Truman Orders
Gov't Seizure
Of Coal Mines

Order Takes Effect
Shortly After Noon

The White House, May 21—President Truman this afternoon seized the soft coal mines, effective tomorrow. But White House Secretary Charles Ross indicates that the A. F. of L. United Mine Workers have yet to give a promise that they will keep the miners in the pit after the strike truce expires on Saturday. Interior Department Secretary J. A. Krug has been named federal manager of the mines.

Vice-Admiral Ben Morrell, the war-time head of the Seabees, has been named by Interior Secretary Krug as his deputy to take over the coal mines tomorrow. The government will officially take title to the mines just after noon tomorrow. Krug has called John L. Lewis to his office to appeal to him to keep the miners on the job.

Harold Stassen Asks
Administration Change

Chicago, May 21—One of the leading contenders for the Republican nomination for President, former Minnesota Governor Harold Stassen, has called for the removal of three key figures in the present administration. Stassen told the Inland Daily Press Association that Labor Secretary Schwelmbach, Commerce Secretary Wallace, and Economic Stabilizer Bowles should be removed.

Snyder Asks Aid
Of Nation's Bankers

St. Louis, May 21—Reconversion Director John Snyder has pleaded for the help of the nation's bankers in the government's fight against inflation. Speaking before the annual convention of the Missouri State Bankers Association, Snyder described inflation as "the most dangerous aftermath of war."

House Committee
Votes Navy Subsidy

Washington, May 21—The House Appropriations Committee has voted to give the Navy more than four and one-half billion dollars for its first full postwar year. The committee has lopped off about 25 per cent of what the Navy asked for, saying that until more is known about the atomic bomb, the nation's future cannot be determined.

Russian Evacuation
Of Iran Completed

Tehran, May 21—The Iranian government announced tonight that the Red Army evacuation of Azerbaijan was completed by May 6. This is the first official confirmation that the Red Army had pulled out of Azerbaijan by the scheduled deadline.

Ban on Perishable
Shipments Predicted

Chicago, May 21—A spokesman for the Association of American Railroads predicts that an embargo on perishable freight shipments will be ordered in Washington tomorrow. The rail spokesman says the embargo will ban all perishable shipments that cannot be delivered by noon Thursday—four hours before the new rail strike. See NEWS BRIEFS Page 4

Golden Fleece Taps 15 In Impressive Ceremonies

Two Faculty Members Get High Honor

Emack Is Revealed As Jason of Fleece

In impressive tapping rituals in darkened Memorial Hall, the Golden Fleece, highest men's honor society on the campus, Sunday night brought thirteen new students and two distinguished faculty members in their fold, a record of initiates for recent years. In their only public affair of the year, Jason of the group was revealed to be white robed Edward Emack, senior from Haverford, Pa.

The ceremonies, which immediately followed the yearly campus wide singing tournament sponsored by the Valkyries, highest women's honor organization on the campus, were introduced with the reading of the traditional legend of Jason and the Argonauts, and Jason's search for the Golden Fleece.

Added Suspense

As the house lights were cut, two spotlights from the stage followed a pair of black robed and hooded figures as they coursed slowly through the aisles and rows of the auditorium. A tremendous clap on the shoulders and the pinning with the Fleece colors, marked the admittance of the new members in to the Order.

Initiates and their order in tapping were: Westy Fenhagen, Delta Psi, and Daily Tar Heel managing editor; Bob Paxton, ROTC and well known varsity basketball player; Fred Flagler, Kappa Alpha, Yackety Yack editor; L. P. MacLendon, Jr.; Harry Russell, Delta Psi and popular professor of English; Dewey Dorsett, ATO, past president of the UVA; Charles Fulton, speaker of the legislature; Bob Stockton, student body secretary-treasurer.

Whit Osgood Wins Re-Election Vote As IFC President

Whit Osgood was re-elected president of the Interfraternity Council at the meeting of fraternity representatives last night in the Grail Room of Graham Memorial. Marriotte Stewart, Art Aronson, and Dick Badham were chosen vice-president, secretary, and treasurer, respectively.

Following the election of officers, the council discussed fraternity support of the Prague conference and postponed an address planned for this month by Esquire's fashion editor.

The council agreed to accept the old system of rushing for next year and decided that no changes in rushing rules would be made.

Ed Emack, who was revealed as Jason of the Golden Fleece when that high honorary society held its annual spring tapping in Memorial Hall Sunday night. Emack is a senior from Haverford, Pennsylvania and a Delta Psi.

UVA Retention Asked by Vets

Officer Elections Scheduled Tomorrow

At the meeting of the UVA Wednesday night, the membership present voted almost unanimously to retain the association on the campus. After reaching this decision, it was voted to have the May election tomorrow evening, at 7:30 p. m., in the main lounge of the Graham Memorial.

Committees were appointed to carry out full-scale plans for putting new life into the present organization and to bring about an even stronger and more effective UVA for the coming school year.

All veterans on the campus, especially those who are presently members of the UVA, are strongly urged to be present at the meeting tomorrow night for the election of new officers. Also, there will be an open discussion on plans for re-vamping the veterans' club house and making it an attractive social gathering place for all vets and their friends.

All vets who are members are asked to bring membership cards Thursday night.

Coeds Urged to Keep Swim Suits in Dorms

Women using the outdoor pool and wearing their own bathing suits must carry them back to their living quarters as there is no place in the Woman's Gym to keep them. Bathing suits now hung on the locker cage must be removed.

Those swimmers not wishing to wear their own bathing suits may wear the regular suits provided by the department.

Cancer Committeemen Asked to Make Report

All students who solicited in the dormitories for the Cancer Drive are requested to turn in their money to Mrs. Kay Ferrel, at the "Y" Building, at the earliest opportunity.

Four Named To New Staff Of Math Center

Four appointments to the Chapel Hill staff of the newly-organized All-University Institute of Statistics at State College and graduate department of Mathematical Statistics here were announced recently by President Frank P. Graham and Chancellor Robert B. House, following approval by the executive committee of the Board of Trustees.

The establishment of the two centers is expected to enable the consolidated University to become one of the two or three great centers of mathematical and experimental statistics in the world if current plans are effectuated.

The four men appointed to the staff here were employed as the result of a grant from the Rockefeller Foundation for the establishment of the Department.

They are Dr. William G. Madow, lecturer in statistics in the U. S. Department of Agriculture Graduate School and recently visiting professor of statistics at the University of Sao Paulo, Brazil; Dr. Pao-Lu Hsu, professor of mathematics in the University of Peking and former lecturer in the University Department of London Department of Applied Statistics; Dr. Herbert E. Robbins, assistant professor of mathematics in New York University and former staff member of the Post-graduate School of the U. S. Naval Academy; and Edward Paulson, a member of the Statistical Research group of the Division of War Research, Columbia University.

Sigma Nu Officers

Newly elected officers of the Sigma Nu fraternity are: Peter Beaudry, president; Clyde Parker, vice-president; George Byrum, secretary; Leslie White, treasurer; Joe Leary, chaplain.

Talented Playmaker Dancer Opens Return Showing Friday

Anne Osterhout of Beaufort, South Carolina, will be the featured girl dancer in the Carolina Playmakers outdoor production of "The School For Husbands," a comedy of song, ballet and rhyme, which opens in the Forest Theatre, Friday, at 8:30, for a three-day run.

Anne dances the part of the Shepherdess in the ballet interlude in this show, which is the Dream of Sganarelle, adapted from the ballet of "Le Marriage Force," originally danced by His Majesty Louis XIV and his court in 1664. She also has leading roles in other dance scenes throughout the play.

Totals at 11 P. M. Give Only Half of Vote; Total Balloting Expected to Pass 2300

The greatest number of votes ever cast in a general student election were made yesterday as approximately 2300 students went to the polls to elect their campus leaders.

At 11 o'clock last night, with slightly over half the total number of votes tabulated, Dewey Dorsett, independent candidate for student body president, held a substantial margin over Bill Crisp with 586 votes against 420 for Crisp.

Other presidential candidates' votes included 329 for Pete Pully, 201 for Blount Stewart, 189 for "Hungry" Bill Smith, 171 for A. B. Smith, 34 for Sellers.

Seniors Mark Barefoot Day Ceremonies

Continuing their series of events for the week, seniors will observe Barefoot Day today, which will be climaxed by a senior-faculty softball game beginning at 4 p. m. on Alexander Field.

Following the game, a swimming party for seniors and their guests will be held at the outdoor pool at 7:30.

Superlatives are being voted on today in the Y from 9 a. m. until 1 p. m. Nominations for superlatives were made Monday night at a senior class meeting which initiated Senior Week.

Tickets on Sale

Banquet tickets for Thursday night's banquet at the Carolina Inn may be purchased at the Y today. Prices will be 50 cents for seniors who present their class tickets and $1.50 for those who have not paid their fees. Seniors may also sign up in the Y today for the senior picnic.

The week will be climaxed by a formal dance in Woollen Gymnasium Saturday night at which time Tommy Reynolds and his orchestra will furnish the music. The dance is open to dues-paying juniors and seniors and their dates.

All seniors are urged to cooperate with the spirit of Barefoot Day today.

Graduate Student Presents Recital Tonight in Hill Hall

Mary B. Stringfield, graduate student of the music department, will present a piano recital in Hill Hall at 8:30 p. m. tonight. Miss Stringfield, pupil of Professor Jan P. Schinhan, will feature works from the pens of W. A. Mozart, Claude Debussy, and Frederic Chopin.

Miss Stringfield, a native of Mars Hill, has been a student of the University for three years, during which time she has been prominent in musical activities. She is a charter member of the local chapter of Sigma Alpha Iota, national music honorary fraternity. She was the recipient of the Kay Kyser Scholarship in Music for 1945-46. Her recital was previously scheduled for last week, but was postponed because of her illness.

Tickets Are On Sale For Cordon Concert Slated for Monday

Tickets are still on sale for the Norman Cordon concert to be presented here May 27 in Memorial hall at 8:30 p. m. Phi Mu Alpha members, who are sponsoring the concert, and Ledbetter-Pickard's, have tickets for sale.

Cordon, bass baritone of the Metropolitan Opera Association, is an alumnus of Carolina. He is not the only member of his college class to make his mark in the musical world. Classmates include such now famous names as "Skinny" Ennis, Kay Kyser, John Scott Trotter, and the late Hal Kemp.
