

EDITORIAL:

- No Constitutional Changes
- I'd Rather Be Right
- Listen Students

The Daily Tar Heel

THE ONLY COLLEGE DAILY IN THE SOUTHEAST

NEWS:

- Hodgson to Speak
- Debate Tryouts
- Experimental Plays

VOLUME LV

United Press

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 1947

NUMBER 114

NEWS BRIEFS

British Order To Be Scorned, State Sources

Ultimatum Demands Jewish Cooperation

Palestine, Feb. 3 — (UP) — Informed sources believe the National Council of Palestine Jews will reject the British ultimatum to cooperate in rounding up terrorists within seven days or accept martial law and a ruthless campaign to stamp out underground groups.

Ultimatum Unprecedented
The unprecedented ultimatum was handed to the Jewish agency today by the British High Commissioner Sir Alan Cunningham. It came as thousands of British civilians were being evacuated from Palestine and military authorities rushed every preparation to put the Holy Land under army rule.

Authorities also announced that the hanging of Dov Gruner, key figure in the underground crisis, would not take place for several weeks. Informed sources say the postponement was made to give the British time to prepare for any reprisals by the underground.

Committee Approves Amendment Resolution

Washington, Feb. 3 — (UP) — A House judiciary sub-committee has approved a resolution to amend the Constitution to put a two-term limit on Presidents. It is hoped the full judiciary committee will act on the resolution tomorrow so that the proposal can be brought to a House vote this week.

Baruch Is Disturbed Over Secrecy of Atom

Washington, Feb. 3 — (UP) — Elder Statesman Bernard Baruch told a congressional committee that he is deeply disturbed over leaks of atomic secrets. He also said he is astounded that Congress passed a law keeping military men off the Federal Atomic commission.

Leak of Atom Secrets Said to Be in Canada

Ottawa, Feb. 3 — (UP) — A Canadian government official who wants his name withheld says it's true that atomic energy secrets may be leaking through Canadian government channels to Russia. Asked about a statement by American Statesman Bernard Baruch, the official said, "some persons suspected of being members of the Russian spy ring, but never brought to trial, still are working for the government."

Negroes Not to Speak At Georgia Hearings

Atlanta, Feb. 3 — (UP) — The Georgia State Senate judiciary committee has voted against letting Negroes speak during public hearings this week on a white primary bill. The group decided that anyone not white will have to submit testimony in writing.

Sole Alaska Hospital Destroyed by Flames

Valdez, Alaska, Feb. 3 — (UP) — Flames fanned by high winds have swept through Valdez, Alaska's only hospital. First reports say that no one was killed and that the patients have been removed to the hospital at Cordova—90 miles away.

Hesse Crown Jewels Arrive in Washington

Washington, Feb. 3 — (UP) — An airplane carrying the $1,500,000 Hesse crown jewels has arrived at Washington. The jewels will be used as evidence in the court martial of Colonel Jack Durant. Durant is expected to arrive in Washington from Germany tonight.

WEATHER TODAY
Fair and much colder.

Open Debate Squad Tryouts Set

MAURICE BRASWELL

Braswell Announces Competition to Be Held In Di Hall Tonight; First Meet Is Friday

Tryouts for the University debate team, open to the campus, will be held tonight at 7 o'clock in the Di Senate hall, Maurice Braswell, president of the debate council, said. In preparation for the debate with North Georgia college to be held in Hill hall Saturday evening, Braswell said that all prospective debaters should be prepared to present their views on the topic: Resolved, that labor should have a direct share in the management of industry. This is the National Collegiate debate topic for the year, Braswell explained, and will be used in all debates in which the Tar Heel squad will participate.

Radio News Tryouts

Braswell stated that tryouts for radio news will consist of reading selections from newspapers and wire reports. For the impromptu and extemporaneous speaking tryouts, topics familiar to the student body will be picked and time will be allowed for candidates to assemble their ideas.

In the line of dramatic reading, declamation, and poetry reading, candidates should bring and present their own selections.

Braswell will be in charge of the tryouts, assisted by debate council members Cleo Jones, Al Lowenstein, Bill Miller, Charlie Borton, and Jim Taylor. Dr. F. C. Erickson and Dr. H. M. Oliver, faculty advisers, are also expected to be present.

Bill of Experimental Plays To Be Staged by Playmakers

Drama Group to Present Three One-Act Works Beginning Tomorrow in Playmakers Theatre

Two evening performances of the 114th bill of experimental productions will be given by the Carolina Playmakers, tomorrow and Thursday evenings at 7:30 in the Playmakers theatre. The public is invited to see these three original one-act plays that are produced by dramatic art students under the general supervision of Kai Jurgensen, assistant director on the Playmakers staff.

The first play on the program is a serious drama, "To Them in Darkness," by Charles Brockman and directed by Eleanor Ringer. In the cast are: Mary Jo Cain as Anna Siegel, Mac Shaw as Paul, Quentin Brown as Dr. Ross, Hannah Davis as Hilda, Reggie Kachigian as Marian Wilson. James Byrd is stage manager and scenery is designed by Arthur Solomon.

'Black Piet' by Schenkan

"Black Piet," a tragedy of the Boer War by Robert Schenkan, directed by Winford Logan, is the second production on the bill. In the cast are: Sam Hirsch as Piet, Lillian Prince as Mar'ha, Edsel Hughes as Mac MacGovern, Robert Gutknecht as Ryk, Porter Van Zandt as Bothe, Don Vincent as Paul, Josephine Sharkey as Henriette, Frederick Johnson, Richard Katzin, Colbert Leonard, Frank Echols as soldiers. Setting is by Gordon Bennett, lighting by John Wills and stage manager is Robert Eberle. The last play on the program is "Subway Rhapsody," a fantasy by See EXPERIMENTALS, page 4.

Always at Danziger's, Loves It...

Violet Fidel, Brooklyn's Gift to Carolina, Assumes Role of 'Small Sad Slav' on Campus

By Dave Owens
Violet Fidel bummed a cigarette. "I'd always wanted a nickname all my life and it took UNC to give it to me," she said through a maze of smoke.

It seems that Violet left Brooklyn to enroll at Carolina because of three things. She wanted a mild climate (she didn't know about the rainy seasons), a state university, and study with the Playmakers. When she hit Chapel Hill she found herself rooming with two very southern southern girls just about the time Betty Smith hit paydirt with her botanical marvel.

'Tree' Name Grows

"Well, you can imagine how nerve-wracking it became with southern accents calling 'Vi-o-let' all the time. So, they named me 'Tree' because I grew in Brooklyn, too."

"Tree" ducked her cigarette and went on talking, rapidly, as usual. "I'm always in Danziger's; I love it! If you ever see a small, sad, Slavic person playing very slow, sad, Slavic songs there, it'll be me," she laughed. "It's sort of a habit, I guess—the nearest thing to a home I've ever had."

And most of Violet's friends are Danzigerites, too, but about that she had one strict order: "Don't dare put their names in the Tar Heel. They will have to get their own publicity."

VIOLET FIDEL

Won Koch Scholarship

Although "Tree" thinks of herself as "small, sad and Slavic," you'll find her three and a half inches above five feet with grey eyes and a brown Joan of Arc haircut. She thinks of herself in a serious light as far as writing is concerned, and that others agree with her is evidenced by the fact that she was awarded the Koch Playwriting scholarship last year. In the next book of folk plays pub-

Hodgson to Air Charges Against Giduz Tonight

Humorist to Accuse DTH Managing Editor On Several Counts at Meeting of Phi

By Sam Whitehall

Charges of discrimination, partisanship, and misuse of student funds will be made against Daily Tar Heel Managing Editor Roland Giduz tonight by humor writer Tookie Hodgson in the Phi hall, beginning at 7 o'clock. The meeting will be open to all students and the floor will be open for all speeches and comments. Phi Sergeant-at-Arms Les Sneed will enforce parliamentary procedure.

The current campus controversy has been raging for several weeks. Many issues of student government and publications have entered the picture, which becomes more muddled daily.

Hodgson stated yesterday that he plans to read excerpts from editorials, "prove their falsity and partisanship" and also to "recount the sub rosa financial activities of certain DTH editors."

"I invite all students to be present," Hodgson said.

Statement from Woestendiek
DTH Editor Bill Woestendiek issued a brief but emphatic statement, saying:

"The whole thing makes me sick. Hodgson makes all these charges and then has the nerve to come up to my office and tell me I'm not invited! It's all absurd, but if Hodgson wants to criticize the DTH, he'll have to argue with me."

CCC to Meet Tonight To Conduct Elections

The Carolina Conservative club will meet tonight at 8 o'clock in Roland Parker Lounge, Graham Memorial for the election of new officers.

Positions to be filled are president, first vice-president, second vice-president, treasurer, and secretary. All members and others interested are urged to attend.

CLASS RINGS FOR SALE

Class rings will be sold today in the YMCA lobby between the hours of 9-1 and 2-5, under the auspices of the Grail.

Herbert Aptheker to Speak In Gerrard Hall Thursday

Dr. Herbert Aptheker, well-known historian, scholar, and writer will speak in Gerrard hall Thursday evening at 8 o'clock on the subject of "The Negro in American History." Speaking under the co-sponsorship of the local chapter of the Southern Conference for Human Welfare, the Carolina Political union, and the Wesley foundation, Dr. Aptheker's talk promises to be highly informative for all those interested in Negro life and history. He belongs to the new school of white historians who have interested themselves in the history of the Negro, and which hopes to correct the multitude of erroneous concepts which prevail in American thinking on the Negro question.

Nationwide Reputation

At the present time he is a member of the graduate faculty at Columbia university and a Guggenheim fellow in history and has gained reputation throughout the nation as a student and teacher of Negro history.

During the war, as one of the few white commanders of Negro troops, Dr. Aptheker was afforded the opportunity to study and observe Negroes who helped in the making of current history. He is well-known as one of the outstanding speakers on this vital subject and has impressed a wide number of audiences throughout the nation with his lectures.

UVA Will Entertain Spencer Hall Coeds

Residents of Spencer dormitory will be guests at tomorrow evening's UVA open house, Roy Moose, president, stated yesterday.

Music, a floorshow, and cigarettes will be part of the entertainment.

Moose announced that the escort committee will call at Spencer for the coeds and squire them to the clubhouse. All veterans are invited to attend.