

EDITORIAL:

- The Clarity of Books
- Best Mag of Year
- It Happens Here

The Daily Tar Heel

—THE ONLY COLLEGE DAILY IN THE SOUTHEAST—

VOLUME LV

United Press

CHAPEL HILL, N. C. WEDNESDAY, MARCH 26, 1947

NEWS:

- SP Nominations
- Medical School
- Coal Mine Blast

NUMBER 147

NEWS BRIEFS

Big Explosion Traps 135 Men In Coal Mine

Centralia, Ill., March 25—(UP)—A tremendous explosion rocked a coal mine late today and it is believed that 135 men may be trapped inside. The men at first were cut off from the outside world by broken wires. But three hours after the blast a telephone line was repaired and it was learned that some of the men at least still are alive. Only one body reportedly has been removed from the mine. Most of the available information has come from the Centralia radio station (WCNT), which reports that rescue squads have brought out three miners, one of them seriously injured. And the radio station is issuing appeals for doctors, nurses and ambulances.

Parisians Denounce U. S. Help for Greece

Paris, March 25—(UP)—Some 200-thousand Parisians quit work two hours early today and joined in a mass demonstration against American aid to Greece. The demonstration denounced President Truman's program as imperialistic—and tinged with fascism.

Marshall Wants Pledge From German People

Moscow, March 25—(UP)—Secretary of State Marshall has proposed that the whole German people be made responsible for fulfillment of the German Peace Treaty. He suggested that a pledge be incorporated in the Constitution ultimately submitted for Germany's approval requiring the people to abide by the treaty's provisions.

Senator Doubts Reds' Joining Refugee Group

Washington, March 25—(UP)—Senate President Arthur Vandenberg says it is "fantastic" to think Russia will join the International refugee organization. The Soviets, he claims, would never accept the principle that refugees, and we quote, "should not be used as pawns to suit the state."

Lane Resigns Position As Polish Ambassador

Washington, March 25—(UP)—Arthur Bliss Lane resigned today as Ambassador to Poland. He says he has resigned to speak and write openly—regarding what he calls the present tragedy of Poland.

AT and T Rejects Union Plan for Bargaining

New York, March 25—(UP)—The American Telephone and Telegraph Company has rejected a union request for industry-wide bargaining to head off a national strike threatened for April 7.

The A T and T reply was sent to Joseph Beirne, President of the National Federation of Telephone workers, who immediately accused the company of "passing the buck."

Labor Department Gets House Appropriation

Washington, March 25—(UP)—The House tonight, after angry debate, voted to appropriate some one billion 580 million dollars for the labor department and the federal security agency for fiscal 1948. But it refused to provide a penny for the salaries of labor conciliation director Edgar L. Warren and 101 of his aids.

Soviets Say Greece Violated Regulations

Lake Success, March 25—(UP)—The Soviets have complained to the UN that the Greek government violated security council regulations in its treatment of Russian delegates on the UN Balkans investigating commission.

WEATHER TODAY

Fair and warmer in afternoon.

Margaret Leinbach Kolb, instructor in the University music department, will present a recital in Hill hall this evening at 8:30.

The first part of the program will include "Toccata in G Major," by Bach; "Sonata in D Major," by Beethoven; Variations on the Name "Abegg," by Schumann; and Chopin's "Scherzo in B Minor."

Following intermission, Mrs. Kolb will play two compositions by Brahms, "Ballade in D Minor," and "Capriccio in C Major;" "Three Preludes," by Debussy; "Preludes," Op. 34, Nos. 15, 21, 20, by Shostakovich; "The Lover and The Nightingale," by Granados; and "Toccata," by Khachaturian.

Graham Memorial To Sponsor Comedy Saturday, Sunday

Graham Memorial will present the third in a series of productions by the Laboratory theatre of the Carolina Playmakers with three performances during the coming weekend. Moliere's "The Imaginary Invalid" will be presented free of charge in the main lounge of Graham Memorial at 8:30 Saturday evening and 7 and 9 o'clock Sunday evening. Townspeople as well as students and faculty are invited.

The leading role in the farce will be taken by Buddy Westover, senior from Merchantsville, New Jersey. Playing the part of an imaginary invalid, Buddy will be reacting the role which Moliere wrote for his own acting ability.

Lynn Leonard, queen of Carolina comedy, is co-directing the production along with David Hooks, Smithfield graduate student. Very active in dramatics in Detroit, her home town, Lynn is also enacting the role of Toi, the out-spoken maid of the imaginary invalid's family. Hooks will also be seen in the part of Thomas Dia.

Lois Warnshuis, Staten Island graduate student in dramatic art, is to be seen as Beline, double-crossing mate of the invalid. Barbara Bramble and Mac Shaw handle the romantic interests while Harry Thomas, Henrietta Cooper, Art Solomon, Francis Olds, Jim Riley and Marty Jacobs will be seen in other parts.

"The Imaginary Invalid" is the third production attempted by the Laboratory group, the first two, "Pierre Pathelin" and "Aria da Capo" scoring successes with campus audiences.

UVA to Entertain At Party Tonight

The University Veterans association will welcome the coeds of McIver dormitory this evening at 8:30 as it resumes its popular policy of entertaining coeds according to sorority or dormitory, in the UVA clubhouse.

So successful were efforts in this line last quarter that weekly open houses for different coed groups have been planned for the remaining 10 weeks of school. Better-than-average talent is being sought by UVA planners to brighten the parties, and arrangements for receiving free cigarettes are being completed with a large cigarette company.

SENIOR INVITATIONS

Seniors who have not placed their order for invitations may do so at the booth now open in the Y from 9 to 1 and 2 to 5 each day until Friday. Members of the Order of the Grail, sponsor of the invitations, stated that this will absolutely be the last chance for seniors to order their invitations.

Student Party Names Tookie Hodgson For Editorship Of Carolina Magazine

Four-Year Medical School Passes House

By Ed Joyner

The 48-million dollar permanent improvements bill, which includes provisions for a four-year medical school and teaching hospital in Chapel Hill, passed the House of Representatives yesterday afternoon without a dissenting vote.

Blocked temporarily by opponents to the proposed location of the medical school here, the bill was approved unanimously after three amendments pertaining to the school were defeated.

The defeated amendments would have: located the school and hospital in Asheville; prevented establishment of the school until local health centers and hospitals had been provided; allocated funds for a large regional hospital in Buncombe.

Of the 48-million dollar appropriation $7,844,800 is designated for permanent improvement of the Greater University, of which $3,790,000 is earmarked for erection of the medical school and teaching hospital. Another $1,500,000 for the school is expected from federal funds under the Hill-Burton Act, bringing to a total of $5,290,000 the amount available for the project.

Solons Vote $7,844,800 for Improvements Of Greater University of North Carolina

The University appropriations bill was reported favorably to the legislature last Tuesday by the joint appropriations committee of the House and Senate, and no opposition is expected when the House approved bill comes up before the Senate for final approval.

Coeds to Hold Mass Meeting To Nominate Senate Speaker

Women Will Name Candidates for Positions In WAA at Convention Tomorrow Afternoon

Nominations for Speaker of the Coed senate, president, vice-president, and secretary-treasurer of the Woman's Athletic association will be made at a mass coed meeting tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock in Gerrard hall. Although the meeting will be a Coed senate session, the business will be turned over to nominations.

The election of the officers nominated will be held 10 days following the nominations.

The Woman's Athletic council has prepared a slate of officers to be presented at Thursday's meeting, however, nominations will be welcomed from the floor.

Present Speaker of the Coed Senate, Sybil Gerch Powe, suggests that no coeds be presented as a candidate who are already overloaded with extra-curricular activities.

It may be necessary at the meeting to hold a run-off to reduce the number of nominees to three persons per office. For this reason, Jerry Atkinson, chairman of the Senate Elections committee, urges all coeds attend the meeting.

Jeanne Driscoll, president of the Woman's Athletic association, asks all coeds to take into consideration the coeds who have had some experience in the fields to which they are nominated for WAA offices.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON

All stray Greek members of Sigma Phi Epsilon are requested to call brother Frank Ruck at 5786 today before 5 o'clock.

Novel by UNC Student, 'Another Man's Poison' Will Be Released Soon

Hugh Holman, graduate student at the University relaxes from the grind of scholarly research by writing mystery novels. His fourth published detective story, "Another Man's Poison," will be issued by the M. S. Mill company of New York on March 26.

Holman began the series, which features the genial sleuth, Sheriff Macready, while serving as Dean of Presbyterian college at Clinton, South Carolina. He is at present on leave of absence from that institution.

Aside from mysteries, he has written and directed over 200 radio plays, has been editor of the Jacobs Press in Clinton and state publicity director of the South Carolina Council for National Defense. During the war, he was a physics instructor with the Army Air forces.

At Chapel Hill he is now busy with his Ph.D. thesis, the subject: "Detective Plays of the Nineteenth Century."

Gets A Kick Out of the Kids...

'Three Little Pigs' Takes Place of Texts When Coeds Try Their Hand at Baby-Sitting

By Tommie Cates

Putting aside her parasitology manual, Eleanor Highsmith, one of the baby-sitters sponsored by the University YWCA, picked up a copy of the latest issue of a "Three Little Pigs" picture book and watched as three-year-old Claudia Walker pointed out the pictures to her six-month-old sister, Shirley, both daughters of C. P. Walker, living in trailer 84 of the Pittsboro road trailer camp.

Eleanor, a senior from Wilmington, is one of the members of the social service committee of the YWCA which recently planned the baby-sitting aid for young-married couples.

Gets a Kick

"I get a big kick out of staying with the kids," Eleanor said as she told how appreciative the couples were in having the service. "They tell me to make myself at home and that any food I can find is all mine, including the soft drinks they usually leave on ice for me."

The aid was an outgrowth of a YWCA cabinet meeting last October after there had been so many requests for the service by the young married veterans with children. The baby-sitters are contacted through the Y, where their names and telephone numbers are listed under the nights they are available. Services of the group are without charge; however, the taxi fare is paid by the couples if the distance from the veteran's Eleanor Highsmith demonstrates with Shirley (right) and Claudia Walker (left) the technique she employs in keeping the kiddies quiet while Mr. and Mrs. Walker spend an evening away from home. Eleanor is just one of the many coeds on campus who donate some of their time for baby-sitting—an activity sponsored by the social service committee of the YWCA. (Photo courtesy of the Greensboro Daily News).

home necessitates a ride. "I find that most of the children are well-trained and most interest-

Jack Fitch Gets Party's Backing For CAA Post

By Ed Joyner

Meeting in a nominating session yesterday afternoon the Student party named Matt "Tookie" Hodgson, Publications board member and former Daily Tar Heel humor columnist, as its nominee for editor of the Carolina Magazine in the spring elections.

Hodgson, who recently gained approval from the Publications board, to act as guest editor of a humor edition of the Carolina Magazine in May, defeated Fred Jacobson, present editor of the Mag and only other candidate for the SP nomination.

Fitch for CAA

In the same meeting the SP nominated Jack Fitch, flashy Tar Heel wingback, for president of the Carolina Athletic association, with Monk Whiteheart, head of the baseball mound staff, to run for the vice-presidency.

Other nominations placed Sarah Buchanan, Mady Jo Parrish, and Jo Fitch on the SP ticket as senior candidates for the Women's council. Nomination of representatives-at-large to the Council will be made later.

At the close of the meeting Bill Wood, Student party chairman, announced that the SP platform committee headed by Basil Sherrill, is whipping the party's platform into shape and will make a public statement on Friday.

Meet Tomorrow

Wood, also announced that the next meeting of the Student party will be held tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Roland Parker lounge of Graham Memorial and more nominations will be made at that time. Wood said that tentative plans are being drawn up for an SP social function to take place in the near future.

The Student party ticket for the spring elections now includes Tom Eller for president, Don Shropshire for vice-president, Joe Byrd for secretary-treasurer, and Barron Mills for Daily Tar Heel editor.

Scholarship Bids Received by UNC

A number of applications have been received for the Herbert Worth Jackson scholarship which is to be awarded again by the University this spring.

The scholarship is valued at $500 a year for a period of four years and is awarded to a North Carolina student on the basis of scholastic achievement, qualities of leadership and promise of future distinction.

Applications for the scholarship should be submitted to the Herbert Worth Jackson Scholarship committee on or before April 15. Each high school may nominate one candidate from its senior class.

Previous holders of the scholarship are Nelson Ferebee Taylor, Oxford; John Meredith Simms, Raleigh; William McNeely, Greensboro; and Charles Gordon Britt, Goldsboro.

The original Jackson scholarship was endowed in 1938 by the late Mrs. Annie E. Jackson of Richmond, Va., as a memorial to her husband, a University graduate of the class of 1886 and for 27 years president of the Virginia Trust company, who died in 1936. The present scholarship was endowed by the three children of Mr. and Mrs. Jackson.

Today Is Last Chance To Register for Term

Today is the last day that changes may be made in registration for courses for the Spring quarter. It is necessary that students who expect to make any change in their class schedule see their dean or adviser today.