Tar Heels to Meet State Here Monday in Loop Tilt

League Leading Wolfpack Expected to Hurl Ernie Johnson Against Third-Place Carolina

Carolina's baseball cohorts enter a week's play tomorrow that can make or break their Big Four future this year when they battle league-leading North Carolina State on Emerson field at 4 p.m. in the first of four games that the locals will play in five days.

Following tomorrow's contest with State, the Tar Heels travel to Davidson Tuesday, play State here again Wednesday, and go to Wake Forest on Friday.

Rain put a crimp on all week-end activity for the Hearnmen who had Friday's game with Virginia and yesterday's Duke battle called off by the heavy rain-fall.

As a result of the postponements, Coach Hearn has every member of his mound staff ready for action in the coming week. Monk Whiteheart is expected to get the nomination against the heavy-hitting State club tomorrow.

Whiteheart, who was scheduled to hurl against Duke yesterday, has won four games this year while losing one. State will probably pitch freshman Ernie Johnson, who tossed a two-hit shut-out against the Tar Heels in the only previous meeting between the two clubs. Tomorrow's contest is a replay of the already thrice-postponed Carolina-State fray.

Surprise Team

Coach Vic Sorrell's Wolfpack, the surprise team of the Big Four has four wins and one loss to lead the loop. State's only loss was suffered at the hands of Duke, and the Wolfpack knocked off Duke and Lee Griffith last week to gain revenge for the earlier beating.

The Tar Heels, defeated 5-0 by State in their first game, have a Big Four record of one win and two losses. Tomorrow's game looms as a must for the light-hitting locals, for Carolina must win to stay in range of the high-flying visitors.

Netters Score 12th Triumph In Return Tilt

Maass Gets Revenge Over Virginia Ace

By Bob Goldwater

Even the elements can't stop the Carolina net team! In what definitely was not tennis weather, the Tar Heel racquetmen scored their fourth shutout of the week yesterday by blanking Virginia, 9-0, to register their 12th triumph of the campaign.

In the feature clash of the chilly afternoon, Harold Maass gained revenge for his defeat last month by Harold Burrows by downing the Cavalier ace in a hard-fought, three-set battle, 6-4, 0-6, 7-5. Losing 5-4 in the final set, the Tar Heel captain rallied to capture three straight games and the match. Sam Daniels subdued Jack Berkley, 6-0, 9-7, and Stan Gruner defeated Frank Ogden, 6-0, 6-4. Jim Nicholson returned to action after missing three contests due to an ankle sprain by trouncing Tony Allen, 6-2, 6-0. A surprise starter at the number five post and playing his final match for Carolina, Mel Jardon went out in a blaze of glory by trimming Bob Rhodes, 7-5, 6-1. Ed Dameron completed the sweep of the singles tilts with a 9-7, 6-3 decision over Frank Gilliland.

In doubles, Maass and Gruner showed good form in topping Burrows and Gilliland, 6-1, 6-4. Jordan and Nicholson were extended to three sets before downing Ogden and Rhodes, 6-4, 11-13, 6-0, and Daniels and Dameron registered a 6-1, 6-3 triumph over Berkley and Allen.

Tennis Tidbits: the 24 games in the second set of the Jordan-Nicholson doubles debacle represented a new high in games in one set this season. . . . Gruner's win was his 11th and Nicholson's his ninth of the year. . . . Next match for the racquetmen will be Tuesday when they oppose the Greensboro ORD outfit in a return match.

ANNOUNCEMENT

No intramural games will be played tomorrow.

Justice and Kennedy Spark Play With Brilliant Running

Whites Show Powerful Ground Attack; Britt, Clements, Stone Look Impressive

By Carroll Poplin

Showing a superior ground and passing attack, the White team ran ramshod over the Blue squad by the score of 33-0 in typical football weather before 1,000 spectators in Kenan Stadium yesterday afternoon.

Head Coach Carl Snavelly was wearing a broad smile at the end of the contest and seemed well pleased with the showing of both teams. The fans also passed favorable comments and filed out of the stadium saying, "everything will be alright if we can BEAT Dook by that score."

Coach Max Reed has nothing but praise to give the White players who displayed a winning type of football. Coach Reed credited the line as playing heads-up football all afternoon in holding the Blue ball carriers almost hapless.

Charlie "Choo Choo" Justice, started the ball rolling after two minutes of the first period had gone by when he grabbed Clements kick on the 22 yard stripe and returned to the 35. On the next play, Justice tucked the pigskin under his arm and raced 65 yards off tackle behind some beautiful blocking for the initial touchdown. Cox's attempt for the extra point failed.

The second White score came just after the second period got underway when the Blues were forced to punt. Britt kicked to his own 35. Fearing flipped a short pass to quarterback Don Hartig who trotted 35 yards to paydirt. A flying block by Jim Camp paved the way for the six pointer. Cox converted the extra point.

Billy Britt, Jack Stone and B. K. Grow spearheaded the Blues' only goalward drive in the last couple minutes of the first half. The march started on their own 23 yard line and five successive first downs brought the pigskin to the Whites' 20 yard line before the whistle blew.

After the opening kickoff of the second half, the Whites drove 60 yards for their third tally. Justice went off tackle for 14 yards to the 47 before he was hauled down by Stone. Justice added another first down as he went around right end on a 24 yard pick up. Justice passed to Camp down to the two yard stripe after being stopped by Clements. Camp lost two yards and Justice rifled a short pass to Cox for the marker. Szafaryn broke through to block Cox's conversion attempt.

The Blues had a scoring chance when Dan Steigman fumbled Britt's kick and Fowle recovered on the Whites' 47 yard line. Britt found a hole through left tackle and went for a first down to the 35 and an offside penalty moved the ball to the 30. Stone cracked left tackle, but failed to make it a first down and the Whites took over on their own 26.

Don Hartig handed the ball to Camp on a reverse for a five-yard gain. Bob Kennedy, fleet-footed veteran of the 1945 team, ploughed through center and skirted 70 yards with the help of some excellent blocking for the longest run of the afternoon. Rubish added the extra point.

The final White tally came when Hazelwood recovered Britt's fumble on the Blues' 20 yard line. Camp lateraled to Kennedy for seven yards and a five yard penalty placed the pigskin on the eight yard marker. Kennedy on a reverse from Har-

Navy Runners Beat Carolina

Tar Heels Suffer First Track Loss

Annapolis, Md., May 4 — The Naval Academy cindermen displayed outstanding form here today in taking 12 of 14 events to score a 102-29 victory over the Carolina track team.

Chunk Simmons, of Charlotte, with a first place in the low hurdles, and a second place in the high hurdles, led the Carolina scoring with eight points. Gifford took a first place in the javelin throw to take second place in the Tar Heel scoring.

The Navy, in winning the meet today, handed the Tar Heels their first defeat in three starts. The meet today was run under unfavorable conditions, with a steady downpour of rain and very cold weather hampering the trackmen in the various events.

Other Carolina men who picked up points in a losing cause include Mark Burnham in the mile run; Charlie Donnell in the 440; Ted Haigler in the 100; Charles Tietjen in the 880; Robert Francis in the two mile; R. F. Taylor in the low hurdles; Hank Hickman and Art Ward in the pole vault; Bob Riddle in the shot put.
