Bill To Increase GI Subsistence Passes House, Goes To Truman

On-the-Job Pay Also Increased By Approved Bill

Washington, Feb. 3.—(UP)—The House of Representatives voted today to increase living allowances for veterans in schools and colleges, after the Senate had already passed the bill.

The bill, which now goes directly to the White House for President Truman's signature, provides for single veterans to get a subsistence raise from $65 per month to $75 per month.

Married veterans who are now getting $90 per month are to receive a boost to as much as $120 in some cases. The bill passed the House by a vote of 370 to 6.

The House also voted higher benefits to veterans taking on-the-job training. At present the ex-G. I.'s can make only up to $200 per month while working. The new bill would permit them to make up to $350 per month.

The Senate has passed a similar bill, but the minor differences must be worked out by a conference committee.

The bills were brought to the floor by Representative Edith Nourse Rogers of Massachusetts who moved this afternoon to suspend regular procedures to consider the measure.

Civil Rights

Washington, Feb. 3.—(UP)—Democrats are up in arms over President Truman's new Civil Rights Program.

The latest moves in a day-long series of angry Southern protests against Mr. Truman's appeal for racial equality come from Democratic Senator John Overton of Louisiana and Democratic Congressman Thomas Abernethy of Mississippi.

Overton suggests that Southerners might adopt a plan of voting Democratic in local elections. Overton adds that Southerners might support Republicans or what he calls "a Southern Democratic party of our own" in Presidential elections.

Representative Abernethy proposed in a telegram to Mississippi Governor Fielding Wright that all Southern Governors join in demanding a showdown with National Democratic leaders in Washington.

Di Senate Will Hold Discussion On Frat Rushing

By Charlie Gibson

A bill that would prohibit fraternity rushing until the students concerned have had at least one quarter in residence at the University will be the subject for debate tonight when the Dialectic Senate meets in the Di hall, third floor, New West, at 9 o'clock.

Co-authored by Senators Charlie Long and Al Lowenstein, the bill for Di consideration tonight, cites confusion which the current method of fraternity rushing incurs. Increased enrollment, the bill says, makes getting settled on campus a sufficient problem within itself. Additional chaos is now brought on by fraternities' rushing new students who have not had time to become adjusted here.

The bill insists that new students make mistakes in one of the most important steps in a college career when they pledge a social fraternity hurriedly. Students, especially freshmen, are often not on campus long enough to become acquainted with the many fraternities here before making their one binding choice. Such lack of foreknowledge leads to frequent errors on the part of both individuals and fraternities.

The resolutions of the Long-Lowenstein measure are as follows: (1) The Student Legislature of the University of North Carolina, in conjunction with the Interfraternity council, shall set up new rules to control rushing.

(2) These rules shall include a provision that a student must have been in residence at the University of North Carolina at least one academic quarter before he can be rushed by a fraternity.

(3) Upon enactment of this bill by the Legislature all rules regarding silence periods shall immediately become effective.

"(4) The action of the Senate on this bill shall be transmitted by the clerk to the Speaker of the Legislature, the chairman of the Interfraternity council, and the presidents of the fraternities at this University."

All Senators and interested University students are urged to attend the meeting tonight and to participate in the discussion from the floor as freely as they choose.

Mike Rubish, varsity football player, has been nominated for president of the Student Party, it was announced yesterday. His running mates are Herman Baker and Gran Childress.

The announcement came yesterday from Student party spokesmen, completing the three party slates of candidates for the major campus office. Last week both the University and the Campus parties endorsed Jess Dedmond, former CP chairman, for the race.

Running mates for Rubish were also announced yesterday by SP officials when Herman Baker, junior commerce major from Nashville, accepted nomination to run for the office of student body vice-president. Gran Childress, present SP chairman, became the party's candidate for the dual office of secretary and treasurer.

Degree Next Year

Rubish, who will receive his degree in physical education next year, has played varsity football for three years. He is described by DTH Sports editor Billy Carmichael as "a good offensive end, and a stellar pass receiver." He is a member of the Monogram club. His organizational abilities, according to SP officials, have helped the Monogram club become one of the most active and constructive organizations on the campus.

Issues of Merit

"With my running mate, Herman Baker, I will work to give students the best student government we have had since its organization here. As my own platform will show, I will strive to advance issues of merit to the whole student body."

Baker, candidate for vice-president, is former Regional Chairman and Executive committee member of the National Students association. On President Tom Eiler's coalition cabinet, Baker has served for two years in the Student Legislature. During that time he did extensive work in the Rules committee.

Senior Class Will Present Memorial Hall Show Featuring Frances Johnson, Roy Cole's Music

The music of Roy Cole and his orchestra, the interpretative dancing of Frances Johnson, football movies and songs by the Sigma Chi septet—these are the ingredients of a mammoth entertainment program to be sponsored by the senior class Monday night in Memorial hall.

Benson McCutcheon, senior president, announced yesterday that Monday night's curtain will rise at 8 o'clock on the entertainment show which features both professional and campus talent. A senior class business meeting will follow the program. Organized by a senior class entertainment committee headed by Cattie Holt and Jim McCormick, the program is designed to bring together the class for one of the final times before graduation of members in March and June.

Heading the list of entertainers is Frances Johnson, who appears through the courtesy of the North Carolina Entertainment bureau. Miss Johnson comes from California where she was the featured dancer of the Bredon-Savoy Light Opera company of San Francisco. Previously she appeared with the San Francisco ballet, the Pacific Opera company and the Mt. Tamalpais ballet. After coming to North Carolina directly from an eight weeks' engagement in Hollywood, she spent the summer as a dancer in Paul Green's symphonic drama, "The Lost Colony."

Miss Johnson studied with several members of the Spanish dancing family, the Casines. It was under the guidance of Elisa Cansine that Miss Johnson made her first public appearance in San Francisco several years ago.

In Monday night's performance she will present interpretations of two popular songs, "Balserina," and "Golden Earrings." Music for the program will be furnished by Roy Cole, campus bandleader, and his orchestra. Cole, a senior, is a native of Forest City. Featured vocalist with his group is sax-player and vocalist George Demas.

Football movies will be presented, but the name of the game is unannounced as yet.
