

EDITORIAL:

- Crux of Carolina Politics
- CPU Round-Table
- World Affairs

The Daily Tar Heel

THE ONLY COLLEGE DAILY IN THE SOUTHEAST

VOLUME LV United Press CHAPEL HILL, N. C. SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 1947 NUMBER 113

NEWS:

- Gilles Guilbert's Recital
- Co-Op Order Meeting
- Mag Distributed Tomorrow

NEWS BRIEFS

Plane Crashes During Storm; 16 People Die

Portugal Is Scene Of Latest Crack-Up

Lisbon, Feb. 1—(UP)—Sixteen persons were killed today when an air France transport crashed at Cintra, a town 12 miles north of Lisbon, during a storm. One person survived, but is reported badly injured.

The twin-engined Dakota type plane burst into flames as soon as it hit the ground. The flames hampered the work of rescue crews that rushed through the mountainous country to the crash site from the Lisbon airport.

First Reports Sketchy
First report of this disaster are sketchy. There's also a contradiction on the number of persons aboard. Officials at Le Bourget Field in Paris say that there were 11 passengers and five crew members aboard. This is one less than the number reported in dispatches from Lisbon.

Three fire trucks and an ambulance were rushed to the scene, but there was little they could do. Reports from the first group to reach the wreckage say that most of the bodies were badly burned. It's believed that all of the passengers were French or Portuguese. An Air France official in Paris says a passenger list will not be released until tomorrow.

The plane was the same type as the one in which Grace Moore, Prince Gustaf Adolf of Sweden and 20 others were killed last Sunday while taking off from Copenhagen.

Truman Thinks Meeting Of Big Three Needless

New York, Feb. 1—(UP)—President Truman's comment against the need for a Big Three meeting was prompted by an interview with Josef Stalin which Elliott Roosevelt published in Look magazine. In the article, Stalin was quoted as saying that frequent Big Three meetings would prove valuable.

Palestine Americans Not To Be Evacuated

Washington, Feb. 1—(UP)—A State Department spokesman says there are no plans to evacuate the some 4900 Americans in Palestine. The statement followed President Truman's dismissal of an unofficial appeal from Winston Churchill that the United States help restore peace in the Holy Land.

Laws Not Solution, Says William Green

Miami, Fla., Feb. 1—(UP)—A. F. of L. President William Green says industry-labor agreement, not legislation, is the answer to the problem of jurisdictional disputes. He says he is happy that President Truman was able to announce a no-work-stoppage agreement for the building industry.

Enlistments Signify Longer Draft Holiday

Washington, Feb. 1—(UP)—Observers report that the rate of enlistments indicates that the draft holiday will continue until March 31st when the Selective Service Act expires. Volunteers have been filling the quotas.

British Battlewagon Narrowly Misses Mine

Portsmouth, England, Feb. 1—(UP)—The British battleship, Vanguard, on which the Royal family is sailing to South Africa, was in serious trouble for a while today. A mine was reported drifting toward the ship, but a dramatic Admiralty warning sent other British warships to the scene. They located the mine and guided the Vanguard safely through the danger area.

Co-op To Sponsor New Order Meeting

By a unanimous vote, the 56 members of the Daily Tar Heel staff, Thursday afternoon nominated Barron Mills, rising senior from Laurinburg, as their choice for editor next year. At present Mills is DTH desk editor.

Yale Professor To Give Lecture Tonight on 'Jesus'

Dr. Clarence Tucker Craig of the Yale University Divinity school will give the third in the year's series of University Sermons this evening at 8 o'clock in Hill hall, under the sponsorship of the Council for Religion in Life.

Formerly of the faculty of the Divinity school at Oberlin college, and now a professor of the New Testament, Dr. Craig, appropriately will speak on "Jesus."

In 1943 he received the high distinction of election to deliver the lectures on "Jesus" on the Shaffer foundation at Yale. He is a member of the American Theological committee of the World Conference on Faith and Order, and played an important role in the revised translation of the New Testament.

Sponsor for the talk, the CRIL, has organized the series of lectures this year around the Hazen books on religion. The Council on this campus is organized, according to president David Andrews, "to bring about greater cooperation among all the religious groups in the community."

German Judge's Home Is Bombed by Enemies

Nuernberg, Germany, Feb. 1—(UP)—The home of Camille Sacks, president of German denazification court trying Franz von Papen, was bombed tonight.

Army officials say the assailants were not identified, but that the bomb was home-made.

Early reports say no one was injured and damage consisted only of broken windows. But these could not be confirmed because military police cordoned off the entire area.

Von Papen, Nazi diplomat acquitted as a war criminal by the International Military tribunal, is on trial by the purely-German court, charged with aiding and influencing the rise of Nazism.

The same court sentenced Hans Fritzsche, who was responsible for Adolf Hitler's radio propaganda, to nine years imprisonment.

SP to Convene Today In Candlelight Room

There will be an open meeting of the Student party at 4 o'clock this afternoon in the Candlelight room of Graham Memorial. Temporary chairman Jack Booraem stressed that the meeting is open and urged all interested students, regular members or not, to attend. Nominations for the spring elections will be considered at this time.

Club's Aims Are No Bottlenecks; More Stock Sold

By Ken Rothwell

Following an executive meeting Friday night co-op officials announced that the buying club will sponsor another order meeting on Monday, February 10 at 7:45 o'clock in 103 Bingham hall.

Main business of Friday's meeting, according to chairman Tom McDade, was the formulation of plans designed to eliminate bottlenecks which slowed down the last meeting. Included among these is a new method of ordering which will speed the process considerably. In addition it was decided, as a matter of convenience to co-op customers, to accept orders in multiples of threes rather than case lots.

Sell More Stock

Stock salesmen will again be on hand to sell shares in the organization to students and townspeople interested in joining. Membership is open to anyone who purchases one share at one dollar per share. Co-op officials stressed that this stock bears interest at 5 per cent per year in addition to permitting purchase of groceries at wholesale prices.

"While we are primarily operating for the benefit of married veterans by the very nature of a co-operative organization membership is open to everyone. We welcome all, both veteran and non-veteran," said McDade.

Take More Orders

Orders taken at next Monday's meeting will be delivered the following Saturday, February 15. In connection with this Dr. J. M. Lear, who has been handling co-op purchases, stressed that co-operation on the part of all would be necessary.

"A co-op operates through the participation of its members. It is only in this way that we eliminate the overhead, which results in high prices. We hope that our members will be willing

See CO-OP, page 4

YMCA's Student Directory Now Ready for Distribution

The Student Directory for 1946-47 has now been printed and is ready for distribution. The YMCA plans to have them distributed to all dormitories, sorority houses, fraternity houses, trailer camps and Victory Village. Faculty members will be able to secure copies through their departments.

The directory contains a complete list of students, faculty, administrative and clerical staffs in alphabetical order. Due to the crowded and ever-changing resident situation in Chapel Hill it is impossible to include the city directory in this publication.

Printed by the Orange Printshop and supported in part by the merchants of Chapel Hill this directory is published annually by the University YMCA.

A master directory is maintained at the YMCA office and corrected daily as addresses change. Students and faculty are asked to notify this office of any change in your address.

Carolina Mag Is Due Tomorrow

Issue Is Labeled As 'Diversified'

By Sam Whitehall

January's Carolina Magazine, due for distribution tomorrow will feature a survey of student government, according to a preview of the issue by Editor Fred Jacobson.

Lead article in the magazine will be an informative appraisal of the many campus organizations by writer-legislator Tom Eller. Given free rein by the editors, Eller has surveyed the many student-controlled groups at UNC, summed up their successes and failures during the fall quarter.

Stallings Satire Cartoon

In addition to the Eller article, there are pages devoted to the honorary societies and a story on Graham Memorial's latest activities in the cultural field. A satire on campus politicians and Clyde Stallings caricatures of current BMOC's provide the humor in the student government section. Determined to raise the quality of Carolina magazine Editor Fred Jacobson has predicted that "winter quarter magazines will be among the best, and should prove varied enough in content to appeal to every student." February issue of the magazine is due tomorrow.

Valkyries, highest woman's honorary society on campus, tapped five new coeds into the organization Wednesday morning. Members of the Valkyries, are selected on the basis of character, leadership, scholarship, sound judgment and unselfish service to the University and membership is limited to 2 per cent of the coed student body. The new initiates, left to right, are: Kit Coleman, Fran Golden, Liz Barnes, Jerry Atkins, and Janet Johnston.

Officers of the group are: Blanch Jacobi, president, Ann Cutts, vice-president, Carlisle Cashion, secretary, Nancy Laird, treasurer.

Other members of the organization are, Jean Dricoll, Gerry Smith, Sybil Goerch Powe, Tommie Holden, and associate member, Peggy Jurgensen.

Guilbert To Play Here Tomorrow

French Pianist Comes Direct to Carolina After Tour in Central, Southern Europe

Direct from a widely acclaimed tour of central and southern Europe comes Gilles Guilbert, one of the most noted pianists of our time. He is scheduled to appear in a free performance tomorrow evening at 8:30 o'clock in Hill music hall, under the auspices of Graham Memorial.

Refused to Collaborate

The French master of the ivories has a wide international reputation, having been acclaimed for performances throughout Europe, Canada, and the United States. He was recalled to Canada three times in the past year for recitals, and is solidly booked there for his next tour into the North.

Second Tour of U. S.

This is Guilbert's second tour of the U. S. The first was in 1939, shortly before he temporarily terminated his concert career in Europe to go in hiding from the Nazis. During World War II, he played with small jazz units to hide his identity from the Gestapo.

As he heads for Chapel Hill for his concert tomorrow night, the French virtuoso leaves behind him ringing acclamations of audiences in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, and Washington, D. C. From here, his tour takes him to the mid-west, California, Mexico, and South America. To escape the unforgivable crime of collaboration with the German conquerors of France, who wanted him to entertain with their musical units, Guilbert went from tavern to cabaret, working with small bands—staying at one until he was recognized by the enemy, disappearing "out the back door," as he puts it, and turning up in another part of the country at a similar job.

When France was finally liberated, he weighed but 107 pounds, his strength and nerves considerably weakened. In the space of a year, however, he regained his full health, and now plays with a nimbleness and vigor that belie his wearing experiences of the war-torn years.

Thief Steals New Car One Block from Police

Raleigh, Feb. 1—(UP)—Raleigh police have discovered a new way to get a new car. A thief who knew what he wanted broke into an automobile agency in Raleigh only one block from police headquarters, picked out a shiny black two-door Buick, and calmly drove it out of the showroom. It was as easy as that, because the automobile had already been sold and was gassed up ready to go.

FLOUR GOT YOU A DIVORCE

Madison, Wis. — (UP) — Divorce cost twice as much as marriage in Wisconsin's early days. Historical records show that a trader appointed justice of the peace in Prairie du Chien in 1806 charged 100 pounds of flour for a marriage ceremony, but 200 pounds "for dissolving the marriage-relationship."

'Dear Congress' Is S & F Title

Student Drama Set To Appear March 3

Rehearsals for Sound and Fury's March production, "Dear Congress," will begin tomorrow night at 6:30 in Memorial hall. The early starting time has been fixed in order not to conflict with the NYU basketball game, Art Golby, director, announced yesterday.

The majority of the parts in the show will be assigned during the rehearsal and scripts will be distributed. All persons listed below should, without fail, attend the opening session.

There are still some openings left in the cast, and anyone interested in the production should plan to be on hand.

The show is scheduled to open March 3 and run for three days.

Those who have been cast in the show are as follows:

Sam Greene, Fran Avera, Norm Sper, Joyce Peterson, George Grizzard, Don Draper, Jim Gieger, Don Shields, Marvin Lentz, Betty Jo Blanton.

Tread Covington, John Shearin, Erwin Danziger, John MacBride, Bob Finehout, Larry Goldrich, Chris Craft, Pete Strader, Eleanor Rodd, Doris Gilliam.

Bailey Hobgood, Gil Ferguson, Bob Dockham, Marvin Horton, Richard Katzin, Jim Woods, Phyllis Isenhower, Jack Armstrong, Hallie Dockery, Coline Smith, Ben Kisler, Evelyn Pettit, Joyce Corbett, Jo Benton, Barbara Lynn, Ward Peacock.

Jay Franklin, Norm Kohler, Jud Kinberg, Frank Levy, Danny Daum, Marvin Wilson, Sid Epstein.

Anyone interested in technical work or in the business end of production are also asked to attend the meeting.

CPU Will Discuss Economy Measures At Session Tonight

Tonight's CPU roundtable discussion will center around the Employment act of 1946, and carry in its orbit the important economic questions of commodity prices, labor markets and other related topics. Jay Foss, senior Union member from Massachusetts, will deliver the introductory report.

Jerry Davidoff, chairman of the CPU, has been in Washington over the weekend, attempting to line up speakers and make definite dates for the remainder of the winter quarter and the early part of the spring term. Should he return in time, Davidoff will report to the Union on his interviews with leading figures on Capitol Hill.

Applications for vacancies in the CPU's charter-limited membership are still available at the YMCA information desk. The Union's membership committee will conduct interviews later in the week.

Tonight's meeting takes place at 8 in the Grail room, Graham Memorial.

GLEE CLUB MEETS EARLY

The regular rehearsal of the men's glee club is scheduled to meet at 4:30 instead of at 5 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

WEATHER TODAY

Clear and colder.