

The Daily Tar Heel

CHapel Hill, N. C., TUESDAY, JANUARY 14, 1947

NEWS BRIEFS

Cherry Asks $11 Million For State Universities

Cherry today asked the general assembly to appropriate $11 million for the expansion of state universities. He said the money would be used for the purchase of buildings, equipment and the hiring of faculty.

John L. Lewis C. I. O. Enters Case As Friend of Court

John L. Lewis, president of the C. I. O., today entered a brief in the Supreme Court case against the government's attempt to force the union to accept a government plan for the coal industry.

Truman and Marshall Confer by Telephone

President Truman and Secretary of State Marshall today conferred by telephone for the first time since their return from the Yalta conference.

Bilbo Being Prepared For Second Operation

Senator Bilbo today was being prepared for a second operation to remove a tumor from his chest. The operation is expected to be successful.

British Meat Workers Ask Labor for Strike

British meat workers today called upon organized labor for a nationwide general strike in protest against the use of troops to move foodstuffs.

Suspects Being Held In Bombing Incident

British authorities today are holding 10 suspects in connection with the bombing of the Haifa police station. The explosion killed four and injured more than 100.

Sugar Black Marketer Taken in New Mexico

A sugar black marketer today was taken in New Mexico. The man, who was operating a large sugar plantation, was found to be selling sugar at a price below the government's minimum.

Cherry Asks $11 Million For State Universities

Cherry today asked the general assembly to appropriate $11 million for the expansion of state universities. He said the money would be used for the purchase of buildings, equipment and the hiring of faculty.

John L. Lewis C. I. O. Enters Case As Friend of Court

John L. Lewis, president of the C. I. O., today entered a brief in the Supreme Court case against the government's attempt to force the union to accept a government plan for the coal industry.

Truman and Marshall Confer by Telephone

President Truman and Secretary of State Marshall today conferred by telephone for the first time since their return from the Yalta conference.

Bilbo Being Prepared For Second Operation

Senator Bilbo today was being prepared for a second operation to remove a tumor from his chest. The operation is expected to be successful.

British Meat Workers Ask Labor for Strike

British meat workers today called upon organized labor for a nationwide general strike in protest against the use of troops to move foodstuffs.

Suspects Being Held In Bombing Incident

British authorities today are holding 10 suspects in connection with the bombing of the Haifa police station. The explosion killed four and injured more than 100.

Sugar Black Marketer Taken in New Mexico

A sugar black marketer today was taken in New Mexico. The man, who was operating a large sugar plantation, was found to be selling sugar at a price below the government's minimum.

Government Recommends Use of Surplus Funds to Provide for Expansion of University

The governor today recommended that surplus funds be used to provide for the expansion of state universities. He said the money would be used for the purchase of buildings, equipment and the hiring of faculty.

Women Asked to Make Room Reservations Now for Summer Term

The office of the Dean of Women today asked students to make room reservations for the summer term. The deadline for reservations is March 1.

Bader to Address Religious Group

Dr. Jesse M. Bader of the Federal Council of Churches today will address a religious group. The group is the Religion in Life Week protestant planning group.

Weather Hampers Test of Army Drone Plane

Weather today hampered the test of an Army drone plane. The plane was being tested in the Florida area.

State Press Group to Meet in Chapel Hill Next Week

A state press group today announced that it will meet in Chapel Hill next week. The group is the Newspaper Correspondents Association.

March of Dimes Drive Begins Thursday

The March of Dimes drive today begins on Thursday. The drive is to raise money for the fight against polio.

SES Presents Jooss Ballet In Program Monday Evening

The Student Entertainment Society today presents the Jooss Ballet in a program Monday evening. The ballet is a modern dance.

Student Union Sponsors Band Duke Ambassadors To Give Concert

The Student Union today sponsors a concert by the Duke Ambassadors. The concert is to be given in the Swain hall.

Phi Plans to Discuss Humor Mag Argument

The Phi Kappa Psi chapter today plans to discuss the argument over the University Magazine's recommendation of a humor magazine.

Trip The Light Fantastic...

The Yackety Yack club today will meet for a trip. The trip is to be taken at that time.

Townsend to Coach Dancers In New Eight-Week Series

Bill Townsend today announced that he will coach dancers in a new eight-week series. The series is to be held in the Woollen gymnasium.

March of Dimes Drive Begins Thursday

The March of Dimes drive today begins on Thursday. The drive is to raise money for the fight against polio.

SES Presents Jooss Ballet In Program Monday Evening

The Student Entertainment Society today presents the Jooss Ballet in a program Monday evening. The ballet is a modern dance.

Student Union Sponsors Band Duke Ambassadors To Give Concert

The Student Union today sponsors a concert by the Duke Ambassadors. The concert is to be given in the Swain hall.

Phi Plans to Discuss Humor Mag Argument

The Phi Kappa Psi chapter today plans to discuss the argument over the University Magazine's recommendation of a humor magazine.

Trip The Light Fantastic...

The Yackety Yack club today will meet for a trip. The trip is to be taken at that time.

Townsend to Coach Dancers In New Eight-Week Series

Bill Townsend today announced that he will coach dancers in a new eight-week series. The series is to be held in the Woollen gymnasium.

March of Dimes Drive Begins Thursday

The March of Dimes drive today begins on Thursday. The drive is to raise money for the fight against polio.

SES Presents Jooss Ballet In Program Monday Evening

The Student Entertainment Society today presents the Jooss Ballet in a program Monday evening. The ballet is a modern dance.

Student Union Sponsors Band Duke Ambassadors To Give Concert

The Student Union today sponsors a concert by the Duke Ambassadors. The concert is to be given in the Swain hall.

Phi Plans to Discuss Humor Mag Argument

The Phi Kappa Psi chapter today plans to discuss the argument over the University Magazine's recommendation of a humor magazine.

Trip The Light Fantastic...

The Yackety Yack club today will meet for a trip. The trip is to be taken at that time.

Townsend to Coach Dancers In New Eight-Week Series

Bill Townsend today announced that he will coach dancers in a new eight-week series. The series is to be held in the Woollen gymnasium.

Ulla Soederbaum, danseuse with the Jooss Ballet, will appear with that group here Monday. She will be featured in the ballet, "Big City."

Daily Tar Heel Sponsors Drive

The Daily Tar Heel today sponsors a drive. The drive is to raise money for the fight against polio.

Woestendiek Names Campaign Leaders

Woestendiek today names campaign leaders. The leaders are to be in charge of the drive.

March of Dimes Drive Begins Thursday

The March of Dimes drive today begins on Thursday. The drive is to raise money for the fight against polio.

SES Presents Jooss Ballet In Program Monday Evening

The Student Entertainment Society today presents the Jooss Ballet in a program Monday evening. The ballet is a modern dance.

Student Union Sponsors Band Duke Ambassadors To Give Concert

The Student Union today sponsors a concert by the Duke Ambassadors. The concert is to be given in the Swain hall.

Phi Plans to Discuss Humor Mag Argument

The Phi Kappa Psi chapter today plans to discuss the argument over the University Magazine's recommendation of a humor magazine.

Trip The Light Fantastic...

The Yackety Yack club today will meet for a trip. The trip is to be taken at that time.

Townsend to Coach Dancers In New Eight-Week Series

Bill Townsend today announced that he will coach dancers in a new eight-week series. The series is to be held in the Woollen gymnasium.