Carolina AAU Swimming Scheduled For Saturday

Despite the crippling losses of his two aces, Dick Twining and Ben Ward, Coach Ralph Casey is working hard to prepare Carolina for a share of the laurels when the Carolinas A.A.U. open swimming meet is held in Kessing Pool here this Saturday. Gun time is 4 o'clock. Entries are piling up rapidly with letters from twenty North Carolina towns in addition to several out-of-state applications already in.

Diver Jim Calhoun of Fort Lauderdale, Florida, who was the runner-up in the National A. A. U. Championship tournament, will compete here Saturday. Carolina's own Earle, Sweigert, and Mosely will join with Cramer of Greensboro to give Calhoun the sort of competition he covets in the high spring board diving contests. This event, if it lives up to advance notices, may prove to be the most attractive of the meet. Harland, of Jacksonville Naval Air Station, runner-up in national diving meets, will also compete.

The women's division will be represented, with Miss Randy Hudson of Tarboro, the National breast-stroke champion, heading the field. Miss Frances Kenney of Carolina has been looking good in practice sessions for the 200-meter free style and in the back stroke.

Underdog Dolphins
Going into its first Southern meet in many a moon as the underdog, the Dolphins miss the stalwarts Twining (now in the Army) and Ward (athletic director at the "Bar-H" boys' camp at Henderson, North Carolina, for the summer). Thursday, in an intra-squad meet, Charley Berman took first place in the 100-meter breast-stroke and can be expected to show up well on Saturday. Dempsey and Bulkman tied in the 50-meter back stroke in what was not a particularly impressive run-off. Mike Morrow, president of the Monograms, took both the 50- and 100-meter free style swims. Snookie Proctor came in first in the 200-meter free-style; Miss Kenney led the coeds.

Coach Casey, whose record as a swimmer and as a developer of swimmers is an impressive one, expressed the desire to have as many students as are interested come out for the Dolphin card and promised an active summer session with the Regional A. A. U. Men's Swimming and Diving Tournament to be held here on August 23-24.

Kappa Sigs, Mangum, ATO Take Victories In Mural Softball

With the score tied until the last inning, Kappa Sig staged a three run rally to beat Chi Phi 10 to 7 in Monday's softball contest.

Mangum, sparked with two home runs by Hodges in the first and second innings, spanked St. Anthony with an 8 to 5 victory.

ATO piled up 13 runs in the first inning to wallop the Trailer Camp 21 to 9. Fahey pitched for ATO and Mashburn for the Trailer Camp.

With pitching by Jennings, Lewis beat Sigma Chi with Palmer pitching, 17 to 6.

Whitehead defeated the Betas 18 to 9. Willis, pitching for Whitehead and Andrews for the Betas allowed 11 hits each.

DKE behind the steady pitching of Kemp triumphed over Aycock 8 to 5. Phi Gam beat Old West 19 to 12. Barbour pitched for Phi Gam, Moore for Old West.

TEP defeated Sigma Nu 8 to 4. Silberger pitched for TEP, Hudgins for Sigma Nu.

Thursday Card To Have Swim, Boxing Events

Boxing Starts at 6:30 On Fetzer Field Ring

By Jim Pharr
Future Carolina athletes will have an opportunity to demonstrate their skill tomorrow night in a boxing program on Fetzer field followed by a swimming carnival to be held in the outdoor pool.

The boxing card will begin at 6:30 with local boys from eight to 14 years of age mixing up in the ring. The eight junior matches to be presented will include the outstanding boxers from among 30 boys who have been in training for the past three weeks for the event.

The boxing show will be followed by the swimming carnival in the outdoor pool, with the junior boys swimming races scheduled to begin at 8 p. m. to open the program. The junior races will include boys and girls in the 8-9, 9-10, 10-11, and 11-12 age groups.

From 8:30 to 9 o'clock the junior varsity and varsity swimmers will hold demonstration swim races, to be followed by demonstrations in diving by the varsity divers.

In case of rain the entire sports event will be held inside, officials have announced. Ralph Casey, swimming coach, is in charge of the swimming carnival and Mike Ronman, boxing coach, is in charge of the boxing show.

The boxing card follows, with the contestants divided into the black and the white squads.

American League Pounds National All-Stars 12-0

Boston, July 9—Lanky Ted Williams put on a tremendous show in his own back yard here in Fenway park today as he pounded two homers and garnered four hits in four trips to the plate to lead the American league all stars to a 12-0 triumph over an out-classed National league club in the 13th annual all-star contest.

Bobby Feller, Cleveland's fireball ace, hurled the first three innings for the winners to become the winning hurler. Claude Passeau, Chicago Cub righthander, started for the older circuit's representatives and was tagged with the defeat.

The slugging Americans went into a two run lead in the first inning when Williams walked and Yankee Charlie Keller socked a 360-foot homer into the rightfield bullpen. That started the rout and the winners kept right on hitting to roll up a total of 12 safeties against 4 National pitchers.

Hal Newhouser of Detroit and Jack Kramer of St. Louis followed Feller to the hill in shutting out the badly beaten visitors with three hits.

Lady: "Why are you so excited, little boy? Can't you sit still?"
Little Boy: "Lady, is that any question to ask a gentleman?"

CRIME CLUES
Can You Identify This Man?

CLUE 1: The man pictured above was one of a notorious gang of killers and kidnapers, consisting of four sons and their mother, who had trained the boys in their lawless ways almost from the time they took their first steps.

CLUE 2: All four sons were disposed of by federal authorities; the lifeless body of one was discovered in Wichita, Kansas, one was sentenced to 25 years in Leavenworth, and the other is serving a life sentence for kidnaping.

CLUE 3: The mother died with a machine gun in her hands, and the remaining son who is shown above met death at the hands of G-Men, who finally trapped him and his mother, notoriously known as "Ma," while they were hiding in Florida.
Answer:
Fred Barker, son of "Ma" Barker.

Her clothes were so designed that she always was seen in the best places.
