Cherry Favors Highest Raise Of 20 Per Cent

Says Greater Hikes Threatens Budget

Raleigh, Jan. 14—(UP)—Governor Cherry has said that he would not favor more than 20 per cent pay raise for teachers and state employees—even if a joint House and Senate Conference Committee should iron out the so-called inequalities in the proposal for a greater increase.

The governor says more than a 20 per cent raise would throw the salary schedule and budget out of balance. He says he considered the amount of increase with the Budget Commissions, and 20 per cent seemed to be the fairest amount possible.

Reappointed Representatives

House Speaker Tom J. Pearsall says when the House receives formal notice tomorrow that the Senate has failed to concur in the House amendment for a higher pay raise, he will appoint five representatives to the conference committee.

The Senate has turned down the House salary increase plan by a vote of 31 to 19. The upper chamber originally passed the bill recommended by the governor—giving an average 20 per cent raise—but the House amended it to give 30 per cent in the lowest bracket, 25 per cent in the middle pay scales, and $45 a month to persons making between $2700 and $6600 a year.

Clark Accuses Lewis Of Insulting U. S.

The Supreme Court, Jan. 14—(UP)—Attorney General Tom Clark has accused John L. Lewis and his mine union of insulting the United States and inviting mob rule by refusing the call off of the coal strike last fall. Clark told the Supreme Court that the strike caused near-disaster. The Attorney General personally handled the government's contempt case before the high court. Attorneys for Lewis and his union denied they had defied the government. They charged the government's action was illegal.

Major Airlines Feel Air Travel Slump

New York, Jan. 14—(UP)—Most major airlines agree that air travel has slumped considerably in recent weeks, but they don't expect the decline to continue. They blame the slump primarily, on an overall recession in business, and only partly on recent crack-ups.

The President of the United Air Lines—W. A. Patterson—says that it will take at least three years to install all the devices necessary for flying safety.

Atlantic Shipping Disturbed by Storm

New York, Jan. 14—(UP)—An eight day North Atlantic storm which has reached hurricane proportions has thrown shipping far off schedule. Ships arriving in New York were 17 hours to five days late, and a disabled fishing trawler with 17 men aboard is missing for the fourth day about 100 miles off Boston.

United Steel Workers File Strike Notices

Washington, Jan. 14—(UP)—The United Steel workers have filed formal 30-day strike notices against some one-thousand steel companies. This does not necessarily mean, a walkout will be called. Notices generally are filed on the eve of new wage talks.

Curtailed supplies of chalk from the cliffs of Dover during World War II handicapped cigarette paper production.

WEATHER TODAY

Cloudy with considerable fog and drizzle and little temperature change this morning, followed by partly cloudy and slightly warmer this afternoon.

Flynn Talk Cancelled; IRC Presents Izzedin Tonight

IRC Introduces World Authority On Arab Nations

Conflicts of world interest in the Middle East will come into sharp debate this evening when Dr. Nejlá Izzedin, prominent woman authority on the Arab countries, speaks at 8:30 o'clock in the Graham Memorial main lounge.

Dr. Izzedin's address will be sponsored by the International Relations club and refreshments will be served at a reception following the meeting. Now on a tour for the Carnegie Peace foundation, the speaker is associated with the Arab League's Washington office and was a delegate to the San Francisco world conference.

"We hope that everyone will take advantage of this opportunity to hear this outstanding Arab woman scholar," said IRC President Betty Anne Green. "Reports from other universities where Dr. Izzedin has spoken refer to her as one of the most successful speakers ever sponsored by the Carnegie foundation."

Dr. Nejlá Izzedin is a member of the prominent Lebanon Druze family, Arab leaders and scholars for the past 500 years. She has studied at the American University of Beirut, the Lycee Racine in Paris, Vassar college and the University of Chicago and has taught political science and Arab history for many years at various near eastern universities.

The International Relations club has sponsored in past years such prominent leaders as Senator Joseph Ball and former ambassador to Japan, Joseph Grew. In addition to their speaker programs, the IRC conducts faculty forums and intercollegiate meetings on foreign affairs.

Dr. C. H. Pegg, professor of history, is faculty adviser to the student organization, which meets regularly every Monday evening in Graham Memorial for round table discussion.

'Will Want to Hang Me' Says Bilbo of New Book

(By United Press)

New Orleans, Louisiana—Senator Theodore Bilbo has laid bare some of the writings in his soon-to-be published book, "Take Your Choice—Segregation or Mongrelization." And "The Man" says some of it will make some persons in Washington want to hang him.

One thing that Bilbo will say in his book is this: "I entertain no hatred or prejudice against any human being on account of his race or color—God made them so."

But he will add: "It is indeed a sorry white man or white woman who, when put on notice of the inevitable result of mongrelization of their race, are yet unwilling to put forth any effort to save themselves and their offspring from this great and certain calamity."

And he'll wind up: "You must take your choice."

Five chapters of the book already have been galley-proofed. It has an introduction written by Colonel Ernest Sevier Cox, of Richmond, Virginia, who is author of the book "White American." The preface written by Bilbo himself, reads:

"This... is not a condemnation or denunciation of any race, white, black or yellow."

Free Darkroom Instruction Offered by Graham Memorial

Free instruction in photography and lab work is the recent offer coming from C. B. Brasington, manager of Graham Memorial's student darkroom. The course is open to all students who wish to develop and print their own pictures.

Brasington will be in the Graham Memorial office every week day afternoon from 1 until 2 to arrange for the free lessons, give out darkroom membership cards and discuss any problems that might arise in student photographic work.

The darkroom has undergone repairs and improvements during the past month and is now open for the benefit of students interested in do-

UVA Invites McIver Coeds To Entertainment Tonight

The University Veterans association will inaugurate a new series of weekly entertainments tonight at 8 o'clock in the new veterans' club. Coeds of McIver dormitory will be the guests at the party.

The open houses will be on the same order as those given by the UVA in the NROTC armory last quarter and are planned to continue through the winter quarter, Jim Farlow, business manager of the club has announced.

Special Program

A special program of entertainment has been arranged for intermission of the dancing tonight. Starting at 9:30, Pinky Barnes, as master of ceremonies, and Gwen Hughes, well-known campus songstress, will lead off the bill on entertainment accompanied by Bob McDonald at the piano.

McDonald, a boogie-woogie artist, will also play some of his special arrangements.

Don Shields, who has made a name for himself at previous entertainments, will appear again with imitations. Rounding out the program will be the Gordon twins and their harmonica combination.

Campus Competition Begins In March of Dimes Tomorrow

Coeds to Keep Collections Table in Y; Solicitors Will Canvass All Dormitories

Tomorrow marks the inauguration of the local March of Dimes drive on the Carolina campus as a student committee begins the campaign to reach a $5,000 quota.

Working hand in hand with the committee in charge of the community drive, the campus campaign, sponsored by the Daily Tar Heel, will feature competition between the men's and women's dormitories, fraternities and sororities, and other campus groups. Coeds will be on duty in the Y to collect money from students living in town and all others desirous of donating additional money to the drive. Individual solicitors will cover the rest of the campus.

Students are requested to make the drive more successful than ever before in its history by contributing a dollar instead of a dime to the march against polio, the nation's most dreaded disease. If each student will contribute one dollar, the student committee expects little difficulty in going over the top in the drive.

The money collected in Chapel Hill will be used to help purchase an iron lung for infantile paralysis victims. It will also go towards caring for those now suffering from the disease and any future victims. Since latest figures reveal that it costs seven dollars daily to treat a polio victim, it is apparent that much money must be collected this year. Thousands of items are needed in hospitals throughout the country.

Has Spent $20,000,000

In the eight years of its existence the National Foundation has authorized nearly $20,000,000 for research, epidemic aid and education. Funds from the March of Dimes made this possible.

Half of the sum contributed to the March of Dimes is retained by the local chapter for care of infantile paralysis patients. The other half goes to national headquarters for research, training and education, and emergency aid in epidemics.

DTH Staff Pictures To Be Taken Today

All regular members of the business, editorial and news staffs of the Daily Tar Heel are asked to attend a staff meeting this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the office. Pictures for the Yackety Yack will be taken.

Dormitory Rooms Will Be Searched

Bill Smith, University manager of dormitories reiterated yesterday his warning to students that an investigation of all dormitory rooms for illegal electrical appliances will be made in the immediate future.

Keeping of hot plates, electric coffee pots, flat irons and all electrical devices other than lamps and radios in dormitory rooms is a violation of University rules, Smith pointed out. He advised that owners of such items send them home immediately.

All contraband electric items found in rooms will be confiscated by the investigators and will not be returned until the end of the quarter.

The first meeting of the new series of figure sketch classes met last night in Person hall under the instruction of Joe Rankin.

The class was first organized during the fall quarter to meet the desires of interested persons who wanted to draw but were unable to enroll in one of the regular studio classes.

Meetings will be every Tuesday and Thursday evening from 7 to 10 o'clock. Further information is obtainable from Miss Lynette Warren in her office at Person hall art gallery.

SCHW Meets Tonight In Graham Memorial

The Southern Conference for Human Welfare will hold its first meeting of the year tonight, at 7:30 in the Horace Williams lounge of Graham Memorial. Elections of new officers for the quarter will be held and members and friends are urged to attend.

Floridians to Form State Club Tomorrow

All University students from Florida are invited to attend the organizational meeting of the Florida club at 7:30 tomorrow evening in Roland Parker lounge of Graham Memorial. Officers will be elected at this meeting and a diplans for future activities will be made.

Duke Band Concert Postponed by Exams

The Duke Ambassadors will not appear here in concert tomorrow night as announced in the Daily Tar Heel yesterday. Due to exams at Duke University the Ambassadors will not come here, under Graham Memorial sponsorship until early next month.

Word was received at press time last night that Elizabeth Gurley Flynn (above) who was scheduled to speak this evening is seriously ill in Richmond, Va., and will not be able to fulfill her engagement. The CPU expects to present Miss Flynn at a later date.

Communist Leader Is Seriously Ill; To Appear Later

Word was received just prior to press time last night that Elizabeth Gurley Flynn, chairman of the woman's committee of the Communist party, would not be able to speak as scheduled this evening. The announcement was made by Jerry Davidoff, chairman of the Carolina Political Union, which was to have sponsored Miss Flynn's talk.

Davidoff stated that he had just received word from Richmond that the Communist leader, a regular columnist on the Daily Worker, had been taken seriously ill in the city.

The address, which had aroused much interest on the campus, was due to have been delivered in Gerrard hall this evening to an expected capacity audience.

May Come Later

The last minute cancellation had been effected when Miss Flynn's southern tour manager called to report the illness and to state that Miss Flynn hoped to fulfill her engagement by speaking at the University upon her recovery, Davidoff told the Daily Tar Heel.

Miss Flynn's talk, the first in this year's CPU speaker presentation series, was expected to have been followed several weeks later by an address by Oregon's Republican Senator, Wayne Morse. No further details on that matter were available.

York Calls Meeting Of Dormitory Council

Men's Interdormitory Council will meet tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock in section 1 of Roland Parker lounge in Graham Memorial. Ed York, president, has called the meeting to dispense with several important items on the agenda. Yackety Yack pictures will be taken at 8 o'clock. All dormitory counselors and presidents are requested to be present.

British Increase Palestine Troops

Cairo, Jan. 14—(UP)—British troops in Palestine have been increased to almost 100,000 by the arrival of a brigade from Egypt. The transfer comes at a time when the British are reported to be preparing for a showdown with the Jewish underground.

Peace Group To Be Formed

World Federalists Will Convene Today

David Andrews, one of Carolina's many world federation advocates, announced today that student advocates for federal world government will get under way this afternoon with a meeting of all interested students at 4:15 in the Grail room of Graham Memorial.

The purpose of this open meeting of all who are interested in world government as a possible means for preserving peace, is to discuss ways to present world federation facts and ideas to the campus with a minimum of organizational red-tape.

Cooperate with Others

They hope to accomplish this end by making full use of the facilities for campus discussion and outside speakers offered by existing student organizations, such as the Dialectic senate and Philanthropic society, the Carolina Political Union and International Relations club, and the American Veterans committee. Members of these and similar groups are especially urged to attend the meeting this afternoon.

FROM WAR TO PEACE

Boston (UP)—A rumpus-room target rifle has been developed by Melvin M. Johnson, Jr., whose semi-automatic rifle and light machine gun earned him the acclaim of the Allied military services in World War II.

UNC Alumnus Johnson To Address Convocation

UN Representative to Speak January 24; All 11 o'clock Classes Will Be Excused

First student convocation of the quarter will be held Friday morning, January 24. Herschel V. Johnson, University alumnus and at present United States representative at the meetings of the Security Council of the United Nations, will deliver the address.

Classes usually held at eleven o'clock will be omitted on that day.

Second in Series

Mr. Johnson's address will be the second in the series of University Convocation addresses inaugurated by Professor R. D. W. Connor on December 4, 1946, when he spoke on "A State Experiment in Higher Education."

A third convocation address is scheduled for February 26, which will be given by Dr. Paul Lehman, associate religious book editor of the Westminister press of Philadelphia. Two addresses are being planned for the spring quarter, but as yet the speakers and topics are not ready for announcement.

Long Career as Diplomat

Johnson, an alumnus of the University of the class of 1916, has attained a place of conspicuous distinction and responsibility in the diplomatic service of his country. From graduate work at Harvard he entered the diplomatic service in 1920. During his career in the foreign service he has held diplomatic posts in various countries of the world including Switzerland, Honduras, Mexico, England, Sweden and Bulgaria in addition to service in the Department of State in Washington where he was Chief of the Division of Mexican Affairs from 1930 to 1934.

From this post he was transferred to London serving successively as first secretary of embassy, counselor of embassy and counselor with the rank of minister.

In England, Sweden

At numerous important junctures in the fateful first years of World War II he was the responsible head of the United States embassy in London as charges d'affaires ad interim. In 1941 he was appointed United States minister to Sweden and remained there to the end of the war. Since the organization of the United Nations he has represented the United States at the meetings of the Security Council at Lake Success, New York.
