Mural Events Continue For Summer Term

Softball, Tennis Tournaments Slated

Intramural activities for the two summer terms took tentative shape yesterday as plans for holding softball and tennis tournaments were announced by Marvin Allen, head of the mural department.

The announcement also revealed that no awards will be offered for competitive activities, and that fraternity and dormitory teams will be entered in like softball circuits.

"There will be no restrictions on eligibility of players on the various teams," Mr. Allen stated, "and if two organizations want to combine and enter one squad they may do so."

The plans call for two softball tournaments, one for both of the summer terms. The number of leagues will be determined by the number of entries.

A tennis tournament which will be open to both men and coed students is planned along with several minor events. The net play will include doubles and singles, the same unrestricted eligibility governing as in softball.

Morrow Chosen Head Of Monogram Club

Mike Morrow, co-captain of next year's swimming squad, was elected president of the Monogram Club to serve from the beginning of the summer term until December.

Other officers are Jim Camp, vice-president; Ed Golding, secretary-treasurer; Dick Seaver, representative to the Athletic Council; Mike Rubish and Paul Gordy, social chairmen; and Taylor Thorne, historian.

Tar Heel Trackmen Prepare For Invitational AAU Meet

The Tar Heel cindermen are working this week in preparation for the Open Invitational A.A.U. Track and Field Meet, to be run on Fetzler field Saturday morning as a part of a sports-filled day that will wind up Spring athletics.

The meet will be open to amateur athletes by invitation and will include Junior and Senior Divisions. Incomplete entries to date show a large field from the Carolinas and Virginia, as well as several promising unattached entries.

Heading the entry list that has been received so far is the large entry sent in by the Southern Conference track champions for 1946, the Duke Blue Devils. The meet promises to be a continuation of the Conference meet two weeks ago, in which the Blue Devils edged out the Tar Heels for top honors.

Leading the 39 Duke field will be their star sprinters Doug Ausbon and Terry Maxwell and their middle-distance men Roger Neighborgall and Bill Simons. Also included in the Duke list of entries are the Blue Devil two-mile team of Davis and Palmer and field event stars O'Leary and Gardinier.

Carolina will enter a large field headed by hurdler Chunk Simmons, miler Mark Burnham, vaulters Norm McLeod and Hank Hickman, and javelin event man Henry Gifford.

Other teams that have sent in entries at press time include the AAF ORD team from Greensboro; the United States Marine team from Cherry Point, and the 82nd Airborne Division team, from Fort Bragg, all in the Senior Division of the meet.

In the Junior Division, high school and prep school teams entered to date include Raleigh High School, Granby High School from Norfolk, Va., Fayetteville High School, Huntington High School from Huntington, W. Va., Staunton Military Academy from Staunton, Va., and Boyden High School from Salisbury.

Several unattached individuals will add strength to the meet. Leading these is Dr. Bart Lindsey of Winston-Salem, who was formerly Southwestern Conference champion in the broad jump; James Miller, long distance man from Erie, Pa.; and Pvt. Elmer Klein from Fort Bragg, in the high jump and broad jump.

Phi Kaps Defeat Phi Gams In Softball Playoff, 5-3

By Billy Carmichael

Capitalizing on opponents' errors and playing heads-up softball, the hustling Phi Kappa Sigs took a one-game lead in the fraternity play-offs yesterday afternoon as they defeated the Phi Gams, 5-3. Bud Stanbach's single to right in the sixth, which scored Stevenson from second, proved the margin of victory.

Tony Jones was on the mound for the victors, notching his eleventh triumph in twelve starts, while big Ted Haigler was handling the pitching chores for the losers. It was Haigler's first defeat of the season.

The game was a loosely played affair all the way. The Phi Kaps got off to a two-run lead in the first when with one down Eglen reached first on an error, stole second and scored on Richardson's single over second. A moment later Richardson himself tallied when Rieser threw wild at second and then dropped the throw from the outfield.

The Phi Gams evened the count in the top half of the second. Bencini opened the inning with a sharp single and Raker walked. After Rieser had sacrificed the two along, Anderson booted Greene's bounder to short and all hands were safe. Haigler's squeeze bunt netted another run on a close play at the plate and it looked like a big inning for the Phi Gams. On the following play, however, Greene was picked off third base on a nice throw from Stanbach to Suggs and Ahrendts popped out to retire the side.

The Phi Kaps took the lead again in the last half of the second when Stanbach reached first on an error, stole second and scored on Rieser's overthrow. The Phi Gams knotted the score in the top of the fifth. With one out Rice tripled to deep center and scored on Tate's smashing single.

The sixth proved the lucky inning for the winners. With one down Stevenson doubled to left as Tate lost the ball in the sun, and Stanbach followed with his timely single. The latter scored a few minutes later on a passed ball and an infield out to put the game on ice.

Coaches to Select All-Big Four Squad

The All-Big Four mythical diamond squad as selected by the circuit coaches will be announced Saturday immediately following the Duke-Carolina baseball contest at Emerson field.

The honorary squad will be chosen by Coaches Vic Sorrel of State, Bunn Hearn of Carolina, Jack Coombs of Duke, and Murray Gleason of Wake Forest. Woody Woodhouse of WDCN in Durham, Jim Reid of WPTF in Raleigh, and Jack Horner of the Durham Morning Herald will do the tabulating.

Each coach has been asked to select one team including members of his own team, and one team composed of members of opposing nines only.

Team choices will include two catchers, five pitchers, a complete infield and outfield and two utility infielders and outfielders.

Votes will be tabulated on a point basis, those receiving the most points landing a berth.

Three Tallies in Eighth Give Game to Blue Devils

Hearmen Make Five Miscues in Inning After Errorless Ball for Seven Frames

By Bob Goldwater

Coombs Park, Durham, May 29—Leading by one run and playing errorless ball, the Tar Heels suddenly fell apart at the seams in the eighth inning here today and suffered their eighth Big Four loss as Duke's second-place ball club scored three runs on one hit and five errors to win, 6-4.

The defeat left Carolina with only one chance of escaping the loop cellar. With the two rivals slated to clash again on Emerson field Saturday, the Hearmen can pull into a third-place deadlock with Wake Forest by spilling the Blue Devils in the final contest of the campaign for both crews.

With a 4-3 advantage as they took the field for the last of the eighth, the Carolina defense showed its first signs of crumbling when Fred Ryan juggled Grady Stott's hard grounder to allow the Blue Devil outfielder to reach first. After Bakie Palmer's infield out had pushed Stott to second, Ed McCarthy singled to right and the parade of errors continued. Harry Beason's throw in sailed past catcher Jim Hayworth as Stott tallied the tying run and McCarthy scampered all the way to third before the ball was recovered. After a walk and another infield out had placed the Duke runners on second and third, two more miscues by Ryan brought in a pair of markers and with them went the ball game.

The winners lost little time in assuming the lead, combining two infield singles with a safe blow to the outfield in the first stanza to jump into a one-run lead. They scored again in the fourth on Stott's one-bagger, a passed ball, a disputed balk by hurler Hamp Coleman, and a
