

BILL SASSER

LARRY BROWN

Sasser, Brown Give Concert Tonight

Bill Sasser (left) and Larry Brown (right) senior music majors will present a series of original piano duets tonight at 8:30 o'clock in Hill hall. Sasser, well-known for his work as musical director of Sound and Fury, is from Wilson. Brown, from Asheville, makes his initial appearance on the campus with tonight's performance.

The program will consist mostly of work by French composers. The selections include Mozart's "Sonata in D Major," "Le Beau Jardin," by Dupin; "Epigraphes Antiques," by Debussy; and "Dolly," by Faure.

DANCE DRESS CHANGED

The Alpha/Gamma Delta dance to be held in the Woman's gymnasium tomorrow evening has been changed to formal dress for dates and optional for stags.

The 1947 March of Dimes Campaign, January 15-30, is dedicated to the memory of our greatest President, Franklin Delano Roosevelt, Founder of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis

More striking than any monument which might be erected to Franklin Delano Roosevelt is the organized fight against poliomyelitis which he inaugurated and personally symbolized in his lifetime.
