N.C. Governor Blasts Action Of Mask Mob

Issues Statement On Jackson Case

Raleigh, May 23—(UP)—Governor Cherry has issued a strong statement of denunciation of the mob action at Jackson where masked white men broke in the county jail and seized Buddy Bush, young negro prisoner.

Cherry said, "North Carolina will not tolerate lynchings and mob violence."

The governor stated that he had ordered the state bureau of investigation to spare no effort in bringing the mobsters to justice.

Meanwhile, authorities have guessed that Bush was lynched and that his body is floating somewhere in the Roanoke river.

Conference Committee Agrees on Labor Bill

Washington, May 23—(UP)—A Senate-House conference has agreed that emergency labor legislation is needed before July 1 in the event of a coal strike at that time. Some parts of the proposed bills as they now stand would become effective too late to cope with such a walkout.

Faculty Club Requests Razing Of Wooden Barracks Building

At a meeting of the Faculty club it was resolved that the two-story wooden barracks structure in back of New East be razed.

One of the many of temporary buildings being erected about the campus this year, the clapboard shack has been objected to by the professors "because of its bad appearance."

The resolution has been presented to the administration, but what South building officialdom will do about it still remains a moot question.

Biggest bone of contention is what FPHA authorities in Atlanta will say about the plan. The building was part of 2 emergency structures given to the University to be used as temporary classroom space.

Yackety Yacks to Be Issued Tuesday in Graham Memorial

Lady Macbeth (played by Marion Fitz-Simons) in the sleep-walking scene from the Carolina Play-makers' outdoor production of "Macbeth," now playing in the Forest Theatre, 8:30, through tomorrow evening.

Students Must Bring Identification Cards

By Bookie Jabine

Gene Johnstone, editor of this year's white-bound Yackety Yack, announced yesterday that a limited supply of books will arrive Tuesday and distribution will begin that afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Baby lounge of Graham Memorial.

Since the shipment is expected to number only 2,000, Editor Johnstone requested that all students who will be in summer school this year not pick up their annuals Tuesday. Additional books will arrive the following week.

"All students must bring their identification cards in order to secure their Yack," Johnstone stated.

He further emphasized, "No person may pick up a Yack for any other student."

The 1946-47 Yackety Yack is dedicated to the gridiron Tar Heels who carried the football fortunes of the University from Baltimore to New Orleans. Johnstone explained that the editors felt that "this year we could dedicate our work to a group representing the return of normalcy at the University."

Following custom, two pages of the book are given to outstanding professors here. Johnstone indicated that they were chosen because of their "popularity among the students."

For the first time since 1942, individual pictures of seniors, juniors, sophomores, and freshmen have been published.

Aside from this energetic undertaking, twelve pages are filled with a photographic review of important campus functions during the school year.

Marshall to Be Fishery Head

Dr. Nelson Marshall, associate professor in the Zoology department, has been appointed Director of the Virginia Fisheries laboratory, sponsored jointly by the College of William and Mary and the Commission of Fisheries in Virginia. He will assume his new duties next month.

The Laboratory, which carries on fisheries research and educational activities, is located with a field laboratory at Yorktown and has offices on the campus at William and Mary.

Dr. Marshall, as director, will have the rank of full professor on the faculty of the college, and will teach several courses in marine biological sciences.

Dr. Marshall received his B. S. degree at Rollins college, his M. S. at Ohio State and his Ph.D. at the University of Florida. From 1941 to 1944 he was assistant professor at the University of Connecticut and during the summers of 1943 and 1944 he was a research fellow at the Woods Hole Oceanographic institution. In 1945-46 he was fisheries biologist at the University of Miami Marine laboratory.

At a recent meeting of the North Carolina Academy of Science, Dr. Marshall presented two papers on work being done here at the University.

Absent Lawmakers Will Name Proxies For Summer Term

At Thursday evening's session of the Student Legislature, it was decided that lawmakers who do not expect to attend summer school will appoint proxies to serve in the assembly.

Introduced by Charlie Long, the bill provides that if legislators do not name their own substitutes, the Speaker will.

This will mark the first time since last summer that the use of proxies has been legal in the lawmaking body.

To Face Firing Line

Legislature Will Consider Presidential Appointments

By Ed Joyner

Appointments to six boards and committees submitted by student body President Tom Eller to the first meeting of the new Student Legislature Thursday night will be acted upon in a special meeting of the assembly early next week.

The special session has been tentatively set for Tuesday evening.

"I don't expect to have opposition to more than two or three of the appointments," Eller said yesterday. "I have tried to represent all parties adequately on the committees, and it has been my policy not to name to a committee any student who is already overworked."

Ten-Man Slate

The ten-man slate of the Orientation and Indoctrination committees submitted to the Legislature by Eller contained the names of John Clappitt, Chairman; Jess Dedmond, Harry Snowden, Marriote Stewart, Marvin Hogan, Walt Arnold, Mimi Massey, Caroline Warren, Emile Saleeby, and Bob Dulin.

Five other unofficial members to this committee—who will not have to be confirmed by the Legislature—are Bill Patterson, Blanton Miller, George Kenyon, Charlie Berman, Larry Berry, Sara Buchanan, and Fran Golden.

Shropshire Heads Elections

Don Shropshire was named by Eller to head the elections board. Although absent from school at present due to illness, Shropshire will return next fall and assume his duties. Al Winn will serve as acting chairman until Shropshire's return.

Besides Shropshire and Winn, the Elections board will consist of B. J. Strong, W. B. O'Neal, John York, Bill Feuss, Chick Slack, Bill Sexton, Ralph Sherrill, and Pete Beaudary. To the Student Audit board Eller named Monroe Landreth as chairman, with Dick Culberson, Jack Swanner, Ralph Hodges, and Roy Moose.

Daniels Automatically

On the Budget committee Sam Daniels will automatically serve as chairman under the Constitutional provision that the Secretary-Treasurer of the student body shall also be chairman of the Budget committee. Along with Daniels on the committee will be Jim Vogler, John Surratt, Wayne Johnson, Jim Lilly, Martha Whitaker, Mary Swann, Charles Britt, Jim Deane, Tom Smith, and Chuck Barton.

Last committee appointments facing consideration by the Legislature are those to the Student Entertainment committee. This has John Martin as chairman and is made up of Coline Smith, Billy Carmichael, and Blanton Miller.

Following his appointments Eller stated, "If any member of the student body or faculty has serious opposition to any of the appointments submitted, he should make this known to a member of the legislature who will be able to bring it out at the meeting of the group Tuesday, at which time the appointments are to be confirmed."

Graduates May Obtain Grades During Commencement Period

Students who expect to receive degrees on June 9 may learn their spring quarter grades as soon as the instructors have reported them to the Central Records office by inquiring at 302 South building between the hours of 9 to 12:30 p.m. and 2 to 4 p.m. during the examination and Commencement week.

Students receiving academic degrees are again reminded that they will receive blank dummy diplomas at the Commencement exercises and the sheepskin diploma will be mailed to them as soon as it is received. However, degree candidates now enrolled in school must be present at Commencement unless excused by their Dean.

Candidates should be certain that all academic requirements have been met, required courses passed, and incompletes, and E's all removed.

Alumni Files Are UNC 'Family Bible'

Full Address List Maintained at Inn

Files of the Alumni Office, located in the Carolina Inn, may well be called the "family Bible" record about alumni of the University of North Carolina.

In the Alumni Office are kept address lists, class lists, biographical folders and other data about former students of Chapel Hill. The lists afford a connection link between the University and its alumni. Every former student—whether graduated or not—has his or her name and address on an addressograph mailing stencil maintained in the Office. The list is frequently used for purpose of mailings, meetings, reunions, and the like.

Letters to 15 Classes

Last week, for instance, letters were mailed from Chapel Hill to members of 15 classes, giving information about plans for reunions at Commencement, June 7, 8 and 9; the reunion classes are Old Students club, (members of classes graduated more than 50 years, '97, '03, '04, '05, '06, '22, '23, '24, '25, '37, '41, '42, '43, '44, and '46).

Another use of the Alumni Office mailing list is in connection with alumni priority in ordering football tickets for next fall's games. This week the Athletic Association is mailing sets of "alumni priority" order forms to 33,950 alumni as that many alumni have known addresses on file in the Office.

Receive Review

Dues-paying members of the Alumni Association receive as part of their membership benefits copies of "The Alumni Review" issued as a monthly magazine ten times a year and weekly during the fall as special reports of the varsity football games. The "alumni priority" order forms have been addressed to all alumni, not just those who are dues-paying members of the Association. On the other hand the "Alumni Review" is mailed to those who pay dues.

Annual dues are three dollars, however, for members of the present senior class dues are set at one dollar as a special inducement to new alumni during their first post-college year. Both graduates and those who do not receive degrees are eligible for membership.

Veterans Warned About Insurance Transfer Plans

Veterans in school under the Servicemen's Readjustment act (G. I. Bill) who plan to transfer to another out-of-state school at the end of this semester should make sure their future National Service Life Insurance payments are mailed to the proper Veterans Administration insurance office, VA said.

If an ex-G. I. moves to another section of the country, his insurance records will be transferred to the VA branch office having jurisdiction over his new place of residence. Before he moves, he should inform the present VA branch insurance office of his change of address, listing both his old and new address and including his policy number and full name.

A veteran can learn the location of the VA branch office serving the area to which he intends to move from the nearest VA office.

Group to Sponsor Smith Scholarship In Commerce School

The Marvin B. Smith, Jr., Memorial scholarship, valued at $350 a year for four years, will be awarded again this year to a North Carolina high school student entering the University commerce school next fall, it was announced today.

Applications have already been received by the University Scholarship committee and the winner will be announced soon after June 1.

The Smith Scholarship was established at the University by Mr. and Mrs. Marvin B. Smith, Sr., of Burlington, in memory of their son, who was graduated in the class of '26 and who had made a fine reputation as a business leader. He was president of the Library Hosiery Mills at the time of his death in 1943.

The first award was made last spring to Hugh McArver of Gastonia. The first provision was made for a four-year scholarship of $300 a year to the deserving high school student who planned to educate himself for a business career. This year Mr. and Mrs. Smith raised the scholarship to $350 a year.

The award is based on "1. ability, as indicated by a good scholastic record which ranks the winner in the upper fourth of his class; 2. character, as attested by recommendations of at least two citizens of standing in his community; and 3. need, as demonstrated by the necessity of the student having to earn part of the cost of his education."

Grumman Goes Home After Hospital Stay

Russell M. Grumman, head of the University's Extension division, who suffered a severe concussion in an automobile accident in Virginia May 9, has returned to his home here from a Fredericksburg hospital.

"He seems to be recuperating nicely," said Charles Milner, who is directing the Division's activities in Grumman's absence. "But he isn't able to receive many visitors yet, and we don't know when he will be able to return to his post."
