army would be composed of aliens which he predicts could be easily recruited from homeless and hungry people around the world.

Palestine Railroads Paralyzed by Strike

roads in Palestine have been Smith will be forever remem- Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock in paralyzed by the general strike, called by Jewish resistance leaders to protest Britain's arrest of 1,000 refugees in Italy. Railroad workers joined the strike today.

American Ships Carry Soviet Wheat to France

Washington, April 15 - The State Department reveals that three American Liberty ships are carrying their first loads of Russian wheat to France. Some 46 other American vessels will be made available for the same purpose during the coming months.

Westinghouse Increases Pay of Electric Workers

inghouse Corporation announces dance routines done by the pay increases for more than 10,-000 of its non-union salaried employees-including 3,200 supervisors. Company officials say the raises are subject to approval of federal wage stabilization agencies.

Government Agencies

Washington, April 15—Three steps to end the nation's black ordered livestock channeled to

See NEWS BRIEFS, page 4

The Daily Tar Heel

THE ONLY COLLEGE DAILY IN THE SOUTHEAST

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., TUESDAY, APRIL 16, 1946

UNITED PRESS

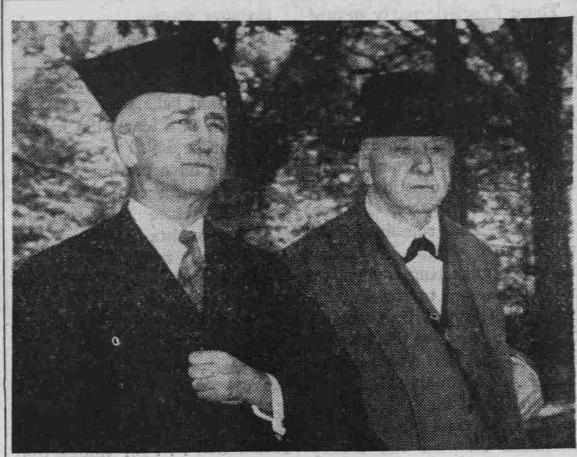

NUMBER 54

· Royall Speaks

Legislature

Art Festival Opens

Undersecretary of War Royall Will Speak Tonight

Secretary of State James F. Byrnes and Josephus Daniels, former Secretary of the Navy and University alumnus, are shown as they entered Memorial Hall Saturday for the Sesquicentennial Celebration. (Photo by courtesy of Orville Campbell.)

House approved extending selection-conscious Carolina Workshop Festival Opens Here Tomorrow Evening

Carolina Inn Banquet Begins Activities: Program in Playmakers Theatre Follows

The annual Spring Arts Festival sponsored by the Carolina workshop will open tomorrow with a banquet in the main ballroom of the Carolina Inn at 6:30 p.m. Plenty of tickets are still feated the motion by a sweeping available for the banquet and are priced at $1.50 each. This noon plurality. time is the deadline for obtaining tickets which are on sale at the Y office or from any member of the Workshop council.

dance department.

Theatre at 8 p.m.

folk-art.

Dance Slated

to be given in the Playmakers

Randall Thompson, famous

American composer and director of the music department at composer ever to have a symphony reprinted, Thompson is the composer of "Taranrella," one of the masterpieces of American

Final events of the festival will be the presentation of student musical compositions in followed by the reading of seve-

Thursday's program will in-

President Frank P. Graham, Chancellor R. B. House, and Dean of Students Ernest Mackie are expected to attend in addition to Betty Smith, Noel Graham Memorial to which all Houston, James Street, and interested students are invited, Clare Leighton, members of the and a program of experimentals Chapel Hill literary colony. Noel Houston's novel "The Great Promise" has been a recent best seller as well as Street's latest Jerusalem, April 15 - Rail- work," The Gauntlet." Betty Princeton University, will speak bered for her "A Tree Grows in Hill Hall. The only American Brooklyn," later converted into the film of the same name, while Miss Leighton is distinguished in the field of etchings and wood cuts. Each will probably speak briefly.

Combines Arts

The three-day festival which Hill Hall Friday night at 8 p.m. is patterned after the old Carolina Workshop serves to com- ral papers contributed by the bine the efforts of members of creative writing department and the departments of art, music, an art exhibit and gallery talk radio, journalism, dance, and in Person Art gallery. drama in the University.

Following the banquet tomorrow night will be radio and dance program in the Playmakers Theatre at 8:30 p.m. The University radio studio will present an hour's variety show Pittsburgh, April 15 - West- followed by a set of original

SEC Passbooks To Be Given Out

Tickets for the Student Entertainment Series will be issued in the lobby of the YMCA Monday, April 22, from 9 a.m. until Try to End Black Market 5 p.m., and from 7:30 until 8:30 Monday night at Memorial Hall.

Dr. Penrose Harland, direcgovernment agencies have taken tor of the Student Entertainment Committee, said that stumarket in meat. The Agriculture dents may attend the concert Department and the OPA have which the North Carolina Symphony Orchestra will give for children.

Is Postponed By Legislature

Student Vote

Regular Election To Be Held May 9

to postpone the elections previously scheduled for May 2 until the following Tuesday, May 9. The motion, introduced by Allan Pannill, provided that only this year's elections would be set back. All future elections will be held on the first Tuesday in May as prescribed by the Constitu-

With regard to the Constitution, Articles 5 and 6 were amended, while the last two articles, 7 and 8, were passed with a minimum of discussion.

Mann's Motion

In Article 5, Mavis Mann introduced a motion that the student's right to initiate legislative action be denied. Miss Mann's chief argument against the measure was that it divided the responsibility for both good and bad laws. The legislature de-

Article 6, section 6, was amended to the effect that all violations of the Honor Code be See STUDENT Page 4

Regular Phi Meeting clude a tea dance at 4 p.m. in Set Thursday Night

The regular Tuesday night meeting of the Philanthropic Society will not be held this evening due to Undersecretary of War Royall's address. The Assembly will meet instead on Thursday night. The bill for the the Phi Assembly go on record as believing that labor unions are detrimental to the best interest of the country".

Workshop Meeting

A meeting of the Carolina Workshop council will be held at 5:30 p. m. this afternoon in the Roland Parker lounge of Graham Memorial. It is important that a representative from each art department be present at the meeting, Charlie Gaylord, chairman, emphasized.

Address on Draft Law To Be Aired Over WPTF

University Veterans Sponsor Alumnus In First Public Speech Since Appointment

Kenneth C. Royall, undersecretary of war, will speak tonight at 8:30 p. m. in Memorial Hall, under the auspices of the Univer-The Student Legislature last sity Veterans' Club. His topic will be "Extension of the Draft night voted, by a large majority, Law." The program will be aired over WPTF.

Those attending are asked to be seated in the auditorium by 8:15 p.m. No one will be admitted after 8:20 because of radio station requirements.

The address will be the first given by Royall since his appointment as undersecretary of war. Many state dignitaries have accepted invitations extended by UVA President Blount Stew-

Following the short discussion period after the address, a reception will be held in Graham Memorial lounge.

Royall is an alumnus of Carolina. While a student here, he was very active in extracurricular activities. He was a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Tau Kappa Alpha, the Amphoterothen, and Gorgon's Head. He belonged to the Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity.

Mr. Royall is noted for his defense in 1942 of Nazi war spies. President Roosevelt designated Royall to defend the sabo-Royall was a Brigadier General in the Army before being appointed by President Truman to his present position. He received the Distinguished Service Medal awarded for services as deputy director of the Army Service Forces from May 1943 to April 1944 and as special assistant to the secretary of war.

Mr. Royall succeeded Robert B. Patterson as undersecretary of war when Patterson was elevated to secretary of war upon Henry L. Stimson's resignation.

Blount Stewart, UVA president, invites all students, faculty, and townspeople to attend the address.

"We are bringing one of Carolina's most brilliant alumni back to the university. He has distinguished himself as a lawyer, as a brigadier general, and now as undersecretary of war. His many North Carolina friends will welcome this opportunity to hear him speak on a topic of such vital interest to us all," said Stewart.

Kenneth C. Royall

Experimental To Be Given Thursday Nite The Carolina Playmakers will present their 109th Bill of Experimental plays for the Spring Arts Festival Thursday, April 18, at 7:30 p.m., in the Playmakers Theatre. Professor Samuel Selden will introduce the playwrights of these three original one-act plays and invite criticism from the audience after each production. "Mr. Gabriel," a fantasy by evening will be: "Resolved, that Lois Warnshuis and directed by Will Foley, is the first play on the bill. The cast includes: James Geiger as Mr. Gabriel, Jay Franklin as Pete, Bill Workman as Tom, and Hazel Harris as Matilda. The scene of the play is in Mr. Gabriel's trumpet shop. "The Gospel Trumpet Company."

The second play to be presented is a drama of the Passover, "Wherefore is This Night," by Violet Fidel and directed by Edgar Garrett. The cast includes: Marguerite Whitfield as Mrs. Lewissohn, Max Paul as Shown above as they were seated on the stage of Memorial Hall at the Sesquicentennial Celebration here Saturday, are, left to right, President Edmund E. Day of Cornell University, principal speaker of the day; R. Gregg Cherry, Governor of North Carolina; Secretary of State James F. Byrnes; and John W. Harrelson, Chancellor of North Carolina State College. (Photo by courtesy of Orville Campbell.)

See EXPERIMENTALS Page 4

Dorm Space Must Be Reserved Now

Students now assigned to dormitory space can reserve rooms now for summer and fall terms by making a deposit for each quarter with the university cashier not later than noon of April 20, 1946.

Students not taking advantage of this privilege will revert to his proper place on the priority schedule.

No assurance can be given for space other than space presently occupied by the applicant. Summer school deposit is $10;

fall quarter deposit is $6.

Pin-Up

Bill Cranford has pinned Florence "Viki" Tyler.